1. Traffic in the new lists

Welcome to the list!

I know some of you are wondering, 'well, I signed up, where is everyone?'

Well, as the list manager, I can tell you a lot of people have signed up, but no one is talking yet. I was expecting this. Everyone is always shy, afraid to say the wrong thing. Well, get over it! Go ahead and start a message, mention something, and lets get some good threads going.

OneList is fairly new. So far, it looks good, but I start to wonder if there will be more lists than users! I'm sure everything will work out. But, the quality of the list is not how many are on it, it's about what they're saying. It may take a couple months to get a steady flow of messages going.

Please pass the word about this list to your friends, co-workers, anyone that might be interested in the topic.

If at all possible, please post an answer or response to the list. That question you're answering might be on the minds of a few people. Let's all learn from it.

I hope we can all start learning real soon.

Ray Vaughan, List Manager.

It's about time for another message from the manager...

These lists are growing, slowly. I ask you to please stick around. Things will get busy once OneList catches on. Right now I know many of you are too shy to say something... you're waiting for someone else to start a thread. Well, get over it! Start a message. Give us an opinion releated (even slightly) to the list's subject. I'm sure someone will repsond, and that will get the flow going.

So, who's going to break the ice?

Ray Vaughan, List Manager.

Jimminy Christmas, Ray, you're into more Listserv's than _I_ am! (And I still deleted out at least half of the list you had here!)

Anyway, to the rest of you out there, I'm aquainted with Ray from waaaay back when we both lived in Miami. But, we're both interested in ham radio and emergency services and stuff like that. I'm also co-chairman of our local hamfest (Saturday, April 18, Joplin, MO).

Anyone else?

Here's this month's message from your friendly mailing list manager ;)

I really want to thank you all for joining these lists. The number of people on some of these lists is really impressive. Others are still a bit slow to get popular.

But here's the problem: On some of the lists, you're being too quiet! There are a lot of people here that are ready to help, or be helped. All it will take is a few questions to get things going. Please don't be shy. Just jump in and say something! Take a moment to intro yourself and tell us why you're here and what you hope to learn or teach.

Thanks for being a member of these lists. Please pass the word and tell a friend.

Ray, List Manager

I'm looking for some inexpensive used antenna cable with a hollow conductor. I don't care what condition it is in as I plan to use it as an insulated pipe to carry cool air up a tower to cool some equipment. Something like Times Microwave LMR-900 would be great. I need a total of 350' I can splice it as needed.

1. Sanjean ATS-803A - $125

Larger size (like Sony 2010), gull-coverage (150kHz-30MHz), BFO/SSB, digital, tuning knob, 4" speaker, FM w/ stereo on headphones, 9 memories, 24hr clock/alarm/sleep modes, runs on 6 D-cells and 2 AA-cells, comes with shoulder strap, AC power supply, box and manual. Excellent condition! Did the simple mod to eliminate chuffing - hear the DX stations now!

2. Sony ICF-SW-7700 (no, not the SW-77...) - $75

Smaller, world band radio, AM/FM/LW/SW, digital, tuning knob, has large LCD showing tuning bands (like an analog radio) and also shows digital readout of frequency, includes Japanese FM band below 87 Mhz, runs on 4 AA-cells, has power jack, earphone jack, 24hr clock/alarm/sleep modes, 5 memories on each band, comes with nice faux-suede case and manual, no box. Very good condition! This radio makes a nice travel unit or gift for a beginning SWL. Amazingly easy and intuitive to tune and program.

Shipping by UPS or US Priority Mail included. Any questions?

I would like to thank all of you for subscribing to one or more of the lists I moderate on OneList. My apologies if this message reaches you more than once.

Some of these lists have caught on like wild fire, others have yet to get any threads started.

I urge you to start a conversation. State an opinion about the subject. See who agrees. See who disagrees and why. I'm sure everyone will learn something in the process.

A mailing list is only as good as it's participants. If you think things are slow, you're as responsible as anyone for the lack of messages. If you give it a try, I think you'll find that it's very rewarding to be active in a mailing list.

For those of you who have been active, Thanks! For the most part, everyone has been very polite and there's been little if any need for me to get involved. That's great.

If you would like to join some of the other mailing lists I moderate, check out http://www.gate.net/~rvaughan/mailing.htm for descriptions of the lists.

One housekeeping note: Onelist needs to expand the system again. There will be some downtime tonight from 6PM to Midnight Pacific (US) time. No messages will be lost, but they'll be delayed while the changes are being made.

Thanks,

Ray

Since the sysadmin wants some discussion, I'll start something. Hopefully people aren't just on this list to sell ham radios, perhaps you others would like to talk about them as well. I'm new to the hobby which I just got into 3 months ago or so, so I have yet to get a worth while radio or any good books on the subject. To start with, here's some questions that have been boiling on my brain: What is the best quality AM radio? Price? Availability? What is the best quality FM radio? Price? Availability? What is the best AM AND FM radio? Price? Availability? What is a good quality car radio? (AM, FM or both) What is the difference between an AM antenna and an FM antenna? What is the most interesting thing you've heard on the radio? What is wrong with the FCC for taking out the telephone eavesdropper(s) in the newest radios? How do I get 97.1 FM that broadcasts in LA to come in on my radio in San Diego when KSON (97.3) is always cutting into the signal? Why do some AM broadcasters (like KCBQ 1170 in San Diego) take down their amps after dark? Most important for these last three questions; HOW CAN I HEAR TOM LYKIS DOWN IN SAN DIEGO, KCBQ (1170 AM) SHUTS DOWN EVERY NIGHT AND I CAN BARELY HEAR 97.1 FM (BECAUSE OF THE DAMN COUNTRY STATION RIGHT ABOVE IT, 97.3 KSON) Looking forward to hearing from you more experienced hams. It must be solid state and in good operating condition. 160-10 meters, AM/SSB/CW. At least 100W output. I am looking to spend between 200-400US$ including power supply & mike. I am located in located in the Philadelphia area.

A friend has borrowed me his Yeasu-726r and the 70cm module has been hacked for repeater use, not all mode. I don't own the radio, but would like to try it with satellites\weak signal which requires sideband. If you have a module for sale or trade let me know. Please keep in mind that I do not own this rig so I can't demand to be paid for something he did not ask me to buy, and being on Social Security Disability I need to watch my pennies.

Hi,
I have several computers that I have collected/built over time but now having become disabled I need to sell them off to improve my finances. Before I broke my back I was doing upgrades and repairs for Macs and PCs, but I no longer able to do this sort of thing. These systems are complete and functioning. I'm in the EN34/35 grid are a(Mpls/StPaul MN) and prices do not include shipping as monitors can get very expensive to ship. I will gladly barter or trade items or services of interest so go ahead and reply, any offers will be considered.

3 Mac+ computers, all should have 4M ram and have various other goodies to complete the Computer as a system. Each system will include 300-900 discs from when I ran a BBS for nearly a decade and a half.
For video I have 2 enhancements:
I have a 12" TTL monitor and circuit to expand the Mac+ 9" display.
I also have a Xerox Displaywriter Full+ page display with controller - I used this display for typing and desktop publishing and it's a nice and easy on the eyes.
For SCSI I have a couple of external 500M HD's 1 1G and CD-ROM drives, as well as a couple SyQuest 44 and 88M's with carts to complete the systems
Input devices include standard keyboards, numeric keypads, and Datadesk 101key PC-like keyboard, Mice and Kensington Trackball.
My 'big' system some time ago had the 12" and the Xerox displaywriter display, 500M drive, Syquest and a CD-ROM drive a was quite happy doing DTP with PageMaker (I was an original betatester for PM) and Word with a spelling angel checking my spelling as I typed. The system gave me years of good service and for a student or on a budget it's not a speed demon, but very useful. The other suggestion I guess would be that a Mac+ would work great for a packet radio smart terminal.

Macintosh Centris650 68040 w/64 or 128M ram, 1.7G internal HD, Internal SCSI CDROM, 24bit accelerated color card, Photoshop dual CPU effects accelerator with software, ATTO SCSI 3 Interface. I also have an additional Ethernet combo card available. A Thinnet transciever for the builtin Ethernet. I run a 19" greyscale monitor off the internal video (Included with Mac, it's setup to run on it) and was running a NEC Multisync 5D Color off the 24bit video.

I also have an Epson 300C color flatbed scanner with purchased drivers for Macintosh, works Great!

Add for printing I have a Deskwriter 550C with 2 color and 2 Black in carts.

In case you didn't know, all Macs are OKAY with Y2K! 87)

Other Handi-hams/students that could use a Mac+ for packet or other things to make life that much better to live/get/by/enjoy contact me, others have helped me and I will help them. If you have a family member or know a family that will put a Mac+ to good use, contact me directly and I will help.

BabyTower Pentium 200 machine, 128M ram, 256k cache, new 32x CD, 2G HD, dual 1.44 floppies, Zip Drive, 4M Stealth video card, Soundblaster 16 or AWE64 or Ensoniq PCI soundcard, speakers, keyboard, mouse, will sell with 16" Nano monitor. manuals for most everything SuperCharged Packard Bell desktop machine: was 486dx50, top of the crop when I bought it, now it's a pentium 83, 256k of cache, 20M ram, 1M video, internal modern (currently disabled) SB audio, 32x CD, 420M HD, 15" flatscreen monitor, manuals, keyboard, mouse, speakers, all that. I currently use the machine to store and load my ICOM radios.

I do not know what the Market on these machines are, I will entertain all offers and will consider trades such as a TNC, ARPS, etc. dc to daylight scanner/radio/transceiver, vox-very long play cassette recorder such as the ones by Viking, Macintosh or WindowsNT software, repeater controllers, looking for an x/y rotor/controller and satellite radio, Yeasu FT8100 or FT8500, perhaps 2m or 432 ssb radios, new zip/jaz media, or perhaps other things that you could buy with plastic without having the cash around 87) I am NOT looking for ANY HF gear as I do not have my General class tag.

I also need help getting my life in order, filing medical reports, receipts, manuals, etc so if you are an office wizard I desperately need the help.

If you are a Micor Guru and can convert a couple UHF radios or you have some vhf Micors I want to talk to you right away! I will trade big for some converted radios or to convert my UHF rigs in a very big way! I might actually take a converted Mastr Exec II w/manuals.

Forsale:

Diamond CR627NMOB 6m/2m/70cm mobile antenna
Gain: 2.15 db on 6m
4.5 db on 2m
7.2 db on 70cm
Capacity: 150 Watts
Length: 60 inches

Diamond K601NMO hide-away trunk mount Black
6.5 ft. RG316 Teflon coax w/PL-259.

Both are less than 1 year old (bought at Dayton last year) and in great shape. Antenna is a top notch performer and the hide-away trunk mount keeps the antenna secure when away from your vehicle and out of the weather.

$140 for both (save $30 from NEW prices) and split shipping from 44125 db gain over what Greg :) ??????

Actually, you'll find that the gain on six is 2.15 over an isotropic...which makes it ZERO gain over a 1/4wave... besides a 1/4wave on 6 is 54 inches....a 60 inch antenna can never show gain.....Diamond and Comet always use isotropic (dbi) instead of dipole gain (dbd) so all the gain figures look higher...

Now with that out of the way, Im interested in the package...
Will send direct email on offer..

I picked up a Kreckman CO-41AN antenna for a great price. The fellow in Akron Ohio purchased a damaged shipment from a carrier. They are new in the box and priced well below dealer cost. As of this time he has several available.

I plan to use the one I purchase for operation on 6 meters. They are cut for 43 MHz and have a power rating of 1 KW. Anyone interested in purchasing can contact:

It would be great if everyone going could see everything there is to know about the fest and the area. Feel free to chat about it in your favorite list, but if you want more general information, go to this site to sign up:

Here's the description:

For everyone headed to the largest ham fest in the world, the HamVention in Dayton Ohio. In 1999, this will be on May 14, 15 and 16. Use this message list for general questions like "Anyone know of hotels with rooms available?" "What booth will you be in?" "What's a good repeater in the area?" "Who wants my extra tickets?"

Hope to see you there!

Similar to eBay without the fees and without some of the bells and whistles. Auctions can last from 1 to 14 days.

A classifieds section was also added to post non-auction items for sale or wanted.

For the auction, visit http://www.cars.org/auction

This antenna works great, it really puls in those weak stations, and help you get into the faraway repeater. I am not sure of the gain, but it will blow away any stock HT antenna I have seen, and even all of the aftermarket HT antennas I have tested. This antenna is about 3 feet long, and comes with 6 feet of coax, with a factory molded BNC connector on the end. Used once, and in Brand new condition. Great for your ARES/RACES bag, or your 72 hour kit. Completely assembled, just hang it up, and you are on the air. $18 OBO. I pay shipping charges in USA for USPS 1st class priority mail. (2-3 day delivery...)

E-mail me directly, please.

The Swan 350's, no doubt one of Swan's most popular series of transceivers. I bought this radio because it was sold together with a Swan 500. I've decided to keep the 500 for my father and sell this 350.

Comes with a Swan hand mike, Swan 117 power supply, manual (copy) and an external Realistic speaker.

I have fired it up and have made contacts with it on SSB. My watt meter shows in excess of 200 peak watts output on SSB.

Sir,
Exactly what is dishonest about using Ebay?
Exactly what is the predatory behavior you are reffering to?

If you don't like Ebay, dont use it. It is pretty simple, really. If you don't want to read about items for sale on ebay, then hit the delete key. This is also pretty simple. If you want to filter out the ebay ads, by all means go ahead. If you think it would be informative to tell others how to do so, by all means, go ahead.
Even if the list prohibits these types of postings, (which I have to say i do not know...) then then simply inform the poster that those types of ads are not conforming to the rules of the list.
I think personal attacks, and especially attacking a group of THAT size are not only pointless and childish, but ridiculous as well.

This guy must be out there. I agree that It's hard for "buyers" to find deals on eBay, It is a sellers market there. But that's why most of us post items there, to make a profit. I see items I'd like to have there every day, but I choose to pass them up when the costs reach "MY" limit. whats the problem? Don't like eBay, don't log on. Simple. I see far more Communication shops charge a great deal more. they only get what the market will bare, do you suggest we shut them down? And finaly, the last time I lookedm there were no Ebay troopers forcing people to bid! Predator??????

Don,

"Predatory"??? Who the hell are YOU to JUDGE anyone?

"Honest internet users"??? Are you implying that eBay sellers are dishonest? I have sold many things on eBay. I currently have a positive feedback rating of 77. It would be 78 but some guy left a negative on my account by accident (he got me confused with someone else). Obviously, I speak only of my own honesty & cannot vouch for more than a handful of other sellers I have bought items from.

On the newsgroup rec.radio.swap I CONSTANTLY see complaints posted about how so-and-so "sent me a bad radio." I don't recall seeing any complaints registered against eBay sellers. eBay has the ratings system &, while not perfect, it does give the potential buyer a look at the sellers feedback history.

My eBay screen name is johnbrian if you wish to verify my feedback. BTW, I don't post the items I have for sale on newsgroups or mailing lists because I don't want my mailbox filled with flames from low brow morons & trolls.

Hello Everybody,

I have a XV-5 about 2 or 3 months old a 9Exxx series and have never had a problem with it. Radio is in perfect like new condition box and all with the plastic still on the face it's been in the leather pouch since bought.
It's never been to yaesu and has been modded through EVE (great program) But have no need for 6 meters and I'm currently unemployed and need the money. I have all the stock stuff that comes with the radio also the MH-510 MFJ antenna w/gromit. Thats the little rubber washer you put between the antenna and the radio. The soft leather case and the RS clip on belt clip.
I hate to give it up but unemplpoyment sucks and don't pay the bills. Help a fellow ham in need asking $325 + shipping.
Thanks for hearing me out

As much as I don't want to sell my radio,(Yaesu FT-100) if someone offered me the cashola, I'd sell it. I just received it back from Yaesu, I had all the most recent updates done to it. The antenna alone was an extra $350. I also purchased for it TWO of the Yaesu MMB-67 quick-release slide brackets (at $30 each) so it could be slide out of one, and into the other position quickly, like into the house or another car. $1,750 total invested, I'd sell for much less of course.

From: Bryant 'BT' Thompson
Topic: 176 Message: 176

After reading my previous message I see that the start of my cancer treatments in a few hours has me rattled more than I thought. Let me try it again. I bought the unit primarily to work 6M with having the HF abilities when I upgrade my ticket.

I just got my hands on a 706mkII #05 (without the DSP) and I'm looking for the following: (I numbered them so I can keep my thoughts stable)

The DSP UNIT to update my RADIO - likely the most important

(1) Seperation cable
(2) Narrow SSB Filter
(3) Narrow CW/RTTY Filter
(4) Microphone adaptor from RJ45 to 8 PIN
(5) Microphone connectors
(6)13 data/control conectors
(7) Spare Power connectors/cables
(8) CT-17 Level converter
(9) SM-8 Desktop Mic
(10) Mobile Mounting Bracket + Faceplate
(11) Tone Squlech Unit
(12) High Stabilty Crystal

Some notes:

1) Icom was giving them away!? I'll take one!

2) It's my SSB radio! I am using a IC2710 for 2M/440 FM

3) I have a Kantronics 9612 TNC and I want to hook it up to it, if someone has some experience with RTTY/etc I need it. Perhaps a website or a text file to teach me what RTTY is all about, what I can and can not work as a Tech, even if all I can do is monitor RTTY cluster traffic or other news sources, etc.. I'm new to this so I would love any and all help!

4/5) I use a Shure 'real radio announer' microphone on a boom with Footswitch PTT with a Heil ICOM adaptor on my Icom 2710, I would like to be able to do the same with this rig.

6) See (3) Above

7) would like to put power cables in the car as well as in the shack

8) This Item I have read that there is a schematic for this or something darned close to program the radio, and some people that are making these for sale cheap, I need to watch my pennies so if someone has a cheaper workaround I'll take it!

9) Well, if I can hook it up to both the 706 and the 2710 I might use it instead of my real radio announcer microphone, if it proves to be a better working station.

10) Never know where or how I'll use this radio!

11) I have it in all my other radios, I want it for consistent function-ability

12) My radio is not 'dead-nuts' from what the freq displayed to what it's actually transmitting at. I'm assuming (I know, assume is spelt 'make and ASS out of U and ME) but I need to get the radio on freq.

I know this has been long winded/typed, but I needed to make sure that I know what it is that I'm looking for AND that I understand what the parts are used for. Any and all help, via email, phone, snail mail, fax, spiritual will be greatly appreciated. ICOM IC-Z1A
The IC-Z1A dual band HT is unique in that it has a removable Control panel that you can use as a speaker mic. It can receive alphanumeric messages up to 6 characters. The memory channels can be displayed as frequency, channel numbers, or alpha name. Some other features include:

Battery voltage readout
Simultaneous receive on both bands
Runs off 4.5v to 16v CTCSS tone encode
Auto repeater offset
3 Power levels
104 Memories

The radio is like NIB. Comes with everything you would get when you buy a new radio but this one also comes with the Mic extension. Go to my web page to see the radio. $275

224. Hallicrafters S-38C???

From: Ken Wood
Topic: 224 Message: 224

I have found an old SW receiver, a Hallicrafters Model S-38C from 1946.

Does anyone have any info on this radio? I want to clean it up and maybe sell it afterwards.

I am looking for schematics and guess-timates of what people might think it's worth.

It's been sitting in a barn for years and is real rough looking, but it lights up. There is no speaker inside so I hooked up a speaker and got a buzzing sound, with no antenna hooked up. It also needs thr bands that turn the tuning elements inside.

Any assistance will be very much appreciated.

Thanks,

John / K6ZZZ

I'm giving the condition a 7/10. no dings or dents, paint is a solid 90%. I have not fired it up. I got it in a trade, and I'm not going to fool with it at all. All knobs are there and there doesn't appear to be any physical troubles. I will need to be cleaned up. I have no idea of the value. I will consider any serious offer. Buyer pays shipping. I will consider a trade too. I can provide a digital photo via e-mail if requested. (1-3 day delay) Thank you.

246. Excessive Quoting Rant - off topic

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 1999-10-15 07:18:55 UTC
From: Alan
Topic: 246 Message: 246

Hi All,
You know ?! I've been seeing a LOT of messages lately that have at least one - sometimes TWO complete 3 or four page messages quoted within them (and don't EVEN get me started on quoting these miltipage trailers 5 or six times over!). This practice doesn't happen in ALL of the lists, just in a LOT of them, and I don't have ANYthing against a l-o-n-g message, as some of you may hove noticed from time-to-time in my own posts :) But Come ON!!! And I'm speaking only to those that do this - you know who you are! If your client (that's the thingy you're reading this message with - no not your eyes smart*!) can't have the quoting shut off (or you just don't WANT to shut it off) at LEAST go through and manually delete as many lines as you can - especially the signatures (normally a client will place a formatted line at the top of the message saying who it's from, their eMail addy and sometimes the date, so there's no reason for some of these glutted sigs AND TRAILERS! to be quoted) before posting the reply. Better yet, IF your client will allow you to shut off the quoting, and your OS allows cut-n-paste (for all you windows maniacs out there), use THAT to copy a SMALL portion of the message, if needed, to keep the context accurate.

Ok... Let's have a show of hands... How many of you have taken the time to read 'Emily PostNews - Nettiquette' document(s) ?!? 1... 2... 3... Do I hear 4 ??? Hmmmm.. Not many! :(If you are NEW to posting on the internet or have just never read it - PLEASE! take time to read this simple document and modify your posts accordingly. Your list owner will thank you, the internet will thank you (uses MUCH less resources), the other readers in the list will thank you, and even your own HDD will thank you - as you won't be wasting a bunch of extra space to save this excessive quoting in your 'sentmail' folder/box/file (whatever).

Now.... Just watch some totally lame donkeybutt reply to THIS message and quote the whole dam(n) thing... 'Scuse me for sounding a bit miffed about all this, but not only am I getting DUPLICATES! of about every message that's posted in many of the lists (not all), but much of this is totally wasted space because it's unnecessary quoting (X2). <sigh>

I hope this off-topic won't get me kicked from lists, but as popeye might say, "I've stands all I can stands - I can't stands no mo!". Next step is to install a 'quote monitor' and start sending automated messages via direct eMail to those that quote over a certain percentage. Talk about using resources!!! If it's waste they send - then waste they'll get!
I might get REALLY nasty and attach some useless files to those.
I'm not a hacker (in the old definition), or a cracker (by the new one), and I'm not really a jerk - just someone that's about fed up with those that don't seem to give a sh*t about the carp they spew into cyberspace. And "No" I don't feel it's my responsibility to "unsubscribe if I don't like it".

And I'm just waiting for some non-conformist selfish lazy SOB to reply to this message and inform me that I have no right!!! to tell him/her how to use THEIR computer, and they're going to continue their inconsiderate operations just to spite me... Oughta be worth a chuckle and a shake of the head, if nothing else. And to those uninformed souls that wonder why I don't just use my 'delete' key ? Jeeeze!!! Think about it for a sec!

As I stated not ALL lists have this problem, and if I hit the ones that don't - I apologize. My course of action was to select the ones I KNEW had a fairly decent traffic level. I'm hoping that my post MIGHT negate a future problem from a new internet user that's subscribed at this time, or by one that takes the time to read the archives and see the post there.

I appreciate all the + comments, and would like to thank both Gerry Hull (for telling me to "get a life") and Sabbatai Zvi (for telling me to "grow up" and calling me a "NET COP") (not sure if that is a real name or the gender thereof. BOTH of which felt compelled to quote my complete message in their reply (lol) proving my point, but I must commend Gerry for doing so via private eMail and NOT to the list. Thank you Gerry.

And a sincere thank you to those list owners and moderators that took the time to drop me a line and comment on my post, consider your input appreciated and your wishes ack'ed and accepted.

Now that, that's done.. What were we discussing ?
I think it had something to do with radios, computers, or tty. Hi Hi

This guy obvious wants attention, or he wouldn't waste his time flame-baiting.

From now on, I am going to filter out all e-mail originating from KB6LWN.

Now back to AMATEUR RADIO!

This is one is called "Amateur Radio Novice License."
It has a 1977 copyright date, so is obviously not current, as far as regulations, etc. are concerned. It includes a copy of 1979 FCC Rules and Regulations.

It does have a lot of good theory, and also includes code tapes, along with charts and other misc items. It is in a loose leaf notebook about 2 1/2 inches thick.

Everything is in great shape, and appears to be complete in every aspect. It may not have ever been used, as there seem to be no marks at all in the book.

I don't have the manual, but a couple of hams have told me that it was probably "modified for packet" and won't actually transmit unless one of the 8 pins in the mike connector is either shorted or open or some resistance to ground or ?????????????? Does anyone know which pin and what, if anything, to do with it? Any other info on this neat little unit would be much appreciated too.

V AC, but can be changed to 220 V AC. This unit is

Manual included for $350

Heath HM-102 Wattmeter. This is the HF version of the wattmeter. It has scales for 200 W and 2000W, as well as SWR.
It has a removable remote sensor, so the meter can be about 3 feet from the sensor. This looks in great shape, not quite receive audio, with nice VU meter. Will work with high or low impedance mic input. Manual included for $25

Heath IP-27 low voltage power supply. It is fully adjustable from about 0.5 Volts to 50 Volts, and has current limiting that is built in and adjustable from a couple ma up to 1.5 amps.
There is also a nice large meter for measuring current or voltage. The supply is "floating", so can be used for either plus or minus supplies. It is the "Heath Brown" color. Manual included. $100

I also have the following Heath manuals available. All are originals, and are in good condition.

HN-31 A Dummy Load manual. Note the "A" suffix. This is for the newer model that does not have the tap for the scope. The manual is in the smaller "half size" format. This manual looks like new, and has NO check marks in it. $ 8

SB-600 speaker manual. Good shape. $ 6

GR-2050 TV Set - Five book set $ 15
GRA-601 TV Clock $ 5

All manuals are in good shape. All are originals and not copies.

291. Bendix King Wanted

From: John B. Lawrence
Topic: 291 Message: 291

Hi All,

I have a Bendix King UHF HT, 440-512Mhz split, 210 channels, Alpha Numeric display ("old style" [or so I've been told] that you have to view at somewhat of an angle to see clearly), user programmable, & metal case. The back of the case has a lot of the finish worn off due to belt carry. I don't know how old the battery is but it seems to last a couple of hours (the longest I've used it at a stretch). I can post pics at a my web site if there is any interest.

I am needing to trade for a Bendix King VHF HT, 136-174Mhz split, 210 channels, Alpha Numeric, user programmable, & metal case. Basically, the same thing I have now only in VHF.

Thanks!

John B. Lawrence

For those of us with MS Outlook Express 5 (I cannot speak to others) if we have the feature toggled on that automatically saves all Reply addresses your spam-blocked reply addresses really mess things up ... we have to go into our Address Book and delete it before we can manually enter your correct E-mail address and then send our reply ... I know it discourages many replies and slows others down.

Just FYI. It may cost you sales or better offers.

321. FS or Trade: Bendix King UHF 210 Channel Alpha Numeric HT

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 1999-12-06 04:35:22 UTC
From: John B. Lawrence
Topic: 321 Message: 321

Bendix King UHF 440Mhz - 512Mhz split in excellent working condition. I am not sure of the model number as it has been worn off. It has a full metal case & 210 channels (15 groups of 14 channels each). The Alpha Numeric display (with backlight) allows you to name the channels (& the groups) rather than having to contend with a display that shows only "CH 1" etc. This is an "early" Alpha Numeric display that you have to look at from an angle (about 15 degrees & above) to see it clearly. Other features include a Priority channel button, Scan button, & Talkaround (allows you to transmit & receive on the receive side of a channel programmed for repeater use so it doesn't use the repeater).

Very easy to program--- short two pins together on the mic jack & press a button, and you're in programming mode--- NO SOFTWARE NEEDED!! Cosmetically, the radio has much of it's finish worn off the back with some minor wear to the front. The rubber cover on the push-to-talk button has some cracks in it. I've used it for up to four hours (80% rx - 20% tx) & the battery has not run down but your mileage may vary. Comes with battery, antenna, belt clip, standard-rate charger, programming instructions.

Asking $425.00/obo. OR Trade for a Bendix King VHF 136-174 split with Alpha Numeric display, metal case, belt clip, & more than 14 channels. Possibly consider Motorola ht or mobile.

Coax Switches For Sale:

Diawa CS-201 - This is a two position coax switch with exceptional UHF response. It has "tuned cavities" to preserve the 50 ohm impedance, and has teflon SO-239 connectors on it, with a heavy die cast base. It is rated to 600 MHz. $ 22

B & W 376 - This is a five position coax switch that will ground all unused connections. It also has a sixth position to ground all of the antennas connected to it. It has a wall mount bracket, with the 6 SO-239 connectors extending out like the spokes of a wheel. $ 25

Pace 5621 - This is a 3 position switch, in a metal box.
The input connector is on one side, with the other three
SO-239 connectors on the opposite side of the box.
It is rated at 1 KW, and the box it is in is fairly heavy.

Electra G70-496 - This is labeled as a "3 position Coax antenna switch" by the manufacturer, but it is really a 2 position switch, with the addition of a ground position to ground both inputs. It is in a metal box, with a slight tilt. All 3 SO-239 connectors come out of the back of the box.
This one really looks like a remnant from 11 meters.
$ 7

From: DavidC
Topic: 334 Message: 334

I am looking for something like the B&W Model TPC-120W
"transistorized power supply" or "power converter" to power my Morrow MBR-5/MB-560 twins from 12VDC.

Receiver requires: 6 or 12 volt filaments and 275 VDC at 75 MA.
Transmitter needs 6 or 12 volt filament, negative 67.5 VDC @ 1 MA bias, 250 VDC @ 90 MA and something around 500-525 VDC @ 200 MA.

Anyone have something in good working order you'll part with reasonably ... or perhaps as a swap?

Am also looking for an AC supply that provides similar voltages.
I am told the Elmac 1070, HP 23, and others may be readily adapted.

A NEW SAFE AND QUICK WAY TO CHANGE YOUR H.T. ANTENNA

Prevents damage to your radio's sma antenna connection due to always having to change antennas for base,mobile,or just to a better quality than stock antenna use. Adapter will take all the wear and tear,instead of the chassis connector. By using this new design adapter you can safely and quickly change a better selection available of bnc antennas with no damage to your radio at a low cost.

Adapter has gold contacts with a black neoprene rubber covering. Low profile design adds only 1/2"-to-5/8" depending on radio model to the overall antenna length. The rubber base seals to the top of the radio with no spacers needed to prevent moisture and dirt from entering. The base also provides a firm support for all antenna applications. No need to remove adapter once installed to make a safe and quick antenna change.

To view a picture of adapter on my VX-5 with no antenna attached and by itself,I have downloaded a photo to this web site:

For Sale:

Palomar Engineers M-827 Wattmeter

This is one of the fanciest wattmeters I have seen. It is not quite analog, and it is not quite digital either. It has two "bar graphs" that are really a series of LEDs. There are two. One is for forward power, with full scale ranges of 20, 200, and 2000 watts. The other is for SWR, which is automatically computed, regardless of power. It is really neat. It runs off of 110 V AC, and even has a toroid on the line cord to keep the RF out.

It is a cubical shape, about 4 1/2 inches on a side.

This meter lists for $199.95. This particular one is almost like new, and available for only $ 125 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Drake TV-1000-LP Low Pass Filter. For the transmitter.
Handles a kW. Cuts off at 52 MHz. This is the one that can be used on six meters (at reduced power). 52 ohms.
SO-239 connector on each end. $ 30

Smaller filter, with a label that simply says "Television Interference Low Pass Filter" on it. It appears, from its size, that it will handle about 100 Watts. Not a full kW for sure. SO-239 connector on each end. $ 5

Alinco DJ-580 HT. It covers both 440 and 2 meters (plus a lot more). It will cross band repeat, and I understand that it will even receive cellular phone, although I have not tried that myself. Power output is up to 5 Watts, although it has 3 different levels of power settings, so you can save the battery, if you want. It looks and works almost like new. I also found a DC (cigarette lighter plug on the end) cord that is

HAPN Packet adapter - Internal TNC, plugs into 8 bit slot inside PC, no need to have a unit take up room on the operating table. It includes lots of software, complete documentation, cables, etc. Software for BBS also included. $ 80

Hal CT-2200 / KB-2100. This combination will drive a composite video monitor, and do just about any digital thing a person can think of, other than packet. It has baudot RTTY, ASCII, CW, etc.
It also has some of the best filtering built in to it that you can find.
It is a "stand alone" unit, in that you use it with a composite monitor, and plug into your rig. No computer needed, as the computer is already inside the unit. Of course, Hal shielded it well, so you do not need to be concerned about computer hash getting in to your receiver. Complete with original manuals and original boxes. $ 400

AEA PK-64. This unit is made to plug into a Commodore 64 computer. If you have a C-64 setting around, this will get you on RTTY, packet, CW, ASCII, etc. This one has the "HF Modem" with the bar graph included in it. $ 50

I found some "patch panels" as used for RTTY, etc. These are the standard 1/4 inch jacks, and are new. Each panel is about 8 inches long.
I have some with 20 positions and some with 40. The 40 position have two 20 position, one on top of the other. Never been soldered to, as best I can tell. 20 position for $5; 40 position for $10.

From: Charles N. McGlinchey
Topic: 360 Message: 360

I have a friend from work who's brother is a silent key. He inherited some of his HAM gear and not being a ham himself, wants to sell the equipment to me.

He has a Kenwood TH225A with 4 batteries (2 still in the box), two wall cub chargers, cig adapter and speaker mic. He also has a Motorola case that the radio fits into, a small bag for the accessories, and the manual. The radio is old and has some wear. It is about a 7 on scale from 1 to 10.

His asking price is $150

I am not familiar with the radio and we could not figure out the controls in the short time I had to look at it. The batteries were also not charged. I would like to know if this is a good asking price for the package. I also want to know what the power output of this radio is. Is it a 2 watt or 5 watt. I never thought to check the mAh of the batteries when I looked at them.

Anyone who can give me some info please reply directly to me

I have opinions.......... Bad & good. I can only hope the "new blood" will be able to conduct themselves in some decent manner. Not perfect, just decent. I was first licensed in 1947, in the Los Angeles area. I had to pass the code test and take the written test, including drawing schematics, in front of an FCC examiner. At the tender age of 11 years I was totally intimidated and scared. The others taking the test were in the 18-25 year bracket. The examiner convinced me that he didn't want me to have a ham ticket. In a way, I feel slighted because of the "dumbing down" of the FCC requirements. On the other hand, I can see that if we don't get some younger people in this hobby, it will simply go away. At the current state of technology, and considering our most popular means of voice communication is 50 year old SSB, changes are going to be made whether we "old codgers" like it or not! Personally, I'm not going to quit and burn my license!!! No sir! I'm going to stick around as long as the Good Lord will allow and watch what happens!! Who knows?? It might even be fun!
HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

I was first licensed in '76 as a novice, and I took my test with an extra class ham that taught the class. In 1984, I passed my Technician class license after having taken the test 3 times in front of FCC examiners. I studied my tail off each time, and was disappointed when I missed the test by only a couple of answers. I was scared and intimidated as well, being a young teenager (14) in a room full of people considerably older than I was.

When I saw no-code coming down the pike, I knew there was going to be trouble, and judging by the increase in CB-like language and activities, I was right. I just hope that this latest change in licensing will improve the stock of hams.

Hi Smokey:
I guess we've all had our "ups and downs" with the testing and the code. Before I could afford a mike, all I could do was CW (all on "Army surplus gear"), so, I got to be pretty good at CW. I made several hundred CW contacts and was well received and respected among the OT's of that time. Nobody asked my age.Then after saving up my little moneys, I was able to get a mike. WOW! With my sqeeky little adolecent voice, the best I can say about my treatment by my peers is that I was treated kind of like "a bastard at a family reunion", and sometimes just ignored altogether. I guess I just stuck it out. (I'm still alive, so it didn't kill me) But, as the result, I have never been crude to newcomers "newbees?") in ham radio.
Frankly, if we can get rid of the foul language and the jamming, and help the new people learn the proper operating procedures and conduct, ham radio might just survive!
BTW, Riley Hollingsworth, of the FCC, says he really likes to get cassette tape of the language and jamming. He seems to be making a difference.
Have a great year! Thanks for your response.

For Sale:

Palomar Engineers M-827 Wattmeter

This is one of the fanciest wattmeters I have seen. It is not quite analog, and it is not quite digital either. It has two "bar graphs" that are really a series of LEDs. There are two. One is for forward power, with full scale ranges of 20, 200, and 2000 watts. The other is for SWR, which is automatically computed, regardless of power. It is really neat. It runs off of 110 V AC, and even has a toroid on the line cord to keep the RF out.

It is a cubical shape, about 4 1/2 inches on a side.

This meter lists for $199.95. This particular one is almost like new, and available for only $ 120 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Heath HM-102 Wattmeter. This is the HF
(1.8 to 30 MHz) version of the popular wattmeter.
This particular unit is in as good of condition as you will find. The meter even still has the "shinny" appearance of a new one. With manual for $ 45.

Heath HD-15 phone patch. Can be used with most any rig, but made to match most any of the Heath "Green" series. It has provisions for both 600 ohm and also Hi Z impedance input to you transmitter. Full switching provided, so it can remain connected all the time. It is in great shape, not quite as good as the HM-102 above, but far, far better than most.
With manual for $ 25

Heath HA-202 amplifier for 2 meter FM. This is a Class C amplifier for 2 meter usage, so no SSB. Ten watts of RF input will give 40 Watts of RF output. This one is in great shape, and still has its original input and output jacks on it.
People often changed these to BNC, etc., but this one is original. With manual for $ 40

Heath IP-18 power supply. This is made to be a bench unit, but can be used a variety of places.
The voltage is variable from just under 1 volt up to 15 V DC. There is also variable current limiting, up to 500 ma. maximum. This is in the Heath Brown color, and not the Green styling. $ 25

A friend is helping me to restore a Gonset Commander HF transmitter. We need to replace the driver transformer in the modulation chain.

We have been told that the SCR-522 (military surplus) transmitter uses the identical driver and modulation xfmrs.

If someone has the Gonset driver transformer or a parts SCR-522 we could harvest one from please contact me.

I am also in need of a dc-to-dc supply for the Gonset. 300 volts at 200ma plus 6.3 at 3 or 4 amps. I would be interested in a transformer that will provide that and we will build the dc-dc supply about it.

What I am trying to do is start a list for the hamfest notification, not hamswap, my mistype generated a lot of response from all and I am sorry if you all have the idea that I was imposing on your own lists for the local area. What I was trying to do is give people the chance to be able to get the word out via email about the different swaps there are, either in their home town or if someone is traveling and wanted to check out a fest elsewhere. If this sounds like a good idea then let me know.

Sorry for the confusion and hope to hear from all of you

NEW QUICK & SAFE WAY TO CHANGE H.T. ANTENNAS

Prevent damage to your radio's sma antenna connection due to having to change antennas for base,mobile,or to a different style than stock antenna use. Adapter will take all the wear and tear,instead of the chassis connector being subjected to wear or from coming loose. You can now quickly and safely change the more popular and wider selection available of bnc antennas,and help to protect your radio from damage,all at a low cost.

Adapter has gold contacts with a neoprene rubber covering. A low profile design adds only 1/2"-to-5/8" depending on radio model to the overall antenna length. The rubber base seals to the top of the radio with no spacers needed to prevent moisture and dirt from entering. The base also provides a positive support for all your antenna applications and better overall appearance than other available adapters. There's no need to remove adapter once installed to make a quick and safe antenna change.

A photo of the adapter is located in the community files.

I have done some searching on the web and have not found anything yet, but I am still looking. If someone could point me in the right direction I would be most grateful.

I have an U. S. Army surplus gas engine powered 5 kw generator in good overall condition, but with a few glitches. The Federal stock number for the engine is: 2805-872-5971
The manual MAY be: TM5-2805-204-14 & 24P (not sure) I need tune-up and timing info on this two cylinder, air cooled, 4 cycle, 43 cid engine. Also a wiring diagram (engine only)

The generator carries two Federal stock numbers:
6115-017-8240 and/or 6115-074-8830, I need manuals, diagrams etc. for this as well.

Can anyone help? Websites? Commercial sources?
Thanks.

I just swapped for a bunch of GI stuff w/o looking too close.
I've got two U.S. Army switchboards, one is complete except for the head/handset, NSN 11-5805-262-20-1, "SB-22/PT", serial # 178, was overhauled 3/90 and appears to have been stored since then.
Light OD color, fibreglass case, 9/10 condition.

The other is just a brand new case, empty except for the battery/jumper compartment on the bottom appears full. I unpacked the double box myself, 10/10 condition. This one is about 2" higher than the other one. Dark OD color. "SB-22A/PT"(I expect this was for the whole switchboard) Serial # 148EE, NSN 5805-00-715-6171.

Also, I have 6 NIB "CASE, TELEPHONE SET" CY-1277B/PT SAO 970-94-C-2474 These are OD heavy canvas, heavy zipper closure, with the leather lined large and small holes for the handset and have the nylon carrying strap. These are still in sealed boxes, unopened. I also have one opened but unused.

All this goes as a batch or "lot". I won't break it up. $85.00 OBO plus shipping from zip code 75951, about 65-75 lbs. USPS MO or cashier's check ONLY! I will not accept or return personal checks or money orders from supermarkets etc....

WANT TO TRADE:
I have an extra Hewlett-Packard HP-8593A Spectrum Analyzer. 9 KHz to 22 GHz, full digital control/input (50 ohm "N' connector), approximately 7 years old, in good working order. Listed as "portable", has a carrying handle, 40+ lbs.
Great addition to the test bench OR the ham station that has ALMOST everything!
Specs are available on HP website, http://www.HP.com.
Cosmetics are 100%. No manual, but operation is straight forward.
Manual available, but high priced.
Original cost was $25,173.00.

I want to trade for a sophisticated solid state communications receiver/transceiver, of equal or approximate value, 50 KHz to 30 MHz (minimum), all modes, quad conversion, in good working order with good cosmetics and with speaker and power supply.
No homebrew, will consider military surplus if specs/manual are available. Or, "what have you".

For Sale:

I have a variety of "rubber duck" antennas for sale.
All of them are made to cover the 2 meter band, and are in new condition. They come in two different lengths. The regular are about 6 inches long, and look like the normal antennas that come with most HTs.
Stubby are about 3 to 4 inches long, but seem to actually perform better than the "regular" antennas.
If you haven't tried one of the stubbies, you will be amazed at the difference.

I have antennas with the following connectors:
BNC - stubby
PL-259 - regular and stubby
5/16 inch x 32 thread (like Motorola) - regular and stubby
RCA - stubby
F - regular

All are $10 each, plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

These are U.S. made by Cinch, part number 232-22-25-073. They look like DB-25F connectors with an RJ-45 modular receptacle on the other end, not a cable, looks like a plug that goes into a serial port and one would just plug an RJ-45 modular phone plug into it.

For Sale:

Kenwood MB-4000 mobile bracket for TW-4000 dual bander, and likely others as well. In the box, with instruction sheet. $ 15

Kenwood PS-30 power supply. 13 V DC at 20 amps.
Made to match the TS-120 / 130 / 180 series of HF rigs, but may be used to power a 2 meter or other low current (about 7 or 8 amps) rig at the same time, as it has separate screw connections, in addition to the heavy duty 6 pin molex connector for the HF radio.
This particular unit is a 9.99 on a scale of 10. It looks like it just came out of the box. $ 135

Kenwood TH-21 AT, 2 meter HT. Small size, about the size of a pack of cigarettes. Fully synthesized with thumbwheel frequency selection. A very good performer.
This one is in great shape, and includes a very good battery, charger, rubber duck, and both operating and service manuals for $95.

Kenwood BC-6 fast desk charger. Charges PB-21
and PB-21 H battery packs, as used on the Kenwood
TH-21 / 31 / 41 series of HTs. Holds two batteries, charging one and then the other. Takes about an hour to charge. It can also be used to power the radio for base station use. With manual for $ 70

Kenwood DC-21. Converts 13 V DC to 8 V for the TH-21/31/41 series of HTs. Plugs into cigarette lighter and powers the HT. In box, like new, with manual. $ 25

Kenwood SC-15 soft case. New, still sealed in the package, never opened. $ 15

Mobile power cord for ????. This one has a Molex type connector, with 4 pins in a single row. These are the smaller, "standard" size Molex pins. The connector is about 3/16 inch wide, and a little over an inch tall.
I think it fits an Icom 25, but it may fit several other Kenwood / Icom rigs. Both positive and negative are fused. Wire appears to be about #16.
never used $ 8

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For sale:

Kenwood TW-4000, dual band mobile xcvr, 5 W or 25 W output, GASFET front end for a great receiver. Of course it scans, has memories, and all that sort of thing. $ 195

Icom HS-51 headset. This is a headset that includes the headphone portion with a boom mic. It is made to go with just about all of the HTs Icom made, EXCEPT the W21 A, Z1AT, and 2SRAT series. It includes PTT or VOX operation. This one looks almost like new, and works great. Only $ 55.

Icom CP-13 DC cord. This is a filtered cord that plugs into the cigarette lighter. This one works with the W 2 AT, 2SRA series, X21AT, D1A, V21AT, 2GXAT, and others. Like new for $ 19.

MFJ 1702 B, coax switch. Will switch two PL-259 connectors, but also has a third position to ground both coax. This is the very heavy die case switch, with "strip line" techniques to preserve the 50 ohm impedance up through the UHF bands. All 3 connectors are SO-239. Great shape. $ 20

Yaesu MH34 B4B speaker mic for use with Yaesu HTs with the 4 conductor connector, such as the FT-50 and VX-1, and others. This one looks like new. $ 25

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I have a few items for sale. I have added $5 to all prices to include shipping costs.

KPC-3 Plus TNC: $155 shipped

This unit has been upgraded with the 128K and Real-Time Clock modules. It comes with box, owners book, a CT-39 cord (for Yaesu rigs) and a bunch of cool shareware, including a copy of Hostmaster Plus II. Some of the software will need to be edited with YOUR callsign. Worked great when I took it out of service and has been collecting dust...needs a good home.

Pro-90 Trunk Tracker: $130 shipped

This scanner comes with manual, charger, stock antenna, and some extras which include an 800MHz mag-mount antenna w/coax and a heavy duty nylon (holster type) carrying case. Unit works and looks great.

Alinco DJ-280T: $155 shipped

This is a 220MHz HT (222-225MHz)that has very few hours of use. It comes with box, manual, stock antenna, extra (Smiley) antenna, and a speaker mic. This radio also looks a works great.

Alinco DJ-C5T: $100 shipped

This is a really neat little radio. It is what some refer to as a "Credit Card" HT. This is the 2m/440 dualband (modified) version with an internal speaker. This radio is very low-profile, in case you want to use it at work, church, or wherever you do not want to appear as "Johnny Radio".

Any questions can be directed to me personally at w00dy65@... and make sure you put the item in question, in the SUBJECT so I don't overlook it as spam or something else.

Thanks,

John / K6ZZZ

I will include a new 2SC1025 out put module with the unit, I don't have time to install. Included are reproduction copies (one each) of the operators manual and service manuals. The batteries are in so so condition, take a charge but most likely need new cells.

533. want yaesu ft-101 transformer

Topic: 533 Message: 533

Does anyone know of a source for a power transformer for a yaesu FT-101 transceiver?

Our local amateur dealer said yeasu does not stock parts for the older rigs.
We would like to hear from anyone that knows of a possible source for the original transformer, or a substitute, or a combination of transformers that would work.

If anyone has a junker FT-101 for parts, he would be interested.

thanks

536. Several Items To Sell or Swap

I'd prefer a local swap here in central Florida for the following but will also consider offers where shipping is part of the sale or swap.

I will consider trades for the following (we can work out an adjustment for fair value, e.g. one of us may need to add additional items or some cash):

1. Micro-size dual-band 2/440 HT.
2. Force 12 C3S beam.
3. Solar panels.
4. 2/440 fiberglass base vertical antenna, 440 beam, 6m beam.
5. 2/440 mobile amp
6. One straight section of Rohn 45
7. One partial section of Rohn 45 to set in concrete
8. Two 20 foot heavy duty 2" masts
9. Fiber-optic cable link and interfaces from tower to radio room (approx. 150 feet point-to-point) for rotor and other control, data, etc. lines.)

I have the following to swap (plus many other items further below):

R-392 military surplus receiver. [$165.]
Tempo One HF transceiver (partially working, needs a PS). [$65]
Tempo One External VFO. [$45.]
Boomer Deluxe 400 80-10m solid state amp (rated at 400w pep,
I understand 250w is more realistic) [$125.]

These three items work fine and I'd like to swap them for decent equivalents that run directly on DC, preferably 12vdc.

Leader LDC-823S 250MHZ Digital Frequency Counter [TekNet asks $235 -- I'm asking $135.]

Data Technology Model 20 Digital Capacitance/VOM [$45.]

Senior VoltOhmyst VTVM ($45.]

These five books are in good condition, two even still have their dust covers. I'd like to swap for the earliest Callbook with my first call, WA1NQX in it (1969, 1970, or 1971).

I know it is in the 1971 Callbook but need to be sure that is the first. I am also looking for the ON4UN John Devolders book about low band DXing and a 2000 Handbook (or perhaps the CD).

Bushbaum's Complete Handbook of Practical Electronic Reference Data, First Edition (with dust cover) [$15.]

Bushbaum's Complete Handbook of Practical Electronic Reference Data, Second Edition (no dust cover) [$15.]

Markus. Sourcebook of Electronic Circuits. 1968. [$15.]

S. Gernsback's Radio Encyclopedia -- 1927. (dust cover) [$10.]

Miscellaneous Other Swap(s):

I have several HP PC and printer networking interfaces, cards, etc.

I wish to swap them for three matching Etherlink III cards so I may network my radio room computers.

similar, used, for half that at most.

Recommendations of models and sources welcomed!

HI

I have for sale a DTR machine designed by DF7KF.
The DTR ia a portable digital instrument enabling you to record AF-signals over a maximum period of about 155 seconds at sampling rate about 6.6 kHz. The DTR provides the possibility to check the received information while still recording or when the recording time is over. In both cases you are able to decode signals at normal or reduced speed. The complete electronics of the DTR is an handy box of anodised aluminium. To operate the gear it is only necessary to know the 7 different keys on top of the box. The external voltage required lies between 10-15 V DC.
I am not interested any more on MS. That unit was used in 1998/1999 MS season, working great and it is cosmeticaly ok.

Techincal informations:

- sampling rate : 6.6 KHz.
- RAM : 1 MB
- maximum settings mark : 30
- speed reducing ratio : 1/2...1/50
- tone recovering, 4 choices: - output = input
- output = input X 2
- output = input X 8
- automatic correction - recomended, CPU compute the output tone in correlation with speed reducing ratio, etc.
- special feature : record/play possible simultaneously
- input : AF out of the receiver
- output : AF at about 500 mW
- keyboard : 7 keys
- display : 3 LED - 7 segments
- power supply : 10-15 V DC at about 350 mA
- housing : aluminium case with all necessary connections
- dimensions : 170 X 100 X 45 mm
- weight : abt. 500 gr.

Selling -

Astatic D-104 microphone - amplified.
Has chrome stand with original locking PTT bar and clip included. Bottom cover is not original, but that is mostly un-noticeable. Some pitting, and small nicks on the chrome stand, but otherwise in fair shape and works fine.
I have seen far worse D-104s but this is not a prize-collectors' one.Really, it's semi-ugly, hence very reduced price of $20.00 plus $5.00 conus shipping (pictures available)

Standard old CW straight key - Looks just like a J-38 only shiny brass colored, with shorting bar and black knob.

559. TV-Audio shop abandoned

I'M posting this for a friend. Please don't respond to me.

A TV and audio repair shop located in Bridge City, Texas, has been abandoned by the operator of the business. The owner of the building, Dan Fells, needs to have the inventory of RCA and Zenith repair parts (most are NIB) and about a dozen unclaimed TV sets and audio units sold and removed. A rough estimate of the wholesale value is about $5,000.00US, but probably more. The whole works should go for much less. I or 2 pieces of test gear only. Lots of CRT's and modules. NO INVENTORY LIST IS AVAILABLE. The property owner is not a technical person. This could be a gold mine for a ham/technician. This must be seen first hand. No packing and shipping will be considered. No partial sales. The whole works goes as a package ONLY. Bridge City is located on Hiway 87, South of Orange and North of Port Arthur in South East Texas, close to the Sabine River.
Call Dan Fells, (409) 735-6619 or (409) 963-7673

Thanks

I have found a couple items that will fit the Heath Twoer, Sixer, Tener, or other lunchbox series of Heath transceivers.

Original microphone. This is the one with the brown, cloth covered cord, with tan / beige colored mic. Amphenol connector (single contact plus shield) is included. It seems that almost all of the rigs are missing the original mic, so here is your chance to get one. This one appears to be early 60's vintage. $ 20

Heath DC power supply, so you can use the rig on 12 V DC. Has output of about 250 V DC and fairly low current, but is made for the lunchbox series. Vibrator type supply. $ 20

Original manual for the Heath HW-29 Sixer. This is for the earlier Sixer, and has 1960 printed on the cover.
All intact, and in good shape. $ 20

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I know this is going to sound like yet another e-mail hoax, but I personally know the fire department employees who forwarded the message. This one is real. There are many photos of the box and the damage but I'm only sending one to save bandwidth. This is basically a reminder that you have to be careful when shipping batteries ESPECIALLY when they're wire leads. This is also important for used equipment. For example, new UPSs are shipped with the batteries disconnected. Be sure to do the same if you ship it again.

If this box had been near other combustibles, it could have been very serious. If anyone wants to see the incident report or the other photos, please let me know via direct e-mail (not to the list).

586. Free Memory and a request

Free Memory (the kind for a computer -- not the kind for between the ears, although some of us might be able to use that kind also):

Any one building a computer for PSK31 or packet or ??? and need some 30 pin memory SIMMs? I have found that I have far more than I can use, and will offer them FREE to those on this list. I do ask that you pay for the shipping.

I have some 1 Meg and a few 256K. Most are in sets of four. Some are 3 chip, and some are 9 chip. Some 70 nsec, and some 80 nsec. Maybe even some that are slower. If you know what you need, I will try to accommodate you as best I can. Limit of 8 SIMMs of each type (1 Meg or 256 K) per person, unless you can give me a very good reason why you need more.

The request:
I am trying to upgrade and add some additional computers at my son's (KC8IOY) school. I am in need of hard drives in the 2.1 Gig range, and also 32 Meg 72 pin SIMMs, although I could use a few 16 Meg. I could also use a few Pentium type CPUs in the 133 MHz range (or up, of course). I don't expect these for free (although that would be nice, and we could provide a letter for a tax donation, as the school is 501(c)3 for IRS purposes), but would pay a reasonable amount.

Since the enrollment has increased, in addition to upgrading the existing PCs, I am trying to add a few (5) more so that each student will be able to have one, instead of needing to share. I am trying to do this with "used" parts to keep the cost down, and also keep them compatible with the 133 to 166 MHz Pentiums that the others will be using. Thanks for your help.

Thanks,

Ken, W8EK

I dont personally have problem with a legit user selling his copy regardless of what moto copyright says, but these people were producing CDROM's with all the software on it. selling radio shop "computers" that just by chance had all the RSS for moto, kenwood and others. They usually had some, buy must license software before use message, but we know worthless that is.

I have successfully replaced a Micor supply (with the same problem) with an Astron RS-50 (a smaller one could have been used), removed the 9.6 volt regulator strip from the Micor supply and mounted it in the Astron. Only problem encountered is an occasional supply crow-bar probably unrelated to the Micor. This Astron problem has been covered in the forum previously with some adjustments and fixes.

Anyone have a need for this rotor control box?

It says HYTEK Antenna Control on the front panel.
TDF Corporation of Keosho, MO on the back.

36V DC R is hand written on the bottom, 250vac Only is printed on the power strip on the back.

It has a 3 foot cable with a 6-pin rectangular connector.
The front controls are labeled E and W and there is a red lens covered display for what appear to be large LEDs or perhaps nixies.

The main body is black metal with sloped wood end pieces and has some cosmetic nicks and scratches. Untested.

$15. shipped conus to whoever can use it. Or will swap

619. Collectable power supply and other Kenwood items FS

From: Ken Simpson
Topic: 619 Message: 619

I found an older, but quite unusual Kenwood Power Supply. It is a PS-5. I would guess that it is the vintage of the very earliest solid state rigs.
It is about 7 inches wide, a foot deep, and 4 inches high, not counting the bail. It has a mechanical digital clock in it, similar to that that was in some of the Heath console units. It supplies 13 V DC at 3.5 amps (so why is it called a PS-5 instead of PS 3.5, I don't know).
It looks like it is made to put a 2 meter rig on top of, and has provisions for a bottom facing speaker to project out the front. It is really neat. The power connector is a 2 pin type, similar to what was used on the TR-9000, if I remember correctly.

This particular unit looks in great shape. It has a black crinkle finish, and I can not find any scratches on it any place. It is definitely a collectors item. $75

Other Kenwood items for sale:

Kenwood TS-440 S / AT HF xcvr. With the antenna tuner.
This one is in great shape, both electrically and cosmetically. It includes the manual, and both original boxes for $625.

Kenwood PS-30 power supply. Will power most any of the 100 W HF radios by Kenwood or Icom (same plug for both). It was made to match the TS-180 physically, but electrically will go with any. This particular unit looks like it just came out of its box, in like new condition. $125

Kenwood SC-15 soft case. (I think it is for the TH-78, but do not remember for sure.) New, still sealed in the package, never opened. $ 15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

620. 40 foot crank up, tilt over tower FS in Florida

I have a 40 foot crank up, tilt over tower available in Ocala, FL.

Presently, it has a KLM KT-34 A tribander on it.
It is not especially heavy duty, but obviously no light weight either to hold the big 4 element tribander. I would guess that it is home made, although I am not certain of that. It is in fairly good shape, but should probably have a coat of paint before being installed.

The tower will crank down to about 20 feet and up to about 40. It tilts at the base. Presently it is anchored at the peak of a roof (about 15 or 16 feet), to hold it in place and keep it from tilting over.

Obviously, someone would need to be fairly close to the Ocala (north central Florida) area. I am looking at $100 for it.

Thanks.

629. Sharing A Table in Tampa Saturday

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: DavidC
Topic: 629 Message: 629

Anyone going to the Tampa ARC Hamfest this Saturday who would like to share a table?

I have a few items to sell but cannot "sit" a table for long -- I will have our two little ones in-tow and won't be arriving at 7am for sure! I can watch the table for brief periods so my "partner" may shop.

I will be looking for:

An inexpensive used KPC-3 for mobile/portable APRS, a clean as-new/new 24x or better cd-rom drive, a bunch of quick-connect slide-on PL-259 connectors, and a 2.4GHz cordless phone.

I plan to bring:

ROHN 45 Base Plate BPC45G/BCH45G $55.

(Looks like the BCH45G model that Texas Towers lists at $425! Also looks like their BPC45G that they sell for $99.
Only difference I read is more holes in the base plate. Perhaps it is just the BPC45G that someone drilled-out themselves? I know, there is more to the difference, but there isn't a pix in the Rohn catalog.)

KAM-P 7.1 Eprom $5.

ADC "Sound Shaper" Consumer grade audio spectrum analyzer. $35.

A box of wall warts and misc. supply stuff. $20.

A box of telephones (including a 900 MHz cordless phone w/speakerphone & second keypad base - not wkg), a couple of older cordless phones in unknown operating condition incl. one w/an answering machine. $25.

And possibly, due to a buyer bailing on a deal ...

Radio Shack "Simplex Repeater", new-in-box $55.
Unusual collection of small cylindrical variable ceramic caps $20.

Would love to just sell or swap everything in advance to someone who will be selling there, get it to them in advance, and just wander in and around without having to worry about lugging and selling stuff. Anyone interested? I am real price-flexible to avoid lugging Saturday!

I need a real small tnc for a emergency-portable APRS/Packet setup.

I'd like to swap my old PK-88 for a PacComm Tiny-2, PicoPacket, or the like ... esp. would like to find something for which there is DOS/Win 3.1 and/or Linux compatible software that will run on my ancient Thinkpad 360CSE DX/2-50 with only 8megs of RAM!

The PK-88 comes with the manual and the PK-88 end of the cable and plug ... you'll need to add the appropriate rig plug to the other end.
You will also need to add the cable to your PC and some software.
(There is free packet software stuff all over the Internet.)

Now that I am the new SEC for the West Central Florida ARRL Section, on top of everything else, I need to be more intentional about controlling my schedule.

I was just in Staples and toyed with the electronic organizers there.
The PALM IIIe seemed like a nice unit that would meet the need ... shame the budget won't handle a $149. purchase any time in the near-term future!

Anyone out there upgrading from a PALM IIIe to something newer who would be interested in a swap for their used unit?

I have the following items to use as part of a swap or perhaps a swap

680. CW study material FS

From: Ken Simpson
Topic: 680 Message: 680

I know that the FCC only requires 5 WPM code for any of the tests now, but that does not mean that we need to stop at 5 WPM. That may mean that this CW study material is useless to those that are only interested in getting a license, but to those that want to move their speed up, it could be very useful.

I have found that I have much more than I need, so might as well spread it around to a better home.

Here is what is available:

Gordon West, WB6NOA, "General Code"
For the old Element 1 b code at 13 WPM.
Kit consists of 6 cassette tapes and goes from 5 WPM to 15 WPM. $ 20

Gordon West's Radio School, General Class code course in stereo. Consists of 4 cassette tapes, and goes from 5 WPM to 13 WPM. $ 15

Gordon West Radio School
single cassette tape of 13 WPM $ 4

ARRL "Increasing your code speed" Set #1
>From 5 WPM to 10 WPM in 2 cassette tapes. $ 8

ARRL - Set # 2
>From 10 to 15 WPM in 2 tapes. $ 8

ARRL - Set # 3
>From 15 to 22 WPM in 2 tapes. $ 8

All of the above are in excellent or better condition, and include the paperwork that came with them originally. ARRL set #3 is still sealed in its plastic.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

688. Wanted: 2m 5 watt HTs

From: Kurt Bleich
Topic: 688 Message: 688

I am currently on a search for 2 meter HTs for an APRS project. This is a great application for those 2 meter HT's you don't use any more because you can't get the battery, it doesn't have 440, or doesn't have PL.

Battery is not needed. Radio just needs to work, and be frequency agile.

In fact, with this case, the less accesories the better.

I would prefer radios that produce 5 watts at 12 volts, but all offers will be considered. To save time, however, I would like to advise in advance that radios we are interested in would range from the $0-$70 range...depending on condition, model, etc. I am not looking for $100+ HT for this project.

Thank you for your time. Please email questions/offers directly to:

CTCSS enc/dec and covers VHF 108-136 air and 130-170, 420-510 (many mods are available, some claim coverage from 108-998MHz) - it has only the air and mars-cap mods.

Will swap for a reliable 2/440 mobile that will do cross-band and same-band repeat. Cosmetic wear not a problem.

I have decided to sell my Dentron MT-3000A HF Antenna Tuner. This thing will tune about everything and at maximum legal power, plus. Has separate Forward & Reflected Power meters and an internal dummy load (with the addition of a small fan it will handle serious momentary test power).

The ceramic inductor switch is cracked. I have the replacement part. The faceplate is nice but the case could use some touch-up.

Asking $165. shipped conus. (It's worth $275. in tip-top condition, don't have time to deal with the switch and paint. I have another tuner that gets the job done here ... I only run 100 watts!)

For Sale:

Yaesu FTH-2005 VHF HT
Although this is actually a commercial HT, it can also be used on 2 meters, as I am now.
It would be ideal for those of you that would like a 2 meter HT, but would also like to use it on fire, police, or other VHF frequencies, as it is FCC approved for that purpose. No need to "open up" a 2 meter HT and use it with questionable legality.

This one includes a 12 V battery that is only a few months old, rubber duck, and charger, along with copies of both the operating and service manual.

Only $150 plus shipping from Florida.

706. Swan SWR bridge and other SWR meters FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2000-10-07 14:43:20 UTC
From: Ken Simpson
Topic: 706 Message: 706

For Sale:

Swan SWR bridge
Model SWR-1 - It says "Swan" on the front.
Two meters --forward power on the left, adjustment knob in the middle, and SWR on the right.
SO-239 connectors on left and right ends.

This one appears to be new. It came from a silent key estate, so I do not know for sure. It is still in the box, with the paperwork (even the schematic), which says it works from 3.5 MHz to 150 MHz, so it is good on 2 meters as well as HF. I would guess that it is early 1970's vintage. $ 40

A second SWR bridge, that appears to be the same as the one above, except it does not say "Swan", but instead says "Quement" and is model SWR-2. It has been used slightly, and does not have the box or paper work, although I could send a copy of the Swan manual with it, if desired. $ 30

Other SWR bridges:

Midland 23-128 SWR bridge. Has SO-239
connectors on each end. Rated for HF, but seems to be quite accurate through 2 meters.
Only one switchable meter.
Excellent condition. $ 20

Olson SWR bridge. Seems to be the same as above, but has Olson label instead of Midland.
Great shape. $ 20

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

Low Pass filters for the transmitter for TVI problems

B&W Model FL 10/1500
This one will handle full legal limit and cuts off just above 10 meters (hence the model number). Earlier ones were called a model 425. This is the latter version, and looks almost like new. $ 30

Drake TV-100 LP
This is for lower power -- up to 100 watts.
It cuts off somewhere around 42 MHz, with a notch at the TV IF frequencies. It has the copper case. This is approaching antique status, as I would guess it must be 30 years old, but still works fine.
It is in good shape for its age, with no corrosion or anything like that, but the copper is not shinning any more. $ 15

Just stumbled across this thing here. I have no need for it but perhaps it is of value to someone else.

It is a straight key. The box says Ta.P. Below that it reads "vor dem Otfnen Stecker herausziehen"

It is mounted on a metal plate with a spring loaded cable.
The cable needs to be replaced (dried and cracking), the plug is a 1/4" mono, the box is hinged at the back.

I am uncertain of the value and would appreciate some informed feedback. Perhaps I can swap it for something of equal value that would go well with my Morrow twins.

I need a HF Mobile antenna that is very rugged and effective especially on 80, 40 & 20 meters. It will be mounted on a 1985 Chevy Astro van (real metal on the roof and bumpers!).

I also need a very rugged and reliable trapless beam for 20m.
Just the reflector, driven element, and a director (or two) will be acceptable as I intend to modify it with a longer boom.

Oh, and I am also in the market for a Timewave DSP-599ZX.

I have the following "cash" and swap resources available:

1. $200.+ in my PayPal account.

Need to sell 1100 feet of new RG6 coax that I acquired for an since-abandoned (not enough acreage) antenna project. Need to cover some tower-raising costs.

RG-6, Low Loss, 75ohms is $0.110 per foot from DavisRF, that would make my reel worth $121. plus shipping. The coax
I have also includes an imbedded stress-relief cable.

I won't be shipping this but a local central Florida Ham may own it for $75., either picked up or delivered in the greater-New Port Richey area (Gulf coast).

- Thanks! & 73, Doc

For Sale:

TenTec 546 Omni, Series B, HF CW / SSB xcvr.
All solid state, with 100 W output. Covers 160 through 10 meters, with digital readout. Full QSK on CW, and a fantastic receiver. Terrific audio quality on SSB also. This one is in great shape, with manual for $300.

Ten-Tec 229 antenna tuner. Has roller inductor, so will match almost any antenna, 160 through 10 meters, including WARC bands. Good for full legal power. Also has wattmeter, SWR bridge, and a 4 position antenna switch. Great condition.
This particular one is the color that matches the early Omni series. With manual for $ 225.

TenTec 218 crystal filter 1800 Hz (Narrow SSB, and also useful for RTTY and digital modes) for 9 MHz IF. Can be used in the Omnis (both early and late) with paper work, in the box, for $65.

Midland 23-128 SWR bridge. Has SO-239
connectors on each end. Rated for HF, but seems to be quite accurate through 2 meters.
Excellent condition. $ 20

Olson SWR bridge. Seems to be the same as above, but has Olson label instead of Midland.
Great shape. $ 20

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

I have a box of panel meters here that I need to pass along to someone who likes to build or repair radio gear!

Some are spare parts for old BA rigs (for example a Gonset linear's 800 mA plate current meter and a NATIONAL NCX-3 or NCX-5 0-500 mA / S-meter)

Total of 18 of these meters. One has a broken glass. One or two are edgewise meters. Most are regular panel meters - round, square, rectangular.

http://home.cfl.rr.com/happysurfer/meters.htm

I will try to update the web page so you only see the ones I have left.

I would like to get $20.00 plus $6.50 conus shipping for all 18 of these.

HUH??? WHY!!!!
There is already a heath list in LONG operation with over 1000
Heathens on it....The legacy heath users know it and WONT move..
Its on the tempe.gov server in Tempe AZ...NO ads and its free!

There is also a Knight Kit remailer already...and if you want to have any good ham remailers with NO spam and NO ads, check out QTH.NET....if there isnt already one, Al the server owner (who is a HAM) will do it for ya...but WHY reinvent the wheel??

I am beginning to hate the ads period and I am on several of the 100+ lists on QTH.NET which are HAM only anyway....

Greetings, all. I have two different Kenwood radios for sale...

1) A Kenwood TS-700A 2m all-mode. I bought it off the dreaded bay place a month ago. It works fine, on SSB, AM, and FM, but it won't work well for what I need (to run a Ten-Tec 1209 transverter, to work 6m SSB, it overloads the transverter on xmit and it's too sensitive on recieve, noise is a constant S7). Also including a MC-50 mike and several xtals previously installed. Asking $200 or best offer for it, and I'll ship it surface insured for $7.50 extra.

2) A Kenwood TK-601S VHF-LO band LMR radio, converted to 6m simplex use. Reprogrammed to 6 frequencies all near 52.525 simplex. Does not have the PL module in it, 60 watts output. Includes the standard mike, mounting bracket, and power connection (with my 12ga. wire). Asking $100 or best offer for it, and I'll ship it surface insured for $7.50 extra.

If interested, please reply to Ray Brown, KB0STN, at raybrown@.... Thanks!

Kenwood BC-6 fast desk charger. Charges PB-21
and PB-21 H battery packs, as used on the Kenwood
TH-21 / 31 / 41 series of HTs. Holds two batteries, charging one and then the other. Takes about an hour to charge. It can also be used to power the radio for base station use. With manual for $ 50.

Kenwood PB-21 battery pack for the TH-21 /
31 / 41 HTs. New "insert". $ 30

Kenwood PB-21 battery pack with partially dead NiCads. Can have a new "insert" added, or use to make a converter from 12 V DC to 7.2 V DC for the
TH-21 / 31 / 41 HTs. $ 15

Kenwood PB-21 H battery pack.
Empty, since cells were dead. Larger than the standard PB-21 pack (above) , but can be used for projects or "refilled" to make a good pack. $ 15

Kenwood TH-41 HT for 440 MHz.
Although this unit is in nice cosmetic shape, the receiver no longer works. The transmitter works fine, and will put out either 1.3 W or .2 W. It is synthesized, so you can set it on any freq you might want. It would seem it would be ideal for fox hunting. I will include a copy of both the operating manual for the TH-41 and the service manual for the TH-21, which is the 2 meter equivalent. Some coils and cap values are different, but most would still apply. $ 35

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

773. Kenwood HF xcvr and other accessories FS

Date: 2000-11-21 00:26:26 UTC
From: Ken Simpson
Topic: 773 Message: 773

For Sale:

Kenwood VFO-120.
This is the remote VFO that is used with the TS-120 ad TS-130 (and maybe others) for "split" operation. Includes built in switching to operate only on main VFO in the rig, only on the remote VFO, or split either way. It also has RIT built in, and nice LEDs to tell you what is going on.
This one is in very good shape cosmetically, and 100% electrically. Manual and cable included for $100.

Kenwood YK-88 C, 500 Hz CW filter for use in TS-120/130/180/430/440 and maybe others.
Like new for $ 65.

Kenwood TS-130 S HF transceiver. Operates
SSB and CW, and includes the WARC bands.
Effective speech processor is also built in, as is the fan on the solid state finals. It is a fairly small unit that would work great for mobile use. This one is as close to 100% electrically as I can tell, and about a 9.5 cosmetically. Manual included for $325.

Other Kenwood items for sale:

Kenwood BC-6 fast desk charger. Charges PB-21
and PB-21 H battery packs, as used on the Kenwood
TH-21 / 31 / 41 series of HTs. Holds two batteries, charging one and then the other. Takes about an hour to charge. It can also be used to power the radio for base station use. With manual for $ 50.

Kenwood PB-21 battery pack with dead NiCads. Can have a new "insert" added, or use to make a converter from 12 V DC to 7.2 V DC for the
TH-21 / 31 / 41 HTs. $ 15

Kenwood TH-41 HT for 440 MHz.
Although this unit is in nice cosmetic shape, the receiver no longer works. The transmitter works fine, and will put out either 1.3 W or .2 W. It is synthesized, so you can set it on any freq you might want. It would seem it would be ideal for fox hunting. I will include a copy of both the operating manual for the TH-41 and the service manual for the TH-21, which is the 2 meter equivalent. Some coils and cap values are different, but most would still apply. $ 30

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Coax antenna switches

MFJ 1702, I think. I can not find a number on it, but it appears to be an MFJ 1702. It is a 2 position switch, with a center grounding position . SO-239 connectors.
This is the "strip line" construction type that presents a good impedance match up through 500 MHz. This particular unit is in great shape both electrically and cosmetically. Actually, it looks just like new. These are about $25 new, but this one is only $20.

B & W 376, five position "ProTax" switch.
Unused position are grounded. Radial connections.
A sixth position grounds everything. This one is still in the box, with instructions. New, these are over $50, but this one is only $40.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

Icom HM-9, standard speaker mic, that fits most any of the Icom HTs, as well as most Yaesu, Radio Shack, ADI, Alinco and others.
New they are $60. This one is almost like

Icom HS-10 and HS-10 SB, boom headset

Daiwa Boom mic and headset. Similar to the Icom
HS-10 listed above. Great shape for $ 50.

ADI speaker mic with volume control. Fits the same HTs, but adds a volume control right on the speaker
mic. Excellent condition for $35.

Icom BC-10 AU AC adapter. It has 12 V DC output at 60 ma, according to the label.
At the other end is a round plug, about half an inch in diameter, with 2 female slots in it -- one maybe 1/4 inch long and the other about 1/8 inch long. I have a note on it that says "740", so I assume that was used on an IC-740, but it may fit other rigs as well. $10

Icom 4-AT, an HT for 440 MHz.
This is an older model with thumbwheel switches for frequency selection. It has a 16 digit touchtone pad, and is in very good cosmetic shape, except for some slight wear on the A, B, C, and D digits on the touchtone pad. Electrically, it works fine, except the battery needs an "insert".
Includes charger, rubber duck, and original manual for $50.

I don't know how I ended up with so many microphones, but I have the following that I am no longer using:

Turner 253 desk microphone.
This is a low Z model, so it will work with most of the new modern rigs. It is a brushed chrome styling with nice PTT switch. It looks almost like new. $35

TenTec 700 hand held mic. Presently has 1/4 inch stereo plug, for use with Argosy, early Omnis, etc., but can easily be changed.
Like new for $30.

Hi Z hand mic. Front says "General Electric" back says "Shure Brothers". Relatively small, but rugged and heavy duty. Looks close to new.
Grayish brown color. No connector. $ 25

Midland 70-2303 dynamic hand mic. Black in color. Slightly larger than the GE listed above.
Like new. Presently has 4 pin connector. $ 25

Low Z mic with TT Pad on the back. I think it is CES, but can not find CES written on it. Black.
Presently has 4 pin connector. $ 40

Icom HS-10 and HS-10 SB, boom headset
with the microphone and switch box. Gain control in the switch box. Fits most Icom, ADI, Alinco, some Yaesu, and other HTs that take the same plugs. New these are $110 for the combo, but this one is in great shape for only $ 55.

Radio Shack speaker mic. Fits the same HTs as listed above. Almost like new for $15.

Daiwa Boom mic and headset. Similar to the Icom
HS-10 listed above. Great shape for $ 50.

ADI speaker mic with volume control. Fits the same HTs, but adds a volume control right on the speaker
mic. Excellent condition for $35.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I have a collection of 15 older drives, some IDE, some SCSI, mostly smaller capacities, most untested. Some are known to be working, some are unknown, not sure any more which is which, don't have time to test any of them. Where-is, as-is, caveat emptor.

Here are the model numbers:

1. Maxtor LXT213SY
2. Conner CFS420A
3. Maxtor 7120AT
4. IBM DALA-3540
5. Maxtor 7850AV
6. Conner CP3200F
7. Western Digital Caviar 2700
8. Seagate 3283N
9. Western Digital Caviar 2850
10. Maxtor 7345AT
11. Conner CP30104H
12. Maxtor LXT-213SY
13. Quantum/IBM ProDrive LPS 82G5930
14. Seagate ST1239N
15. Conner CP3204F

They are too heavy and too old to justify shipping but should be of value to someone out there!

I'd like to swap them locally here in West Central Florida for something else useful like 72 pin edo (matched 16 or 32 meg simm pairs), a 56K pci modem (something very standard and reliable), a genuine Creative Labs Sound Blaster card, a 14 channel FRS HT, a solar panel, or some CA$H.

Thanks! & 73, Doc KD4E

You can also post it to the many Boatanchors collector groups

I understand that the Kenwood TH-D7A/G will handle 2m APRS and 2m voice OR 2m APRS and 440 voice at the same time ... correct?

If these features are accurate I need a Kenwood TH-D7A/G 2/440 HT for emergency communications.

I have an older model solid state HF transceiver (Kenwood TS-180S) to swap.
(we would each pay our own shipping and insurance)

Anyone interested?

Does anyone ever need any replacement antennas for
2 meter handhelds?

I have a variety of "rubber duck" antennas for sale.
All of them are made to cover the 2 meter band, and are in new condition. They come in two different lengths. The regular are about 6 inches long, and look like the normal antennas that come with most HTs.
Stubby are about 3 to 4 inches long, but seem to actually perform better than the "regular" antennas.
If you haven't tried one of the stubbies, you will be amazed at the difference.

I have antennas with the following connectors:
BNC - stubby
PL-259 - regular and stubby
5/16 inch x 32 thread (like Motorola) - regular and stubby
RCA - stubby
F - regular

All are $10 each, plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

835. SELLING CLASSIC MORROW STATION

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-01-10 16:40:48 UTC
From: Doc
Topic: 835 Message: 835

I need to sell my Morrow "station" to purchase needed modern radio gear for emergency communications here in Florida. (Need a Kenwood TH-D7A/G and to upgrade my HF rig.)

The Morrows are rated "very scarce" by Osterman's and other experts. (I would not be parting with them were there another option.)

The MBR-5 receiver has been physically cleaned and electrically refurbished by a friend, the MB-560 transmitter could use further cosmetic cleaning but has been restored and tested electrically. (I have a complete copy of the manual set as well.)

Information about the Morrows may be viewed at my Web site:
http://www.qsl.net/k1yp/BA/Morrow/morrow1.html (the site needs work but is functional with pictures, etc.)

I acquired an AC supply from Canada that is of the same era as the Morrows. It belonged to the famous Spilsbury SB-50 mobile/portable rigs. It has been modified and tested with the Morrows.

I also acquired a Swan DC-DC vibrator that is also from the same era. It has not yet been tested and the buyer would probably want to substitute solid-state vibrator-replacements (quieter and cleaner). The station is wired up with all necessary cables and a t/r switch.

Asking $350. shipped in the continental US.

Also have the following for sale:

Kenwood TS-180S vintage solid state HF. 160-10m incl. WARC and digital display w/memories. Solid rig recently peaked by a qualified technician.
(no accessories) Asking $350. shipped conus.
Precision E-2000D vintage solid state Sig. Gen. 100khz-216mhz Exc. Cond.
with original manual, box, cables, etc. Asking $55. conus Eico 722 (someone modified it for solid state) Asking $15. conus
Heath AM-1 Asking $15. conus

Looking for a working receiver, might be attached to a dead transmitter. :-) It'll be for controlling a repeater, so I'm looking for anything from a decent scanner to maybe a semi-dead Maxar 50 or something in between. As long as it can receive DTMF tones and be in the 440 band, I'll think about it. Thanks!

844. Misc computer items for free

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 844 Message: 844

I found a couple 2 x CD ROM drives and also a single speed CD ROM drive. While I realize these are slow, they may be just the thing you need to add to an older computer to get them to read CD ROMs. I know any speed is better than no speed! Controller card also included.
Free for the cost of shipping.

I still have some of the other computer items available for the cost of shipping.

VLB cards
Super IDE (with serial and parallel, as well as IDE hard drive controller
and floppy drive controller)
Video (most 1 Meg)

ISA cards
Super IDE
Modems (most 14.4 K, one 28.8 K left)
Monochrome cards (most with parallel ports)

I still have a few 386 main boards (with CPU) available.

1 Meg 30 pin SIMMs

I almost hate to list it, but I have a large quantity of 8 bit ISA type cards, as used in the original IBM PC and clones and in the XTs. I am not going to list all of the types of cards I have, but instead ask that if you can use any, please let me know what you need.
This includes some 5 1/4 inch floppy drives, and a couple of 20 Meg MFM hard drives. I probably have it!

Let me know what you would like.

Thanks.

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 854 Message: 854

For Sale:

Shakespeare Model 4616 omni directional antenna, suitable for use on a 2 meter repeater. This is equivalent to a super station master. It is large -- about 22 feet long, and very, very heavy duty. For some reason the spec sheet does not give actual gain, but it has to be at least 6 db, and maybe 9 db over a dipole. Has "N" connector, but I also have a 6 foot pigtail to go from the "N" connector to a SO-239.

This antenna is NEW. It has never been in the air, and has been stored inside.

Because of its size, this must be pick up only in North Central Florida. It can be carried on top of a minivan. $ 250

Thanks.

For sale:

Details and pictures available via web site below...

Hallicrafters S-38D receiver in good condition.
This is the preferred, gray version of the S-38D (not blond color). Has all the original knobs and a very nice back panel. It works, and has a nice-looking original power cord.
Pictures available. Will sell for $75.00 plus shipping

Hallicrafters SX-43 receiver in good condition. Works well, and has no dents or dings. Includes the rare matching speaker model R-44 which also works.
The SX-43 needs cleaning up a little on the outside but the inside looks good.
Both could use some paint but are in typical condition for a setup from this period. Pictures available.
Will sell both together for $275.00 plus shipping

Hallicrafters HT-41 linear amplifier in good condition.
Solid state rectifiers have been installed. It's all there.
Last owner said it was putting out about 300 Watts, but selling as-is. This may need a little work. Looks good.
Pictures available. Will sell for $325.00 plus shipping.

Heath HS-24 loudspeaker, intended for use with mobile rigs but will look great with any Heath set-up.
Heath green. Excellent condition.
Will sell for $35.00 plus shipping

Drake DC-3 mobile power supply for 12V DC operation.
Matches the Drake TR-3 and the TR-4 series transceivers and will work with either one.
Will sell for $55.00 plus shipping

Swan Cygnet 270B HF transceiver with original manual.
Overall very clean and looks good. Has built-in 120V AC power supply.
A few minor paint chips. Looks complete and in very good condition, but no way to test it as there is no AC power cable Easy to make up one using a 12-pin Jones plug and the manual has the pin-outs. Or I can make you one for $15.00
Pictures available. Will sell for $115.00 plus shipping

Also Swan SW-240 HF SSB transceiver for 20, 40 and 75m bands.
Looks very good - two small chips off s-meter case but otherwise looks excellent. Sold as-is and untested but is complete.

I also have the rather rare matching Swan model TCU Remote VFO, speaker, VOX and 100 kc. calibrator unit. Comes in the same case as the SW-240 and makes a really cool pair. No power supply unfortunately.

Will sell the SW-240 for $120.00 and the TCU remote VFO for $100.00

Shipping is additional.

E-mail me for pictures if interested.

886. TenTec "fast acting" circuit breakers FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-02-11 00:26:11 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 886 Message: 886

For Sale:

TenTec "fast acting" DC circuit breakers.
TenTec has a fast current limiting circuit built in to their power supplies. If you are using your TenTec rig on a battery, mobile, or on a power supply made by another manufacturer, you do not have the protection that is built in to the TenTec power supplies.

To help this situation, TenTec sold 3 different models of very fast acting magnetic circuit breakers, depending on the current consumption of the rig. This circuit breaker can also be used as an On-Off switch for mobile use.

Model 1140 is used for all of the 100 W output rigs, including the Triton, Omni, Delta, Paragon, and any of the other "big rigs". It is made to carry 18 amps.

Model 1125 is used with the 50 W output rigs. It was specified for the Argosy, and I would assume also the Scout. It was made to carry 9 to 10 amps.

Model 1170 (also called 1179) was made to be used with the Century CW only rigs (both Century 21 and 22).
It was made to carry 5 amps.

I know that I had some of these around, and there was a discussion and people wanting to get them on one of the mailing lists I am on (I don't remember which one).

In any case, I finally unpacked the right box, and found a couple.

It should be noted that these can also be used with other rigs, such as 2 meter rigs, to protect and also to act as a switch.

I have an 1140 that appears to be new in the box, as best
I can tell. $ 15

I also have an 1125, that appears that it might be new. It has never been soldered to, but is not in its box. $ 10

I also have an 1170 and an 1179, in same condition as the 1125 above. $ 10

All of them have their paper work with them, although there is not much to hooking them up -- open the positive 13 V DC line, and insert the breaker in series.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

888. TenTec 248 noise blanker FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-02-11 20:40:33 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 888 Message: 888

First, the Tentec 1140 and 1125 circuit breakers that I listed last evening are gone. The 1170 and 1179 (used for the Century 21 and 22, CW only rigs) are available. There must be a real demand for the 1140, from the number of requests I got.

I also found a TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs. It is quite effective on some noise, and not effective at all on other types of noise. It includes an extra xtal filter on the noise blanker board, so that the bandpass is not "broadened out" as much as most noise blankers.

It does not go in the Omni series C, as they came with a different blanker installed as a standard item from the factory.

This one has all the paper work with it, for $50 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Does anyone know how to contact Matt?

Perhaps you are reading this having re-subscribed with a new address Matt.

If so, please get in touch.

Thanks - Brian Carling

P.S. Apologies to the list - this was a last resort to try to reach MATT!

I have listed these before, and a good quantity now have new homes.
However, I have a much larger quantity than one would likely imagine, so still have the following available, free for the cost of shipping.

VLB cards
Super IDE (with serial and parallel, as well as IDE hard drive controller
and floppy drive controller)
Video (most 1 Meg)

ISA cards
Super IDE
Modems (most 14.4 K)
Monochrome cards (most with parallel ports)
VGA cards w/ 256K RAM

I still have a few 486 and 386 main boards (with CPU) available.

1 Meg 30 pin SIMMs

I have a large quantity of 8 bit ISA type cards, as used in the original IBM PC and clones and in the XTs.
I am not going to list all of the types of cards I have, but instead ask that if you can use any, please let me know what you need. This includes some 5 1/4 inch floppy drives, and a couple of 20 Meg MFM hard drives.

I need to sort thru more things, but there will be software and CD ROM disks coming again soon.

Let me know what you would like.

Shipping would be from Florida.

Thanks.

Sure, I can tell you about the Abbott TR-4. It was a first attempt at a portable 2 meter transceiver. The receiver section is a 955 acorn tube in a super-regenerative mode, link coupled to the antenna terminals. The transmitter is a dual plate HY-75 modulated VFO! It produces a very wide signal, with both AM and FM components -- not something you would want to put on 2 meters today. A battery compartment held A, B and C batteries. It was a favorite for an inexpensive rig to talk with your buddy a few blocks away.

I used to have one, but don't know where it went. Maybe I sold it to your grandfather...

Don't know the particular model of the Hallicrafters so I'll leave that to someone else.

HI All

I have about 3 Kenwood TK260, 4 channels, I picked these radio up about 5 months ago from a pawn shop,they work great, still being used right now. Currently using 2 channel that are on Buisness dot freq. I only have 1 charger for it, when I got it only came with one, sorry.

These radio coming from the pawn shop, they had some damages to the case of the radio," should have known coming from a pawn shop" But what they did was they force open the battery to take off from the radio from the buttom, leaving some damaged case on the side and buttom of the radios only, all of the radio have the pin missing to hold the battery in place, I just used electrical tape, hehe. But from the scale of 1-10 I give it a 6 , buttom case does not affect anything, and radio itself works GREAT!!!!, I love it, just not much use for it, I need some in UHF band. Also please e-mail me @ ho_r@hotmail.com for pictures on the radio, I willl get some close up details so you can see.

Price range I want to for these, I have no idea where to start the price at. Please make an offer for me, or trade for a couple of mobile radios, that is in the UHF range with 2 or more channels or 1 VHF and UHF mostly looking to get some mobiles for GRMS , Please make me an offer or mobile radio u have or what price I should put this for.

Thanks if anybody could help me, where to start, and thanks if you can respond

Hi Brendan

I have a 212 and a 242 ,both are 10 and 45 watts. The 252 is the newer mobil with 25 watts and less channels. both not for sale. I have had little or no problem with either radio. The 252 I have heard a number of people have a lot of problems. For a little more money you might think of Kenwood or Icom or one of the brand names. Good luck and welcome to ham hood

Check around at the Radio Shack Company stores for the HTX-242, I got one in January for 119.99 on final clearance. Have them check the inventory for the US to see if there is one in stock somewhere else.

Thanks to all for the wonderful response! I kind of determined after stopping by my local Radio Shack, that the 252 is the cheapest of the radios that I've seen. I didn't want to spend my money on a piece of junk though. Thanks again for the advice!

I have a couple vintage meters for sale.

Meter # 1 is a Triplett 310 "Mighty Mite" VOM.
It includes a nice real leather case, with Triplett imprinted on it, a set of original probes, and the original manual.

This unit looks as close to new as you would ever find. I have looked all over it and can not even find one scratch. The manual looks new, except for the possibility that the pages are not quite as white as they once were. The leather case is made so that it can go on a belt, but does not look as if it ever was on one. $ 75

Meter #2 is a DC only voltmeter. It has 3 scales on it -- 5, 10, and 25 volts. It says it is a Niehoff Voltmeter, Chicago, Model T-2. It looks like maybe 1930s vintage.
It is in very good shape, but I do not have the manual for this one. $ 35

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Hello Everybody

Well I couldnt seel this GP68 VHF yet and I have been thinking of getting another MT2000 in UHF T-band, well I can only go as low as $200.00 firm with 1 rapid charger and 2 high capcity battery with it, or I can put few more money into this GP68 for a trade with a MT2000 UHF 160 Channel A7 450-520 or a hacked radio, but perfer original 160 channel. If anybody could help, please e-mail me back, I dont have to much money because my other MT2000 is with somebody that is not contacting me back, but if you could help me, and trade for a GP68 and let me add some more money in to get a trade for a MT2000, it would be helpful.
Thanks,

For Sale:

TenTec 214 desk microphone.
This is the electrolet mic that is banana shaped, and will slip in and out of a separate base. It is NOT the 705 gooseneck mic. Has 4 pin plug for TenTec gear, and requires a polarizing voltage from the rig, to make the electrolet mic element work. Virtually all TenTec rigs (and also the 234 speech processor) with the 4 pin plug provide this. In very good shape, with the paper work and base for $65.

TenTec 215 P Microphone
This mic is the same style as the 214, but is NOT an electrolet mic, but has a Hi Z crystal element. It was used on the earlier Argonauts, Tritons, etc. and has a 1/4 inch stereo plug for a connector. It has a regular (not coiled) cord, so that it could be plugged into the rear of the earlier Ten Tec rigs. It is the sort of bluish-gray color. This one looks like new, with only very minor scratching where it slides in and out of the base. Most of these lost their paint around the PTT switch, but this one looks like new in that area. Paperwork and base are included for $ 70.

Matches most any of the modern TenTec
rigs that take the 4 pin plug. $ 30

Not TenTec, but Shure 444

1020. TenTec 299 voice frequency readout FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

For Sale:

TenTec 299 Voice synthesized frequency counter

This unit is used with the TenTec Omni 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It is a direct plug in for TenTec rigs that have the square 9 pin Molex connector on the back. It will work with other rigs (such as the Triton), with minor mods to get the right connections.

The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. There is also a volume control on the front panel.

Of course it can also be used to give a "voice digital readout" to a rig with an analog dial.

This particular unit is in great shape electrically. Cosmetically it has some wear, especially close to the button that is pushed to activate it.

$ 195 plus shipping from Florida.

I hope nobody minds if I recommend a web site that has the Photon Micro Lights. They are great to have with you in case your power is out and you need light for safety or emergencies. The red and orange won't impair your night vision, the white gives you full spectrum color and the blue and turqouise are the brightest. Photons weigh just 6 grams, fit under a quarter and can be seen for over a mile. Rich www.photonmicro.com and VOX, notch filter, and passband tuning, and works CW, SSB, AFSK RTTY and FM.

It's the high power version of the Argonaut II model 535, and the final amp module can be easily bypassed for 5 watt QRP.

I'm the second owner and I've used it as my backup and for occasional CW QSO
's. Was bought in '92 from a buddy who only kept it a short while. I've bought a Pegasus as my main rig. QSK CW performance is of course excellent and on a par with what's expected of Ten-Tec.

Receiver coverage is 100 KHz to 29.999.99 MHz, transmitter 1.8 to 29.999.99.
Rig runs on 12 to 14 volts DC from your power supply or auto.

Sideband bandwidth is continuously adjustable from 2.5 KHz to 500 Hz, which is amazingly useful, plus there are wider filters for AM and FM. This radio was designed so there are no extra filters to buy.

Cabinet size is 3.75" X 9.75" X 14" HWD, 12 pounds, 7 oz, original price was about $1400. A full review can be found in the July 1992 CQ magazine.

Works fine, looks fine, and includes manual (operating, tech and schematics), power cable, and cooling fan.

Photo available at http://home.amexol.net/~talkradio/delta2_4.jpg or by email.

Price $600 plus shipping if needed from 03748.

Ten-Tec Delta II model 536

This is a synthesized hf transceiver with general coverage receive and transmit, 100 watts output, continuously variable selectivity, 48 memories, dual digital VFOs, and computer controllable. Includes a speech processor and VOX, notch filter, and passband tuning, and works CW, SSB, AFSK RTTY and FM.

1039. TenTec accessories FS

TenTec accessories For Sale:

TenTec KR-50 keyer.
Iambic, with dit and dah memories, if desired (they can be turned on or off). Built in Iambic paddles, 12 V DC or 110 V AC power, and reed relay output
to key most any rig. $ 60

TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs.
It is quite effective on some noise, and not effective at all on other types of noise. It does not go in the Omni series C, as they came with a blanker installed as a standard item from the factory. This one has all the paper work with it, for $50.

TenTec 280 power supply.
Very rugged power supply, good for 20 amps at 13 V DC. Probably the best one TenTec ever made.
Includes ammeter on front panel, and dual pass transistors, with over voltage protection.
Can be used with any rig needing up to 20 amps, but has the 4 pin TenTec power connector on it now. Manual included for $125.

TenTec 215 P Microphone (same as EV mic used on Drakes)
This mic is the "banana" style, with a separate base, and has a Hi Z crystal element. It was used on the earlier Argonauts, Tritons, etc. and has a 1/4 inch stereo plug for a connector. This is the TenTec version of the EV mic that was also used on the Drake "4" line. This one looks like new, with only very minor scratching where it slides in and out of the base. Most of these lost their paint around the PTT switch, but this one looks like new in that area. Paperwork and base are included for $ 65.

TenTec hand microphone with 4 pin plug.
Matches most any of the modern TenTec
rigs that take the 4 pin plug. $ 30

Shure 444 D dynamic desk microphone
The 444 has voice shaping built in to it.
PTT switch on the base.
This particular mic is the black color, and is in very good shape. Presently has 1/4 inch stereo plug on it. $ 60

Digital readout. Similar in function to TenTec 244.
Give a digital readout to your analog rig.
This one is made by ESE in Englewood CA, according to the info on the unit. I used it plugging in to the square molex connector on the back of the TenTec rigs.
It is in a TenTec enclosure. $75

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Ken,
It appears that, at least for me, the source was a file from a Dr. Tom. The virus was captured and quarantined. However, the best protection 0ne can use is not opening strange e-mail. This one was certainly strange. Also, one should always have active, updated virus protection. I run two layers of virus protection after having had one bad experience.

1057. ADI AT-600 dual band HT and accessories FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-05-26 13:20:23 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 1057 Message: 1057

For Sale:

ADI AT-600 dual band HT
This HT has just about everything but the kitchen sink.
Covers the two meter band and also the 440 MHz band, with a lot of receive frequencies in between, including weather frequencies. It has more memories than one can use, or at least it seems that way to me. This one is the high power version, so you have 5 W output in the high position, about 2.5 in medium and about 1/4 W in low.
It is in very good electrical and physical condition. Selling since there is no 440 MHz activity around here. The closest repeater is about 70 miles away, so no need for a 440 MHz HT. It includes rubber duck, charger, and manual for $200.

ADI speaker mic with volume control. Fits the AT-600 listed above and most any of the HTs that use a 2.5 mm and a 3.5 mm plug, but adds a volume control right on the speaker mic. Excellent condition for $35.

Kenpro SM-1 speaker mic.
Similar to the ADI above, but no volume control.
Looks like new. $ 20

Icom HS-10 and HS-10 SB, boom headset
with the microphone and switch box. Gain control in the switch box. Fits most Icom, ADI, Alinco, some Yaesu, and other HTs that take the same plugs. New these are $110 for the combo, but this one is in great shape for only $ 55.

Daiwa Boom mic and headset. Similar to the Icom
HS-10 listed above. Great shape for $ 50.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Need 2 meter Duplexers donated to set up a Repeater at a junior high school.. School says the Kids can have a Ham club, if we can get the equipment donated. So far 2 HF rigs & 2 HT's have been found, along with a Micor VHF Moble for the Repeater. I will foot the bill for moderate shipping cost. These are good kids with an interest in Amateur radio, but most are below poverty level and cannot afford the equipment. If you or your club have some old cans laying around that can be rebuilt please let us know.

Turner 253 desk microphone.
This is a low Z model, so it will work with most of the new modern rigs. It is a brushed chrome styling with nice PTT switch. $35

Shure 450 desk microphone.
It looks exactly like a Shure 444 as far as I can tell, but says 450 on it. Same color, PTT bar, etc. It also has a switch on the bottom for both Hi and Low Z, and even has its original tag on the cord, saying how important a good cord is. $ 45

Astatic D-104 desk microphone.
Big chrome lollypop, and chrome "grip" for PTT with gray colored round base. $ 50

TenTec 215 P Microphone (same as EV mic used on Drakes)
This mic is the "banana" style, with a separate base, and has a Hi Z crystal element. It was used on the earlier Argonauts, Tritons, etc. and has a 1/4 inch stereo plug
for a connector. This is the TenTec version of the EV mic that was also used on the Drake "4" line. This one looks like new, with only very minor scratching where it slides in and out of the base. Most of these lost their paint around the PTT switch, but this one looks like new in that area. Paperwork and base are included for $ 65.

Speaker microphone / boom headsets:

Icom HS-10 and HS-10 SB, boom headset
with the microphone and switch box. Gain control in the switch box. Fits most Icom, ADI, Alinco, some Yaesu, and other HTs that take the same plugs. New these are $110 for the combo, but this one is in great shape for only $ 55.

Late s/n (4 mil) - this pair is scratch and dent free! No optional filters & stock as came from factory (have manual but not original boxes). Works like a champ, including auto antenna tuner! On an overall scale of 1-10, this pair is 9++!

I can send JPEG pictures... tell me which views you want! $775.00 (no personal check) for both; You pay shipping & insurance from zip 30093 (if you have a business address for shipping, costs less).

I can have it boxed by my employer's shipping dept and believe me they know how to box! This is being sold for XYL of an SK. I have put the radio on air to verify operation of all functions.

Kenwood HF Accessory items FS:

Kenwood SP-430
This is the speaker that matches the TS-430, TS-440, TS-711, TS-811, and many other Kenwood rigs. This one works 100%, and looks the same. There is not a scratch on it that I can find. It looks like it just came out of the box. I have the single page instruction sheet, and think I can dig in the attic and find the original box (it is 94 degrees here, and I don't want to go into the attic until I need to!) for $75.

Kenwood MC-80 desk microphone
This desk mic has the 8 pin plug, and is made to work with most all of the Kenwood rigs that take the 8 pin plug. It is a very nice "gooseneck" type mic. This particular unit is just like new in its box with the paper work included for $90.

Kenwood MC-85 desk microphone
This desk mic is similar to the MC-80, but has provisions for 3 separate cables, so that it can be used with 3 different radios. It also has a speech compressor built in. This one is in good shape, but not as good as the MC-80 and SP-430 listed above. It has a couple scratches on it, but is still in great overall condition, with paper work, in its box for $110.

Kenwood MC-43 S hand microphone
This is the "standard" microphone that came with many of the rigs that take the 8 pin mic connector that this one has on it. It has "up" and "down" switches, as well as the normal PTT switch. This particular MC-43 is very close to new. It is in its plastic bag. I am not sure if the bag was ever opened or not, so if it is not new, it is very close. $ 45

Kenwood heavy DC power cord
This is the actual Kenwood cord, and not a third party make over. It has the two fuses, and has never been opened. It fits all of the Kenwood (and Icom) rigs that take the standard 6 pin power plug. $ 22

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

TenTec 545 Omni, Series A, HF CW / SSB xcvr.
All solid state, with up to 100 W output. The ALC can also be turned back with a front panel control for QRP operation. Covers 160 through 10 meters (No WARC).
Full QSK on CW, and a fantastic receiver. Terrific audio quality on SSB also. Built in audio CW filter. This one was used by a blind ham, so has "dots" on the dial skirt, so he knew the frequency he was on. If this is a problem (and it does not really seem to be), I think I new dial skirt could be obtained. This one is in great shape, with manual for $200.

TenTec 560 Corsair transceiver. 160 through 10 m including WARC bands. SSB or CW, with 100 Watts output, digital readout, great QSK. With manual
for $450

TenTec 215 P Microphone (same as EV mic used on Drakes)
This mic is the "banana" style, with a separate base, and has a Hi Z crystal element. It was used on the earlier Argonauts, Tritons, etc. and has a 1/4 inch stereo plug
for a connector. This is the TenTec version of the EV mic that was also used on the Drake "4" line. This one looks like new, with only very minor scratching where it slides in and out of the base. Most of these lost their paint around the PTT switch, but this one looks like new in that area. Paperwork and base are included for $ 65.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

1109. Rubber duck antennas FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-07-04 14:35:36 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 1109 Message: 1109

Does anyone ever need any replacement antennas for 2 meter handhelds?

I have a variety of "rubber duck" antennas for sale.
All of them are made to cover the 2 meter band, and are in like new condition. They come in two different lengths. The regular are about 6 inches long, and look like the normal antennas that come with most HTs.
Stubby are about 3 to 4 inches long, but seem to actually perform better than the "regular" antennas.
If you haven't tried one of the stubbies, you will be amazed at the difference.

I have antennas with the following connectors:
BNC - stubby
PL-259 - regular and stubby
5/16 inch x 32 thread (like Motorola) - regular and stubby
RCA - stubby
F - regular

Kenwood "Stubby duck" antenna for the TH-21,
two meter HT

Kenwood full size rubber duck antenna for the TH-21 two meter HT.

Kenwood "Stubby duck" antenna for the TH-41.
440 MHz HT.

All are $10 each, plus shipping from Florida.

Antenna adapter to fit the connector on the TH -
21 / 31/ 41, and adapt it to standard PL-259
antenna connector. $ 3

Antenna adapter as above, but goes to
BNC connector. $ 3

I also have a variety of microphones available.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

1115. TenTec HF equipment FS

TenTec HF equipment for sale:

TenTec 546 Omni D, HF CW / SSB xcvr.
All solid state, with up to 100 W output. The ALC can also be turned back with a front panel control for QRP operation. Covers 160 through 10 meters (No WARC).
Full QSK on CW, and a fantastic receiver. Terrific audio quality on SSB also. Built in audio CW filter. This one is in great shape, with manual for $295.

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply.
Has ammeter on front. Matches the Omni series.
Great condition, with manual for $ 100

TenTec 243 remote VFO.
For use with the Omni series of xcvrs. Allows "split" operation, and also reception of 2 frequencies simultaneously on the same band. Looks like new,
with manual for $110.

TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker
that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs.
It is quite effective on some noise, and not effective at all on other types of noise. It does not go in the Omni series C, as they came with a blanker installed as a standard item from the factory. This one has all the paper work with it, for $50.

TenTec 1150 "Over Voltage Protection"
Made to plug into the 252 series of TenTec power supplies, and provide protection in case the pass transistor on the supply would short out. Like new, with paper work for $ 18.

TenTec 1140 circuit breaker.
Protect any of the 100 W output TenTec rigs, when not using a real TenTec power supply (using it off of battery, Astron supply, etc.). Carries 18 amps. $ 18

TenTec 227 antenna tuner.
Matches Omni series xcvrs. Inductor has 47 taps, so it is almost like a roller inductor. Handles 300 watts.
Also has antenna switch for switching up to 4 antennas.
Looks and works like new, with paper work for $ 60.

TenTec KR-5 keyer with paddle.
This is a KR-5 and NOT the KR-5 A. This one matches the original "PM" series rigs. It does not have the orange button in the TenTec logo that can be used as a straight key. This unit looks just like new and is definitely collectable. With paper work

for $ 50.

TenTec 215 P Microphone (same as EV mic used on Drakes)
This mic is the "banana" style, with a separate base, and has a Hi Z crystal element. It was used on the earlier Argonauts, Tritons, Omnis, etc. and has a 1/4 inch stereo plug for a connector. This is the TenTec version of the EV mic that was also used on the Drake "4" line. This one looks like new, with only very minor scratching where it slides in and out of the base. Most of these lost their paint around the PTT switch, but this one looks like new in that area. Paperwork and base are included for $ 65.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

1120. FS: ACC RC-850 Controller

From: Stanley, Matthew D.
Topic: 1120 Message: 1120

Hello, our local club is selling its ACC RC-850 controller to help fund some repeater upgrades. The unit started having issues last year and doesn't appear to function correctly. We decided to purchase a new controller instead of having the unit fixed since at the time of its failure we had an upcoming hamfest we needed the repeater operational for. I believe the unit is repairable but we just don't have time to mess with sending it off so we are selling it in broken condition. It has autopatch, voice board w/ extra vocab chip and the manuals. We would like to ask $300.00 obo for the unit since most of us believe that it could be repaired for a couple hundred giving you a wonderful controller for less than a new RLC-2 (another great controller!).

Thanks for your time!

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

For Sale:

Pair of 4-400 A, Penta Lab tubes.
1958 date code. JAN designation.
These came from the estate of a silent key, and I have no way to test them. In talking with the widow, I would guess they are pulls from a government transmitter. They are in their boxes, and have "Full Out" written on the box, so I assume this means they were running at their rated output. If you get them, and are not happy with them, you may return them for a full refund, less shipping costs. $ 75 for the pair

4-250 tubes
Eimac, 1959, according to the box.
These are marked "NG" on the box, so I assume they are only good for making lamps, or other ornaments.
$ 18 for the pair.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Very small indeed. Projects 6inches to 100 inches screen. PAL/SECAM switchable. This unit is as new, never used in anger, comes with instructions , leads, table tripod and carry bag.

Would swap for laptop, amateur radio equipment or W.H.Y.

HI all,

I know this got nothing to do with radios, but it does with computers and somebody can use them to hook up there computer for internet or ethernet, for packet radio. but this is what i have for sale, and you can make me an offer for all of them or sperate, am taking any offers. But am sorry for this e-mail though, just thought some of yall might need these, espically these days

I have a Efficent Network Speed Stream 3060 ADSL modem, still works Great, just cant use it anymore cause Freedsl.com went out of buisness along time ago, so am selling it for any reasonable price. but try me. With the Modem I have about 5 or 6 DSL filters and 2 wall mount DSL filter. I dont have the CD to install the modem, but its on there website and you can download the latest one, then the one I use to have, if I find the CD I will include it. and here is the Links for the Modem specifcation.
http://www.efficient.com/products/modpci.html and here is the Software http://support.efficient.com/drivers/ss30/index.shtml

The next thing I have is a USB card, so if your computer dont really have a USB, then you can install this, just need a windows 98 cd to install it.

and Finally I have 2 3com Home network Phoneline kit, I used this with no problem, uses your phoneline as a ethernet with both computer, not to bad I say. Comes with full software to install.

Thaat is pretty much what I have, am having these things laying around so just make me an offer for all of this, i probally wont refuse your offer.

TenTec equipment for sale:

TenTec 227 antenna tuner.
Matches Omni series xcvrs. Inductor has 47 taps, so it is almost like a roller inductor. Handles 300 watts.
Also has antenna switch for switching up to 4 antennas.
Balun included, for balanced line. Looks and works like new, with paper work for $ 60.

TenTec 255 Deluxe Power Supply
Matches the early Omni series, and includes ammeter
and speaker, and trim ring. Dual pass transistors similar to the heavy duty 280 power supply. Good for 20 amps at 13 V DC. This one looks almost like new, and works the same. With manual for $ 115.

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply.
Has ammeter on front. Matches the Omni series.
Great condition, with manual for $ 100

TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker
that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs.
It is quite effective on some noise, and not effective at all on other types of noise. It does not go in the Omni series C, as they came with a blanker installed as a standard item from the factory. This one has all the paper work with it, for $50.

TenTec KR-5 keyer with paddle.
This is a KR-5 and NOT the KR-5 A. This one matches the original "PM" series rigs. It does not have the orange button in the TenTec logo that can be used as a straight key. This unit looks just like new and is definitely collectable. With paper work
for $ 50.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

1186. FS: VHF Amplifier

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-08-11 17:51:52 UTC
From: Marv E Ads
Topic: 1186 Message: 1186

I have some kind late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly for sale.

It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards.

The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing.

Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance. with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the stages are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good.

The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately.
Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much!

Asking $70, plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

1189. FS: Homebrew Radio things

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Marv E Ads
Topic: 1189 Message: 1189

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $2

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries. - $3

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $5

Two Tone generator -- Two Wein Bridge Oscillators powered by two 9 volt batteries on perf board. - $5

Some kind of test oscillator with a 556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $12

A VHF thing -- Two trombone lines adjustable between 4-6" with a transistor connected between them plus a Phasotron 50 ua 2" round meter on a BNC cable with a small loop w/a diode. -- $12

NTSC Frequency reference -- I think this was a QST project in the early 1980's. PCB in 4"x5"x8" metal case (top missing) w/feet, AC line powered. -- $20

144-148 MHz to 24-28 MHz Transverter -- 5" x4" x 4" overall -- 2N3866 Output transistor, probably runs about a watt on transmit. Barrier strip for power (12V?) and an 8 pin Japanese style Mike connector for ?. Transmit & receive sections are each 5" x4" x 2" and only interconnected with a few wires -- $30

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

 Power Supplies, Inverter, UPS *****

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse. There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. They have a six-pin SIL output connector and come with a matching cable to pigtails. The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

 Mechanical Things & tools *****

Very Large format graphics camera. Looks like it will take up to 14" x 18" film. Has a f4.5 lens that stops down to f16, with no shutter -- use a lens cap with slow film. Designed to ride on a 14" wide track, a couple strips of wood or metal that I don't have. Remember when you needed one of these to make circuit boards!? No manufacturer info visible. $500.

Craftsman (Atlas) lathe screw for a 54" bed (36" work space) lathe.
Used, good condition. $150

Craftsman 335.25926 "Drill Press" -- adapts a 1/4" electric drill (not included)
to function as a small drill press. Used, but not much! $20

Trav-A-Dial bidirectional electronic counter -- I think this was originally for use with a mill or lathe in conjunction with a 200 count/rev quadrature encoder (which I DON'T have but are available from many sources) to read displacement in .0005" increments up to 200 inches.
These use Hewlett Packard dot matrix decimal readouts for a very pretty display. Switches for direction control and reset. Nice cast metal case, requires 5 volts power, 6 pin female Jones connector interface w/pinout provided. $75

Prototype or reject circuit boards from the above -- the readouts are either all good or one bad one per board -- which is probably why they were removed from service. $15 ea

Pulled and tested HP 5082-7300 RHDP decimal readouts -- $5 ea
Pulled and tested HP 5082-7304 +/-1 decimal readouts -- $3 ea

NOS 5082-7302 LHDP decimal readouts, still in HP packaging, $10 ea.

NOS fan that fits some Japanese radio...marked: 57 10.01 100V
The wires from the motor are about 4' long and are terminated in a 2

It is mounted to a U shaped metal frame with four mounting holes spaced 5cm by 9cm

$10

Listed below are all serious squirrel cage type fans:

Redmond Model BL-6 115 VAC .8A 60Hz 3000 RPM 4" round intake, 2.5" square output flange, weighs 6lbs. used -- $20

ILG Electric Ventilation 17-18-022A encased motor with 181-009-EA fan 115/230 VAC 1.6A/.8A 50/60Hz 3000 RPM 4?" round intake, 3?" x 4-3/4" rectangular output flange, weighs 25lbs. used -- $30

 MISCELLANEOUS ***

NOS coily cable for a Yaesu MH-27 mike (may fit others). Later version with the RJ connector at the radio end. $10.

Filter Cap Assemblies: Eight CDE 80 uF/450V axial electrolytics mounted to a 5"x8" fiberglass PCB -- these are currently wired sort of series-parallel but, could be reconfigured by cutting & jumping a couple PC traces. $20 ea. (2 available)

Large (uncased) display unit. 256, T-1 3/4, LED's arranged in a 16 x 16 pattern that is about 5" square. There is a 6" x 6" mother board plus 16 daughter boards holding the LED's. The LED's are driven by latches so any/all of them can be lit. There is a 14 pin DIP interface connector -- pin out provided. $75.

DPDT Crystal Can relays with 600ohm 28V coils and 2A 28V contacts made by Leach, Datron and other manufacturers. They have small solder hook pins for connection and a pair of ears on the sides to mount the relay. These are old but, as they are hermetically sealed, they should be like new inside! NOS $3 ea (a dozen or so available)

assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the stages are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea --
Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

Carter Radio 500K ohm rheostat with 2" diameter skirted knob, calibrated 0-100 over 270 degrees -- $15

Motorola 4-pin Microphone connectors 28-16730 -- NIB $5ea

Motorola TLN6824A Vibrasender -- Freq. 1B, 107.2 Hz $2

Motorola TLN1361A Timeout Timer $4

National Type A Velvet Vernier dials-style 2 (marked 0-100 over 180 degrees) 3-3/8" or 4" diameter -- $25 ea

Tunable CTCSS unit -- Part no. 1100-1609-000 -- 1" x 2" PCB with wires to an 8 pin SIP connector -- Includes double sticky mounting tape. NIB $10

200W (or so -- 10" long) 1500 ohm 10 tap (every 150 ohms) power resistors -- used good, $10 ea (2 available)

Ohmite 3K, 225 Watt power resistors used w/mounting clips -- $7 ea (8 available)

Ohmite 2K, 225 Watt power resistors used w/mounting clips -- $7 ea (10 available)

Four 37.5K 78W power resistors used w/mounting clips -- $15 all.

Parasitic Supressors, large pair -- 2 Turns of 3/8" wide silver plated strap wound over Globar 25 ohm, 3" x 5/8" bulk ceramic resistors (rated 20-25 watts?). The strap extends 1.5" from one end and 2.5" from the other. The silver is heavily tarnished but should clean up with Tarn-X or similar. $20 for the pair

Powerstat Type 10 120V 1.25 A variable transformer (variac) used, no knob nor dial -- $15
Type 10B 120V 1.75 A variable transformer (variac) used, with dial, no knob -- $20
Later 10B 120V 2.25 A variable transformer (variac) used, with dial, no knob -- $25
Later 10B 120V 2.25 A variable transformer (variac) NOS, with dial, no knob -- $30

A couple old RF chokes:
#22 enameled wire space wound 24 TPI for 2.75 on a 1" diameter grooved fiberglass form 5" overall -- $10
#27 (green enameled) wire wound 40 TPI for 4.3" on a 3/4" diameter ceramic form which steps to a 1.3" diameter base tapped for two 6-32 screws, 5.5" long overall. Looks like winding has been cleanly spliced, twice -- $15

Pomona #2399 cast Aluminum Boxes (2?" x 1-1/8" x 7/8" o.d.) w/ gold plated SMA
female connector on each end. New (in factory sealed plastic bag) -- $15 ea

Thordarson 20A01 Input Transformer NIB! -- Single or double button microphone or line to single grid. Turns ratio 1:20 Includes original data sheet -- $25

Vibrafork 4 channel resonant reed relay. A real relic. NOS! $10

10uF 600 VDC "oil" caps, 5", 3.5" x 1" w/ mounting ears. $3 ea

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

These are a mix of new and used, mostly made by GE, though I saw a few Westinghouse and RCA -- they probably average 40 years old and most of the bases are somewhat tarnished from age. I lit up a couple of the larger ones and they seem to work ok.

If anyone would like the whole bunch, I'll take $75 for them all.

* Old Radio Knobs **********

These are all used, most have set screws, with nothing worse than minor scuffs and smudges and fit 1/4" shafts, unless noted.

Dakaware
1-1/16" Knurled Knob -- $3
1-1/16" Knurled Knob w/ 1.5" skirt w/ white indicator line -- $5ea
1-1/16" Knurled Knob w/ 2" skirt marked 0-10 -- $8

2-3/8" Knurled Knob w/ white vinyl pointer at skirt level -- $12 ea
2-3/8" Knurled Knob w/ 3" skirt & unfilled indicator line -- $12
2-1/16" skirt only -- $2

Long (2") pointer knob w/ white indicator line $1.50

Harry Davies
#1206 1-3/8" knobs -- $4 ea
Short (1-3/16")pointer knob unfilled indicator line -- Not sure if this is Davies... There are a box of these -- 2/$1 ea

Hewlett Packard (70's vintage)1-5/8" spinner knob w/ 3/8" bushing -- $10

Kenwood 5CM diameter knobs that look like they are from a Kenwood TS-830 (main tuning knob) or similar
"Stock" knob -- $7
One that's been backfilled with shot to give it some heft -- $7
The plastic spinner version -- $15

Kurz-Kasch
#308 1-1/8" knob -- $4
#308 1-1/8" knob w/ 1-3/4" brite metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated in black -- $8

#310 2-3/8" knob -- hub drilled out to 3/8" -- $8
#310 2-3/8" knob w/metal spinner shaft -- $12 ea
#311 2-1/16" skirted knob (some of the white lines are need refilling on these) -- $8ea
#380 1.5" skirted knob -- $5

These look like what was on some '60's Hammarlund, Eico & Knight Kit stuff

#642 1.5" skirted knob -- $5
#647 1" skirted knob w/indictor line -- $5 ea
#653 1.5" skirted knob w/indictor line -- $5 ea

Millen? (has a logo that looks like a "M" with an "I" superimposed at the center) #309 3-1/2" Handwheel style knobs as seen on the SX-28, if I recall correctly.
These are all in need of minor plastic surgery -- two have chips out the skirt where the set screw goes and one has had it's center drilled through... perhaps, to make a concentric assembly??
$10 ea.

National HRT 2-1/16" diameter
Black, trim rings somewhat tarnished -- $5 ea
Gray, trim ring shiny like new -- $10

National Type A Velvet Vernier dials-style 2 (marked 0-100 over 180 degrees) 3-3/8" or 4" diameter -- good condtion, $25 ea

There are also many knobs from 1960's Tektronix and Hewlett Packard oscilloscopes, if anyone has any need, please inquire.

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

TenTec 255 Deluxe Power Supply
Matches the early Omni series, and includes ammeter

new, and works the same. With manual for $ 115.

TenTec 560 Corsair

Includes manual for $450.

TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs.

WANTED:

I am looking for a rubber duck with an SMA connector.
I would like the very small "mini" type, a couple inches long.

More specifically, I would like one for 2 m and 440 MHz. My wife will be using it with a Yaesu VX-5, and would like one that is smaller than the normal, so it is easier to carry in her purse. I fully realize that performance will suffer, but that is not an issue.

Anyone have a short SMA rubber duck?

Thanks.

1246. Radios for sale

From: anjum_sohail@hotmail.com
Topic: 1246 Message: 1246

Hi,

I have received recently the following radios. It took me some time to make sure they are all working as I was busy. They are for sale.

1. Sony ICF-SC1 (non-PC version) = 1 unit mint condition
2. Radioshack Pro-90 Trunktracker = 1 unit used for demo on the store and not abused packed in box.

3. brand new Galaxy DX949 AM/SSB = 1 Unit
4. Cherokee CBS-1000 AM/SSB cb radio = 1 Unit

Infact I receive 2 PC version of Sony WaveHawk and I thought I will keep one for my self but got a good deal and I sold them. The non PC version has only copy of user manual but no power adaptor. Any one intrested pls. contact direct on my e-mail 'anjum_sohail@...'

A word about the Sony ICF-SC1. The original frequency coverage is 25MHz~1300MHz (cell blocked). I did a keypad programing trick that will tune this radio starting from 20KHz. But nothing guaranteed below 5MHz to receive on the Short Wave. Above 5MHz yes it recieves all shortwave bands. So this Handheld scanner now a shortwave and VHF/UHF radio. It has 300 channel to store. Have following scanning mode with different steps and modes.

Band Scanning, Programmable Scanning,Memory scanning and Intelligent Memory Scanning.

Galaxy is brand new with 2 years warranty and Cherokee is efurbished both packed in boxes.

Please do not discuss prices on this list. Just e-mail me directly.

Sohail.

Just a reminder that you can't run these radios on FRS. The FRS rules specify that the power be 500 mW maximum, and that the antenna be permanently attached.

Let me be perfectly clear..

The radios have the physical ability to be programmed onto the FRS allocated frequencies, but the use of any radio that has a power output of more than 500mW or a detachable antenna is illegal. Uncle Fed does't like people breaking the rules... :@)

Sorry folks, that message contained a virus. The user has been banned from the list. I have now set the mailing list to block all attachments. If you need to show what you're selling, then you'll have to include a link to a web page. You won't be able to include a picture as an attachment any more.

Yes, we're under attack on the web also.

TenTec equipment for sale:

TenTec 255 Deluxe Power Supply
Matches the early Omni series, and includes ammeter
and speaker, and trim ring. Dual pass transistors similar to the heavy duty 280 power supply. Good for 20 amps at 13 V DC. This one looks almost like new, and works the same. With manual for $ 115.

TenTec 560 Corsair
160 thru 10 meters, including WARC bands.
CW and SSB transceiver. Great audio, and QSK on CW. Some people consider it the best rig made.
All solid state, with 100 Watts output. This particular one looks like new. No scratches that I can find. It has the 8 pole SSB filter added, so is really like a Corsair II. Includes manual for $450.

TenTec 263 remote VFO for use with 560 Corsair.
The remote VFO allows split operation, and also permits dual receive. The VFO has a control to vary how much signal from each VFO frequency is received. Frequency is read out on the digital readout of the Corsair, but also has an LED bar graph for rough frequency. This one is in good shape, does NOT need a PTO rebuild, and appears to be very stable. With the paper work for $ 150.

TenTec 960 power supply.
Produces 13 V DC at up to 20 amps. It is made to match the Corsair II in color. Has two heavy duty pass transistors.
With manual for $ 130.

TenTec KR-50 keyer.
Iambic, with dit and dah memories, if desired (they can be turned on or off). Built in Iambic paddles, 12 V DC or 110 V AC power, and reed relay output
to key most any rig. $ 60

TenTec 234 speech processor.
This one is effective. It changes the audio into RF, processes it at RF, so that the distortion is removed, and then changes it back to audio. I have found that adding this processor is about the same as turning an amplifier on. It really helps the talk power, without introducing distortion like most speech processors.
This one is in good shape, with the paper work, for $100.

Hand Microphone.
This is a "generic" hand mic, but it has the Heil HC-4
"ragchew" element in it. It presently has a 4 pin connector wired for TenTec, but that could be changed.
Nice shape for $ 45.

TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker
that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs.
This one has all the paper work with it, for $50.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

DO NOT DELETE IF YOU HAVEN'T READ THIS. THIS IS A ONE TIME MAILING.
This program is for real. And it works no matter which country you live in (read the testimonials at the end of this message). Read on and you will be convinced. It would only take 2 minutes.

Dear Friends & Future Millionaire:

AS SEEN ON NATIONAL TV:
Making over half million dollars every 4 to 5 months from your home for an investment of only $25 U.S. Dollars expense one time

Step by Step Instructions are enclosed to insure your success with this program. Please take the 2 minutes it takes to read this letter.

THANK'S TO THE COMPUTER AGE AND THE INTERNET !

BE A MILLIONAIRE LIKE OTHERS WITHIN A YEAR!!!

Before you say ''Bull'', please read the following. This is the letter you have been hearing about on the news lately. Due to the popularity of this letter on the Internet, a national weekly news program recently devoted an entire show to the investigation of this program described below, to see if it really can make people money. The show also investigated whether or not the program was legal.

Their findings proved once and for all that there are ''absolutely NO Laws prohibiting the participation in the program and if people can -follow the simple instructions, they are bound to make some mega bucks with only $25 out of pocket cost''. DUE TO THE RECENT INCREASE OF POPULARITY & RESPECT THIS PROGRAM HAS ATTAINED, IT IS CURRENTLY WORKING BETTER THAN EVER.

You are supplying information for a small fee- People will request from you copies of all reports many times over. This is a cash business better than a Mc ee D.!!!!!
Each report will give you the information you will need to succeed.

This is what one had to say: '' Thanks to this profitable opportunity. I was approached many times before but each time I passed on it. I am so glad I finally joined just to see what one could expect in return for the minimal effort and money required. To my astonishment, I received total $610,470.00 in 21 weeks, with money still coming in''. Pam Hedland, Fort Lee, New Jersey.

Here is another testimonial: ''' this program has been around for a long time but I never believed in it. But one day when I received this again in the mail I decided to gamble my $25 on it. I followed the simple instructions and walaa ..... 3 weeks later the money started to come in. First month I only made $240.00 but the next 2 months after that I made a total of $290,000.00. So far, in the past 8 months by re-entering the program, I have made over $710,000.00 and I am playing it again. The key to success in this program is to follow the simple steps and NOT change anything.'' More testimonials later but first,

Within a few days you will receive, vie e-mail, each of the 5 reports from these 5 different individuals.
Save them on your computer so they will be accessible for you to send to the 1,000's of people who will order them from you. Also make a floppy of these reports and keep it on your desk in case something happen to your computer.

IMPORTANT __ DO NOT alter the names of the people who are listed next to each report, or their sequence on the list, in any way other than what is instructed below in step '' 1 through 6 '' or you will lose out on majority of your profits. Once you understand the way this works, you will also see how it does not work if you change it. Remember, this method has been tested, and if you alter, it will NOT work !!! People have tried to put their friends/relatives names on all five thinking they could get all the money. But it does not work this way. Believe us, we all have tried to be greedy and then nothing happened. So Do Not try to change anything other than what is instructed.
Because if you do, it will not work for you. Remember, honesty reaps the reward!!!

1.... After you have ordered all 5 reports, take this advertisement and REMOVE the name & address of the person in REPORT # 5. This person has made it through the cycle and is no doubt counting their fortune.

2.... Move the name & address in REPORT # 4 down TO REPORT # 5.

3.... Move the name & address in REPORT # 3 down TO REPORT # 4.

4.... Move the name & address in REPORT # 2 down TO REPORT # 3.

5.... Move the name & address in REPORT # 1 down TO REPORT # 2

6.... Insert YOUR name & address in the REPORT # 1 Position.

PLEASE MAKE SURE you copy every name & address ACCURATELY!
==========

* Take this entire letter, with the modified list of names, and save it on your computer. DO NOT MAKE ANY OTHER CHANGES.

Save this on a disk as well just in case if you lose any data. To assist you with marketing your business on the internet, the 5 reports you purchase will provide you with invaluable marketing information which includes how to send bulk e-mails legally, where to find thousands of free classified ads and much more. There are 2 Primary methods to get this venture going:
METHOD # 1: BY SENDING BULK E-MAIL LEGALLY
==========

Let's say that you decide to start small, just to see how it goes, and we will assume You and those involved send out only 5,000 e-mails each. Let's also assume that the mailing receive only a 0.2% response (the response could be much better but lets just say it is only 0.2%. Also many people will send out hundreds of thousands e-mails instead of only 5,000 each).
Continuing with this example, you send out only 5,000 e-mails.

With a 0.2% response, that is only 10 orders for report # 1. Those 10 people responded by sending out 5,000 e-mail each for a total of 50,000. Out of those 50,000 e-mails only 0.2% responded with orders.

That's=100 people responded and ordered Report # 2.

Those 100 people mail out 5,000 e-mails each for a total of 500,000 e-mails.
The 0.2% response to that is 1000 orders for Report #
3.

Those 1000 people send out 5,000 e-mails each for a total of 5 million e-mails sent out.
The 0.2% response to that is 10,000 orders for Report
#4.

Those 10,000 people send out 5,000 e-mails each for a total of 50,000,000 (50 million) e-mails.
The 0.2% response to that is 100,000 orders for Report
THAT'S 100,000 ORDERS TIMES $5 EACH=$500,000.00 (half million).

Your total income in this example is: 1..... $50 +
2..... $500 + 3.....$5,000 + 4..... $50,000 + 5.....
$500,000 ..... Grand Total=$555,550.00

NUMBERS DO NOT LIE. GET A PENCIL & PAPER AND FIGURE OUT THE WORST POSSIBLE RESPONSES AND NO MATTER HOW YOU CALCULATE IT, YOU WILL STILL MAKE A LOT OF MONEY !

==========

REMEMBER FRIEND, THIS IS ASSUMING ONLY 10 PEOPLE ORDERING OUT OF 5,000 YOU MAILED TO. Dare to think for a moment what would happen if everyone or half or even one 4th of those people mailed 100,000 e-mails each or more? There are over 150 million people on the Internet worldwide and counting. Believe me, many people will do just that, and more!

METHOD # 2 : BY PLACING FREE ADS ON THE INTERNET

Advertising on the net is very very inexpensive and there are hundreds of FREE places to advertise. Placing a lot of free ads on the Internet will easily get a larger response. We strongly suggest you start with Method # 1 and add METHOD # 2 as you go along. For every $5 you receive, all you must do is e-mail them the Report they ordered. That's it. Always provide same day service on all orders.

This will guarantee that the e-mail they send out, with your name and address on it, will be prompt because they can not advertise until they receive the report.

========== AVAILABLE REPORTS==========

ORDER EACH REPORT BY ITS NUMBER & NAME ONLY. Notes: Always send $5 cash (U.S. CURRENCY) for each Report. Checks NOT accepted. Make sure the cash is concealed by wrapping it in at least 2 sheets of paper. On one of those sheets of paper, Write the NUMBER & the NAME of the Report you are ordering, YOUR E-MAIL ADDRESS and your name and postal address.

$$$$$$$$$ YOUR SUCCESS GUIDELINES $$$$$$$$$$$

Follow these guidelines to guarantee your success:

=== If you do not receive at least 10 orders for Report #1 within 2 weeks, continue sending e-mails until you do.

=== After you have received 10 orders, 2 to 3 weeks after that you should receive 100 orders or more for REPORT # 2. If you did not, continue advertising or sending e-mails until you do.

=== Once you have received 100 or more orders for Report # 2, YOU CAN RELAX, because the system is already working for you, and the cash will continue to roll in ! THIS IS IMPORTANT TO REMEMBER: Every time your name is moved down on the list, you are placed in front of a different report.

You can KEEP TRACK of your PROGRESS by watching which report people are ordering from you. IF YOU WANT TO GENERATE MORE INCOME SEND ANOTHER BATCH OF E-MAILS AND START THE WHOLE PROCESS AGAIN. There is NO LIMIT to the income you can generate from this business !!!

FOLLOWING IS A NOTE FROM THE ORIGINATOR OF THIS PROGRAM:
You have just received information that can give you financial freedom for the rest of your life, with NO RISK and JUST A LITTLE BIT OF EFFORT. You can make more money in the next few weeks and months than you have ever imagined.

Follow the program EXACTLY AS INSTRUCTED.
Do Not change it in anyway. It works exceedingly well as it is now. Remember to e-mail a copy of this exciting report after you have put your name and address in Report #1 and moved others to #2 .....# 5 as instructed above. One of the people you send this to may send out 100,000 or more e-mails and your name will be on every one of them. Remember though, the more you send out the more potential customers you will reach. So my friend, I have given you the ideas, information, materials and opportunity to become financially independent. IT IS UP TO YOU NOW!

========== MORE TESTIMONIALS==========

'' My name is Mitchell. My wife, Jody and I live in Chicago. I am an accountant with a major U.S. Corporation and I make pretty good money. When I received this program I grumbled to Jody about receiving ''junk mail''. I made fun of the whole thing, spouting my knowledge of the population and percentages involved. I ''knew'' it wouldn't work. Jody totally ignored my supposed intelligence and few days later she jumped in with both feet. I made merciless fun of her, and was ready to lay the old ''I told you so'' on her when the thing didn't work. Well, the laugh was on me! Within 3 weeks she had received 50 responses. Within the next 45 days she had received total $ 147,200.00 ..... all cash! I was shocked. I have joined Jody in her ''hobby''. Mitchell Wolf M.D., Chicago, Illinois

==========
'' Not being the gambling type, it took me several weeks to make up my mind to participate in this plan.
But conservative that I am, I decided that the initial investment was so little that there was just no way that I wouldn't get enough orders to at least get my money back''. '' I was surprised when I found my medium size post office box crammed with orders. I made $319,210.00 in the first 12 weeks. The nice thing about this deal is that it does not matter where people live. There simply isn't a better investment with a faster return and so big''. Dan Sondstrom, Alberta, Canada
==========
'' I had received this program before. I deleted it, but later I wondered if I should have given it a try.
Of course, I had no idea who to contact to get another copy, so I had to wait until I was e-mailed again by someone else.....11 months passed then it luckily came again..... I did not delete this one! I made more than $490,000 on my first try and all the money came within 22 weeks''. Susan De Suza, New York, N.Y.
==========
'' It really is a great opportunity to make relatively easy money with little cost to you. I followed the simple instructions carefully and within 10 days the money started to come in. My first month I made $ 20,560.00 and by the end of third month my total cash count was $ 362,840.00. Life is beautiful, Thanx to internet''. Fred Dellaca, Westport, New Zealand

Hi there:

I am looking for a copy of, or an original manual, for a STANDARD C508A radio. I don't have the manual anymore and would like to be able to operate the radio. I have not used it recently and it escapes me how to change the different functions on it.

Alternately if someone could point me in the correct direction to find the information on the WWW that would be sufficient. Thanks

For a manual, try this site: http://www.radiomanualsandmore.com/Select the Q-S...they show the 142 there...but no price...also using Google.com (the best search engine!), I looked for "Santec 142" and found several including this one who had a 142 manual listed for $20... http://www.sarrio.com/ They also have a link for batteries..
AND www.w7fg.com/ has a manual listed for $15..

I would also check the battery dealers in QST...a lot of them have batteries in stock for older radios...(Mr Battery, etc)...

http://www.mrnicd-ehyostco.com/new_page_1.htm has 4 models for the 142 listed on their web page...looks like a good site to buy from

Hope that helps.

From: scott hamm
Topic: 1310 Message: 1310

hello to all,
i recently made one of these and everyone liked it so i'm making more as i can get materials.

Make your own sky-loop for any band .
a sky-loop is virtually a quad laid down horizonally.
it has a lower noise level than beams and dipoles.
i've got one cut for 80 meters and really do like it.
with a tuner you can use it just a dipole on most any hf band.
i can tune mine from 160-6 meters, with the exception of 40 meters. (i cut mine a little short) for instance the 80 meter skyloop use 272 ft of 14 ga wire.
one drawback is they use a lot of room.
mine uses approx a 100ft x 100ft square.
you will need 4 points to connect your support ropes onto.

the kit comes with 3 end insulators(dog-bones) and a center insulator with a so-239 installed with the wires to connect your antenna onto.
i'm working on getting picture of the kit.
i made these my-self and use them.
i'm getting $20.00 picked up in my local area or:
$24.00 shipped to con us.

Heath B1 Balun (air core).

I bought this at a hamfest a few years ago, and never put it to use. Here is the technical description.

"This convenient transmitter accessory has the capability of matching unbalanced coax lines, used on most modern transmitters, to balanced lines of either 75 or 300 ohms impedance. Design of the bifilar wound Balun Coils will enable transmitters with unbalanced output to operate into balanced transmission line, such as used with dipoles, folded dipoles or any balanced antenna system. Can be used with transmitters and receivers without adjustment over the frequency range of 80 through 10 meters. Will handle power inputs up to 200 watts."

I will be glad to provide additional information, or send more detailed pictures to your email address. Contact me at w4tq@...

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

For Sale:

TenTec 248 noise blanker. This is the noise blanker that goes in the Omni 546, Series A and Series B, xcvrs. Like many noise blankers, it is quite effective on some noise, and not effective at all on other types of noise. It includes an extra xtal filter on the noise blanker board, so that the bandpass is not "broadened out" as much as most noise blankers.

It does not go in the Omni series C, as they came with a different blanker installed as a standard item from the factory.

This one has all the paper work with it, for $50 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

 RF Attenuators ***

Heavily built RF Attenuator, adjustable between 0-50dB in 10dB steps. 8" flying leads w/one terminated in a BNC Bulkhead female and the other with an N Male connector. Looks like it should be good to at least 1 GHz. 3 1/2" diameter by 4" deep overall and weighs about 4 pounds each. There are tapped holes in the front frame for panel mounting. No manufacturer is indicated. A 3/8" shaft adjusts by pulling (with a spring return) and turning so there is no chance of inadvertent resetting. No knob nor dial is included. $25

Tekscan LA-54 0-59 dB 50 ohm RF attenuator -- about 1.5" diameter by 4" long overall with concentric knobs (10db & 1 dB steps) & side mounted BNC connectors. 30dB position reads about 2.5 dB too high -- $30

Mfg. Unknown, 0-59 dB 50 ohm RF attenuator -- about 3" diameter by 6" long overall with concentric knobs (10db & 1 dB steps) & side mounted TNC connectors. -- $35

Telonic TB-50A 0-10dB 50 ohm RF attenuator -- 3" diameter by 3" deep w/ side mounted BNC connectors. $20

Mfg. Unknown, L-101A in-line VHF Waveguide-beyond-cutoff style attenuator, -30 to -100 dB range. 10" long overall max. w/ UHF connectors. $7

6 dB low power pads with N connectors, male on one end, female on the other.
Approx. 1"x1"x3" overall. 2 available $10 ea.

 More Test Equipment ***

Hewlett Packard 204B Opt. 2 Audio Oscillator (transistorized), 5Hz to 560KHz in 5 ranges. 5" x 6" x 8" deep. This is a rechargeable battery unit but, the batteries died and were removed long ago. The batteries would need to be replaced before operating or the unit could be converted to AC operation by adding a couple capacitors & zeners. I believe the unit is otherwise complete & functional but, I don't have the time to test so I can't guarantee that! This is from a friend's estate and it may have been in storage for as long as 25 years. An original HP manual is included -- $50.

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $2

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries. - $3

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $4

Two Tone generator -- Two Wein Bridge Oscillators powered by two 9 volt batteries on perf board. - $4

Some kind of test oscillator with a 556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $4

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $10

A VHF thing -- Two trombone lines adjustable between 4-6" with a transistor connected between them plus a Phasotron 50 ua 2" round meter on a BNC cable with a small loop w/a diode. -- $10

NTSC Frequency reference -- I think this was a QST project in the early 1980's. PCB in 4"x5"x8" metal case (top missing) w/feet, AC line powered. -- $15

144-148 MHz to 24-28 MHz Transverter -- 5" x4" x 4" overall -- 2N3866 Output transistor, probably runs about a watt on transmit. Barrier strip for power (12V?) and an 8 pin Japanese style Mike connector for ?. Transmit & receive sections are each 5" x4" x 2" and only interconnected with a few wires -- $20

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

1343. Yaesu HF rigs FOR SALE

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Brian Carling
Topic: 1326 Message: 1343

For sale:

Yaesu FT-101EX HF transceiver. 260 watts p.e.p. SSB, 200 watts CW, 40 watts AM on 160 through 10m plus WWV, AUX, NB, VOX, CAL etc.
Radio comes with the AC power cord, manual, microphone all ready to plug and play.
I made several QSOs on the rig today and it works fine. The function switch needs a squirt of cleaner, but everything else is solid.
Will sell for $265.00 plus shipping

Also have a parts rig FT-101E (includes additional speech processor and 12V power supply built-in) - case is a bit rusty, but rig is complete and would make a great restoration project or spare parts rig for the FT-101EX above.
Will sell for $100.00 plus shipping

Trav-A-Dial bidirectional electronic counter -- I think this was originally for use with a mill or lathe in conjunction with a 200 count/rev quadrature encoder (which I DON'T have but are available from many sources) to read displacement in .0005" increments up to 200 inches. These use Hewlett Packard dot matrix decimal readouts for a very pretty display. Switches for direction control and reset. Nice cast metal case, requires 5 volts power, 6 pin female Jones connector interface w/ pinout provided. $75

Prototype or reject circuit boards from the above -- the readouts are either all good or one bad one per board -- which is probably why they were removed from service. $15 ea

Pulled and tested HP 5082-7300 RHDP decimal readouts -- $5 ea
Pulled and tested HP 5082-7304 +/-1 decimal readouts -- $3 ea

NOS 5082-7302 LHDP decimal readouts, still in HP packaging, $10 ea.

 Power Supplies, Inverter, UPS *****

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse. There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. They have a six-pin SIL output connector and come with a matching cable to pigtails. The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.
$15 ea. (5 units available)

1361. FS: Variacs, VHF Power Amp, more

 MISCELLANEOUS ***

NOS coily cable for a Yaesu MH-27 mike (may fit others). Later version with the RJ connector at the radio end. $10.

Filter Cap Assemblies: Eight CDE 80 uF/450V axial electrolytics mounted to a 5"x8" fiberglass PCB -- these are currently wired sort of series-parallel but, could be reconfigured by cutting & jumping a couple PC traces. $20 ea. (2 available)

Large (uncased) display unit. 256, T-1 3/4, LED's arranged in a 16 x 16 pattern that is about 5" square. There is a 6" x 6" mother board plus 16 daughter boards holding the LED's. The LED's are driven by latches so any/all of them can be lit. There is a 14 pin DIP interface connector -- pin out provided. $75.

DPDT Crystal Can relays with 600ohm 28V coils and 2A 28V contacts made by Leach, Datron and other manufacturers. They have small solder hook pins for connection and a pair of ears on the sides to mount the relay. These are old but, as they are hermetically sealed, they should be like new inside! NOS $3 ea (a dozen or so available)

assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the stages are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea --
Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

Carter Radio 500K ohm rheostat with 2" diameter skirted knob, calibrated 0-100 over 270 degrees -- $15

Motorola 4-pin Microphone connectors 28-16730 or Amphenol 01-MC4M -- NIB $5ea

Motorola 0180700T14, 4-wire coily cord mike cable assembly with a mike connector as above on one end and a spring strain relief on the other. There are some flat pins on the free wire ends -- NIB $15

Motorola TLN6824A Vibrasender -- Freq. 1B, 107.2 Hz $2

National Type A Velvet Vernier dials-style 2 (marked 0-100 over 180 degrees) 3-3/8" or 4" diameter -- $25 ea

Tunable CTCSS unit -- Part no. 1100-1609-000 -- 1" x 2" PCB with wires to an 8 pin SIP connector -- Includes double sticky mounting tape. NIB $10

200W (or so -- 10" long) 1500 ohm 10 tap (every 150 ohms) power resistors -- used good, $10 ea (2 available)

Ohmite 3K, 225 Watt power resistors used w/mounting clips -- $7 ea (8 available)

Ohmite 2K, 225 Watt power resistors used w/mounting clips -- $7 ea (10 available)

Four 37.5K 78W power resistors used w/mounting clips -- $15 all.

Parasitic Supressors, large pair -- 2 Turns of 3/8" wide silver plated strap wound over Globar 25 ohm, 3" x 5/8" bulk ceramic resistors (rated 20-25 watts?). The strap extends 1.5" from one end and 2.5" from the other. The silver is heavily tarnished but should clean up with Tarn-X or similar. $20 for the pair

Powerstat Type 10 120V 1.25 A variable transformer (variac) used, no knob nor dial -- $15
Type 10B 120V 1.75 A variable transformer (variac) used, with dial, no knob -- $20
Later 10B 120V 2.25 A variable transformer (variac) used, with dial, no knob -- $25
Later 10B 120V 2.25 A variable transformer (variac) NOS, with dial & knob -- $30

A couple old RF chokes:
#22 enameled wire space wound 24 TPI for 2.75 on a 1" diameter grooved fiberglass form 5" overall -- $7
#27 (green enameled) wire wound 40 TPI for 4.3" on a 3/4" diameter ceramic form which steps to a 1.3" diameter base tapped for two 6-32 screws, 5.5" long overall. Looks like winding has been cleanly spliced, twice -- $10

Pomona #2399 cast Aluminum Boxes (2?" x 1-1/8" x 7/8" o.d.) w/ gold plated SMA
female connector on each end. New (in factory sealed plastic bag) -- $15 ea

Thordarson 20A01 Input Transformer NIB! -- Single or double button microphone or line to single grid. Turns ratio 1:20 Includes original data sheet -- $25

Vibrafork 4 channel resonant reed relay. A real relic. NOS! $10

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

It is with deep disappointment that I do this, but I must warn other sellers on the ham radio lists. I sold an Icom IC736 to a ham in Arizona, roland Geter, WB6LNA. The radio was sent to him, he has it, and promised to pay me for it on receipt.
He received it, would not pay, finally paid part of it, and now will not pay the balance due, nor will he return the radio. I am out several hundred dollars. I have told him that unless he pays the balance due, I would take this measure. I am sorry to have to do so, but it is the only way I can think of to keep the lists "honest".

His name is Roland S Geter
WB6LNA
Sellers beware, Roland told me he was an honest, honorable man, He may have had the best of intentions, but he refuses to pay me or now even answer my emails.
If he DOES pay the balance due, I will infor the lists that he has done so.Sellers beware, is all I can say. I have bought and sold radios for 20 years, and have never been burned, til now. By this guy, Roland Geter WB6LNA.
Sorry Roland, I warned you that if you didnt pay, I would take this step.

The plastic spinner version -- $15

These are all in need of minor plastic surgery -- two have chips out the skirt where the set screw goes and one has had it's center drilled through... perhaps, to make a concentric assembly??

Ham Radio Electronic Keyer MFJ-406 - Ebay

For auction on Ebay, click on:
http://cgi.ebay.com/aw-cgi/eBayISAPI.dll?ViewItem&item=1288507846

This MFJ keyer is in "like new" condition. I can't find a mark on it. It works perfectly, and includes the power supply. For those who aren't aware, this keyer can be used to automatically generate the "dots and dashes" that make up morse code (when used with a key designed for this purpose). It also produces an audible sidetone through the built-in speaker.

Heath Transistor Tester - Includes New Case - Ebay

This transistor tester is in very good condition, and it includes a "new" cabinet with new sockets. It also includes a manual that is in excellent condition. I have not used it in a few years, so it is being sold "as is", although there is not much to go wrong with them other than dirty switches and pots. (I bought the tester at the Dayton Hamvention, and then I saw the new cabinet at a garage sale.)

I would like to trade my Kenwood TS-440 station, this is the ts-440 radio with the tu-8 tone board installed, the yk-88sn, and the VS-1 voice synth board installed, also included in this package, the matching SP-430 speaker, and the PS-50 power supply all are 9+ condition nonsmoker look and work great if not perfect. I would like to trade this station for a IC 706 any version, I would prefere with the synth board in it but I will considder with out I can always add it. Might be a little value difference but we can work that out. I will pay shipping on the ts-440 station if you pay shipping on the 706 (note shipping on the ts-440 station will be considderably more) that's why I did that. AI would prefere it be a mk2 or mk2g but it doesn't have to be but it does have to be in 9+ condition. If you have anything similar for a radio you might like to trade let emknow I will considder it, I just need something very small for my camper due to space limitations and the 440 is just too big for the camper and also I don't feel like lugging the 440 back and forth all summer so I want something small preferedly with all the bands of the 706 but I would considder the ts-50 if the deal is right. Hi everybody,

Just wondering, am wanting to sell off my Kenwood 805D Field programable Mobile, with 25 watts, and Mic with power cable, and Full manual and service manual to program the radio. The split on this is from 440 to 470, can go out of band, but the degradtion is bad once you get out. So you can acutally go from 400-520, with degradtion once you get out of 440-470 around there. Mostly selling this so I can get a maxtrac that does signalling in the UHF section, I would be willing to trade or e-mail me how much this is worth.

Be Safe

FOR SALE:

YAESU Model AYC-221 Digital Display Unit.

For Yaesu FT-101 series radios. Displays your exact frequency to Great little accessory and it works perfectly. Just plug it into the VFO accessory jack in the back of your FT-101, FT-101B, FT-101E, FT-101EX, FT-101EE, FT-101-F or FT-101FE (did I leave any out? He he)

This neat little gadget sits on top of your FT-101 series radio and lets you see exactly what frequency you are on. Has adjustable calibration so that you can set it precisely using WWV or a secondary crystal standard such as your rig's calibrator or any other signal source.

Ok. No luck, so I'm gonna throw this out there again. I was also surfing and found the same radio in the 440 version. It's an IC-4iE. I would assume they program the same, so I'm now looking for a manual for an IC-2iA or an IC-4iE. Thanks and 73!

I have 150 feet of 7/8" Andrews Heliax with a stainless steel N female connector on each end. One end has a grounding kit installed and very well sealed. The coax tests perfect with my Bird and is in excellent condition. I live in central Missouri and I am not sure exactly how I would ship it. I would prefer to sell to someone close to Missouri where we could meet half way. This is the newer style and is like 3-5 years old. I don't know off hand the cost of new 7/8" hardline but it would be easily $600+. I am asking $200 + delivery (if necessary).

Thanks,

1402. WANTED: Kenwood TH-42AT Antenna

From: Brice D. Hornback
Topic: 1402 Message: 1402

Hello everyone. I recently purchased a Kenwood TH-42AT from someone on this list and it was shipped to me with a scanner antenna and a DC adapter that doesn't put out enough volts to charge the battery pack instead of the "original" factory parts I thought I was buying. I've found a charger (on eBay) but I'm still looking for the stock Kenwood 440 MHz rubber duck antenna.

If anyone has the original antenna that they've replaced with a gain antenna or the radio that doesn't work any longer and would like to sell the antenna to me I'd really appreciate it.

Thanks and 73!

Wow, someone who bothered to ask... thanks!

I've gone back and forth on this issue. If I had something to gain from each sale that's made through this list, I wouldn't like it. Sort of like giving business to the competition. But there's nothing to be made from being the moderator of this list.

I guess my objections go to the spirit of ham radio. Hamfests are being hurt by e-bay. Why sell to your neighbors when you can sell to the world? In a way, e-mail users are a community too. e-bay I know is good for the sellers... I can't believe the prices I've seen paid for stuff I wouldn't sell or even give away.

You could also argue that putting an item on e-bay is enough advertising. Given how many people visit e-bay each day, I don't think mentioning at item here is going to help much.

On the other hand, what's good for e-bay is that it means more money in ham's pockets. I would hope some of that would end up in club memberships and new items at hamfests. But then again, just like at hamfests, there are some of you here who have made a business out of selling ham gear. At that point, it's not really a hobby any more. I'm sure you see the names here, and on e-bay, over and over. One possible compromise might be ham gear that the seller has actually used, personally, for over a year. When we see you advertising your 20th HF rig, we know it's not your personal gear.

As I said, I'm going back and forth on this. If you would like to give me some feedback, please e-mail me directly, not to the list. Of course, my decision is final, but I don't mind getting some input.

Again, thanks for asking.

Lafayette Model HA-72, NEW IN BOX.

Will work with any ham bands receiver including of course the Lafayette company's radios. Allows you to hear CW and SSB signals on a receiver that normally only gets AM reception.

Utilizes two transistors. Operates on a fundamental frequency range of 3500 to 4000 kHz and is highly stable. It has fine tuning and variable attentuation controls.

The fine tuning control is a large knob and covers just 5 kHz for a half rotation, so you can set the frequency very accurately.

Tired of hunting for crystals? This would actually make an EXCELLENT VFO or a QRP CW transmitter! Runs on a 9V internal battery or could be easily modified to accept an external power source.

Output is via RCA phone jack on the rear panel. Comes with the original cable and original box.

Will sell for $40.00 plus shipping

Palomar High Power 4:1 Antenna Balun - Ebay

High Power 4:1 Balun. This is the Model SB-4, which was made by Palomar. This is a heavy duty model, designed to run 2000 watts continuous power, at SWR's up to 10:1 (Palomar's specs). The impedance ratio is 4:1. Great for high-powered long-wires or loops. I was using it with a 202' long-wire, and had excellent results on 160 through 15 (using an SB-220).

Condition is "like-new". I paid $75 for this about 5 years ago (I took down the long-wire three years ago). When I was using the balun, it was mounted indoors, so it was not exposed to the weather.

I will be glad to provide additional information. Contact me at w4tq@...

Pay by money order or PayPal. UPS shipping charges will be estimated based on the weight of the packaged item and your shipping address. I will send you the UPS tracking number, which you can track via the Internet. The item will be shipped immediately upon receipt of funds, and will be packed properly, to help assure safe delivery.

A couple days ago I asked for some feedback about e-bay cross postings. Thanks to all who responded. The reactions ranged from "I have a delete key" to "I'll un-subscribe" Not one vote in favor of e-bay cross posts. I think that the feelings are pretty clear. As I said, I was on the fence, but these results have helped me decide. No e-bay cross posts going forward. I was also asked to clarify what's on and off topic here, so I modified the wording of the Group Description slightly.

"This is a place where hams (radio amateurs) can buy, sell, trade radio equipment. Do NOT post equipment actually up for sale on another platform, such as e-bay. Please do not attempt to offer or ask for computer equipment. There are other Yahoo Groups for that. You many offer to sell antennas, radios, power supplies, tuners, TNCs, microphones, test equipment, small parts, tools, wire, anything that's used primarily for Amateur radio. Please do not post information about illegal activities. As with any for-sale listing, you're on your own to make deals. Neither YahooGroups nor the list manager takes any responsibility for deals started on this list. Let the buyer beware. Use common sense and remember, you're dealing with a stranger. Please contact sellers directly, i.e. off the list. We don't need to know about your offer. Also keep your opinions about the equipment or the asking price to yourself. If you wouldn't buy it at that price, then don't."

Thanks for asking in the first place, and thanks for the feedback. I hope we can work with this slight modification.

If you have any follow up feedback, please send it directly to me, NOT to the list.

Thanks.

Saying unsubscribe in a mailing list doesn't make it so. To paraphrase Steven Sondheim, you get off a list the same way you got on it, which could be either:

Logging in at yahoogroups.com and following the instructions to get off a list...

or

Following the instructions that are in the header of each and every e-mail you get from yahoogroups:

List-Unsubscribe: <mailto:ham4sale-unsubscribe@yahoogroups.com>

1429. Tape back up unites FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2001-11-13 22:12:07 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 1429 Message: 1429

Is everyone doing like they should and backing up their computer properly, and doing it often? If you are like most hams (and I include myself in that category), you are not doing it often enough, if at all. It seems that all of us put it off, usually until it is too late.

Part of the reason we put it off is that it is too difficult to do. After all, we are just human, and take the easy way out.

Here is an item that will make it easier to back up your computer. That includes all your e-mail, all of the good information that comes off of these great mailing lists, your ham log book, and everything else you might want to back up.

I have an Irwin 250 Meg tape back up available.
This unit is in great shape. It is an internal drive that takes a 3 1/2 inch bay. It hooks up to the floppy drive, and includes the cable to accomplish this purpose.
I realize that 250 M is not very large to back up an entire hard drive, but if you want to do a daily backup of your data, it should be adequate. $20

I also have an IOmega Ditto 420 tape back up, similar to the above, but larger (420 Megs). $30

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Before someone asks, I have switched to a different media for my backups, but I AM backing it up.

Thanks.

FS: Five pieces of radio control equipment

Airtronics Vector VT2P 75 MHz R/C transmitter -- Channel 64.

KO Propo EX-5 27 MHz R/C transmitter on 27.045 Mhz... I think

JR Remote Control / Circus Hobbies Unlimited Series FM transmitter module (only) -- 72.550 MHz

JR Remote Control / Circus Hobbies Unlimited Series 8 Channel Receiver NER-J128M -- 72.4 MHz

JR Remote Control / Circus Hobbies 9 Channel Receiver NER-529X -- 72.550 MHz

I checked the top two transmitters and they output on a spectrum analyzer. I have no way to check the receivers -- they may be NOS; the antennas appear to have never been uncoiled.

I don't think that these units are interoperable. The top two transmitters look like they are for use with cars and the bottom two receivers seem to have nomenclature that would suggest model planes.

Asking $100 for the lot, plus shipping if necessary, naturally.

OK, I am cleaning out a little here mainly so I can buy a new HF radio, got a few big things coming soon but for now, I have for sale
the radio shack 2 meter amplifier, 5 wats in is 30 out, has preamp, brand new in the box never used I opened the box to make sure everythign was there and closed it and it has sat on the shelf for the last 2 or 3 years, $40+ shipping or best offer

Also I have the radio shack HTX-400 440 small hand held, tiny little thing, also still in the box, I tested this and it works but I haven't really used it, runs on 2 aa batteries great for if you want a small radio to walk around with it has all the features of the other hand helds just about, make me an offer I don't have a clue what they go for, I'll check later on any reasonable offer takes it.
I have a few more things coming up in a couple days, if you are interested email n1umj@... and we can discuss things.

This is a "set" of tubes for the Collins KWM-2. Actually, it is a couple short of a complete set but, there are way more tubes than go in a single radio.

6146B/8298A RCA (3) -- look little if at all used 6146B GE
8298 (2) by Westinghouse, look like new old stock.

Hello to all on the group.

I am currently in search of some equipment cabinets like the old Motorola Compa Stations came in, or Master II or III cabinets. They do not need doors (Though I would prefer them) but they do need to be reasonably priced as the shipping is usually a killer on them. Please feel free to either e-mail me or contact me via telephone. Thank you in advance, and have a Merry Chcristmas.

Late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the stages are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea --
Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

 Power Supplies, Inverter, UPS *****

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse. There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. They have a six-pin SIL output connector and come with a matching cable to pigtails. The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

1504. FS: Homebrew Radio things

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $2

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries. - $3

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $4

Two Tone generator -- Two Wein Bridge Oscillators powered by two 9 volt batteries on perf board. - $4

Some kind of test oscillator with a 556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $4

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $10

A VHF thing -- Two trombone lines adjustable between 4-6" with a transistor connected between them plus a Phasotron 50 ua 2" round meter on a BNC cable with a small loop w/a diode. -- $10

NTSC Frequency reference -- I think this was a QST project in the early 1980's. PCB in 4"x5"x8" metal case (top missing) w/feet, AC line powered. -- $15

144-148 MHz to 24-28 MHz Transverter -- 5" x4" x 4" overall -- 2N3866 Output transistor, probably runs about a watt on transmit. Barrier strip for power (12V?) and an 8 pin Japanese style Mike connector for ?. Transmit & receive sections are each 5" x4" x 2" and only interconnected with a few wires -- $20

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

1505. FS: Standard C508A dual-band mini HT

Topic: 1505 Message: 1505

For Sale:

Standard C508A dual band mini HT.

Specs:

2m/70cm dual band transmit. CTCSS encode and decode. Receives 100-200mHz, 300-512mHz, 700-999.985mHz (cellular blocked), 60 memories for all bands. 300 milliwatts max RF output on 2 AA batteries. SMA antenna connector with 2 SMA antennas included: factory duck and a flexible wire. The duck has a slight bend in it, the other antenna works better anyway. Also included is an SMA to BNC adapter. Radio has speaker/mic jacks, removable belt clip, padded belt pouch accessory and the owner's manual with errata page. PDF Manual also included on CD.

Condition on the HT is a 8+ out of ten. Works perfectly. The belt pouch's "Standard" logo is worn off. Gold foil embossing does not last long under friction from the restraint strap. No scratches on the bezel, all decals readable. Low power output great for local repeaters or simplex. Very sensitive receive side, great for monitoring media and public safety, especially conventional 700/800/900mHz services, and it can fit in a shirt pocket.

Note: this radio can do out-of-band transmitting. Doing so requires proper MARS/CAP/other permits.

Guaranteed non-DOA. Asking $125, US sales only, Paypal preferred. Add $5 for shipping and insurance.

Please email privately if interested.

Thanks!

Patrick

* Old Radio Knobs **********

These are all used, most have set screws, with nothing worse than minor scuffs and smudges and fit 1/4" shafts, unless noted.

1-1/16" Knurled Knob w/ 1.5" skirt w/ white indicator line -- $5ea
1-1/16" Knurled Knob w/ 2" skirt marked 0-10 -- $8

Long (2") pointer knob w/ white indicator line $1.50

Harry Davies
#1206 1-3/8" knobs -- $4 ea
Short (1-3/16")pointer knob unfilled indicator line -- Not sure if this is Davies... There are a box of these -- 2/$1 ea

Hewlett Packard (70's vintage)1-5/8" spinner knob w/ 3/8" bushing -- $10

Kenwood 5CM diameter knobs that look like they are from a Kenwood TS-830 (main tuning knob) or similar
"Stock" knob -- $7
One that's been backfilled with shot to give it some heft -- $7
The plastic spinner version -- $15

Kurz-Kasch
#308 1-1/8" knob -- $4
#308 1-1/8" knob w/ 1-3/4" brite metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated in black -- $8
#309 1-5/8" knob w/ metal spinner and 2-1/4" black metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated in white -- $12
#309? (may not be KK) 1-5/8" knob w/ plastic spinner and 2-1/4" metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated -- $12

#310 2-3/8" knob -- hub drilled out to 3/8" -- $8
#310 2-3/8" knob w/metal spinner shaft -- $12 ea
#311 2-1/16" skirted knob (some of the white lines are need refilling on these) -- $8ea
#380 1.5" skirted knob -- $5

These look like what was on some '60's Hammarlund, Eico & Knight Kit stuff

#642 1.5" skirted knob -- $5
#S-645 .75" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5
#647 1" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5 ea
#653 1.5" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5 ea

Millen? (has a logo that looks like a "M" with an "I" superimposed at the center) #309 3-1/2" Handwheel style knobs as seen on the SX-28, if I recall correctly.
These are all in need of minor plastic surgery -- two have chips out the skirt where the set screw goes and one has had it's center drilled through... perhaps, to make a concentric assembly??
$10 ea.

National HRT 2-1/16" diameter
Black, trim rings somewhat tarnished -- $5 ea
Gray, trim ring shiny like new -- $10

National Type A Velvet Vernier dials-style 2 (marked 0-100 over 180 degrees) 3-3/8" or 4" diameter -- good condtion, $25 ea

There are also many knobs from 1960's Tektronix and Hewlett Packard oscilloscopes, if anyone has any need, please inquire.

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

Hi all, I have for trade, a Icom 27H 2 meter mobile radio. Works great! it an 8+ out of 10 in looks has stock mic with touch tone pad, power cord, mobile brackit, manual, and maybe a coupel other options I can throw in, it will do PL tones out at least I forget about if it will do both ways or not. I would like to trade it for a 440 FM mobile transceiver working and looking good. I got this radio for mobile and camper use but have sense bot an Icom 706 MKII for mobile and camper use so I don't need this one, I don't use 2 meters hardly ever anymore anyway so I really don't need it kicking around the drawer, I most likely won't use 440 either but figure I might as well have something different, you have something else you might want to trade let me hear it you'd be surprized what I will take at the right time. Email n1umj@... if you would like to talk about it, this is really a good radio I will miss it but no point keeping somehting I haven't used in 3 months and have no plans to use any time soon.

Gentlemen (Ladies):

I am in need of the owner's manual for a Standard C568a HT. An actual manual, Xerox, reasonable facsimile thereof, or simply some instructions on how to program it. I have seen this radio for sale here and thought posting might be worth a shot.

Any help in this matter will be appreciated.

Thankyou

1526. 2 KENWOOD TH22AT's (4SALE)

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2002-01-06 06:18:21 UTC
From: Jon Jacobs
Topic: 1526 Message: 1526

Hi all,
Here is what I have for sale:

Two-KENWOOD TH-22AT's Handhelds
Two-BT-9 4 AA alkaline battery packs
One-PB-34 9.6 V 5 watt Ni-cad battery pack
One-KENWOOD KSC-8A Compact charger
One-Mini KENWOOD Speaker Mic (Color-black)

I am asking $260.00 for all or B/O (best offer)+ $10
S&H

Precaution before you decide if you would like to buy:

One of the Kenwoods I bought off of Ebay broke shortly after I bought it...I took the speaker out. So one of the HT's has to use the speaker mic or you wont get any volume out of it. The radio works great and so does the mic , but if you could get a replacement internal speaker it would be as good as new! One of the BT-9s clip that holds it into the radio has a small hair line crack in it. I would rate all of the equiptment 8, Ten being the highest.

I can send photos of the gear.

Thank you very much for reading my post!

Sincerely,
Jon Jacobs

IIRC, you can use the same batteries as the Icom IC-#a and IC-0#a series. You can find them all over eBay and the 'net.

Hi all
I have for trade, an Icom 27H 2 meter mobile, has the voice board in it, excellent receiver selectivity, really great radio with manual, mobile bracket hand mic, power cord real nice radio. It has been mobile so it is in about 8.5 out of 10 in looks but it works 100%. I don't need it I have enough if not too much 2 meter stuff sitting around here right now. I am looking to trade it for a 440 radio, I would prefer Icom or Kenwood but if you have something to trade let me know if the radio is worth more then mine I will throw some cash in with it.. Email n1umj@... with any questions or if interested. You will love this radio I wouldn't be getting rid of it except I just don't have any use for it anymore.

1607. WTB: Baby Monitor - 49 MHz

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2002-02-22 15:34:23 UTC
From: Big Johnson's Radio Chicken
Topic: 1607 Message: 1607

I am looking for an old baby monitor...THAT STILL WORKS!

I want to use it to monitor some baby chickens (keep laughin'), during the night, that we just moved outside to the coop.

This monitor would more than likely, be operating around the clock...so I would also need an A/C adaptor. If you have one without the adaptor, let me know the required voltage and plug polarity...I might have a match in the basement.

Thanks,

John

For sale. Uniden Pre-ban 800 Mhz scanner, the model BC700A, 12 band, perfect condition with AC adapter, mount bracket and hardware, and telescopic BNC antenna. This unit looks just like the BC350A, but it also covers the 800 Mhz police band, and covers the now banned (for scanners anyway) 800/900 Mhz Cell phone band. Ebay won't allow me to list it there because they don't allow scanners to be listed that can listen to cell phone conversations for some reason... These scanners aren't illegal to own, they're only illegal to manufacture now days. New they are about $150 if you can still find them.

First $100 takes it.

FS: VHF Power amp

Late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5"
x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the stages are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70 May be seen at:

 Microphones ***********

ICOM IC-HM12 Handheld Mike. I don't know what rig(s) this fits but, it has a Japanese "standard" round 8 pin connector. The mike also has Up & Down buttons on top. Looks unused. $30

Astatic Dynamic Mike -- This is either a Cardioid or noise cancelling as it has some small holes in one side. It is black about 5-1/2" long with a Cannon connector (M) in the bottom end. The model number is either invisible or rubbed off. The finish is well worn but, I plugged it into a Shure mixer and it seems to work fine. $20

University Model 70 Omnidirectional Dyamic mikes. They are black & light gray finish, have seen a lot of use and there are a pair of these. One has a Cannon connector (F) on the end of a cable and the other is missing its cable so I couldn't easily test either one. Asking $20 for the pair.

* Mike connectors & cables ************

Motorola 4-pin Microphone connectors 28-16730 (similar to Amphenol MC4M) -- NIB $5ea

Motorola 0180700T14, 4-wire coily cord mike cable assembly with a mike connector as above on one end and a spring strain relief on the other. There are some flat pins on the free wire ends -- NIB $15

NOS coily cable for a Yaesu MH-27 mike (may fit others). Later version with the RJ connector at the radio end. $10.

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

Cardwell enclosed 7 section variable capacitor assembly for/from some receiver? -- The sections measure: 210, 210, 105, 105, 105, 100 & 75 pF. The unit is about 12" long and 3" square with a right angle drive mounted in the center and a 30 turn scale. This looks to be NOS (nothing ever soldered to...) but, it is a mite tarnished on the outside from being stored forever. There is also a (Mil?) number on the unit: SC3188A. $30 See at:
http://photos.yahoo.com/bc/marv_email/vwp?.dir=/Jpegs&.dnm=cardwell.jpg&.src=ph&.view=t

Johnson 154-1, 12-244pF, .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 3" overall. Rear shaft has been cut flush with bushing and the rear mounting tab has been shortened a mite. Otherwise, excellent condition, $25.

Johnson 154-34-3, 20-400pF, looks like .03" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 3" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 2-1/2" long. Excellent condition, $25.

Johnson 500E20 (modern equivalent 154-3), 500pF/2KV, looks like .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 4.5" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 1-1/2" long. Good condition except the rear mounting tab has been removed and it looks like a couple of the plates arced at one time and were subsequently filed down a mite. $25.

Similar to the part above but, NOT a Johnson, another 500pF/2KV, looks like .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 4.5" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 1-1/2" long. Good condition except the front mounting tab has been removed. $25.

It also comes with a 9v power supply, A serial cable DB25/DB9, and matting cables for Yaesu modular.

1627. FS: Homebrew Radio Thingys

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $2

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries. - $3

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $4

Some kind of test oscillator with a 556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $4

HF Harmonic Filter built in a 5" x 2.25" x 2.25" LMB Aluminum box. UHF connectors. Probably good for 100W. $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $10

A VHF thing -- Two trombone lines adjustable between 4-6" with a transistor connected between them plus a Phasotron 50 ua 2" round meter on a BNC cable with a small loop w/a diode. -- $10

NTSC Frequency reference -- I think this was a QST project in the early 1980's. PCB in 4"x5"x8" metal case (top missing) w/feet, AC line powered. -- $15

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

Hi everyone, I'm new to the list and have the need for some information. I've acquired some used equipment and need manuals/info. on them.

First I have a Data Signal, Inc., RAP-200, Repeater Autopatch which I need a manual, schematics, etc., for.
Second, a CSC - Control Signal Corporation-Denver, CWID'er CWID 51BX2, no manuals, schematics, etc.
Third, an RJ Communication Products, Inc., CIRCULATOR?, model # HI-150-S. Can anyone tell me anything about these? Apparently it was being used as an "isolator" on a repeater. Can they be retuned to another frequency? Is it worth the bother? Any manuals, etc. available??

Comments may be sent directly to kd0wy@...

Thank you,
Roger

Dear OM,

My name is François.
I am a member of a french logistic team going each april to Geographic North Pole. We establish a drifting base at 89 North Latitude, wich name Borneo, for scientistific researchs.

When I was student, my hobby was SWL, with the call sign FE4834.
Since a few years, I dont have a station, because I have 2 young children. But I hope I will have a new one in some years!!

My new hobby is collecting polar QSL cards from North or South Pole.
So, can I ask if you can help me for completing my collection?
Do you have any spare QSL from North Pole or Antarctica?

I can send you letters and post cards I have cancelled during my past expeditions at the North Pole with the official post office cachet.

I'll send you also a SASE with IRC.

I hope we can do good exchanges!
I send you all my best regards and 73's,

SWL François.

1656. Anyone want any RR radios? The ones with the round 23-pin plug?

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2002-03-18 19:45:29 UTC
From: whitbrown@aol.com
Topic: 1656 Message: 1656

All the below radios are the round, 23-pin connector, AAR-compliant units. These are sold as is but were supposedly operational when removed from service. I can provide copies of schematics, etc. or maybe even original manuals depending upon distribution.

Also included are the keys. All units will be supplied with 4 xmit and 4 rec channel elements. I have channel elements on numerous RR frequencies and will try to supply any preferences. Many have been tweaked to 2 meters, no component changes were necessary, just tweaking.

5 - Wabco 3R tranceivers. (Wabco radios were made by Westinghouse Air Brake Company. They went on a talent raid and hijacked some RCA engineers in the late-60's) They are all solid-state, 70's vintage, 4-channel with about 35 watts output, weighing 30 pounds each and measure about 16" x 11" x 3". Run on 72VDC for locomotives or 12VDC for cabooses or mobiles. Missing front S/N plates $25 each or best offer.

Two of these are four-channeled for 2 meters on 146.52, 146.94-, 146.76-, T144.89/R145.49. $30 each or best offer.

3 - Wabco 4R65C is a later version of the above with more of a plug-in modular approach in the transmitter and receiver. All have plate identification. These run on 117VAC or 12VDC. $25 each or best offer

(Just for historical information: these series of Wabcos were unique in that they have 3 separate chassis for power supply, transmitter and receiver. They all just plug together. Their separate chassis transmitter and receiver made them particularly adaptable for repeater use with very little conversion necessary and exceptional RF TX/RX isolation. Many 2M repeaters were made from these by stripping the power supply chassis from the dual voltage configuration and running them on straight 12VDC. There was then lots of remaining room for installing a controller internally.)

1 - New Wabco stage alignment metering unit for xmit and rcvr. $20

2 - New Wabco 4-channel mobile control heads. $20 (Standard 4-pin mics work fine.)

1 - Used Wabco 4-channel mobile control head. $5

1 - Shure microphone with coiled cord for above. $20

5 - New Wabco mobile trunk-mount cable kits. These include the 23-pin plug and about 15' of cable, including DC supply conductors. $15

1 - Motorola Motran, 4-channel, 45 watts, solid state, weighs about 37 pounds, runs on 72VDC or 12VDC $25 or best offer.

1 - Motorola Motrac, two channel, 25 watts. This is a hybrid radio with tube-type transmitter and solid state receiver and PS. Switchable, runs on 72VDC or 12VDC $10 or best offer

1 - Motorola 117VAC to 72VDC converter for base use. $15

I'll be happy to email a jpg pic to anyone wanting to see it, and all prices are plus shipping.

73,

Whit Brown, WB0CJX

For sale: New RS-232 to RJ-45 modular jack adapters individually packaged.

These are U.S. made by Cinch, part number 232-22-25-073. They look like DB-25F connectors with an RJ-45 modular receptacle on the other end, not a cable, looks like a plug that goes into a serial port and one would just plug an RJ-45 modular phone plug into it.
$3.00 each + shipping. Orders over 10, I will ship to CONUS. Quantity available: 60. JPG pic available upon request.

Thanks,

A friend gave me a Hy-Gain TH-5 tri-band (10-15-20) 5 element beam. I don't have much use for it and I am considering selling it.

He said they went to $500-$600, when new...I am trying to figure out a fair asking price for this antenna. It appears to be complete with all the hardware and in fair/good condition.

Any suggestions on a fair price?

Not much...this is actually a 11mtr CB rig disguised as a 10mtr rig!
I think it sold for several hundred new...but its not worth it..

> and a
> Penetrator HB-1000 bi-linear amp for 40/20/15/10 meters

Probably works on all bands at the same time! :) Not much use for it in ham bands...(made for illegal 11mtr use)...dirty RF out....I wouldnt guess how much a ham would pay for it..I have an idea how much a CBer would though!

> Can anyone help...I'm not familiar with the equipment???

It was primarily sold for 11mtr use...not amateur...not much demand for it in the ham circles...and its illegal to sell for 11mtr use.

Hi all, I'm looking for an Icom 275 all mode 2 meter radio, I understand there are 2 models, an a and an H model I'm sure the power is the difference but I really don't care which one it is. I would like to trade an IC-706MKii which is an 8 out of 10 in looks, works 100% but if the price it right or if you want to work out another trade with some cast for that 275 I'll talk to you. I know it sounds crazy when I can just use the 706 for 2 meter all mode but I use the 275 at the emergency management center where I live for RACES and I want one of my own so I can familiarize myself with it a little better and I really like the radio. With speech for frequency read out would be preferred but if that can't be worked out I can get 1 of those boards if I have to. Email me at n1umj@... if you might have anything, I will buy one if I can afford it but this looks like an expensive radio so I might have to work out a trade.

I have an all-mode FT-757GX (original version) for sale, and also includes the operator manual, mobile bracket, power plug, & mic. The radio has been modified for full transmit from 500KHz to 30MHz. Radio is an 8 on the scale and works, but sold AS-IS and not DOA.

I prefer the cash, but I might be open to trading...depending on what you have to offer.

I'm looking at about $400 +/- shipping, under certain circumstances.

1714. Estate Items For Sale

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Big Johnson
Topic: 1714 Message: 1714

* Estate Items *

Selling these for a friend of the family, who became a widow about 3 years ago. Items have not been used for that time period.

I saw her husbands radio room, this weekend, and from what was left...it was obvious he had some knowledge of how radios work & RF protection.

The main items are as follows:

Siltronix 1011-D:
From what I have read on this radio, it is a 10m radio with 11m receive. I read it puts out 260 watts. The radio, for sale, will power up and receive. But I do not have a microphone to test the transmitter.

AmComm Penetrater HB-1000 Amp:
Has SSB/AM power and Receive switches, also has an RF indicator (LED). I checked this amp on a meter and it appears to put out 200 watts...could be more, but I didn't want to push it.

The owner would like to sell these as a "package". Both items look VERY good, and I assume were in very good care.

There are some odds & ends also...speakers, meters, etc...but I might buy those myself.

If interested please contact me and we can work out a deal. I tried selling these locally, but I think the prices were too high, as I am not sure what a "fair asking price" might be.

Obviously I would like to get as much as possible, as I am getting a percentage of the total price.

If interested, please comtact me at the e-mail address below...with any offers for this package. Items are sold AS-IS and shipping will be extra. Items are solid and heavy...so please consider AT LEAST a 30-40lb package. Items will be packed securely.

This battery pac eliminator plugs into a cigarette lighter (12V) and gets slipped onto the bottom of the TR2600 HT in place of the battery pack.

This DC-25 DC-DC Converter has an input rating of 13.8V DC and an output of 8.4V DC.

This is original Kenwood equipment and will enable unlimited use of your HT in the vehicle without using up internal battery pack power.

Make offer. No reasonable offer refused.

Hello All,

I have for sale a Zetron 37-MAX commercial repeater controller for sale. The unit is in excellent condition. It was removed from service to be replaced by another controller. I have the installation and programming manual. The 37-MAX allows you to build a repeater out of most any radio that you can pull the proper control signals out of. You need received audio, a COR signal, 12 volts and ground. The controller outputs transmit audio and PTT. It is programmable over-the-air via DTMF and uses a security code to prevent unauthorized programming. It offers all CTCSS and DCS tone/code detection and generation. It does not offer phone patch capacity. Price is $250 and I'll pay shipping anywhere in the US. I will also consider any offer you wish to make, if interested reply to me at wb4u@...

Hello everyone,

I have a radio Shack model PRO-2006 scanner for sale. It is in excellent condition.
Only thing it needs is the have the backlight panel replaced as it has dimmed over the years.
I have the replacement panel and that will go with the scanner. The scanner has been modified, and it has been tapped for discriminator audio output and there is an RCA jack on the back for this. The scanner is AC/DC has the AC cord but no DC cord since that was originally an option. This is still considered a top scanner. It does not trunk track, but does cover from 25 to 1300 MHz with NO GAPS. Price is $250 and I'll ship anywhere in the US. Other offers will be considered. If interested e-mail me at wb4u@....

Ok guys, Dayton is over, some of you may have money left over so here you go.

Item 1:

I have for sale a Cushcraft 17B2 long boom 2 meter antenna. I bought the antenna intending to replace the one I had on the tower, but have changed my mind. The antenna is new in the box since it was never opened. I can ship anywhere in the US via UPS ground. Asking price is $200. If interested contact me via e-mail at wb4u@...

Item 2:

I have a radio Shack model PRO-2006 scanner for sale. It is in excellent condition.
Only thing it needs is to have the backlight panel replaced as it has dimmed over the years.
I have the replacement panel and that will go with the scanner. The scanner has been modified,
and it has been tapped for discriminator audio output and there is an RCA jack on the back for this. The scanner is AC/DC has the AC cord but no DC cord since that was originally an option. This is still considered a top scanner. It does not trunk track, but does cover from 25 to 1300 MHz with NO GAPS. Price is $250 and I'll ship anywhere in the US. Other offers will be considered. If interested e-mail me at wb4u@....

Item 3:

I have for sale a Zetron 37-MAX commercial repeater controller for sale. The unit is in excellent condition. It was removed from service to be replaced by another controller. I have the installation and programming manual. The 37-MAX allows you to build a repeater out of most any radio that you can pull the proper control signals out of. You need received audio, a COR signal, 12 volts and ground. The controller outputs transmit audio and PTT. It is programmable over-the-air via DTMF and uses a security code to prevent unauthorized programming. It offers all CTCSS and DCS tone/code detection and generation. It does not offer phone patch capacity. Price is
you wish to make, if interested reply to me at wb4u@...

Further information on the controller can be found at:

I just picked this up, and I hate the words "next to new" but these are great. The SX110 was stored in the original Hallicrafters box since early 70s when the owner died, and it has the original manual. I picked it up from the son at a garage sale, he was trying to sell me a CB. I even found the original sales slip in the radio. Im taking offers over $145, SX110, ORIGINAL HALLICRAFTERS BOX,ORIGINAL BOOK,R48A speaker, no firm price yet. I will have pictures for an Email to wa2tti@.... Jerry

Here is a really very informative Cushcraft R7 / R7000 tech page I recently found with illustrations, tech tips, R7 trap drawings, R7 and R7000 instruction and assembly manuals too.

It is all free and also all downloadable. By far the best page of it's kind I have ever found...

Astatic Dynamic Mike -- This is either a Cardioid or noise cancelling as it has some small holes in one side. It is black about 5-1/2" long with a Cannon connector (M) in the bottom end. The model number is either invisible or rubbed off. The finish is well worn but, I plugged it into a Shure mixer and it seems to work fine. $20

University Model 70 Omnidirectional Dynamic mikes. They are black & light gray finish, have seen a lot of use and there are a pair of these. One has a Cannon connector (F) on the end of a cable and the other is missing its cable so I couldn't easily test either one. Asking $20 for the pair.

Motorola 4-pin Microphone connectors 28-16730 (similar to Amphenol MC4M) -- NIB $5ea

Motorola 0180700T14, 4-wire coily cord mike cable assembly with a mike connector as above on one end and a spring strain relief on the other. There are some flat pins on the free wire ends -- NIB $15

NOS coily cable for a Yaesu MH-27 mike (may fit others). Later version with the RJ connector at the radio end. $10.

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

 RF Attenuators ***

Heavily built RF Attenuator, adjustable between 0-50dB in 10dB steps. 8" flying leads w/one terminated in a BNC Bulkhead female and the other with an N Male connector. Looks like it should be good to at least 1 GHz. 3 1/2" diameter by 4" deep overall and weighs about 4 pounds each. There are tapped holes in the front frame for panel mounting. No manufacturer is indicated. A 3/8" shaft adjusts by pulling (with a spring return) and turning so there is no chance of inadvertent resetting. No knob nor dial is included. $25

Mfg. Unknown, 0-59 dB 50 ohm RF attenuator -- about 3" diameter by 6" long overall with concentric knobs (10db & 1 dB steps) & side mounted TNC connectors. -- $30

Telonic TB-50A 0-10dB 50 ohm RF attenuator -- 3" diameter by 3" deep w/ side mounted BNC connectors. $20

6 dB low power pads with N connectors, male on one end, female on the other.
Approx. 1"x1"x3" overall. 2 available $10 ea.

 More Test Equipment ***

Hewlett Packard 350B Audio Attenuator mounted in an LMB box. I haven't had a chance to check it for function. $30 May be seen at:

Hewlett Packard 8554B plug in for 141T Spectrum Analyzer system with manual copy. This unit has a mechanical intermittent in the 500 MHz amp module -- it works most of the time and a tap on top gets it going again if it quits. I really don't have the time to open it up and fix it, so I'm offering it for $400 as is. May be seen at:

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $2

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries. - $3

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $4

Some kind of test oscillator with a 556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $4

HF Harmonic Filter built in a 5" x 2.25" x 2.25" LMB Aluminum box. UHF connectors. Probably good for 100W. $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $10

A VHF thing -- Two trombone lines adjustable between 4-6" with a transistor connected between them plus a Phasotron 50 ua 2" round meter on a BNC cable with a small loop w/a diode. -- $10

NTSC Frequency reference -- I think this was a QST project in the early 1980's. PCB in 4"x5"x8" metal case (top missing) w/feet, AC line powered. -- $15

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

1778. FS: Drake SPR-4, Icom R75, Kenwood R599, Kenwood TS50S

1. Drake SPR-4 receiver, with extra crystals to cover extra ham/swl bands (crystal rack is full), original manual. This receiver is in 9.0 to 9.5 condition and operates like a champ. It has two mods, very effective and professionally done: BFO on/off switch so that the SSB filter can be used for AM, and AGC fast/slow/off switching. This is good for the collector or anyone who just wants a very nice swl rig. Solid state and draws about 220 mils (not a misprint) with the dial lights off. Original manual is included.
$375.00 plus UPS from 83861

2. Icom R75 receiver. 100khz to 60 mHz. Includes the DSP and wide SSB filter. This rig is in 9.5+ condition (looks like new) and includes the original manual, power supply and box. $475.00 plus shipping from 83861.

3. Kenwood R599. The on/off switch needs replacing. Radio is about a 7.0 to 7.5, but works. It has the 2 meter converter, but I don't know how to work it. Radio with installed 2 meter converter only. More than a parts radio, but definitely not a collectible. $75.00 plus shipping from 83861.

4. Kenwood TS-50S. Never mobile, mostly used for swl because it was my backup rig. Excellent rx audio sets it apart from the usual gang of small rigs. Also includes the mobile mounting bracket (never used), CW filter, computer adapter, manual, power cable, and original box. A sweet little rig.
$490.00 plus shipping from 83861.

 Power Supplies, Inverter, UPS *****

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse.
There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. They have a six-pin SIL output connector and come with a matching cable to pigtails.
The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

I have 1 item I'd like to trade, I have a 440 MHz hand held rad shack HTX404 with box manual, 11 pack, 2 rubber ducks, and I would like to trade that for a 440 MHZ mobile. Would prefer it be in good shape inside and out, this radio is about a 9.5 out of 10 I'll add cash if I have to not a problem i just need a little more power to get out of the hole I'm in here, 5 wats just won't do it like I'd like. Let me know what you have, I'll willingly talk about anything, if you have something else I might like, 6 meter gear anything like that I'll consider that too.
I'm also looking for, a hand mic for the Icom 375A 220 all mode radio, or any of that series of radios. I do stuff with the emergency management team where I live and we have a 375 with no microphone and it's hard to use when you have to switch a mic from another radio. If anyone has that, let me know doesn't have to be mint but if it works and the little loop for hanging it is there and all, We're interested. Thanks, email n1umj@... to get in touch with me.

I'm looking to trade it for a 440 MHz mobile, I'll add cash if needed, something basic, an ADI AR 447 or similar will do just fine, Icom, Kenwood equivalent, it doesn't need to be anything fancy I just need more then 5 watts to get out of here, I'm in a bad area for radio. If you have anything like that you might want to trade let me know. The HT is about a 9.5 not much use.

Hello folks,

I have the following items for sale or trade, reply to the e-mail address give, Thanks
Johnny

Item 1:

I have a radio Shack model PRO-2006 scanner for sale. It is in excellent condition.
Only thing it needs is to have the backlight panel replaced as it has dimmed over the years.
I have the replacement panel and that will go with the scanner. The scanner has been modified,
and it has been tapped for discriminator audio output and there is an RCA jack on the back for this. The scanner is AC/DC has the AC cord but no DC cord since that was originally an option. This is still considered a top scanner. It does not trunk track, but does cover from 25 to 1300 MHz with NO GAPS. Price is $250 and I'll ship anywhere in the US. Other offers will be considered. If interested e-mail me at wb4u@....

Item 2:

I have for sale a Zetron 37-MAX commercial repeater controller for sale. The unit is in excellent condition. It was removed from service to be replaced by another controller. I have the installation and programming manual. The 37-MAX allows you to build a repeater out of most any radio that you can pull the proper control signals out of. You need received audio, a COR signal, 12 volts and ground. The controller outputs transmit audio and PTT. It is programmable over-the-air via DTMF and uses a security code to prevent unauthorized programming. It offers all CTCSS and DCS tone/code detection and generation. It does not offer phone patch capacity. Price is
you wish to make, if interested reply to me at wb4u@...

Further information on the controller can be found at:

Hi all, I'll try this 1 more time. I'm looking to trade my HTX-404 440 MHz hand held radio with box, manual, and aa holder, for a 440 mobile. Anything good will do, I'll throw in cash if I have to, the ADI AR-447 will even do, I don't think I'll use it every day I just want something reliable, and in good shape. The hand held radio shack HTX-404 is a 9+ out of 10 I just need a little boost to get out of this hole I live in, it's tough to get out with a hand held I just need a little power to get out of here. Email me if you are interested in working out a deal, n1umj@... thanks and 73

I bought this tuner from HRO at the same time as my 706 MKIIG, with the intention of getting my ticket for HF. I have not gotten around to it and it will be a while (I'm keeping the 706!!!)

After setting up the tuner with the 706 and a 40 meter inverted vee antenna, the tuner would tune the full range automatically. The only operation has been checking tuning - otherwise this tuner has not been used.

Original packaging and manual included.

1826. ICOM 746/756 PRO II

From: w6mdk
Topic: 1826 Message: 1826

I am looking to trade my ICOM 746. It is in absolutey mint condition.
There are about 10 months remaining on the warranty. I am looking to trade it, along with an appropriate (to be negotiated) amount of cash for an ICOM 756 PRO II. I am, unfortunately, an "upgradoholic" and I really want to get into the PRO II. The 746 is an absolutely spectacular performer. As I have said, it is virtually brand new, with about 85% of the warranty still in effect. I have the manual, also in mint condition, power cord and hand mic, along with all the original packaging.

If you are interested, please e-mail me directly at W6MDK@....
Te amount of cash I am willing to pay along with the 746 is an amount appropriate to bring the trade to even, based on current prices for the two rigs used. I have an approximate figure in mind, but let's see if we even want to dance before we discuss the cost of the wedding.

Thanks and 73,

Mike

1860. For Sale: 6BTV

Looking to sell Hustler 6BTV multiband vertical antenna. Although Hustler does not claim performance on 6,meters, 12 meters and 17 meters, it actually performs well for me on all these bands, as well as the ones for which it is designed (80, 40, 30, 20, 15 and 10 meters.) I recently worked Tasmania on 17 meters with a 5/7 signal report.

Can be ground mounted without radials, or roof mounted with radials. All documentation included.

Hi all, I have an Icom 275H 2 meter all mode transceiver, on a scale of 1 to 10, I give it a 8.5 to a 9 is does show some scratches on the front edges, not too bad but they are there, radio works perfect as far as I've used it. I'm selling it because I really don't have a beam for the 2 meter SSB, all I have is a vertical which keeps me on FM for the most part and I never have run more then 25 or 30 watts so I just don't need so much radio. I hardly ever use 2 meters anyway so I'm thinking about getting something else, Kenwood TM-V7A to be exact, I'm willing to work out a trade for one if you have one that's mint from with in the last year or so. The IC-275H comes with the manual, box, hand mic, Speech board for frequency read out, PL tone board for the RX, power cord, and if you want it, I'll throw in a SM-8 for $75 more but will not sell the mic separate until the radio goes. $600 for the radio with a little help on shipping. email me at n1umj@... with any questions or if you're interested.

1887. RF feedback on IC-706 Solution

From: groland1
Topic: 1887 Message: 1887

Check out this website for the proper ferrite beads (chokes) for the 706 control cable.

http://www.radiodan.com/Henry/parts/RF_chokes.htm

His Chokes fit perfectly around the cable giving super RFI protection without having to wrap the cable 3 or 4 times through the core. They are cheaper than Rat Shack, and better quality. solved all my RFI problems in my S-10 for under $20.
Be sure and ask Dan about a special price for Yahoo Groups users.

I had a opportunity to pick up some Brand New in the package nice EMP lightning Protectors. They are HUBNER SUHNER 3401.17.k 100 watt non frequency specific. N connectors both ends. Similar to Polyphaser but not frequency specific. They use a gas cell for protection. the gas cells can be upgraded to up to 500 watts or replaced after a hit for about $15 This unit is designed to fit into a copper bus bar for grounding.

I have pictures for the asking. I did not want to clog up everyones machines with picture junk!

I need to get $75 each for them to cover my cost.

List from Hubner is about $165

I have a paypal account so you can pay that way or send money order.

Let me know if anybody wants some.

1907. FS: GAP EAGLE DX Antenna

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Brian Carling
Topic: 1907 Message: 1907

FOR SALE:

Gap Eagle DX HF Vertical Antenna - Mounts on 1.25" Pole
Covers 40, 20, 17, 15, 12 and 10 Meters - 21 ft. tall
No tuning to set it up.
All aluminum, Weighs only 11 pounds.
Three 80" Rigid counterpoises (supplied) Supplied with the instructions.
It has no traps, transformers or matching coils to rob transmitted or received power.

Manufactured locally by GAP in Florida.

Eagle DX - 6 Band Multiband DX Antenna
The Eagle is the smallest antenna in the GAP product line.
Its development was the result of your requests for a low profile, high efficiency GAP antenna.

The Eagle DX-VI weighs just 11 pounds and can be installed almost anywhere - at ground level, on a pole, on your roof or atop a tower.
It is essentially a set of vertical dipoles - the optimum singular DX antenna. No traps, coils or transformers are used to achieve multiband operation in this antenna either.
Why is that significanat? Traps are the "weak link in the chain" of a multiband antenna.

Critical to the design of the GAP Eagle was the requirement to permit operation anywhere on all of its designed frequencies.
The Eagle provides full coverage with a VSWR less than 2:1 on 40m, 20m, 17m, 15m and 12m, and approximately 500 KHz on 10m without readjusting. 10m operation is further optimized with a supplied extender. Compare that performance to any other low profile vertical. With the Eagle, as with all GAP antennas, you will not need to buy a tuner.

If a rare DX station appears on 7.050, but, you normally work the SSB nets around 7.250, just slide the VFO and key the rig!

If the band is wide open, you might work a LU6 with a coat hanger, but when conditions are less than perfect you want the highest S meter reading an antenna can provide. Efficiency is critical.
The efficiency of the GAP Eagle is without equal.
It has no traps, transformers or matching coils to rob transmitted or received power.
For the highest S meter, choose a GAP Eagle.

TUNING - Tuning can be a nasty task particularly if you mounted the antenna on your roof. In fact, it can become dangerous as trip after trip to readjust the antenna raises your frustration level and you lose your "cool". A GAP Eagle , like all GAP antennas, comes completely electronically pretuned from the factory. There is absolutely nothing for you to tune.
If you're looking for a reliable, efficient, broad band low profile antenna that will serve you well and dig out the DX, the GAP Eagle is for you.

Antenna is in my garage - no disassembly needed!
Clean condition.

New cost $299.00 - will sell for $125.00

Hey Group,

I had to sell my Icom IC-706MKII very early in this year due to a financial kink .... that was a B A D decision. I really miss that dang radio... the 6 & 2 meter SSB especilly.

I'm still in no position to buy a new radio or even a used radio that is in good working condition. Sooooo, I'm looking for a radio that is having dificulties ... like an ICOM IC-706MKII , MKIIG, a Yaesu FT-100D or anything else that has 6 meters and 2 meters SSB/FM in it... base or mobile.... with accesories or without.... even if it smells like a smokehouse or a musty basement ... I'm interested.

So, if you have something of the sort, please let me know what your price is and what happened to the radio so I have an idea what the repair will be.

Thanks

WHY do people keep repeating these stupid hoaxes??? THIS IS A FAKE!!
DO NOT JUST DELETE FILES FROM YOUR PC WITHOUT CHECKING ON IT 1st!!
THIS file is a LEGIT Windows file...and is needed by JAVA on some web pages.....
NO YOU DIDNT SEARCH because if you had, you would have found it is a fake...in fact searching Google.com shows several links to it being a HOAX in the 1st 10 found sites!!!

DO NOT send such crap on the internet.....it is a fake....and if you run a good antivirus program that is updated, you are safe!

BUT USE YOUR BRAIN before sending this on......geesh I had to correct an IT "professional" at work last week about this!! Luckily noone in my office followed his instructions....and those that did at his office got the info from ME on how to correct it.....I may not be the smartest
IT guy around, BUT I CHECK ON THINGS like this before causing mass panic by sending out FAKE hoax msgs...

BTW since a lot of the address were Hotmail or Yahoo, I am beginning to wonder if this email was spam anyway to elicit replies so addresses could be harvested...needless to say I have removed most of the ones that looked suspicious.

Just got a forward e-mail of a virus alert, and I guess I am on his liste of e-mails, I did a serach and came up witht he virus, here is all the details

Check out this ....The virus is called jdbgmgr.exe. It cannot be detected by Norton or McAfee anti-virus programs. It sits quietly for 14 days before damaging the system. It is sent automatically by messenger and by the address book, whether or not you send e-mails. To get rid of it:

1. Go to Start, then Find or Search
2. In File/Folders, write the name jdbgmgr.exe
3. Be sure to search in your "C" drive
4. Click Find or Search
5. The virus has a teddy bear logo with the name jdbgmgr.exe
6. DO NOT OPEN
7. Right click and delete it
8, Go to the recycle bin and delete it there also
9. IF YOU FIND THE VIRUS, YOU MUST CONTACT EVERYONE IN YOUR ADDRESS BOOK

Topic: 1982 Message: 1982

Hello to the group.

I have the following for sale:

4 uhf ht 600 radios w/antenna
2 vhf highband ht 600 radios w/antenna
4 batteries for the ht 600's (they all take a charge, but unknown state)
3 chargers for the Ht 600's

The radios are all 6 channel radios. The uhf radios were original 2 channel radios, however, I have used the lab tool and converted them to 6 channels.

All radios work well. I have been using them on ham bands and for my fire dept for the past 2 years.

All equipment is sold as is.

Buyer pays actual shipping charges unless your offer includes shipping in the offer.

I will sell all the above radios, batteries and chargers as a complete set or will break up as you wish. Just make me an offer for what you want. All offers will be considered.

What ever is not sold within 48 hours will go to ebay or be donated.

Thanks for reading this email..

Please email me directly at n6rhl@... with all questions and offers regarding this equipment.

FOR SALE: Crystal bank sockets.

Neat bakelite panel that will accept four crystals that you can switch or select from via solder terminals.

They are made to accept two differet sizes of crystals, all with the larger type pins than an FT243 uses.

That would be CR-1A and FT-171 types for example.
The pin spacing is for both 1/2" and 3/4" pins.

Have four mounting holes in the corners with 1/2" standoffs.

Picture available via e-mail.

QTY 2 available for $6.00 each.

I have about 10 or 20 of these available for $2.00 each

These are new parts. They are teflon and anodized metal.

They have two hole side mounting, with a clip that nicely holds the crystal in place.

Great for repairing older rigs, or for homebrewing tube transmitters and receivers.

This is NOT the same as FT243. These are for the similar sized crystals that have thinner pins.

I would like to trade for a set of paddles or a key. Something like a Bencher or Vibroplex? I do not want a paddle with a keyer build in as I have one in the radio.

From: Brian Carling
Topic: 2117 Message: 2117

FOR SALE:

Hallicrafters TO Keyer in excellent condition.
Excellent for cathode-keying older rigs, or for homebrew stations.

I would say that this is a 9 out of 10. All original knobs. Cabinet is very good.
Interior looks excellent above and below chassis.

Operates on 105 to 125V AC. 10-65 wpm. Adjustable sidetone and internal speaker for monitoring your sending. Uses six tubes.

Pictures available on request.

The Hallicrafters HA-1 "TO Keyer" - will work just great with those older rigs that need direct cathode keying. Most of today's solid state keyers will not do the job.

The Hallicrafters TO-Keyer was the first commerial digital keyer to be widely marked. The TO has self-completing dits and dahs, adjustable weighting and speed controls and a monitor speaker.
The TO-Keyer was manufactured in the early 1960s.

This one is in excelent condition and comes with a copy of the manual.

Will sell for $75.00 plus shipping

From: cworksmidwest <cworksmidwest@yahoo.com>
Topic: 2149 Message: 2149

Hello Group,

I'm a patrol member of a ski patrol at a ski hill in S.E. Wisconsin. We are funded by fund raisers (brat frys and Entertainment book sales) and private donations - usually fellow patrollers donating time, resources and funds. By the way, we are all volenteer patrollers - no one gets paid... well, with exception to maybe a beer or so at the bar after the night is through.

One of the recent problems we have been experencing is a battery charging problem. We have 5 Motorola P200 UHF radios, 5 compact standard chargers and 10 batteries. The batteries are getting up in age and will usually last a 6 hr shift then will have to be changed for the next 6 hr shift... any longer use is pushing the limit. The problems comes in when people don't bother to "follow the rules" about radio use and change the batteries at the end of the shift. A dead battery durring the evening shift is not bad, one would just wander back into the patrol room and change the battery, but when some of these people change the battery at the end of the shift, and leave the radio on over night or forget to change the battery at the end of the shift so the used battery gets charged, that leaves a problem in the morning, then the totally drained battery only has at most 6 hrs to charge... which winds up usually not enough time to fully charge the battery for the evening shift etc, it becomes a problem... especilly when these non-radio people start banging the radios thinking the ol hammer trick will fix it or start complaining that the radios dont work etc and don't bother to take a radio out on the hill (how will they know that someone is injured and needs help... they obviously have no communications with dispatch)... now thats the real problem.

In order to assure that ALL the batteries will be charged, we are looking for some battery chargers. The compact standard rate charges will do just fine, in fact, we definitely do not have the room to have a pile of single rapid chargers. A 6 bay rack charger would be the best thing in the world - but we cannot afford it unless someone is very kind and offers us a great deal or a donation.

Soooo, we are looking for 5 of those compact standard rate chargers at either a very low cost or for some one to donate them.... Or if someone has a spair rack charger for cheap or wants to donate ;-) that would work also

I also would like to have a few extra batteries in the patrol room just in the event that these batteries we have now start to croak. I have donated the 1 I've had here to replace 1 that died over the summer. To keep the costs down used batteries would fit the ticket... maybe ones that are questionable that may spring back to life after conditioning / zapping .... just so we have a few spair batteries around.

So if anyone has anything that may help our need, please contact me.

Thank you

Dave Schmidt

2153. Misc For Sale Items

From: n2yev <hazy119@westelcom.com>

Hi all in the group. I have a few items I'd like to list here:
Trying to finance getting my VHF/UHF station upgraded

Icom IC-T22A 2M HT w/ spkr-mic, BP-180, and new BP-173 hi power battery battery and antenna...original box and manual as well as charger wallwart nearly new condx. Xcellent rig. asking $165.00.
Comet Triplexer, CFX-514N usable from 1.3-500 mhz up to 800 watts throughput, $50.00. New, never used. Great for new mili band rigs like FT-847 etc.
Rascal, 1-IC soundcard interface with cabling for Icom rigs $30.00. New, lost interest in this mode.
Pyramid 26 Amp, variable voltage PS w/ Amp and Volt meters, $65.00
10M bi-linear amp rated at 100watts...asking $50.00
(with help on shipping for all items).

Also would be interested in a DEMI 222-28, or DEMI 903-144 transverters, or a 6 or 7 element 6M long boom yagi of M2 or other manufacture (not Cushcraft) in a trade deal with the above items. Lets talk!
NO DOA's here! But sold AS IS.

Thanks for the bandwidth.

* Air Variable Capacitors ********

Cardwell 30-900pF (measured) about 4.5" x 4" x 3.5" overall including plate travel and mounting ears. used, Good condition. $35

Cardwell 40-1600 pF (measured) model 8013 I think... 6.5" x 4" x 3.5" overall including plate travel and mounting ears. NOS. $60

Hammarlund SM-50-X, 7.5-50pF, .064 air gap, Just under 2" x 2" x 2" overall not including 1/4" shaft. Good condition. $10.

Johnson T9-5 miniature vertical PC mount trimmers 1.9-15.7 pF, Silver Plated machined plates -- NOS 2/$1

Johnson 154-1, 12-244pF, .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 3" overall. Rear shaft has been cut flush with bushing and the rear mounting tab has been shortened a mite. Otherwise, excellent condition, $25.

Johnson 154-34-3, 20-400pF, looks like .03" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 3" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 2-1/2" long. Excellent condition, $25.

Johnson 500E20 (modern equivalent 154-3), 500pF/2KV, looks like .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 4.5" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 1-1/2" long. Good condition except the rear mounting tab has been removed and it looks like a couple of the plates arced at one time and were subsequently filed down a mite. $25.

Similar to the part above but, NOT a Johnson, another 500pF/2KV, looks like .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 4.5" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 1-1/2" long. Good condition except the front mounting tab has been removed. $25.

National Type DX 500pF variable capacitors, approx. 3" X 3" x 3" overall fairly good condition. $10 ea.

Remler "scissors" variables. Type 630 350pF $25
Type 631 500pF $25

 Power Supplies, Inverter, UPS *****

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse. There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. They have a six-pin SIL output connector and come with a matching cable to pigtails. The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

* VHF Amplifier ****

assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the modules are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

* Old Radio Knobs **********

These are all used, most have set screws, with nothing worse than minor scuffs and smudges and fit 1/4" shafts, unless noted.

Long (2") pointer knob w/ white indicator line $1.50

Hewlett Packard (70's vintage)1-5/8" spinner knob w/ 3/8" bushing -- $10

Kenwood 5cm diameter knobs that look like they are from a Kenwood TS-830 (main tuning knob) or similar
One that's been backfilled with shot to give it some heft -- $7
The plastic spinner version -- $15

Kurz-Kasch
#308 1-1/8" knob -- $4
#308 1-1/8" knob w/ 1-3/4" brite metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated in black -- $8

#310 2-3/8" knob w/metal spinner shaft -- $12 ea
#311 2-1/16" skirted knob (some of the white lines are need refilling on these) -- $8ea

#S-645 .75" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5
#647 1" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5 ea
#653 1.5" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5 ea

Millen? (has a logo that looks like a "M" with an "I" superimposed at the center) #309 3-1/2" Handwheel style knobs as seen on the SX-28, if I recall correctly.
These are all in need of minor plastic surgery -- two have chips out the skirt where the set screw goes and one has had it's center drilled through... perhaps, to make a concentric assembly??
$10 ea.

National HRT 2-1/16" diameter. Black, trim rings somewhat tarnished -- $5 ea

National Type A Velvet Vernier dials-style 2 (marked 0-100 over 180 degrees) 3-3/8" or 4" diameter -- good condtion, $20 ea

... and if you are so disposed, I'm open to reasonable offers for all of them!

There are also many knobs from 1960's Tektronix and Hewlett Packard oscilloscopes, if anyone has any need, please inquire.

I have a Yaesu FT-4703 UHF handie for sale. It has no battery, but has a drop-in cig lighter charger/power module, six channels, crystals are currently commercial and I have no clue what freq they are. $60.00 and I'll pay shipping, or what have you got to trade.

I also have an Icom 211 two meter all mode, base integrated power supply, that drifts off freq, and needs lined up. I have original box, manual, manual on CD, and alignment manual on CD. Make me an offer or trade.

I also have a Ten Tec 6 meter transverter for sale or trade with manual.

I am looking for a decent dual-band mobile, so maybe you have one in the closet gathering dust and want to trade for some of my dust collectors.

Anyone interested in a Swan 700CX? I am not a HF person and This radio needs some help. It receives great as far as I can tell. I just hooked up a short wire inside the house and was receiving signals on 20 and 10 meters. It has 100watts out on 160 meters and very low power on the other bands. One final get a lot brighter than the other. It might just need aligning or neutralized. But then again the finals might need replaced.

It has the matching power supply and speaker and the deskmic. I can also give a copy of the service/user manual.

If interested email me direct with an offer.
Cosmetically it looks good.

Thanks,
Charles

I have for trade, a VX-1R duel band hand held, I'm sure most of you know what it is, low power, very very small, I have the soft case for it. I'm looking to trade for mainly, another HT with a little more power preferably, has to have a touch tone pad on the front that will do frequency entry, can be 2 meters or duel or what ever. Would prefer in good condition, 9 or better on the 1-10 scale, also I will consider 2 m/ what ever mobile, or if you have something else i don't have let em know. If I have to throw in a little cash, that is not a problem as long as it isn't too much VX-1R is like new, 9.5 at least might be a 10, has been modded for mars/cap but it's the software mod, I can reverse it if you want just ask, I have the box, manual, all like new, original battery I don't think it has more then 3 hours of use, it just doesn't have the power needed to get out of the hole I'm in and I like having a TTP pad on the front for direct frequency entry. I might have other things I can throw in to the deal too just ask I'm here until it warms up in New England a little bit and I can work outside again in the garage.

OK, another for trade item. I have an IC-2100H mobile 2 meters with the mars mod. I have box and a copy of the manual no clue where the original manual went, radio works fine. I'm looking to trade it for a 2 meter or duel band HT, prefer something small, like the size of the FT-11R yaesu, I want something with direct frequency entry newer is better I will add in some cash if I like something and it's worth more then my IC-2100H. I'll consider just about any offer that is reasonable, I'm mainly looking for an HT I can use in the garage, and stuff like that, I don't want to use my very expensive HT out there just in case. I will consider selling the IC-2100H but only after I've seen all trade offers or lack there of, I will post it for sale. Thanks, Model is Multi-2000.

The op/service manual is good for the Multi-2000 and the Multi-2000A.

Note: The mod was to the RF gain and I mis-typed, it was replacing a rocker not a slider so as to provide continuous gain adjustment rather than only low and high.

IBM Model 75 Correcting Selectric typewriter -- Rare transistional electronic 96 character model, circa 1980, in IBM blue with mechanical keyboard (feels like a Selectric II) and electronic 7500 character (26 documents + 99 phrases) memory. Good condition, types, but needs a bit of TLC (new ribbons, oil?) as it has been stored (indoors, clean & dry) for the last 15 years.

Now why am I offering this on the ham swap?.... Well, I got it with the thought of using it as a teletype printer long ago... and never got around to it.

The characters are selected by reed switches driven from the mechanical keyboard. Just add a few optocouplers across the contacts plus a code conversion and it will print teletype, ASCII or whatever...

It has a typeahead buffer so, that it will save any characters that are entered during a carriage return and print them after that opertion.

And you can always use it as a typewriter! :-)

Asking $250 plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

FOR SALE:

Hallicrafters SX-28A Super Defiant Receiver.
Excellent working condition. Good power cord. Sounds great.

Looks great. I can't see any rust in it. Everything is there and fine looking. All functions work fine, except that the bandspread tuning dial needs to be restrung.

The push pull 6V6 output on this radio is hard to beat for quality sounding audio. AGC knob looks just like the original but is a replacement.

Like most SX-28s, this one has no case and is rack-mountable.

Will sell for $275.00 plus shipping

2354. SWAP: Morrow & Lafayette Gear for laptop

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2003-04-12 00:44:23 UTC
From: Colburn
Topic: 2354 Message: 2354

I am in need of a reliable laptop. Minimum features include 400MHz cpu, 192MB ram, 40GB hdd. Must be 100% Linux RedHat 9 compatible.

I have the following to swap:

Morrow MBR-5 Receiver
Morrow MBR-5 Receiver
Morrow MB-560 Transmitter
Morrow MB-560A transmitter
Matching AC power Supply w/cables
Headset & Mic
Manuals (originals and copies)
Lafayette HE-45b

The Morrow gear is complete (except the MB-560 is missing the mod transformer and mod tubes). The AC power supply has some minor shipping damage. The Lafayette is complete. None of the gear has been tested. I can send digital pictures.

As fond as I am of the Morrow gear (I made a Morrow Web page!) it is clear that building a house and restoring boatanchor Ham gear are mutually incompatible projects!

I will consider a cash offer on all of the Morrow gear and the Lafayette if it is sufficient to cover the cost of the acquisition of what I seek (current market value of everything is just under $400.). I really do not want to piece it out.

I also have a Heath HA-14 mobile dual-572b HF Amp and a Kenwood TS-830S available to swap for the right laptop.

Central Florida seller strongly preferred to save shipping and to test the RH9 compatability.

Thanks! & 73, doc kd4e

Hi all, I'm looking for a 2 meter mobile, doesn't have to look perfect but should work perfect, if it has the voice board in it like the IC27 series of radios then display doesn't matter to me. Price is a consideration, Kenwood or Icom preferred but email me with what you have looking for something I can use mobile. I'm also looking for a power cord for the Kenwood TM-241A I use for packet, the one I'm using right now isn't perfect, it works but not looking so great anymore. It's the same one that fits most modern mobile VHF and UHF radios with the 2 pin connector. Again let me know what you have.

2411. FS: Hammarlund Super Pro (2)

Topic: 2411 Message: 2411

FOR SALE:

Hammarlund Super Pro receivers needing restoration,
but basically almost all there, or use them as parts rigs.
I have two of these. Both are missing several tubes, but the dials look good. You might put tubes into one or both and find that they play OK.

No guarantee - one also needs a replacement antenna trimmer cap installed, but useful as a project to build one out of the two or as "parts rigs."
Rack-mount style with no covers.

These are not "pretty" radios, neither are they covered in crud!
They are NOT in working condition and will require some work.

I have two of these at $85.00 each, plus shipping.

I have tonight, a yaesu FT-470 with speaker mic and manual, not sure how the battery is, I got a conversation out of it but it did sit, but anyway, I'd like to trade this HT for something I might use. 220 mobile radio or 6 meter radio, I'll throw in cash if the radio is worth more then the HT, I just have too many HT's here I always seem to use 1 of them and really I'd just rather see it go to someone who'll use it and I'd rather fill the space with something I'll use. Email me if you have anything you might consider trading and we'll see from there. 73 all,

In a 6 ft. rack w/doors on both sides & blower, a 100 watt Motorola VHF repeater (140-150 MHz) w/power supply and a 4 cavity Viacoma duplexer and a GE Mastr II 100 watt UHF repeater (420-430 MHz) w/power supply (no duplexer)I have no documentation, manuals etc. for these. I do not have the facility to test these units. These are for trade ONLY, and will remain together and NOT traded seperatly. Also, these are too large to ship. I will consider hauling them for a reasonable distance from the Beaumont, Texas, area for the right trade. These units were all working when removed from 100% duty cycle operation. They have been stored for 3 years. I will provide digital photos and model #'s etc. to serious traders.

I regret I made some errors in my previous post;

In a 6 Ft. rack w/doors on both sides and a top blower, a 100 watt Motorola repeater, model C73RXB-3106BT, with power supply, multi-tester, and a 4 cavity TELEWAVE (NOT VICOM) model TPRO1554, duplexer has been set up on RX-144.57 & TX-145.17, AND a GE Mastr II 100 watt UHF (420-430 MHz)repeater w/power supply (no duplexer) I now have digital pix of this unit w/o the GE repeater (removed to save weight). The rack is in good shape, the front door is "smoked plastic" with aluminum edge.

In addition to my previos "shopping list" I will consider an even trade for a working Kenwood TS-950 SDX in good condition

Also, one GE mastr II UHF 100 watt repeater w/power supply (No rack or UHF duplexer). Both repeaters appear to be in good physical condition. These repeaters were working when removed from service. They are both commercial/military units and are designed for 100% duty cycle. They have been stored for approx. 3 years in protected environment. I do not have facility for testing these units. I am not a repeater expert. I have digital photos of these units and I will e-mail them to a serious trader. I will TRADE ONLY for both repeaters. I have a National HRO-50T1 receiver with most of the coil sets. I'm trying to decide whether to keep it or find a new owner for it.

It's in excellent shape, one minor ding on the front panel, otherwise you'd swear it was new.

Should I decide to sell, how could I determine a reasonable price? Didn't see anything like this here or on eBay to use as a guide.

REDUCED:

Hammarlund Super Pro receivers needing restoration.
I have two of these. Both are missing several tubes, but the dials, transformers, meters etc. all look good.

You might put tubes into one or both and find that they play OK.

Great for "parts rigs."
No covers.
You will need a power supply for these receivers.

eHam reviews:
Considering the 1938 design, the designer was brilliant. It is almost unbelievable radios like this existed 65 years ago. The radio has a so-so xtal filter, however the mechanical coupled I.F. bandwidth control actually works! The 15 watts of high-end quality PP audio using triode connected 6F6s driven by a 6F6 could 'fly' in a modern high-end tube type stereo system. Good sensitivity with a good audio amps equals picking out the signal you want to hear out of the three on top of one another. Some AMers swear by this radio. A SP-400 would perform about the same - N8FVJ

I am one of the AMers who swears by this radio... it has the rich, creamy smooth AM sound and warm tube overtones that you just don't get from most communications receivers. In terms of pleasant audio, I have put it up against an SX28 - and the Hammarlund won. - W1GFH

There were a lot of tire kickers, therefore:
Now reduced to only $65.00 each, plus shipping.

I am told that the models are as follows:
The first one appears to be either an SP-110X or SP-210X.

The second one is a military version of the SPR-210X, a.k.a. BC779.
It has been modifed to use miniature tubes in the RF section 100 kHz to 20 MHz in 5 ranges.

Hi all, I have a few things sitting around here I haven't really been using like I thought I would lately so I figure I'll trade for something I can use, not for sale yet so don't ask but there are a few things I want that I might use so here goes.
Packet station, PK-232 TNC and Kenwood TM-241A, on the radio, the tuning dial doesn't work right now, might just be locked, I honestly don't know and don't have time to deal with it, also I have a mic for it, it will change settings and frequencies from the mic no problem I figure it's just locked, I have the mobile bracket and manual for the radio, radio has some scratches from the mobile bracket. The TNC, I have box, manual, connectors that came with it, 2 cables to connect it to the Kenwood 8 pin mic jacks, TNC is in good shape, works perfect.
Also, I have an HTX-10, was planning to use it mobile but I never will so no sense having it sitting here in the box, I tried it out once works fine I just will never use it. If anyone has anything they'd like to trade for any or all of this stuff, let em know, I also have a D104 mic collecting dust if anyone wants to work something out for that.
I'm looking to trade for or toward, will throw in cash if needed, a dewl band mobile radio must work perfect, a scratch or 2 is OK, I want to upgrade my mobile set up, TM-G707A preferred, but will consider anything, also will trade for 220 or 6 meter equipment, I haven't really played on those bands much, or maybe an HT, TH-g71A mainly though, I have a few HT's but that's 1 I've always wanted to try. If you'd like to make a deal, email n1umj@... and I'll get back to you, I respond to everyone who emails me.

Hi all, I'm looking for hand held scanners, for a project over here, UHF/VHF, cheap. Must be cheap, condition doesn't matter as long as they work, programmable preferred but if you have a couple you want to unload and 1 isn't programmable, I'll find a use for it. Only real thing I am asking for and have to stick to is they have to be portables. If they have rechargeable batteries in them like the older Unidens and the battery won't hold a charge, as long as the scanner works, that's fine, just so long as the scanner works, can be banged up a little what ever. Thanks, email n1umj@... if you can help.

I have a very nice Uniden Bearcat BC-700a that has been opened up for all the goodies. This one has the preprogrammed freqs for Police, Fire/EMS, Air, WX, and others. You can also store your own freqs as well. This is a very fast scanner on bandscan. You can see the details of it here. http://www.uniden.com/productsupport.cfm?product=BC700A Included are an indoor antenna, mounting bracket, power transformer, and manual.

Asking $100.00

The front panel and LCD readout are in excellent shape and not scratched or hazed at all. There are a few scratches around the side screw hole, as usual.

2501. Large ... ah hemm... VERY LARGE Batteries available

From: cworksmidwest
Topic: 2501 Message: 2501

Hey group,

I've run into an offer to remove a pile of VERY LARGE AT&T microwave site emergency power batteries. These are 2VDC lead acid cells with a capacity of something like 700A - 900A per 8 hr rate and have a 75 year life. Absolutely monster batteries of which 6 cells would run a repeater for days, heck maybe weeks.

The thing is, I have to grab the whole rack of batteries - thats like 30 some batteries. Now if I had the space I would wire up a pile of them and have a dang near endless 12VDC supply when the power goes out - but I'm very limited on space. The other thing is, It is going to be a heck of a job moving all of these batteries when I only could use 6 of them. These weigh around 200Lbs each, are roughly 16 inches in diameter, and roughly 24 inches high.

If other people can use these, it would give me the motovation and the justification to bust my rear to get them.

Would anyone be interested in such monster batteries to power their repeaters or ham shacks??? Contact me off the list for details and delivery/pick up options.

Thanks

I have a new, boxed CT 22 Dual (Iambic) Levr Paddle.

The is nicely engineered, beautifully finished. Its matte-black or polished brass base measures 3-1/8" square and the paddle stands 2-1/8" tall to the tip of the fingerpieces, and the total weight of the paddle is 1 Lb 6-1/4 Oz.

The combination of double-polished natural brass, clear plexiglass fingerpieces, and matte-black steel or highly polished brass base lend it a high-tech look that will be borne out in use. Spring and bearing tension are easily adjusted on each side, and the contacts can be set for very narrow spacing.

Each paddle has a brass plaque stamped with the serial number and year of manufacture. Each paddle is supplied with pre-connected shielded cable and both a gold 1/8" plug and a 1/8 to 1/4" adapter.

The cost is $73.73 + delivery.

The pcitures can be seen at http://www.anthonywelsh.com/?action=show_item&from=browse_items&iid=213

Recent goodies -you need to buy this stuff quick- pls check website for photos, or use your imagination and see how wonderful this stuff is, that is what i tell my wife, anyway.

F.S hallicrafters HT-32 $250.00 + S. H. from 78013
Just out of the barn, it is rather dirty, but not excessively so. all original knobs, and should clean up nice, the face is ok. I cut the cord off, since it was rotten. this one has 11 meters on it, so you chicken banders should like it. -just kidding, of course. I would check it out for additional funds.

60' guyed tower, 18" face, 3 leg, don't know who made it, similar to Rohn 45 it is on the ground, ready to load, got some damage taking it down, so, it would be at least 50 foot, of good stuff, needs painting, and some repair. $200.00

100' guyed commercial tower, partially assembled, 3 leg, 24 " face, heavy galvanized. Has a 3" X 4' rotator shaft, and 2 sealed thrust bearings turn a house or a 160m beam with it.LOL on one 24" assembled section , some guys and insulators, 3 6' assembled sections also, the balance is knocked down approx 60'. I may not have enough ladder rungs or diagonal braces, 1x1x1/8" angle would substitute.
$500.00 as is , or $650. with enough (painted) parts guaranteed count.

I have access to some DX-100's and a B&W 5100. State most you would pay in your email.
Sun auto analyzer, from the 30's or 40's, real neet POA.

2554. Kenwood TM-231A FOR SALE - 2MTR MOBILE - 50 WATTS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2003-09-08 09:54:26 UTC
From: Wally & Marla
Topic: 2554 Message: 2554

Here's your opportunity to own a great mobile two meter rig for a price that will fit any budget! This little Kenwood will transmit at 5, 10 or 50 watts, depending on power selection switch.

Covers 144-148 mHz and is easily modified for MARS/CAP operation. Comes with power cord, original owners manual and the Kenwood MC-44DM electret condenser DTMF microphone. I used this transceiver as a base unit and do not have the mobile mounting bracket, but these are relatively easy to come by.

Although this rig performs well, it is used, and, as such, carries no warranty, expressed or implied.

Price: $120.00 OBO (plus shipping); PayPal preferred.

I put an alkaline in it and played with it a bit, replaced a corroded battery contact (factory parts) and it seems to be fine.
I don't know what charger to use with it, but it looks like it uses a standard wall wart available anywhere, or just remove battery and charge with universal charger.
No mirror strip. 8/10, no cracks or gouges, some minimal scratches/wear as expected. Great shape.

The very scary thing about this message is that it appears to have had the blessing of Yahoogroups. It was not presented to me for approval before posting to the list. This is a moderated list and Yahoogroups would be the only ones able to overrule that. When you look at the message in the group, it's the only one without a YahooID. This was inserted in the list against my wishes. If the spammers they let post in the groups wasn't bad enough, now they're bypassing moderation for viruses.

Yahoo just put on a very black hat.

HF and accys are in really nice, near mint condition. Judi, I'm confused. Do you mean "broadcast" or monitor a broadcast? If you just want to listen, no license is required and radios that will tune 510.5 are readily available.

If you really mean "broadcast" (transmit a signal) the question is much more complex. The fact that you quote a set of call letters and a frequency leads me to believe that there is an established station with the proper license and assigned frequency. Which is it?

Hi all, I have a PK232 TNC for sale/trade, works fine, I thought there was something wrong with it so I bought another TNC, come to find out it was just something stupid, but the other one I bought I like better, not as big it fits the station better. Anyway, I have the box, manual, and cables for Kenwood radios, 2 for radios with an 8 pin mic jack, and 1 cable for the radios with the new 6 pin mini din connector, I also have a power cable with it to connect it to your power supply and other misc. connectors for it. I'd prefer to trade it, but make me a reasonable offer, I just don't have room for it here. I'm very pressed for space for stuff I don't use. As for trades, make an offer, if I want it or it interests me I'll let you know. I'm always interested in trying something I don't have, haven't had, what ever, I love trying different things. Ok all you 900Mhz Repeater guys.... here is your chance before the stuff hits E-Bay. I was totally gearing up to get this system operational, but according to the RF modeling, the surrounding terrain is not to giving on 900Mhz.... even if I would plop it on a 200ft commercial tower. SOOOOOO, all my hard work, all my wheeling and dealing for commercial goods that will work on the 900 ham band is just taking up space. Rather than have it sit here, I'd rather see it get used somewhere else where it will work better. I'll take the proceeds and make a system that will work around here .... like VHF (something that "bends" around and over the hills).

So here is the goods....

900Mhz - 25Mhz offset HAM repeater system

Consists of:
1 - EF Johnson 8655 (exciter / transmitter) 900Mhz radio
 Programmed and tuned for 927.275Mhz TX *****

1 - EF johnson 8615 (Receiver) 800Mhz radio slightly modified for NICE repeater input RX
 Programmed and tuned for 902.275Mhz RX *****

1 - Motorola MLF6000A rack mount Duplexer
 Tuned for 927.275TX / 902.275RX *****

1 - Scala 890-960Mhz 6dB commercial antenna

No Controller included - however, if you need a PC to run the Echostation Computer based repeater controller, I can probably set you up with that.

The Johnson radios conveniently are mounted to the metal "box" housing the duplexer cavities making a nice compact rack mount 900Mhz repeater system. Add a fan to the heat sink and run it at 10W or turn it down to drive an amplifier.

Will include any documentation I can come up with, service manuals, tuning data etc etc.

2648. For Sale: Icom IC-R3 Receiver

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2003-11-06 03:16:22 UTC
From: JJ
Topic: 2648 Message: 2648

I have an IC-R3 for sale that is two weeks new...

It comes with everything included with a NIB unit and the only signs of wear would be a few of my fingerprints.

This handheld receiver will do just about everything up to 2.4 Gazillion-hertz or something (excluding the snoop freqs the gov't won't let us hear)...it even has a TV built into with amazing reception quality on a 2"-3" TFT color screen...Sunday football scores (those tiny numbers) can be read in the upper portion screen too.

This radio does way more than I kow about it and I haven't had time to use it much.

I paid $329 for it, less than two weeks ago at the Des Moines Hamfest, and you can have it shipped to your door for $300 (including my sales receipt)...no extra charge for the fingerprints. LOL

If you've got questions, I'll try to answer then as best as I can. I might trade if someone has something truly unique...but for the most part I am seeking a cash deal.

Thanks!

1. I need a PCMCIA modem that works reliably with Linux, esp. Redhat9 on my laptop. (I tire of hours spent trying to get supposedly Linux-compatible hardware to play nicely together.)

This is supposed to be a reliable list:
http://pcmcia-cs.sourceforge.net/ftp/SUPPORTED.CARDS

If you like classics I have a working Tandy 1100FD laptop I'd be willing to swap, and will include a Ham accessory for the right modem-nic.

2. I am also interested in wireless nic hardware, also Linux friendly, and have a working older Toshiba Satellite T2105CS laptop I could swap for that. (I need one nic to have an external antenna connector for experimentation with long-distance links. I'd like to get into Ham activities with wireless Internet on 2.4 or 5.6GHz.)

3. I'd be willing to swap three laptops and a complete desktop setup (cpu box, monitor, keyboard, mouse, printer, etc.) for a 400MHz (min.) laptop loaded with Redhat9 or SuSE Pro9 and dual-booted with Win98 with all devices working (esp. incl. internal modem & nic, or bypassed with included pcmcia devices).
[Laptops: Tandy 1100FD, Toshiba Satellite T2105CS, Tadpole 1300G.
Desktop: 233MHz cpu and usual desktop features]

How's that for horsetrading?!

Thanks! & 73, doc kd4e

I have a Kenwood 820 that is in great shape. I have the origional manual, desk mike, extra tubes, mobile power cord and hand mike for it. I've used it for about 4 months and need to get something smaller for my office.

I had a friend with a service monitor check it out a few months ago and he gave it a thumbs up. Output was around 80 watts.

I can email you pix if needed. I would prefer not shipping it but will do at additional expense.

I'm located in Cincinnati, Ohio and travel to Columbus frequently and could meet on one of my trips.

Seems like the asking price is around $250.00 plus shipping.

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $1

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries (not included). - $2

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $3

Some kind of test oscillator with a NE556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $3

HF Harmonic Filter built in a 5" x 2.25" x 2.25" LMB Aluminum box. UHF connectors. Probably good for 100W. $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz receiving converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75"
-- $10

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse.
There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. They have a six-pin SIL output connector and come with a matching cable to pigtails. The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

* VHF Amplifier ****

Late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the modules are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

* MICROWAVE *******

Hughes M-band balanced mixer assemblies which have WR-75 flanges on the RF & Oscillator inputs and wire terminals on the IF outputs. $25 ea

IMPATT Diodes -- NOS individually packaged with test data
NEC ND8P15-5H-C 1W @ 14.8 GHz $15 ea
NEC ND8V12TU 2.5W @ 12.6 GHz $30 (one only)
Loral GC-5831E 300mw @ 12.5 Ghz $10 ea

Microwave Mixer Diodes (I think!) -- NOS in original capsule packaging Sylvania D5163. 4 pcs $10 all

Avantek GaAs Fet Preamp.
Avantek SD7-0738N. 3.7-4.2 Ghz WR-229 input flange.
N output connector. 4 pin AN type power connector -- pin assignments noted on label. Presumeably functional. $25

Rantec FU-301 Microwave "device"
This is some kind of filter or delay line?? at some GHz ...I don't know.
N connectors -- 7 3/4" x 3 3/4" x 1" overall. $7

I do have many things to trade, located in upstate NY.
These are just some of the things I have.
We can mix and match any of what I have to meet what your serious hf rigs Yeasu, Icom, Kenwood....

The Marshall set up is a JCM 800/2204 50w head (rare)

time due to arthritis in my hands.

From: kenton@landmobile.com
Topic: 2708 Message: 2708

I am interested in getting up on 6-meters and am in the market for some reasonably priced gear. No tubes and No crystals, please. Cosmetic appearance is not important as long as it works properly. Willling to take on something needing minor repairs. I tend to favor Kenwood, but am really not that picky. Does not have to be "all mode." or especially fancy, just fun, functional and reasonably priced.
Thanks

Tektronics 485 scope, w/o case. scope is missing some control knobs and one control itself. I plugged it in and got some lite from a neon on the hv board, but not much else. tube looks ok and intact. I would sell this for $50.00 or include it with the 454A for the asking price of $150.00.

I have added more items to my website, and would like to sell some (or all) of them. I accept offers and usually will trade, but for now, I would like to only sell outright.
Pictures and descriptions on my website. There is too much to post here.

Additionally , I am selling items from my fathers estate, not ham items , but some hams may have interest. All offers will receive consideration, especially for multiple sales.

Boatanchor Mobile Accessory!

Heathkit GP-11 Mobile Power supply.
The GP-11 is rated at 250 VDC @ 100 mils with 6 or 12 VDC input.
That makes it perfect for running a Heath lunchbox rig in the car!
This is a rare item. This power supply was made to power the Benton Harbor Lunchbox Transceivers (Twoer, Sixer, etc.) that were made in the 1960s for use on the 2m, 6m, 10m and 11m bands.
It would also work well with other low powered tube radios.
This supply works on 12 Volts and was made for use while mobile.

Has connector for 12v cigar lighter outlet

Available for $39.00 plus shipping

been used very little, and was in storage for many years.
This radio is in excellent condition. It is the best looking cabinet I have seen on one of these radios.
The rig transmits OK, but needs minor work on the receiver.
All original knobs etc. No modifications.

Available for $85.00 plus shipping

I found that I had a military o'scope Model OS-82A/USM-105 mfd. by HP . It has 1-MX-3078 Horz channel plugin and 1-MX-2930A dual trace vertical amp plug-in. Has case cover and one probe. It is large and pretty heavy, and it does work. Price will depend on shipping, etc.

Frequency Generator model FR-5U, mfd by Lavoire labs for the US Army 10-100mc coverge. This is a high quality piece with a crystal oven and a very nice dial. It is large and heavy. I would like to get $200.00 for it. I worked last time I used it , and I will check it out prior to shipment - charts are included and are built in to the case, I do not have the cover for it, if there was one .
I have lots more for sale on my webpage-please check it out. I will be going to the Smithville TX hamfest this weekend and can bring any large item with me if someone wants it.

Unsolicited warning -- be very careful as to which HT you hang one of these on, the type of antenna you pop on top of it, and how often you take the thing on and off.

My experience is that with a telescoping antenna atop one of these things and the adapter on and off frequently for connecting mobile to an amp and rooftop antenna led to pin failure on the HT -- requiring the HT to be returned for service. (Kenwood recommended I not use the adapter again.)

I am not condemning the adapter, the design is as good as it gets for the inherently weak sma connector & my usage may have been extreme, just FYI buyer beware!

1 - Yaesu FT 33R 220 HT with Touchtone pad option....have alkaline battery back for it....(using NiMH in it...works fine!)...does NOT have the tone squelch option in it; do have a wall charger and a OPENED but dead 12V pack for it..Just add new cells and reglue it shut..

1 - ICOM T81A HT have a few extra batteries, mobile charger cord, wall charger...in excellent shape...yes, opened wideband....

I have an E-DC-5B (car adaptor) for the Yaesu VX-5R radio. I also have (somewhere, because I just moved) the Yaesu manual and another pocket reference for the VX-5R.

I'm looking for a car adaptor for the following handheld radios:

Yaesu VX-1R
Yaesu VX-2R
or the Kenwood TH-G71A

I might be coerced into trading for something else (whatever you have) as long as it is useable with the above radios...speaker/mic, antennas, etc.

Hi all, I have an Icom P2AT hand held radio, display is scratched but still very readable, other then that radio works perfect comes with charger, BP-112 and rubber duck, I have 2 of these so thought I'd sell 1, I only have 1 manual so here's what I'll do, if you don't want the manual, $70 + shipping, if you want me to make a copy of it, $75 + shipping. I'll also consider trades, I'll add cash if trade interests me but is worth more then the radio, please tell me honestly what condition trade items are in, if there's a minor problem tell me before I decide, a couple deals back some one didn't and I wasn't too happy. Depending on what it is I might still consider it, you'd be surprised, main trade items I'll consider are 220 mobile, 6 meter mobile, maybe like a rig plaster or something, or anything else radio or computer related you might want to get rid of. I'll be in and out all day so I'll go through my offers tonight or tomorrow morning if I have any and if a trade interests me, that will get first priority, otherwise, first offer to buy gets it. email me at n1umj@...

Hi all, I'm looking at doing something over here with an echolink link and am looking for a 2 meter or 440 mobile, doesn't have to be anything special, a Kenwood TR-7930 or Icom 27 series radio is fine, display doesn't have to work on radios with voice frequency read out. If you can't tell the lower the price the better though I'd like it to work perfect other wise and look at least a 9 out of 10. Main things I'm looking for besides the condition are, direct frequency entry, or if it doesn't have that, voice read out for the frequency or at least the capability of the voice read out I can find the boards if I have to. Duel banders OK, but more then likely I'm not willing to pay the price for one, looking to keep it under $100, $75 range is even better but if I like it I'll buy it. package deals with something else or something are alright too if I like the package I'm always trying to do something different over here. Email me with what you got. 440 equipment might be considered too if the price is right, not really looking that way but not out of the question.

The USS Hornet ARC has been disbanded. To maintain our honor and distance ourselves from the actions of the Aircraft Carrier Hornet Foundation we have pulled our funding and disbanded the USS Hornet ARC.

Hi!

Am tired of being overlooked in the pileups and unable to upgrade antenna system so must raise power.

Looking for nice used AL-80B, Dentron Clipperton L or something similar. should have 10 meter mod installed and hopefully work on WARC bands but not necessary. Do want 160M capability for sure.

Have anything you can part with? Live in the Washington, DC metro area.

Will be going to Timonium next weekend and to Dayton in May.

Date: 2004-03-25 23:35:43 UTC
From: cworksmidwest
Topic: 2826 Message: 2826

I'm looking for a few Kenwood Fleetsync capable mobile radios.

VHF and UHF mobile radios

I need to keep the cost of the radios down, so I'll take ones that are beatup, dirty, missing mics, missing brackets or have TX problems. These will be used for RX only applications so if the radios have a TX problem, that ok with me. However, I need functioning Fleetsync on RX

Let me know what you have and your price.

Thanks

2827. WANTED - Centracom II rack(s)

Date: 2004-03-26 00:11:22 UTC
From: cworksmidwest
Topic: 2827 Message: 2827

I'm still looking for the following for my ham shack:

1 or 2 Motorola Centracom II racks. I prefer the racks with the top add on rack box (fron the slant face, it goes up 6 inches, then the add on box goes up another 12 inches), but I will take whatever I can find that is similar. I would need the front door for each rack... the rear door would be nice also, but not required.

I need 2 desktop brackets per rack unit

I need 2 feet for the racks

I do not need the electronics, but if someone has a panel with all the switches and whatnot that they want to get rid of, contact me ;-)

I am willing to drive up to 250 miles from Kewaskum, WI (About 50 miles north of Milwaukee) to pick these units up.

Condition: As long as these are not very rusty or look like they been hit by a train, I will consider it. I will be painting these anyways.

Please contact me at: cworksmidwest (AT) yahoo (DOT) net

Thanks

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

Battery drainer -- LM317K (TO-3) plus a pot wired as a current sink to drain batteries -- 4" x 3" x 1.5" -- $1

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries (not included). - $2

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $3

Some kind of test oscillator with a NE556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $3

HF Harmonic Filter built in a 5" x 2.25" x 2.25" LMB Aluminum box. UHF connectors. Probably good for 100W. $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Antenna Noise bridge? -- Pot & Cap plus 4 transistor circuit mounted in a 5" x 4" x 2" enclosure. BNC connectors marked ANT & RX. Pwr SW. & Led Powered by a single 9 volt battery. - $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz receiving converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75"
-- $10

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

Due to popular demand I have lowered the price of my nice Heathkit Apache to $250.00, lots of other prices have been lowered or make me an offer- if it is too low, don't count on an answer, I will be busy selling to real buyers. I will not pack or ship at the reduced prices pickup only- gas is too high for me to haul this stuff to the freight company. I think UPS and Fed Ex will pickup and pack items for a fee, and maybe some buyers will learn to appreciate the costs involved with shipping things now days. I will post some more stuff in the next few days.
Thanks for the bandwidth, 73's

2856. FS: Military VHF Transistor amp

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Marv_E_Ads@Juno.com

* VHF Amplifier ****

Late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the modules are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

I do have a couple digital photos available for this critter.

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

2866. Cushcraft 4 element, 2 meter beams FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2004-04-10 11:33:04 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 2866 Message: 2866

For Sale:

Cushcraft 147-4, 4 element, 2 meter beam

This beam is relatively small (about a 4 foot boom), but still has about 10 db gain. It is made so that it can be attached to a tower by the back of the boom.
This method permits easy side mounting for a fixed direction, if so desired. It is drilled so it can be mounted either vertically, or horizontally. It is wideband, and will cover most of 2 meter band with acceptable SWR.

I have two of these beams available.

One is almost like new. It has been in the garage and in the attic. It is $50.

The other has been outside, and is still in good shape, but not quite as nice as the first one. It is $45.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Note that these were spoken for when I listed them before, but no follow thru.

Thanks.

For Sale:

Kenwood TS-711, multimode 2meter transceiver

This unit is an FM, SSB, and CW transceiver for 2 meters. It has 40 memory channels, and up to 25 Watts of output power, which is continuously variable (no Hi or Low switch, but a front panel control to continuously vary power). It has a GASFET in the front end for one of the best receivers I have ever used. The 120 V AC power supply as well as 13 V DC, is built in. The case looks very similar to a TS-440 or TS-450 HF rig.

This particular unit is as nice as you will find. No dents, dings, or scratches. It is in its original box, and includes the original manual as well.

$425 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

2876. Mint Kenwodd TS-440AT HF radios for sale

From: John Kirckof
Topic: 2876 Message: 2876

I have FOR SALE, several Kenwood TS440AT transceivers. The specs are: general coverage receive from AM broadcast up through the HF bands to 30 Mhz, AM/FM/LSB/USB/CW. Also, the transmit side has been opened up for MARS operation. They come with a good built in Antenna tuner, 100 memory presents, split Tx/Rx freq ops, IF shift, high resolution didgital freq. display, and all those types of goodies. Obviously they will have a factory mic, manual, and a power cord type of your choosing.

I am part of a mission group that used to use many of these versatile radios. We are now upgrading to an even more compact Icom IC706 package so we are selling the good TS 440s. No junk here, these are in perfect working order and were reconditioned by Burghardt Amateur Center. We are asking $400 or trade allowance toward 1 ot 2 IC-706MKIIG units.

I also have seperately for sale, my own PK 232 multimode controller with updates for several modes including pactor. This controller has cables to connect to the Kenwood radio.

If interested in 1 or 2 or more of these, write me at JMKKEK@... or call me in the evening at 320-634-4386.

John

2880. Dayton Hamvention and GE Mastr Exec II Base radios FS

From: Paul Finch
Topic: 2880 Message: 2880

Hello,

I still have some of these UHF Mastr Exec II radios for sale, my problem is shipping. These things are heavy! I have no shipping material, if you guys want one of these radios I am going to have them professionally packed for shipment. I think I can get a pretty good deal through a local store here on multiple shipments, let me know.

I am asking $100.00 each or $75.00 for two or more, Less in larger quantities.

Also, I am going to be at Dayton, I will be in spaces 1121 and 1122. If you want one and you or a friend can pick it up there that will be fine, save some shipping cost that way. I will take cash, check with ID or cashiers check.

I will be traveling from Fort Worth, Texas up to Meadville PA. on the 11th and 12th to deliver some other equipment, if you are along that route I can drop a radio or two or three or four (the more the better) off that way also!

There you have it! Several ways to get one or more of these radios, just let me know.

Laid off, just trying to make a living,
Paul

It's an authentic pre-war crystal in the CR-15/U case and very hard to find. It has been tested on the air and is still working. This is a major slab of quartz and it will handle almost any power tube oscillator application as well as working with small oscillators.

Will sell for $12.00 plus shipping.

2909. Wanted: Large old switch wafer

Date: 2004-05-11 02:13:55 UTC
From: Marv_E_Ads@Juno.com
Topic: 2909 Message: 2909

The part I'm seeking is:

A 10 position (1 common, 9 selects) rotary switch wafer.

About 2.85" square by 1/4" thick ceramic with 5/16 diameter contacts on a 2" diameter circle which extend to solder lug style terminals on the opposite side of the wafer.

The wafer has 1/16" high ribs, on both sides, to support the rotor between contacts.

The rotor has a triple band contact 1/2" wide and it is turned by a 1.5" diameter ceramic disk which is .3" thick.

These were made by Westinghouse and possibly other manufacturers under contract to the War (yes, that long ago...) Department but, I've never seen them marked as to manufacturer.

Seeking just a wafer in almost any condition, a whole switch or ??

73 & Thanks for looking,

2911. Re: 2m Duplexer Wanted

Date: 2004-05-09 17:14:43 UTC
From: J. F. Samuels
Topic: 2911 Message: 2911

Hi - our club has a Sinclair 2m model Q202G duplexer we took out of service a few months ago - you might be interested.

It has four large cans mounted on a front panel which fits inside a rack mounted enclosure.

We have been running the duplexer for about 20 years at 375 watts on 147.165. Lately we noticed a high SWR from the transmitter to the duplexer. I investigated and found that one of the rods on a transmit can was burned where the fingerstock contacted the rod. I swapped the cans from receive to transmit and tried to repair the rod, but the burn was too deep. Although retuning moved the position of the fingerstock relative to the burn, it fails now on receive. I understand that our local 2-way radio shop has the equipment to repair the rod, but the club has opted to purchase a new duplexer.

I believe that if the duplexer was retuned for the low end of 146 or 145 MHz, it would not fail. Or the one can's rod could be fixed or replaced. Only one can fails.

If you are interested, I will give you more details and discuss a reasonable price.

I prefer not to ship and could meet someone a reasonable driving distance from Monroe, NC to deliver it. Guaranteed to be in mint condition with low hours on the tube in the amp. Included with the amplifier is an MFJ ATP-100 Tuning Pulser and the MFJ ARB-704 Universal Amplifier Buffer Interface and a new-in-the-box 3-500 tube, I also have the boxes and manuals for everything too. Price is $1000, and I will entertain offers if you wish to haggle, all serious offers will be considered. If interested please respond directly to me at wb4u@... and we can discuss things further in private off the list.

I have recently been given some Maxtrac & Maxtrac LS mobiles, 3 MTX-LS portables (w/ charger and battery) that are 800mhz conventional radios to liquidate for a chair car service that has changed frequencies & equipment.
The owner of these radios figured that whatever I make above & beyond what he's looking for could go into the "new baby daughter fund"!!
They are all 8-10:10 cosmetically, and all worked when taken out of service. Each mobile has a working microphone,. and NMO type whip (no bases though....sorry) to go with it.

Motorola MTX-LS Portable w/ antenna, battery & desktop charger...I have 3...they are all model number H01UCC6DU3AN_NX

Motorola Maxtrac-LS Mobiles w/ microphone (HMN 1056D) and NMO mount whip...I have 15...they have model number M07UJQ6FU1AN

Motorola Maxtrac Mobile w/ microphone (HMN 1056D) and NMO mount whip...I have 7...they have model number D45MWA5GB7AK...and 1 unit with model number D45MQA5GB5AK.

Additionally I have 2 EF Johnson Portables...Viking CL...model number 8565 w. shoulder mics...and a EF Johnson Mobile, model number 242-8615.

If you can provide anyfeedback as to what these model numbers indicate that would be great too.
I am looking to sell these, but would be willing to trade a few for some other equipment (like a 400mhz band portable ...or a dual band mobile unit 155/400mhz I can use w/ my volunteer ambulance/fire department).
If you have any interest in these radios please feel free to email me at Michael-Allen@...

I would like to trade my Mirage B3016 160 Watt Mobile Amp with Preamp and Control head for a 100 Watt Repeater Amp, full duty cycle with 5 watt or less drive. Would prefer a rack mount amp. Consider the cost of shipping as part of the trade. Amp is in full functional operation, and the preamp does work. There are some surface scratches on the amp, but full power output. If interested email me and lets talk. Thanks.

FS: 2 amps that were made by Tokyo High Power that came from a MRI system. Both amps run on 3-500Z tubes. Both amps have tubes. Was going to run them on HF here, but to many irons in the fire. One of the amps has been converted to use on 220 volts, the other one needs to be converted. I have paperwork on how to convert it. The finished amp needs a T/R switch, I have the parts to make it. Covers from 160 thru 10 meters. Solid built amps. These are close to the Kenwood TL-922 amps, built by the same people, but with heavier power supplies and componets. These amps are too heavy to ship. Asking $650.00 for the pair. Buyer to make arrangements to pick them up here at my qth in North Judson, Indiana. Would consider a trade on a self supporting 100 foot tower, good quality built. Can provide pictures if necessary. Would also consider a trade on a 150 watt or better repeater amplifier, must be full duty cycle, prefer a unit with built in power supply.

I am taking best reasonable offer on this amp. It is a vintage Electra II HF Linear Amplifier that runs on either two 3-500Z or 4-400Z tubes. It currently has two 3-500Zs in it and easily does over the legal limit on 40 and 75 meters. It covers 10 thru 75 meters. Runs on 110 volts. Also has a scope in the middle of the amp. A very nice vintage amp. Email me at w9mwq@... with questions or shoot a best offer. Unit is operational. Item is too heavy to ship and must be picked up at my home in North Judson, Indiana.

For Sale:

Alinco DX-70, 160 thru 6 meter transceiver

The DX-70 covers 160 thru 6 meters, including the WARC bands, and also has a general coverage receiver. Modes include SSB, CW, FM, and AM. The narrow SSB filter is in it. Of course it has memories, scan, dual VFOs, etc. It is a small unit, ideal for mobile or use in a motor home, but its performance is fine for a base station as well.

This particular unit works 100%, and looks close to the same. It is in its original box, and includes all of the things that it came with originally -- hand microphone, power cord, manual, etc.

Just to give Al-N4GOD a "plug" on the Nexcell batteries...

I bought two 4 packs of the 2200mAh versions of these batteries and I have been very pleased with their performance. They're a bit heavier than I thought they would be...but I assume that's due to the high capacity of the cells. They feel very solid!!!

They work even after my wife dropped my digital camera in the lake...the camera doesn't work anymore, but the batteries still take a charge. Yippee!!! I wanted to upgrade that camera any how!!! 8^)

Just another happy N4GOD customer...

Up for sale WITH FREE SHIPPING to those who pay with Paypal.

ONE - Icom IC-706 MKIIG HF/VHF/UHF Transceiver

This rig has DSP, CTCSS Encode/Decode, 100W on HF and 6 Meter, 50W on VHF and 20W on UHF. The audio is just excelent on Transmit and Receive. An example of the transmit audio quality, I was on VHF AM and a fellow Ham who just happened to find us talking on AM asked what I was using because the audio sounded like I was using AM Radio station broadcast equipment - it was sounding that clear!!!

This radio is in good working condition, it has some scratches from moving it about in the shack, from its normal spot to a metal storage box for when the storms would come rumbling through. It comes with the standard, hand mic, a LONG power cord, owners manual and the original packaging.

This rig has not been modified for out-of-band use, so you don't have to worry who has been hacking inside, if you want to use it for the new 60M band, you will need to do the MARS/CAP mod and this rig comes from a non-smoking environment !!! In case you're wondering, I'm selling it because I upgraded the hamshack - I have another 706MKIIG for mobile use and I was using this 706MKIIG for the shack. I just purchased an Icom 746Pro for the shack so I no longer need this 706 MKIIG.

Picture of the rig: http://www.kmcnet.net/Pictures/icom1a.jpg

For the 706MKIIG with mic, power cord, manual and original packaging, I'm asking $615 or make me an offer

FREE shipping if Paypal is used (I ship to verified/confirmed addresses ONLY if paypal is used)

If Paypal is not used, A US Postal Money Order can be used for payment - add $15 for shipping, double box packaging & insurance.

For Sale:

TenTec 585 Paragon HF transceiver
This rig covers 160 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands. It has a general coverage receiver, and includes SSB, CW, and AM. An optional FM adapter is available for it. Of course it has digital readout, memories, scan, dual VFOs, PBT, notch filter, etc. 100 Watts output. This particular unit works 100% and looks really great also. Front panel is great. It does have a scratch on the heat sink in the rear. Big inch thick manual is included, as is the original box. TenTec sells these used for $795. This one is just as nice for $650.

Giehl Chip Firmware upgrade for Paragon 585.
This is a new EPROM that essentially upgrades the 585 Paragon to a Paragon II. $60

TenTec 961 Power Supply / Speaker
This matches the Paragon, and also the Corsair II and other TenTec rigs. 13 V DC at 20 amps.
This one is in great shape, and includes manual and original box. $160

TenTec 214 desk microphone with stand
This is the "banana" electret microphone with 4 pin connector. Good shape, with paper work, for $70.

TenTec 288 crystal filter - 1800 Hertz
This is the narrow SSB filter used in the Paragon, Corsairs, Omni V and VI, etc. With paper work, like new, for $70.

TenTec 251 power supply
This is the power supply that was made to go with the Argonaut when used with the 405 linear amp. It is somewhat rare. The 251 will supply 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. It was also used with the Triton I (the 50 W output model), and could be used with any rig needing 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. This styling matches the 505 or 509 Argonaut, the 405 amp, the Triton I and II and others that are the walnut wood grain and eggshell white. This particular one works fine and includes the paper work for $65.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

 Homebrew Radio things -- some are test eq. ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries (not included). - $2

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $3

Some kind of test oscillator with a NE556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $3

HF Harmonic Filter built in a 5" x 2.25" x 2.25" LMB Aluminum box. UHF connectors. Probably good for 100W. $5

Digital Clock insides -- National MA-1001A demo board with MM5385N IC plus 5 digit LED readout connected to another small PCB with a 3.579MHz clock circuit & MM5369N 60 Hz diveder. $5

PPG Electronics project #880-CB, 13.5V 2 Amp, power supply kit, unbuilt. Most parts are under shrink wrap. Power transformer & main filter cap are missing. $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz receiving converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $10

Transistor Tester per July 76 Ham Radio, p.40. Homebrew Aluminum case. NPN/PNP select switch is broken but, a replacement is included along with a copy of the article. Nice sealed Weston 50uA meter.-- $15

Struthers Dunn Type 78CCA109 "Keying Relay" which consists of a vacuum relay mounted on top of a small (2"x3"x4") metal enclosure. There is a 15 pin Jones connector on the side of the box. I believe that there are some auxiliary contacts in the box in addition to the vacuum relay.
28VDC. $15

 Air Variable Capacitors *****

Cardwell XR-1000PS 1000pF About 4.5" x 4" x 3.5" overall including plate travel. .025 air gap. Used, Good condition. $20 ea.

Cardwell XR-1000HS (about 950pF max measured) These have slightly contoured plates for improved tuning resolution at minimum C. .025 air gap. About 4.5" x 4" x 3.5" overall including plate travel. Used, Good condition. $20 ea.

Cardwell 30-900pF (measured) (XR-900PS? -- 4 fewer plates than the above units) .025 air gap. About 4.5" x 4" x 3.5" overall including plate travel and mounting ears. used, Good condition. $20

Hammarlund SM-50-X, 7.5-50pF, .064 air gap, Just under 2" x 2" x 2" overall not including 1/4" shaft. Good condition. $10.

Johnson 154-34-3, 20-400pF, looks like .03" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 3" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 2-1/2" long. Excellent condition, $25.

Johnson 500E20 (modern equivalent 154-3), 500pF/2KV, looks like .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 4.5" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 1-1/2" long. Good condition except the rear mounting tab has been removed and it looks like a couple of the plates arced at one time and were subsequently filed down a mite. $25.

Similar to the part above but, NOT a Johnson, another 500pF/2KV, looks like .05" air gap, about 3" x 3" x 4.5" overall not including 1/4" shaft which is about 1-1/2" long. Good condition except the front mounting tab has been removed. $25.

* VHF Amplifier ****

Late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the modules are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $70

 Power Supplies, Inverter, UPS *****

Open (L-shaped) frame linear power supplies 6" x 3" x 2" with attached 2 wire polarized line cord, 120V 60 Hz AC input; internal 1A line fuse. There is a relay that switches the 3 voltage outputs. Six-pin SIL output connector with a matching cable to pigtails.
The wires are: GND, +5V switched, -5V switched, relay (gnd to operate), +12 switched, and +12 constant (for the relay). Just guessing from the 780X series regulators, I would think that the +12 and +5 outputs are good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

Hi, Everybody.
I have a IFR 1200S Service Monitor for sale. It has not been calibrated at IFR in 4 years. Last trip to IFR, all the upgrades were performed. It has direct and programmed data entry, with an internal battery, Battery option 04 internal battery, Option 10 Digital Voltmeter and DTMF decoder. Signal generator, Communication reciever, Oscilliscope, 1 Khz tone generator, Variable Tone generator, DTMF Encoder and Decoder, Power Meter, Freq Error Meter, Modulation meter, SINAD Meter, Audio Error meter, Signal Strenght Meter, DUPLEX Generator, Spectrum Analyzer from 250 KHZ to 999.999 KHZ. I will sell it for $2800.00 It includes the operation manual, and the soft carrying case. I have pictures if you are interested. The unit does work fine and just has been compaired to a calibrated unit and was still in spec. I offer no warranty, only that it is working well at the time of shipping. IFR calibration is approx. $ 750.00 from the factory, and a little less from a calibration ceter that can handle the IFR12000S

3026. Roller inductor antenna tuner / wattmeter / antenna switch FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2004-08-21 13:22:35 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3026 Message: 3026

For Sale:

MFJ 969 roller inductor antenna tuner

Covers 160 thru 6 meters continuously with the roller inductor, so is ideal for MARS as well as normal ham use. This tuner will handle 300 watts, and includes a "cross needle" SWR/Wattmeter with a nice back light feature. It also has a built in antenna switch that allows for switching of up two coaxial fed antennas, a balanced antenna, or the internal dummy load. It also allows for bypassing the tuner. The wattmeter will read either peak or average power. A 4:1 balun is included inside.

This particular tuner is like new, still in its box.
It was removed once from the box for testing purposes. There is not a mark on it. Of course the paper work is included. You can pay about $200 from MFJ, or buy this one for $150 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Ken, W8EK

From: John Miller
Topic: 3051 Message: 3051

Hi all, I really really hate to sell this one but money issues force me to, I have an Icom P2AT, performs as new, brand new lithium battery for memory backup, I'd say it's a good 9 out of 10 in looks probably better then that, works 10 out of 10. I have the manual for it, a BP-111 battery, needs a rebuild, an after market long live high power BP-113, and the AA holder very hard to find. Along with that, I have an Icom P4AT, the 440 version of the P2AT, box, manual, it also has a BP-111 I'm not sure on the condition of this one but I've used it and it seems alright. P4AT has a problem with the PTT, I'm not sure what it is, I did get it to work, couldn't tell you how but there's no 440 activity I can hit from my house on an HT so I shelfed it after that test run. I have the chargers for both radios also.
I'm asking $150 for the package, I will separate it, but only if the P4AT goes first because I'll never use a 440 HT from here unless I move which I don't plan on doing any time soon. I'll talk on the price a little, that's with a little help on shipping. I'll ship in the lower 48 UPS. Money orders only, no paypal. Email me, n1umj@... if you're interested or have any questions.

For Sale:

TenTec 585 Paragon HF transceiver
This rig covers 160 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands. It has a general coverage receiver, and includes SSB, CW, and AM. An optional FM adapter is available for it. Of course it has digital readout, memories, scan, dual VFOs, PBT, notch filter, etc. 100 Watts output. This particular unit works 100% and looks really great also. Front panel is great. It does have a scratch on the heat sink in the rear. Big inch thick manual is included, as is the original box. TenTec sells these used for $795. This one is just as nice for $650.

Giehl Chip Firmware upgrade for Paragon 585.
This is a new EPROM that essentially upgrades the 585 Paragon to a Paragon II. $60

TenTec 961 Power Supply / Speaker
This matches the Paragon, and also the Corsair II and other TenTec rigs. 13 V DC at 20 amps.
This one is in great shape, and includes manual and original box. $160

TenTec 214 desk microphone with stand
This is the "banana" electret microphone with 4 pin connector. Good shape, with paper work, for $70.

TenTec 251 power supply
This is the power supply that was made to go with the Argonaut when used with the 405 linear amp. It is somewhat rare. The 251 will supply 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. It was also used with the Triton I (the 50 W output model), and could be used with any rig needing 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. This styling matches the 505 or 509 Argonaut, the 405 amp, the Triton I and II and others that are the walnut wood grain and eggshell white. This particular one works fine and includes the paper work for $65.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

REDUCED PRICE:

YAESU FR-101 Receiver.
Nice older HF radio. Receiver is all complete and unmodified.
Covers the 160m through 10m amateur HF bands.
The digital dial works fine. All the controls work fine.
It does have all of the bands from AM broadcast through the ham bands.
160m - 10m and tunes them all just fine.
Front panel is immaculate and still has the original plastic cover.
The rear apron is immaculate. There are no modifications.
Receiver case has some minor rust on side, but everything else including the interior is in fine shape. Very clean inside.
I couldnt get any audio out of it. May need some minor repair.

Will sell for $229.00 plus shipping.

3065. For sale, Kenwood TS-940

I have for sale today, my Kenwood TS-940SAT. I hate to sell it but there is a problem, the PLL unlock which was so common in those and the TS-440s has reared it's head and I can't afford to fix it and due to not being as heavily in to the hobby as I used to be, I've decided to sell this radio as is. It has that PLL problem, beyond that it looks 9+ out of 10 maybe even a 10 and before that problem came about it worked perfect so I'd say fix that and it will be perfect again, some times it will work perfect even now but not always, probably an easy fix for some one who knows what they're doing. I have the manual for it, no original box or mic, it has 2 Inrad CW filters in it and the VS-1 voice board. I also have the external SP-940 speaker I'll make a deal with you on if you want that. Asking $600 for the radio as is, with the VS-1 and the filters I'd say it's well worth it, if you'd rather I take them out and make a deal on the radio with out the filters and stuff we can talk but it's all filters and VS-1 or none of them. The filters go together and I have enough VS-1's sitting here I don't need this one. No trades. I'd rather some one come pick this up as it is heavy and will cost a lot to ship, but if you want it shipped and want to pay for it let me know and we'll work something out there too. Email n1umj@... if you're interested.

3074. 6L6 Transmitter Article in CQ Magazine

From: Brian Carling
Topic: 3074 Message: 3074

If anyone follows Dave Ingram's column in CQ Magazine, he has a great article about an old style 6L6 transmitter and lists me as a source for the crystals...

The article is on Page 54 of the October 2004 issue,
"6L6 RESURRECTION - 2004 STYLE" by Dave Ingram K4TWJ

I just got the magazine and it looks like a neat old one tube rig. He has tried it out using my crystals on 30m CW and had great results.

What's really unusual is the COIL design. Just wait until you see THAT part!

You can find my FT243 crystals for 30m and all of the other ham bands at:

3075. Loop antenna for restricted space FS

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3075 Message: 3075

For Sale:

MFJ 1786 Super High-Q Loop Antenna

Ideal for restricted spaces. This antenna is a loop about 3 feet in diameter that can be mounted outside on a pole, or put in an attic, or other restricted places. It works from 10 thru 30 MHz (that means it covers 30, 20, 18, 15, 12, an 10 meter bands), and handles 150 watts. A "Super Remote Control" (MFJ's name for it) is in the shack and controls the antenna. This controller includes a cross needle wattmeter/SWR bridge. It will not perform like a big beam, but is fairly efficient for small spaces.

MFJ sells these for about $380. This one is in good shape and includes both the loop and controller, and the paper work for $280 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I have for sale, again my Icom P2AT, brand new lithium battery inside, looks good works perfect, I have the aa Holder, a good BP-111 battery, an after market BP-113 for long life and high power, charger, and manual, also a Icom P4AT use for parts or fix, I had it working for a while but there's no 440 activity here I can hit with an HT, that has a completely dead BP-111 battery with it, rebuild that and you have another for the P2AT, or you can fix the P4AT and you'll have both. I also have the charger, box and owner's manual for it. I wasn't going to sell these because I like them but I don't use HT's in the winter much, money's a bit tight and I'm going another direction, I have too many HT's anyway. Asking $140 plus shipping for the package, if you want me to separate, the P4AT has to go first.
I also have an MFJ 492 memory keyer. I don't know where the manual is for it but I'm sure MFJ will get you one and if I find it you can have it, you don't need it anyway, this is easy to use I never looked at it. Keyer looks and works good, I no longer have the radio I used it with and my current HF radio has a keyer built in and I don't do much CW anyway. Asking $75 shipped to the lower 48 for that, reasonable offers considered on both items. Email n1umj@... if interested or if you have questions.

3094. for sale 2 meter HT

I have for sale, an Icom P2AT HT, has manual, BP-111, AA holder, charger, and a BP-113 after market battery for high power and longer life. Radio is in good shape, 9 out of 10 in looks and has a brand new lithium battery for memory backup and works perfect. Along with this I have an Icom P4AT with a PTT problem, I had it working for a while but just long enough to know it's probably an easy fix. I have a dead BP-111 with that you can rebuild it, box and manual and charger. This also looks bout 8.5 out of 10, note I do under rate things usually though, and besides the problem mentioned above this radio seems to work just fine. I'm asking $140 for the package, I will separate but the P4AT has to go first. I'll consider trades possibly, not really looking for anything but if you want to try it throw an offer my way. I like different things to use now and then.

I have a MFJ 492 memory keyer for sale, looks and works good, I'm not sure where the manual is but if I find it you can have it if not you probably don't need it anyway and more then likely can get it from MFJ anyway. I'm asking $70 plus shipping on this one. I have no use for it, will consider trades, I'm not looking for anything in particular right now but as some of you know I like to try different things I haven't had yet so try it if you'd like.

3103. Kenwood dual band mobile xcvr FS

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3103 Message: 3103

For Sale:

Kenwood TW-4000 dual band mobile FM transceiver

Covers 2 m and 440 MHz FM. 25 Watts output, or 5 W in low power. Of course it has memories, scan, etc.
It has a GASFET front end, giving it a really great receiver. This would make a great packet rig, which is what it has been used for. All solid state switching makes silent packet operation. Since it has been used on packet, it does not have a mic or mobile bracket with it, although it takes a standard 8 pin round mic connector, like most Kenwood rigs. It needs 13 V DC at 7 or 8 amps to operate. It works fine, and is good cosmetically, although there are a few scratches. Manual is included for $125 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For sale, I have an Icom P2AT, and a P4 AT, manuals and chargers for both, high power battery with longer life BP113 for the P2AT, I have BP-111 stock NiCad for both but the one I'll put with the P4AT needs a rebuild, both radios look about a 9 out of 10, and the P2AT works perfect. The P4AT has a PTT problem, I did get it to work for a while but it's not now and I'm not sure how I did it. I have the box for the P4AT. I'd like to sell them as a package, buy the P4AT for parts for the P2AT or fix it, but I'll split them up if you'd like but the P4AT has to go first. Asking $140 for the package, if you want me to split it let me know and we'll work something out. I like these HT's but I don't use HT's in the winter much and I need to pay bills. Reasonable offers will be considered, might be willing to work out a trade if the offer's right, I'm not looking for anything in particular, but I do like to change things around over here. Email n1umj@... if interested.

3122. TenTec Pegasus 550 HF xcvr FS

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

For Sale:

TenTec Pegasus Model 550 HF transceiver

Covers 160 thru 10 meters, although it can be used with a transverter for 6 and 2 meters, and will display
the 6 or 2 meter frequency on the screen.

It will transceive SSB, CW, FM, or AFSK, and receive AM. Of course it is also ideal for digital modes such as PSK31, pactor, etc. It has 2 VFOs and 1000s of Memories, and full break-in on CW.

This rig is very close to a "software definable" rig, in that most of the rig is controlled from the computer and computer program. There are no knobs on the rig.
Everything is on the computer screen. It makes for a rig that can be changed by changing the software.
DSP filtering is provided, that is quite effective, so no crystal filters are needed. Bandwidths go from 300 Hz to 8 KHz, with 1.5 to 1 shape factors, or better.

This particular unit is in excellent condition, with latest firmware. It looks and performs almost like new. No scratches, dents, or dings. TenTec operating control software is included in both 16 bit and 32 bit operating systems, so you can use an older version of Windows or the latest version. Of course it has the power cord and complete manual with it. It needs 13 V DC at about 20 amps to operate.

$600 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

Vectronics PM-30 Wattmeter

This meter has the dual cross needle meter that will read both forward and reverse power at the same time. It covers from 1.8 to 60 MHz, so it is great for the newer rigs that cover from 160 thru 6 meters. It will read either peak or average power with 300 or 3000 Watts full scale, and is powered by 12 V DC. Input and output connectors are SO-239, with a 2.1 mm coaxial connector for the 12 V DC.

This particular meter works 100% and looks very close to new.

Manual is included for $60 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Topic: 3127 Message: 3127

Hi all, I'm looking for a power cord for an Icom 27series radio, which is an older VHF radio, the power connector is not one I've seen on much amateur gear, it looks like the 6 pin connectors you find on newer HF radios but it's only 2 pins, the electric radio controlled cars have this kind of connector on their batteries, or they did when I used to race them, if that helps, I still have some of that stuff around but the wiring is too thin. If anyone knows where I can get 1 of these cords or the stuff to make one I'd appreciate it. I'd like one I can put in the house since that radio is my mobile now but backup to my base for now and I only have 1 power cord which is wired to the battery of the car right now. Thanks, any help is appreciated.

For Sale:

TenTec 585 Paragon HF transceiver
This rig covers 160 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands. It has a general coverage receiver, and includes SSB, CW, and AM. An optional FM adapter is available for it. Of course it has digital readout, memories, scan, dual VFOs, PBT, notch filter, etc. 100 Watts output. This particular unit works 100% and looks really great also. Front panel is great. It does have a scratch on the heat sink in the rear. Big inch thick manual is included, as is the original box. TenTec sells these used for $795. This one is just as nice for $650.

Giehl Chip Firmware upgrade for Paragon 585.
This is a new EPROM that essentially upgrades the 585 Paragon to a Paragon II. $60

TenTec 251 power supply
This is the power supply that was made to go with the Argonaut when used with the 405 linear amp. It is somewhat rare. The 251 will supply 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. It was also used with the Triton I (the 50 W output model), and could be used with any rig needing 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. This styling matches the 505 or 509 Argonaut, the 405 amp, the Triton I and II and others that are the walnut wood grain and eggshell white. This particular one works fine and includes the paper work for $65.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I am reposting this today to clarify and answer some questions. I will put this stuff on ebay this weekend if it does not sell here. As stated below, this is not my stuff, I do not own it.
Before I pack it and ship it the SK's widow wants $2500.00 FIRM PRICE. She doesn't care how the money comes in but it must total $2500.00. I would say one way is to take $1250.00 ea for the radio and amp, and whomever buys both gets the tuner for free, if they are separated, she would hold the one payment until the other comes in. But you may have a different idea- email me with it- the only ideas rejected would be for less money. Both are excellent cosmetic condition last used in March 2003. I have not tested either one but both were working 100% when the ham went SK.
I am going to the hams house tomorrow to take some digital pictures.
I have plenty of my own stuff on my website to sell if anyone is interested.
Thank You

 Homebrew Radio things ***

Many hams build things with a large investment in time & parts that are worth far less... later. Here are some items from the estate stuff I've been selling that fit that description -- priced accordingly.

Unless noted, most of the items below are built on PCB material and most of the enclosures are made by soldering pieces of PCB material into a box -- not all sides may be present! Batteries not included! A few of these devices come with schematics, mostly not. The wiring is all open enough that you can generally see what is going on.

PL Tone generator -- Wein Bridge Oscillator powered by two 9 volt batteries (not included). - $1

Touch Tone Encoder -- Western Electric Touch Tone Dial mounted in a 4"x4"x2" metal enclosure with power switch. Has a 4 pin DIN connector plus matching cable terminated in a 1/8" mini plug. $2

Some kind of test oscillator with a NE556, two pots with anodized gold (colored) knobs, pwr. sw.. LED,. & Banana jack outputs -- $3

PPG Electronics project #880-CB, 13.5V 2 Amp, power supply kit, unbuilt. Most parts are under shrink wrap. Power transformer & main filter cap are missing. $4

HF Harmonic Filter built in a 5" x 2.25" x 2.25" LMB Aluminum box. UHF connectors. Probably good for 100W. $5

60dB Sampling Tap -- HN female connectors for the main line and a BNC for the tap. 1KW in the line puts 1mW to the tap. -- $10

435 MHz power splitter with (3) N connectors. This is made out of brass sheet stock and is about 15" long by 1" square. $10

Varactor multiplier (unfinished) -- looks like it's designed for 144 to 432. Built in a 3.5" x 2" x 7/8" extruded aluminum case -- top plate missing. Silver plated coils, Johnson 189-6-4 caps. It think it is complete execpt for the input and output leads. $10

Some kind of VHF thing just started. Pomona 4"x2.5"x1.5" cast box with a couple 160-104 capacitors, BNC connectors, a miniature 50K bourns pot., 6 capacitors mounted to gold plated terminals with a very pretty gold flashed internal shield structure. Nothing is soldered -- this was just started. $10

Two Meter to 24-28 MHz receiving converter (I think!) -- 5" x 4" x 1.75" -- $10

Transistor Tester per July 76 Ham Radio, p.40. Homebrew Aluminum case.
NPN/PNP select switch is broken but, a replacement is included along with a copy of the article. Nice sealed Weston 50uA meter.-- $12

All of the above plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

* Old Radio Knobs **********

Note: I'll take $100 for the lot... plus shipping

These are all used, most have set screws, with nothing worse than minor scuffs and smudges and fit 1/4" shafts, unless noted.

Dakaware
1-1/16" Knurled Knob -- $3
1-1/16" Knurled Knob w/ 1.5" skirt w/ white indicator line -- $5ea
1-1/16" Knurled Knob w/ 2" skirt marked 0-10 -- $8
1-5/8" Knurled Knob w/ 2-1/16" skirt & unfilled indicator line -- $8
2-3/8" Knurled Knob w/ white vinyl pointer at skirt level -- $12 ea
2-3/8" Knurled Knob w/ 3" skirt & unfilled indicator line -- $12
2-1/16" skirt only -- $2

Short (1-3/16")pointer knob w/ white indicator line $1 ea
Long (2") pointer knob w/ white indicator line $1.50

Harry Davies
#1206 1-3/8" knobs -- $4 ea
Short (1-3/16")pointer knob unfilled indicator line -- Not sure if this is Davies... There are a bag of these -- 2/$1 ea

Kenwood 5cm diameter knobs that look like they are from a Kenwood TS-830 (main tuning knob) or similar
One that's been backfilled with shot to give it some heft -- $7
The plastic spinner version -- $15

Kurz-Kasch
#308 1-1/8" knob -- $4
#308 1-1/8" knob w/ 1-3/4" brite metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated in black -- $8
#309 1-5/8" knob w/ metal spinner and 2-1/4" black metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated in white -- $12
#309? (may not be KK) 1-5/8" knob w/ plastic spinner and 2-1/4" metal skirt with 100 graduations and tens indicated -- $12

#310 2-3/8" knob -- hub drilled out to 3/8" -- $8
#310 2-3/8" knob w/metal spinner shaft -- $12 ea
#311 2-1/16" skirted knob (some of the white lines are need refilling on these) -- $8ea
#380 1.5" skirted knob -- $5

These look like what was on some '60's Hammarlund, Eico & Knight Kit stuff
#642 1.5" skirted knob -- $5

#S-645 .75" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5
#647 1" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5 ea
#653 1.5" skirted knob w/indicator line -- $5 ea

Millen? (has a logo that looks like a "M" with an "I" superimposed at the center) #309 3-1/2" Handwheel style knobs as seen on the SX-28, if I recall correctly.
These are all in need of minor plastic surgery -- two have chips out the skirt where the set screw goes and one has had it's center drilled through... perhaps, to make a concentric assembly??
$10 ea.

National HRT 2-1/16" diameter. Black, trim rings somewhat tarnished -- $5 ea

There are also many knobs from 1960's Tektronix and Hewlett Packard oscilloscopes, etc., if anyone has any need, please inquire.

Antenna tuner For Sale:

MFJ 949 E antenna tuner

This tuner has a "cross needle" SWR bridge built into it, so you can read both forward power and SWR at the same time. The meter has a back light. It will read either 30 W or 300 W full scale. It will also read either peak or average power. It needs 13 V DC for the backlight, and to read peak power.

An antenna switch will switch between either balanced line, two coax antennas, or a built in dummy load. All antennas can be operated thru the tuner, or the tuner can be bypassed for each.

This tuner will operate on 160 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands.

This particular unit works 100%. It looks very close to new. Manual is included for $ 100 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Hello my name is Rodger Severns and I am a new ham operator in Texas and I am looking to trade two radios for one mobile and one handheld. I have a icom ic-207 and an icom ic-v8000 that I would like to trade for a dr-620t , ft-8800r or a ic2720h and either a vertex vx-150 or akenwood th-k2at. If interested please email me at fireman_191@i... or at this email fireman_690@y.... These radios are in good shape the display has been replaced in the ic-v8000 and is in very good shape, plus I have an extra display that I will send with it. I have made a modification to the hm-133 for the ic-v8000 I put a mike hanger piece on the back of it so that it would fit perfect in the mike holder, but does not hamper the performance of the mike. I am very honest I am not trying to rip anyone off. The radios are in good condition and have worked very good for me. I have the ic-v8000 on a shelf and the ic-207 in the truck and I would just like to find one that will do what I want it to do I really want a dual-bander that has alphanumaric display but if not I will settle for one with-out it. I can send pics if you like but my digital cam is not a very good one. Please if anyone can part with there rig and hanheld for two rigs let me know.

Thanks and 73's

TenTec Items For Sale:

TenTec 546 Omni D, series C, HF CW / SSB xcvr.
This is the latest of the Omni D series rigs. It is all solid state, with up to 100 W output. The ALC can also be turned back with a front panel control for QRP operation. Covers 160 through 10 meters, including the 10 MHz WARC band. The 18 and 24 MHz WARC bands can be added with optional crystals (see below). Full QSK on CW, and a fantastic receiver. Terrific audio quality on SSB also. Built in audio CW filter. Digital read out. This one is in very, very nice shape, with manual and power cord for $335.

Optional crystals to add WARC bands to 546 Omni series C.
Simply plug in to the rig to add the bands.
Crystal for 18 MHz (17 meter) WARC band. $15
Crystal for 24.5 MHz (12 meter) WARC band $15

TenTec 705 desk microphone.
Four pin plug, matches most all of TenTec rigs.
This is the current desk microphone TenTec is selling. It works 100% and looks very close to new, with paper work for $79.

TenTec 251 power supply
This is the power supply that was made to go with the Argonaut when used with the 405 linear amp. It is somewhat rare. The 251 will supply 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. It was also used with the Triton I (the 50 W output model), and could be used with any rig needing 13 V DC at up to 9 amps. This styling matches the 505 or 509 Argonaut, the 405 amp, the Triton I and II and others that are the walnut wood grain and eggshell white. This particular one works fine and includes the paper work for $60.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

3177. Loop antenna for restricted space FS

For Sale:

MFJ 1786 Super High-Q Loop Antenna

Ideal for restricted spaces. This antenna is a loop about 3 feet in diameter that can be mounted outside on a pole, or put in an attic, or other restricted places. It works from 10 thru 30 MHz (that means it covers 30, 20, 18, 15, 12, an 10 meter bands), and handles 150 watts. A "Super Remote Control" (MFJ's name for it) is in the shack and controls the antenna. This controller includes a cross needle wattmeter/SWR bridge. It will not perform like a big beam, but is fairly efficient for small spaces.

MFJ sells these for about $380. This one is in good shape and includes both the loop and controller. The controller looks close to new. The antenna itself shows some minor weathering, but is really in quite good shape. The aluminum even shines in places.

With the paper work for $280 plus shipping from Florida.
Of course pick up would be even better.

Thanks.

first, does anyone know if there is a switch box that will let you use 1 mic with 2 or more radios?
second, does anyone know if there is an in-line DTMF unit, that could be put between a desk mic and a radio?
would prefer to purchase in the UK if possible, but am willing to purchase elsewhere if not found in the UK.

if anyone has either of these bits, or knows where I can find either or both of them, please either call on 02084785841, or e-mail to, goshawk.158@...

My company will be disposing a large number of lowband and some VHF highband/800MHz radios in the 48-49Mhz range soon....They are primarily Mitrek and similar..not synthesized radios (a former employer got rid of its Midland and other syn radios before I could get my hands on them! :(

There are SOME base stations (100watt and lower power) that are in this group of radios...Micors and some consolettes
IF YOU are interested in some of these, please get with me in PRIVATE email at the address of WB5ITT at gt.rr.com (this is to prevent spammers/harvesters). I am arranging with the project coordinator to make some of these available to amateurs...but quantity may be limited.

This is an excellent E. F. JOHNSON Viking Mobile Transmitter covering the 80, 40, 20 and 10 Meter bands, and running up to 60 watts input with plate modulated AM.
The Viking Mobile is crystal controlled, and was sold as a an under-dash mobile transmitter in the 1950s.
It uses seven vacuum tubes with an 807 final amplifier, modulated by a pair of push-pull 807s.
It uses an external dynamotor power supply, and yes, the rare companion dynamotor is included with this transmitter. It supplies 400V and 800V DC for the transmitter. This unit is either factory wired, or it was done as a kit by an expert.
It looks great inside, both above and below the chassis.
The front panel is EXCELLENT, with all of the original knobs, and a perfect silk screen.
The cabinet is generally very nice, with excellent original paint. The paint is original;
the unit has NOT been repainted. Chassis looks very clean inside and out, as it has been unused and has been in storage for the past 40 years.

3203. Lowband radios Part II

From: Chris Boone
Topic: 3203 Message: 3203

WOW!! Talk about responses!!
For those I have not replied to in pvt email.....ehh scratch that...

to ALL who asked!! ;)

The radios are primarily Lowband VHF radios (49Mhz) Motorolas....late models...but some Micors may be in the mix..
All have control heads and cables...most are set to one or two channels but I am sure they are 4 channel capable..
Yes they are xtalled...

NOW as to price, etc, I do not have that info yet! I am inquiring with the disposal manager on this now..
The company usually disposes of excess stock in a certain way to make sure NO employee makes a profit on it..
Which is fine with me...I don't need or want any of these radios (I am a GE and Midland man myself :) but be asured they WERE working when removed from service in the last 6 months...(I was involved in 43 removals in Miss myself)

There are some VHF HighBand radios and I do have a lot of 800MHz trunking radios as well in the mix...
But the lowband radios will be the majority....

I thank everyone who replied and will keep you informed when I know more...for those who have not stated, please let me know how many radios you want so I can have a rough total to tell the coordinator.

Thanks!

hello list,
first, I am looking for a good 24V-DC power unit, this is to run some x-army kit I have, and possibly in the future a 24V amp,
I am looking for something with a quite high output, say 20A at least, preferably more if I can get it.
it must be able to run on UK mains voltage, as its input, that's 240V-AC.
second, I am looking for the bottom part of a Sem35 radio, this is the part that the battery box fits in to.
third, am looking for 2X aerials, also for Sem35 radios.
would prefer to pay by either paypal, nochex, or direct bank transfer, as I am totally blind, and can't write cheques or the addresses to send them to, however, if I have enough notice, and you fancy delivering in person, I may be able to get cash, but am making no promises.

if you have any or all of the items that I am looking for, or know where I can get them from, please either call on 020 8478 5841, or e-mail to, goshawk@...
if e-mailing, please do use the above e-mail address, as I have had messages either go missing or get delayed for days through the NTL address, thanks.

Misc Kenwood items for sale:

Kenwood SP-40 mobile speaker
This is a small (about 3 inch) speaker designed for communications use, and ideal for mobile. It has a magnet in the base, so it will stick to a metallic dashboard. This one works fine, and looks like it just came out of the box. $20

Kenwood MC-85 desk microphone
This desk mic is similar to the MC-80, but has provisions for 3 separate cables, so that it can be used with 3 different radios. It also has a speech compressor built in.
This one works 100% and looks very close to new.
With paper work, for $110.

Kenwood MC-48, touch tone (DTMF) microphone.
Round, 8 pin connector, will go with any Kenwood rig taking this kind of connector. Has UP and DOWN switches, along with 16 digit touchtone pad. It is often used on the 2 m and 440 MHz rigs that do not have touchtone built in, but can also be used on HF rigs for TT on 10 m FM. It works fine and looks great also. $ 55

Kenwood PC-1 A phone patch.
This is the model with the 8 pin connectors, although they can be changed, if needed. It includes a nice meter for adjusting the null so VOX will work OK. This particular unit works fine, and looks very close to new, with original paperwork, for $ 55.

Small Kenwood hand microphone
This is like the small hand mic that came with the Kenwood TR-7400. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Kenwood. It is a 500 ohm dynamic mic.
No model number on it, but it looks close to new,
and works fine. If you like a smaller mic, compared to the MC-35 or MC-30, this is it. $30

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

hello list,
am looking for a Kenwood TS440S please.
I am looking for a version with the auto ATU, and if possible the voice readout board, this would be preferable, as I am totally blind.
if possible, I am looking to pay as little as possible for it, as the main reason I want it is as a temporary set, as I can't find the button on my TS-870 to get it to speak the frequency to me, and don't know when I will be able to find this button, I also can't seem to find a tape manual for the 870 either, and I am just sick and tired of having nothing that I can use on HF.
before I got the 870 I had a 440S, so I know where all the controls are, and still have a tape manual for it.

if anyone has one of these radios, or has any ideas on where I can get one on the cheep, please either call me on 02084785841, or e-mail to, goshawk.158@...
thanks in advance.

Simon

Hi all, I have a couple HT's for sale or possible trade. First is an Icom P2AT 2 meter small HT, has manual, BP-111 battery unsure on condition of that battery, an aftermarket high power long life battery in good shape, and the AA holder. Charger is also included. Radio's in great shape, new internal lithium battery, I like the radio but I have a lot of HT's adn it's time for a change.
I also have, an Icom P4AT, 440 version of the P2AT, radio has a PTT problem, I had it working for a while but it's back, should be an easy fix, and the battery with this one is bad, it's a BP-111, needs a rebuild. I have the box and manual for the P4AT, and chargers for both radios.
I'll sell them as a package for $110 shipped, or will consider trade for ?? make me an offer I'll throw in cash if the deal's right, main things looking for are 6 meter radio like MFJ-9406 or the ranger one for a great used price, my 2 meter packet radio is dying so I might consider something along that line, might even consider an HT in good shape just for a change.
Anything else you might have to offer, I'm in to a lot of things now and looking to try more. Email n1umj@... if interested. will talk on my prices too or split up the package if the P4AT goes first

For Sale:

Yaesu "Landliner" speaker and phone patch

This is a nice speaker that has a phone patch added to it. Its styling matches the FT-101 line, but it looks nice with most any rig. It has a VU meter on it, as well as controls for both transmit and receive gain.

This particular unit works fine, and looks very nice as well. $75 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Just lookin' for anyone that might know how I can get ahold of one or more (preferably 4 or 5) Dragon SY-130F mobile radios. I am looking for the "F" submodel, it has the band coverage I need. If anyone has any info, I'll take them new or used, but need complete kits, mounting, wires, mic, etc. Got my own antennas. If you have one (or more) please send pics. if you know of a place to get them (with an english website) please send a link. I can't read russian and polish, so all those websites won't help :)

I am licensed in 6 VHF bands, 4 UHF bands, and several others, so no worries on using this radio illegally. :)

Thanks all! You can email me directly or on the list, whichever is better for you.

This model BXR-2202A unit by Westinghouse is a crystal-controlled, single channel (one receive-one transmit) VHF-VHF repeater. The standard frequency range is 150 to 174 Mhz. (It may be stretched for 146?)The BXR-2202A produces 2 watts of RF power into a 50-ohm load with a 12 volts DC power input. The unit may be powered from an external 12-15 volts DC negative ground source.

The BXR-2202A has one receive channel and one transmit channel. Minimum channel spacing between the receive channel and the transmit channel is 3.5 MHz. Maximum channel spacing between the receive and the transmit channel is 10 MHz. The unit weighs about 1 lb (yes one pound!) and is made to be carried in the custom briefcase that comes with it. This unit is typically used for covert ops and other portable uses.

I would like to sell it for $500 or trade for a PRO-296D or BC-796D. I will also entertain reasonable offers. No other scanner or radio trades thanks.

I have for sale or trade, an Icom P2AT. Radio has a new internal lithium battery, works 100%, looks about a 9 to a 9.5. Comes with manual, charger, BP-111 battery that seems to be alright but probably could use a rebuild soon, a newer aftermarket BP113 long life high power battery, and the rare AA holder. Asking $75 plus shipping or will trade. Items interested in trading for, 2 meter mobile for packet as my packet radio is dying fast, I'd prefer something in very good shape physically, 9 at least and 100% functional. Also might consider trades for an antenna for HF portable, something I can set up fast and take down fast for emergencies or vacations, would also consider other possible trades possibly if It's something I don't have already. Email n1umj@... if interested in doing something and I'll get back to you.

3270. Vertex VXA-700 w/ extras in box for sale

Howdy all. I have a Vertex Standard VXA-700 SPIRIT radio with an extra battery pack and a desktop drop charger for sale. The radio and drop charger are slightly used, in mint condition, with all manuals, cables, accessories and such, in their original boxes. The extra battery is packed in the radio box. Also includes an external whip antenna with U-bolts for your car that will handle both the AM and FM functions of this radio, and the necessary adapter cable.

This is a complete radio including everything you need to be up and running portable and mobile, NOW.

Features of the VXA-700 include

2m FM @ 5watts

AM Aircraft @ 4watts with NAV & COM functions

190 memories

FM Radio receive 88-108mhz

NOAA Weather band receive and alert monitor

Submersible (not just rain resistant)

CTCSS and DCS tones built in

PC Programmable

This radio is designed for pilots who are also amateur radio licensed. I have been using it as my primary 2m HT, and my backup radio for flying. It comes with an adapter to connect your flight headset to the radio for VOX and PTT operation.

The case is magnesium dioxide for rugged dependability.

I'm asking $350 for the setup, and I have a "Feather Lite" flight headset that I will include for $75. Buyer pays shipping by your preferred method, with insurance. I will ship on YOUR FedEx or UPS accounts.

No pics available, please visit the following website for complete info. The radio and accessories you are buying from me are in perfect mint condition with an uncompleted registration card, and comes with a "stufback.com" label, tho I do not know what their rules are on transferring a label from one person to another. If they allow that, I will release the label so you can register it. If you don't know what StufBack is, check it out, it's a pretty cool service. The antenna was on my car for a while, so it's a little weather worn, but functions perfectly, and I had an SWR of about 1.2:1 in the 2m band.

I have for sale, an Icom P2AT small 2 meter HT. It does have the tone board in it, comes with a BP-111 battery in OK shape, holds a charge, doesn't last like I'd like but that might be the nature of the battery because it will go a few hours, a BP-113 aftermarket long life high power battery which is great, and the very hard to find AA holder. Also, manual and charger are included along with rubber duck. This radio is in great shape, has a new internal lithium battery and works 100%. I'm asking $75 for it + help on shipping to the lower 48. I'd rather sell it, I need the money right now but if some one has something they'd like to trade for it, I might consider it, I do need a newer 2 meter radio for packet as my current one is dying, preferably something around the same age as the P2AT or newer by Kenwood or Icom. Email me, n1umj@... if interested.

Antenna Baluns For Sale:

A Balun is designed to match an unbalanced coaxial cable, to a balanced antenna, such as a beam or dipole.

Hy-Gain BN-86 (1 to 1 ratio)
It is a broadband 50 Ohm ferrite balun, and is usable from 3 to 30 MHz. It is recommended for all HF Yagi beam antennas and provides improved front-to-back ratio. It can also be used as the center insulator for a dipole. It uses an SO-239 connector. This one is "pre-MFJ", made by HyGain, and is in nice shape. These cost $80 new, but you can have this one for only $45.

Bencher ZA-1 A
This is a 1 to 1 balun that can be used as the center insulator for a dipole, or can be attached to a beam. It is in very nice condition. $30

W2AU Balun (1 to 1 ratio)
Information from their web site:
The W2AU is the preferred Balun of Amateurs worldwide.
W2AU's operate at 1.1:1 or less VSWR from 1.8 to 40 mHz, and handle powers up to 2 KW PEP (at SWRs of less than 3:1).
W2AU Baluns are transformer designs with ferrite cores to provide 95% minimum coupling efficiency. Each has a built-in lightning arrestor, hang up hook, and 600 lbs of pull-apart strength in a weatherized, rugged package using only stainless steel hardware and quality materials. The 1:1 matches 50 or 75 ohm unbalanced coax to 50 or 75 ohm balanced dipoles.

FOR SALE:
AM-494 VHF Linear Amplifier - Make your voice heard on 2 meters.
This is a surplus unit that originally covered 150 to 160 MHz.
It will probably do fine on the 2m ham band as-is, with no circuit changes. Uses a pair of 4X150 tubes (included) and a silver, strip-line tuned tank resonator circuit. Has tuned input also.

It is basically the same kind of circuit hams have used for decades to get 1000 Watts input on 2m. Requires an external power supply of 1500V to 2000 V DC for max input, plus filaments. Not sure if the original circuit used fixed bias or not. HAs handles Regulated screen supply required for SSB linear operation.
Near design has two VELVET VERNIER DIALS for the tuning up.
This unit is in excellent condition inside and out.
Dimensions: 15.5" X 9" deep X 9.75" tall.

Available for $150.00 plus shipping.

Picture available on request.

good for about an amp. and the -5, which regulator is unheatsinked, perhaps a couple hundred mA.

3343. Kenwood dual band xcvr FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

For Sale:
Kenwood TW-4000 dual band mobile FM transceiver
Covers 2 m and 440 MHz FM. 25 Watts output, or 5 W in low power. Of course it has memories, scan, etc.
It has a GASFET front end, giving it a really great receiver. This would make a great packet rig, which is what it has been used for. All solid state switching makes silent packet operation. Since it has been used on packet, it does not have a mic with it, although it takes a standard 8 pin round mic connector, like most Kenwood rigs. Mobile bracket is included. It needs 13 V DC at 7 or 8 amps to operate. It works fine, and is good cosmetically, although there is some wear. Manual is included for $135 plus shipping from Florida.
Thanks. 73,

Coaxial antenna switches for sale:

B & W Model 550 A coax switch
This model will switch up to 5 antennas, and does NOT ground unused antennas. It has SO-239 connectors, with the coax coming out like spokes of a wheel.
It is in good condition and works fine. $ 30

B & W 593 coax switch
This one switches 3 antennas, and is in a rectangular Box with all 4 SO-239 connectors coming out the back of the box. Unused antennas ARE grounded.
This one works fine and is in very nice condition. $30

Generic 3 position Coax Switch
This is in a small rectangular box, with the 3 switched SO-239 connectors coming out the rear, and the common coming out the front. Unused positions are NOT grounded. It is in very nice condition
for $ 14.

Coaxial antenna transfer relay for sale:

This is not the normal SPDT DowKey antenna transfer relay, but it serves the same function. This is an Allied Controls relay. It says 55476 K-101 on it, and has a 24 Volt DC coil, although it picks up fine at 18 Volts. It will not pick up at 12 V DC. It is relatively small, so I doubt it would handle a KW, but would be fine for 100 or 200 watts.
Its construction looks like it should be good at VHF.

This relay has two SO-239 connections (one is the common), and a length of RG-58 for the third connection.
It is a bit different than the DowKey relays, but if you need an antenna transfer relay for the separate transmitter and receiver in your vintage station, this should do the job nicely. $30

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3355. Kenwood TS-450SAT station for sale

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2005-03-14 14:56:26 UTC
From: Wolf
Topic: 3355 Message: 3355

For Sale:

Kenwood TS-450S/AT Kenwood PS-52 power supply Kenwood MC-60 desk microphone (with built-in pre-amp
Kenwood SP-950 speaker (built in audio filters, 2 audio inputs)
Kenwood IF-232C computer interface
Kenwood PC-1A phone patch

I\'m offering this as a complete package for $850 (plus shipping charges) but if someone buys just the TS-450SAT I would then be willing to sell the other items separately. If you buy the complete package I\'ll throw in the Donner\'s Digital Interface I used with this rig for digital modes at no charge.

The transceiver comes with the original instruction and external control manuals complete with schematics.

As for the Kenwood TS-450SAT transceiver (Serial #30200832)
I bought this last summer from W7IS who said it was his father\'s second back-up rig and had been in a box for years. Here\'s how he described it:

"Since my dad hardly ever used it, its the best condition TS-450SAT that you would ever find. He had 3 hf rigs and none of them got used very much.

I think the Kenwood rigs are built better than the Icom or Yaesu. The Kenwood 450, 850 and 950 were all very well designed. The 450 can be upgraded with shaper CW and SSB filters by simply removing a plate on the bottom of the rig. So you can add an optional filter in just a few minutes." .. I\'ve used this transceiver very little because I have a G5RV up only 15 feet, but it has received excellent audio reports and works wonderfully. I\'ve used it with MixW for digital modes with excellent results.

The power supply is in like-new condition as are the interfaces and phone patch.

I would love to keep my Kenwood station but I just purchased an Icom IC-756ProII and have no money left to improve my antenna situation and upgrade my computer for digital modes so, sadly, I must sell.

So if you\'re looking for a mint condition TS-450 this is the one. I really like this rig. In fact, I like the feel of the tuning dial on the TS-450 much more than I do the ProII, and the receive audio is great too as have been the transmit audio reports.

I can accept PayPal, a postal money order or a cashier's check as payment.

Request photos if interested.

TenTec items for sale:

TenTec 555 Scout transceiver
This is a 50 watt HF transceiver, primarily designed for mobile use, but also nice inside the house. It has the TenTec variable bandwidth "Jones filter" in it that is really effective. CW keyer is built in.
This one has the 40 and 20 meter modules with it, along with power cord and manual. It works fine, and looks like it just came out of the box. I can not find a scratch any where on it. $320

TenTec 705 desk microphone
This electret desk mic has the 4 pin connector, with PTT and "hold" buttons. It works great, and looks like new. With paper work for $79

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply.
Matches the Omni series of transceivers. It has an ammeter on front. It works 100% and looks very good.
No scratches or imperfections. With manual for $ 110

TenTec 280 power supply, 20 amps at 13 V DC.
This supply is one that is not as fancy as some (no speaker)
but is quite heavy duty electrically. It has 2 pass transistors, instead of the one that some have. It does have an ammeter on it. This one works fine, and looks very nice as well.
With paper work for $125.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3370. Surplus Stuff for Sale

From: Johnny Knight
Topic: 3370 Message: 3370

The Following Items are surplus and I've been given the order to clean out some of my junk by the wife. So here goes.

SGC SG-231 Antenna Coupler- Like new condition was used about a year before getting a Screwdriver type antenna to replace it. Unit was mounted inside a toolbox in the bed of my truck. $325 comes with manual

Icom PS-125 switching power supply - New-in-the-box. I got this when I purchased my Icom IC-746Pro. Took it out of the box to look at, then reboxed it. $125

Radio Shack HTX-10 10 meter radio. Bought this with the intent of using it mobile. Instead ended up mounting my Icom IC-706 in the new car. Used the radio some in the house to monitor 10 FM activity and work some DX. Really no need for it. Would make a great mobile for someone. Box, manual, microphone and mounting bracket. $75 (yes I know they were closed out for $50)

Icom SP-3 External speaker. Had this for years, sold the radio it matched, used it with another radio for a while, now have it stored in the box excellent condition. $50 (you looked at the price of new external speakers lately??)

If you have questions ask. Not looking to trade for anything (that's why I'm selling this stuff, I got too much now so the wife says). Prices listed do not include shipping, but Will work with you. Reply via email to wb4u@... and if need be we can always go to the telephone or on the air if you want to ask/answer questions or details. I can send you a picture of an item if you wish too.

* VHF Amplifier ****

Late '70's vintage likely Military, probably airborne, VHF power amplifier assembly. It consists of 7 almost identical amplifier assemblies clustered around a central housing that has splitter combiner networks which are plugged onto each end with a bunch of SMB connectors. There are TNC's for the main in's & outs. I think it was originally configured as one amp, driving two, driving four boards. The complete assembly measures 7.5" x 5" x 3.5" overall -- the individual RF amp boards are 4.5" by 2". The outer covers are mostly missing. Each amplifier is a push pull design -- they appear to be 50 ohm in & out impedance with either PT6747 or PT6702 TRW transistors. I would guess this unit operates on 28VDC. I don't know what frequency range it covers nor the power level though, just guessing, it probably puts out at least 100W. And there is no manufacturer name -- probably went with the outer cover. Six of the modules are marked OK and one, the input stage I think, is marked NO Good. The individual amps have integral heat sink plates so, they could be removed from the assembly and used separately. Think of it as 7 amplifier boards @ $10 ea -- Bare PCB's would cost as much! -- $60

Plus shipping, if necessary, naturally.

New SWAN RADIO User needs parts.

Need an AC input power cord with "Jones Connector" for the 117-X power supply. Prefer an original copy if anyone has an extra. Used repairable condition is fine.

Also looking for 2 of the 117XC Pwr Sup/Speaker cabinets. Have the power supplies, just need the cabinets. Speaker condition not a big issue nor is the paint condition, I can fix that. Major dents or excessive rust is an issue.

If you have any of the above that you are willing to part with please contact me off line at kn4vl@.... I'm a radio user - not a collector so all items will be put into service not sit on a shelf.

I am selling this TS-830S which I bought in January to help me thru the time that my TS-830 was broken. It appears this is a 'Gold Edition' (not mentioned in the ad), however it is a 2 million series unlike my original 'Gold' which is a 6 million series. I purchased this radio from the following ad:

<Quote>
>For Sale:
>KENWOOD TS830S in near mint condition.
>Comes with operators manual and service manual.
>Covers all WARC bands 160m through 10m.
>Has extra CW filter. Looks great.
>Bets receiver of any radio I have heard. Far quieter than >the newer digital radios when it comes to hearing the >weakest ones.

>Available for $425.00 plus shipping
<UnQuote>

I am offering this '830' just as I received it for the reduced price of $395, plus shipping, as I found a small scratch, or scuff, on the plastic window over the digital frequency display. Electrically, I found no real flaws with this radio. Great audio reports, good RF output. Photos available is needed. Please note that no mic is offered with this radio.

Tnx & 73, Dave

Hello all, Two Icom Radios for sale or trade? Icom IC-775DSP and Icom IC-756 Pro. Both radios include shipping boxes, manuals and power cords. Icom IC-775DSP DOES NOT have the DSP unit installed ($1650). May take a trade + funds for a nice IC-761 or IC-765. I'm listing the IC-756 Pro for a friend and asking $1200. (He likes to trade also).
Thanks, Glenn

TenTec Pegasus HF transceiver and many misc TenTec accessories For Sale:

Ten-Tec Pegasus Model 550 HF transceiver

Covers 160 thru 10 meters, although it can be used with a transverter for 6 and 2 meters, and will display
the 6 or 2 meter frequency on the screen.

It will transceive SSB, CW, FM, or AFSK, and receive AM. Of course it is also ideal for digital modes such as PSK31, pactor, etc. It has 2 VFOs and 1000s of Memories, and full break-in on CW.

This rig is very close to a "software definable" rig, in that most of the rig is controlled from the computer and computer program. There are no knobs on the rig.
Everything is on the computer screen. It makes for a rig that can be changed by changing the software.
DSP filtering is provided, that is quite effective, so no crystal filters are needed. Bandwidths go from 300 Hz to 8 KHz, with 1.5 to 1 shape factors, or better.

This particular unit is in excellent condition, with latest firmware. It looks and performs almost like new. No scratches, dents, or dings. TenTec operating control software is included in both 16 bit and 32 bit operating systems, so you can use an older version of Windows or the latest version. Of course it has the power cord and complete manual with it. It needs 13 V DC at about 20 amps to operate. In its original box for $625

TenTec 705 desk microphone
This electret desk mic has the 4 pin connector, with PTT and "hold" buttons. It works great, and looks like new. With paper work for $79

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply.
Matches the Omni series of transceivers. It has an ammeter on front. It works 100% and looks very good.
No scratches or imperfections. With manual for $ 110

TenTec 280 power supply, 20 amps at 13 V DC.
This supply is one that is not as fancy as some (no speaker)
but is quite heavy duty electrically. It has 2 pass transistors, instead of the one that some have. It does have an ammeter on it. This one works fine, and looks very nice as well.

With paper work for $125.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3422. Kenwood accessory items FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 309 Message: 3422

Accessories for Kenwood transceivers For Sale:

Kenwood MC-35 S hand microphone
This hand microphone is used with most all of the older Kenwood rigs - TS-120, TS-180, TS-520, TS-820, etc. It has a four pin plug on it to match these rigs.
Good shape for $40

Small Kenwood hand microphone
This is like the small hand mic that came with the Kenwood TR-7400. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Kenwood. It is a 500 ohm dynamic mic.
No model number on it, but it looks close to new,
and works fine. If you like a smaller mic, compared to the MC-35 or MC-30, this is it. $35

YK-88 C, CW filter for Kenwood TS-120/130/430/440, and many others.
This is a 500 hertz CW filter for the 8.8 MHz IF used in many of the Kenwood rigs. Actual center frequency is 8830.7 MHz.
It is the solder in type filter, with steep skirts. $70

Kenwood heavy DC power cord for HF rigs
This is the actual Kenwood cord, and not a third party make over. It fits all of the Kenwood (and Icom and Yaesu and Alinco) rigs that take the standard 6 pin "Molex" power plug. $ 20

I have a cable that is used to go between a Kenwood transceiver, and a linear amplifier, to switch the amp from transmit to receive. One end has a DIN connector on it, as is used with most Kenwood rigs. The other end has an RCA phono plug on it, as used by most linear amplifiers. Before using this cable, please check to be certain that the voltages and currents needed by your amplifier match the switching capabilities of your transceiver.
This cable has only one coax between the rig and amp.
It provides only the relay control, and NOT the ALC control.
Many amps do not need the ALC, so this cable would work fine. $ 12

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

TenTec items for sale:

Ten-Tec Pegasus Model 550 HF transceiver

Covers 160 thru 10 meters, although it can be used with a transverter for 6 and 2 meters, and will display
the 6 or 2 meter frequency on the screen.

It will transceive SSB, CW, FM, or AFSK, and receive AM. Of course it is also ideal for digital modes such as PSK31, pactor, etc. It has 2 VFOs and 1000s of Memories, and full break-in on CW.

This rig is very close to a "software definable" rig, in that most of the rig is controlled from the computer and computer program. There are no knobs on the rig.
Everything is on the computer screen. It makes for a rig that can be changed by changing the software.
DSP filtering is provided, that is quite effective, so no crystal filters are needed. Bandwidths go from 300 Hz to 8 KHz, with 1.5 to 1 shape factors, or better.

This particular unit is in excellent condition, with latest firmware. It looks and performs almost like new. No scratches, dents, or dings. TenTec operating control software is included in both 16 bit and 32 bit operating systems, so you can use an older version of Windows or the latest version. Of course it has the power cord and complete manual with it. It needs 13 V DC at about 20 amps to operate. In its original box for $625

TenTec 555 Scout transceiver
This is a 50 watt HF transceiver, primarily designed for mobile use, but also nice inside the house. It has the TenTec variable bandwidth "Jones filter" in it that is really effective. CW keyer is built in.
This one has the 40 and 20 meter modules with it, along with power cord and manual. It works fine, and looks like it just came out of the box. I can not find a scratch any where on it. $320

TenTec 705 desk microphone
This electret desk mic has the 4 pin connector, with PTT and "hold" buttons. It works great, and looks like new. With paper work for $75

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply.
Matches the Omni series of transceivers. It has an ammeter on front. It works 100% and looks very good.
No scratches or imperfections. With manual for $ 105

TenTec 280 power supply, 20 amps at 13 V DC.
This supply is one that is not as fancy as some (no speaker)
but is quite heavy duty electrically. It has 2 pass transistors, instead of the one that some have. It does have an ammeter on it. This one works fine, and looks very nice as well.
With paper work for $125.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Hi,

Recently I fired up my FT23R handheld 2 meter rig using a PA - 6 Mobile DC-Dc adaptor/charger.

Unfortunately the PA-6 had a fault and the full 12 vdc was applied to the FT23R thus cooking the POWER BOARD AND SQUELCH BOARD.

I wonder if anyone owning a non-serviceable Yaesu FT 23R handy will be kind enough to sell it to me at a reasonable price?

Covers 160 thru 6 meters continuously with the roller inductor, so is ideal for MARS as well as normal ham use. This tuner will

needle" SWR/Wattmeter with a nice back light feature. It also has a built in antenna switch
that allows for switching of up two coaxial
fed antennas, a balanced antenna, or the internal dummy load. It also allows for bypassing the tuner. The wattmeter will read either peak or average power. A 4:1 balun

Yaesu items For Sale:

Yaesu "Landliner" speaker and phone patch
This is a nice speaker that has a phone patch added to it. Its styling matches the FT-101 line, but it looks nice with most any rig. It has a VU meter on it, as well as controls for both transmit and receive gain.
This particular unit works fine, and looks very nice
as well. $75

Yaesu HT accessories:

All of these items fit the Yaesu FT-23/73/411/470/530/811 series of HTs and many others as well.

Yaesu MH19A2B ear bud and mini-mic.
This can be used with the above HTs, plus most any of the HTs that take a 3.5 mm and a 2.5 mm for the speaker mic plug. It works fine and looks fine. $18

Yaesu Boom Microphone and single headset
I can not find a model number on this, but it works with the above listed HTs, and most that take the 2.5 mm and 3.5 mm speaker mic connections. It works fine, but the single "speaker" portion of the headset could use a new foam pad. $18

Speaker microphone for HT
It says Densei SM-505 on it, but it will work with the Yaesu HTs that need the 3.5 mm and 2.5 mm plug.
Very nice condition for $18.

Yaesu NC-28 B wall charger
This unit produces 8.7 V DC at 60 ma. It has a 2.5
mm plug on it. This is the charger for the Yaesu FT-23/33/73, FT-411, FT-470, FT-530, FT-811, and probably others. This one works and looks fine.
$10

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Hi all, posting for a friend.....

Have an EAC R390A receiver in excellent condition, including the matching rack-mount speaker unit.
Also have a large floor console that it all mounts into, with other rack space to spare. Not sure if the rack is military/OEM or what, but it works with the radio and equipment. It's about 4 feet tall.

All is in good to excellent condition, working great with no major problems, meaning there will be signs of use typical with equipment this old, but it doesn't look 'beat up' or 'worn' .... I think it looks great for a radio that old, but haven't had a chance to take pix yet, just fishing right now. It looks good, is tight and sounds good when I checked it out in passing. It's freaking huge and heavy.

Pix available if interested and serious.

Will be able to meet/deliver in or around KY/WV/VA state lines, Huntington/Ashland/Ironton OH, Charleston to Morgantown WV, etc.

Looking for value/offers,

thanks!
Randy

Hey all, looking for a late-model 100w HF rig.

Will consider most late-model rig 100w or better, or military surplus, including patcomm [not sure on this but asking anyway], harris, micom x, icom, yaesu, kenwood or other?

I don't contest nor do I get the opportunity to spend much time on the air so I don't need a lot of gizmos in a radio... just need a solid late-model HF rig for occasional use on MARS and HAM.

A pacer-bounce system would be great. I believe it's a Harris 350 and a 500w amp? [not counting the data stuff of course, which I don't need.]
Please be reasonable, I watch gov't and liquidation auctions, not ebay.
After that, the patcomm or other.. and after that, the smaller stuff like the IC-718 and FT-840 just to get the job done.

Have for trade some VHF/UHF handhelds or other equipment.

VHF Saber II
VHF P1225 w/Display and DTMF
UHF GP350
42-50MHz Maratrac drawer unit
Samson MPL1204 12channel studio mixing board
Tascam Bass Trainer, CD player/Effects processor Peavey Impulse 1015 Speakers, 1kw/2kw and maybe some other items.

Digital pics available for serious inquiries.
Located in WV and would prefer to meet/greet if possible.

Just give me an email and let's work out a deal.

Thanks!

For Sale:

Ten-Tec Pegasus Model 550 HF transceiver

Covers 160 thru 10 meters, although it can be used with a transverter for 6 and 2 meters, and will display
the 6 or 2 meter frequency on the screen.

It will transceive SSB, CW, FM, or AFSK, and receive AM. Of course it is also ideal for digital modes such as PSK31, pactor, etc. It has 2 VFOs and 1000s of Memories, and full break-in on CW.

This rig is very close to a "software definable" rig, in that most of the rig is controlled from the computer and computer program. There are no knobs on the rig.
Everything is on the computer screen. It makes for a rig that can be changed by changing the software.
DSP filtering is provided, that is quite effective, so no crystal filters are needed. Bandwidths go from 300 Hz to 8 KHz, with 1.5 to 1 shape factors, or better.

This particular unit is in excellent condition, with latest firmware. It looks and performs almost like new. No scratches, dents, or dings. TenTec operating control software is included in both 16 bit and 32 bit operating systems, so you can use an older version of Windows or the latest version. Of course it has the power cord and complete manual with it. It needs 13 V DC at about 20 amps to operate. In its original box for $625

TenTec 705 desk microphone
This electret desk mic has the 4 pin connector, with PTT and "hold" buttons. It works great, and looks like new. With paper work for $75

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3476. Diawa automatic antenna tuner FS

Diawa CNA-1001 automatic antenna tuner for sale.

This is an automatic antenna tuner that covers the HF bands from 80 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands. Although it is completely automatic (push a button, and it tunes), there are also "fine tuning" controls if you want to touch up what the automatic part does for you. It says on the front panel that it is rated at 500 Watts PEP. There is a built in dummy load (although I would not want to put 500 watts in to it), plus an antenna switch for two antennas. A large cross needle wattmeter reads both forward and reflected power simultaneously. This is a very rugged unit.

This particular tuner works fine, and looks close to perfect. I can not find a scratch on it. Power cord and paper work are both included for $195 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Large 2 meter beam antenna for sale:

Cushcraft 147-22 beam

This is a pair of 11 element 2 meter beams stacked to give a total of 22 elements.

Each 11 element beam is about 12 feet long, and the two are separated by a 5 foot boom. To put it another way, the antenna occupies a 12 by 5 foot rectangle.

Because of the size, this is pickup only in the Ocala, FL area. For transportation, it can easily be disassembled into each beam by itself, and the boom, and then easily carried on top of a minivan, or whatever.

Paper work and all hardware, coax phasing lines, etc.
are included for $200.

HI Dudes

Need a good plate transformer for my up and coming amplifier. The transformer would need to be able to supply 3000 vdc at 800 ma under load. Need dual 110ac primary or straight 240vac. A transformer from a defunct amplifier would likely do the job.
A unit with somewhat higher voltage is ok as I have a large dual variac and can put the voltage where I want it.

For Sale:

EBC 144 Jr., 2 meter FM transceiver

This Emergency Beacon Corporation 2 meter FM transceiver was considered to be the "Cadillac" of 2 meter rigs in the 1970 and 80's. It has two sets of thumbwheel switches for frequency selection, covering the entire 2 meter band. There are provisions for odd splits, although the rig automatically selects the correct offset for repeaters. Of course it can be used on simplex also. Scan provisions are included, along with a priority channel watch. The receiver sensitivity is exceptional.
Power output is rated at 20 watts, and it uses real transistors, instead of a "module."

This particular unit works fine, and looks very, very good.
Along with the regular paper work, an advertising brochure is included. These sold for about $500 in the 70's, so you know they were the real "Cadillac." $75 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Hi Brian:

I was admitted to your KCAPRS list some time ago, even though I live near Oklahoma City. We do not have a list/reflector in this area. I do run a UI-View APRS base station.

I have a vehicle tracker system for sale, but thought it advisable if I run it by you first.

Here is what I have for sale:

ICOM IC-2000 mobile radio/with manual/power cables.
Bionics Tiny Track3 with manual/data cables
Garmin Etrex GPS battery powered receiver/with manual and data cables.

I am asking $250.00 for the complete system..

Of course the Tiny Track3 will have to be re configured to the operators call sign and the data clip to the radio is missing the locking tab.

The last time I had it in the pickup it worked fine. I will guarantee its operation or money back.

I would appreciate it if there is any is any interest from your group.

Onis L. Cox, K5COX

Packet Terminal Node Controller
This unit is a hardware interface between your computer and your rig. It has actual hardware, instead of using computer software to generate and decode the signal.
Using the PK-88 is like using a real modem, as opposed to a "WinModem" for internet access.
This one works fine. With manual for $ 50.

AEA "Wall cube" 12 V DC power supply at 1 amp.
It can be used with the PK-232, PK-88, or others. $ 20

AEA "Wall cube" as above, but only 1/2 amp rating, which is enough for the PK-88. $12

Hi all, I'm looking for preferably a duel band mobile, but if it's just a 2 meter one that's alright, something I can mount the radio separate from the face plate is best as the vehicle I'm putting it in where I want to put the radio has sensors close I'm concerned about messing up. Needs to work perfect doesn't need to look perfect, price is a factor, I'm going away in a month and would like to have it in well before then. Icom or Kenwood very much preferred, may be willing to work out a partial trade, I don't have much but try me. Paypal preferred to pay.

For Sale:

Kenwood TW-4000 dual band mobile FM transceiver

It covers 2 m and 440 MHz FM.
I has about 25 Watts output, or 5 W in low power.
Of course there are memories, scan, etc.
It has a GASFET front end, giving it a really great receiver. This would make a great packet rig, which is what it has been used for. All solid state switching makes silent packet operation. Since it has been used on packet, it does not have a mic with it, although it takes a standard 8 pin round mic connector, like most Kenwood rigs. Mobile bracket is included. It needs 13 V DC at 7 or 8 amps to operate. It works fine, and is good cosmetically. Manual is included for $130 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

MFJ 969 roller inductor antenna tuner

Covers 160 thru 6 meters continuously with the roller inductor, so is ideal for MARS as well as normal ham use. This tuner will handle 300 watts, and includes a "cross
needle" SWR/Wattmeter with a nice back light feature. It also has a built in antenna switch
that allows for switching of up two coaxial
fed antennas, a balanced antenna, or the internal dummy load. It also allows for bypassing the tuner. The wattmeter will read either peak or average power. A 4:1 balun
is included inside.

This particular tuner is like new. There is not a mark on it. Of course the paper work is included. You can pay about $200 from MFJ, or buy this one for $145

Other MFJ items For Sale:

MFJ 286 speaker microphone
This speaker mic can be used on most Kenwood HTs. It is a standard size speaker mic -- not one of the little sub-miniature types. It has not been used. With paper work for $15.

MFJ 1305 "wall cube"
This produces 6 V DC at up to 200 ma, and is used to power such things as keyers, lights on tuners, and many other misc. applications. Of course it can power many things other than MFJ items, but this one is an actual MFJ. $10

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Hi all,

Here is a GP350 as the title says.

Radio is bench tested/working to spec. It's used and has some wear. Sounds good on tx and rx, battery is OK, but not useful for a day's work. Factory tags are intact. Radio is 16 channels, model number is P94MGC20C2AA. Bandsplit is 450-470MHz. Radio has included adapter attached for use with GP300/SP50 accessory plug, or you can remove the adapter and use GP350 specific accessories. Will have programmed to your frequencies.

Would like to trade for bass effects processor:

3549. FS/FT: MOTOROLA MICOM X HF SSB RADIO and TUNER

Well, the service manual and pinouts are proving to be quite elusive indeed.
I've given up trying to get it all before posting, but still looking in case someone find them at that last minute.
But testing surprised me, and proved to be quite idiot-proof, so I'm confident we're ready to roll.

RADIO INFO:
Motorola MICOM X HF SSB radio, model D80MLA1X41AK
120 Channels, 10-ch Scan, VFO mode,
Covers 2-30MHz USB/LSB/AM/CW
Output is 125Watts
Microphone is included but not working.
BASIC user manual for programming included.

Radio is in average condition and working. TX/RX tested. Sounds great and on freq. with WWV and others. TX tested with CW mode, [No MIC] showing full output on radio LCD and wattmeter.

It's a marine/commercial radio so it comes complete with scratches and old tape marks from storage. Some case screws missing. Some corrosion noted on front connectors, but not bad. Black ink or something in corner of display, but NOT broken display.

Also a matching Motorola/Triton automatic antenna tuner, model unknown.
Used, and in fair condition. Outside case is weather-beaten and sun-faded, but inside is very clean and nice. NOT TESTED, but presumed working.

PHOTOS available on request.

I would like to trade this radio and tuner.
Looking for an Military or commercial HF SSB radio and auto tuner for ham use. I will consider ICOM, SGC POWERTALK, Harris or other? What do you have? Not interested in tube/vintage, etc. Looking for a reliable daily driver.

OR, Make an offer, I'm not pricing it just yet.

Thanks!
Randy

3561. TVI filters FS

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

TVI filters For Sale:

Low Pass filters for the transmitter:

Johnson 250-20 Low Pass Filter
This is a 52 ohm cylindrical low pass filter with a cut off frequency of 45 MHz and 75 db of attenuation.
It is rated to take 1000 Watts of AM, or 5000 Watts
PEP SSB. It has SO-239 connectors on each end.
$30.

B & W FL-10/1500 (Also know as model 425) low pass filter
B & W TVI filter, 50 ohm. It cuts off just above 10 meters, and will handle 1500 Watts. SO-239 connector on each end. It is in very nice condition for $ 30.

B & W FL-10/100 low pass filter Similar to FL-10/1500 above, except power rating is only 100 Watts. Use this one after your rig, and before your amplifier. Nice shape for $ 15.

B & W 415 low pass filter
This is a very heavy duty filter. It is almost twice the size of most 1500 Watt low pass filters. It appears to be an older filter, in a copper enclosure that has been painted at the factory. $30

B & W Low Pass filter
Designed for 75 ohm systems. Very heavy duty. $30

Drake TV-5240-LP low pass filter
This number is correct; it is not a TV-5200. This filter is different than the typical low pass filter. It has an SO-239 connector on each end, but instead of being long and skinny, the enclosure is about 5 inches square. I think this is a fairly old filter. It has brownish/gray paint over the copper colored case. I have not been able to find any specs on this filter. It does say "For use in 52 ohm line of transmitters operating below 30 Mc." printed on it. $30

Drake TV-1000-LP Low pass filter
This is the filter that is in the copper case, and may also be used on the low end of six meters, as well as HF. It is a 50 ohm filter and is good for 1000 W below 30 MHz, and about 200 W up to 52 MHz. With paper work for $ 30

Drake TV-100-LP low pass filter
This is for lower power -- up to 100 watts.
It has the copper case. It is approaching antique status, as I would guess it must be 30 years old, but still works fine. Basically it is the same as the TV-1000-LP above, but with one tenth of the power ratings. $ 15

Alinco ELP-60 D LX low pass filter
For 50 ohm systems, with up to 500 watts of power.
This one has an SO-239 on one end, and about a 2 foot
Length of coax and PL-259 on the other end. $30

Nye Viking Low Pass Filter Model 020-001
Eliminate the harmonics going out your feed line, and reduce TVI. It is rated at 2000 watts, with over 65 db of attenuation above 57 MHz.
This one is in very nice shape for $30.

Kenwood LF-30 A
This is Kenwood's low pass filter, with a cut off of about 30 MHz, and more than 90 db of attenuation between 90 and 300 MHz. It will handle 1000 watts, and has an SO-239 connector on each end. It is in extremely nice condition, with paper work for $35.

Drake TV-300-HP
High Pass filter for the TV for 300 ohm twin lead.
This filter is collectable, and is unused as best I can determine. It is still in its original box (not the newer blister pack), with an "RLD" logo on it, and says
"NEW TV-300 HP High Pass Filter, Attenuates
0-52 MHz". A grounding strap is also attached.
$ 15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I offer the following for your consideration.

The first one is free for postage:

B & K Model 162 Transistor and FET Tester - useful gadget.
A neat little tester by this excellent company. Use it to test and evaluate a wide variety of NPN and PNP Bipolar as well as FET Transistors.
Checks a number of parametes. Comes with the instruction manual.
Part of the paint is rubbed off the front, but otherwise it looks to be in great shape. I have not tried it but it does come on. Might work OK
but selling it as-is for a very fair price:
Available for free plus shipping.

See:
http://www.af4k.com/testgear.htm

The second is a classic piece of HICKOK test equipment with the cool tolex covered real wood case & carry handle.

HICKOCK 850 TRANSISTOR TESTER
Unit is in very good, working condition. Makes complex evaluations of a variety of parameters. Comes with the instruction book.
Typical excellent Hickock quality with dual meters, looks great.
Sturdy wooden case coverered in leatherette and has nice chrome handle.
120V AC operation.

Was $65.00 reduced to $45.00 - now blowing it out fast for $29.00 plus shipping.

Desk Microphones For Sale:

Shure 450 desk microphone
This desk mic looks like a Shure 444, and functions basically the same. There is a switch on the bottom for high or low impedance, so it can be used with most any rig. This one works fine and looks fine also. $50

Heath Desk Microphone
This is the brown Heath desk microphone that was sold with the later Heath rigs, which is an HDP-121.
It has the black Heathkit label, and a PTT bar. The actual stand is 100% OK, and is in almost perfect condition. No scratches, dings, or even paint wear on it. There is very slight wear on the Heathkit name plate. The mic works great. $70

EV Desk Microphone
Basically this is the same as the Heath brown desk microphone (above), but it does not have the Heath name on it. It says EV. Hi Z. One small paint spec off, about the size of a pin head. It works fine. $65

Dynamic Desk Microphone
This microphone is still in its original box, and unused as far as I can tell. It is 600 ohm impedance, and is the "gooseneck" type mic. It looks very similar to the Icom SM-6, although the head is just a bit bigger. It has unidirectional pickup, so background noise is reduced.
In its original box, with paperwork, for $55.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

ability to link the last two to make a larger memory. The speed and the volume of the sidetone are controlled from the front panel. It can be power by either 120 V AC or from 12 V DC. This one looks nice, and works fine. $60

MFJ 422 electronic keyer.
This is the keyer that uses the Curtis chip as the keyer, includes sidetone, and has adjustments for volume, tone frequency, and weighting, as well as speed. Can be used in fully automatic mode, or semi-automatic like a bug. It will key either positive or negative voltages, and is powered by an internal 9 V battery, or external 5 to 9 volt supply. It is made to go on the back of a Bencher Paddle. $ 40

Bencher BY-1 Paddle
Standard Bencher with black base, with chrome parts.
In very nice condition for $ 65.

Generic straight key
This is a generic CW straight key with a plastic base. The key is nothing fancy, however, it is mounted on a very nice piece of Oak wood, that makes it look very nice. Cable included for $30.

"Knock off" J-38 key on nice base on a nice plexiglass base, complete with cable. $40

3580. Roller inductor antenna tuner FS

For Sale:

MFJ 969 roller inductor antenna tuner

Covers 160 thru 6 meters continuously with the roller inductor, so is ideal for MARS as well as normal ham use. This tuner will handle 300 watts, and includes a "cross
needle" SWR/Wattmeter with a nice back light feature. It also has a built in antenna switch
that allows for switching of up two coaxial
fed antennas, a balanced antenna, or the internal dummy load. It also allows for bypassing the tuner. The wattmeter will read either peak or average power. A 4:1 balun
is included inside.

This particular tuner is like new. There is not a mark on it. Of course the paper work is included. You can pay about $200 from MFJ,
or buy this one for $145

Other MFJ items For Sale:

MFJ 285 speaker microphone
This speaker mic is the smaller "slim line", and has the 2.5 mm and 3.5 mm plugs on it, so it fits most Icom and Yaesu HTs that have the 2 plugs, plus some others. It works fine and is in nice shape. $17

MFJ 286 speaker microphone
This speaker mic can be used on most Kenwood
HTs. It is a standard size speaker mic -- not one of the little sub-miniature types. It has not been used. With paper work for $15.

MFJ 1305 "wall cube"
This produces 6 V DC at up to 200 ma, and is used to power such things as keyers, lights on tuners, and many other misc. applications. Of course it can power many things other than MFJ items, but this one is an actual MFJ. $10

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

and really did meet the requirements. The receiver covers the lower 250hz of 80, 40, and 15 meters,

3592. Hams and gear needed for Honduras medical trip

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2005-08-30 15:50:33 UTC
From: John Kirckof
Topic: 3592 Message: 3592

Hi,

Our MOST important need right now is getting a few more hams to support the medical/dental teams going to Honduras in Feb. We will send about 10 or 11 teams but we have only about 7 hams commited so far. We want to get hams signed up by about 1 October so we can start getting our supplies and meds bought for the container shipment we will send at the end of the year. Call me if you are interested or know someone else who may be a good candidate. Note that you only need to know English for this medical trip since it is sponsored by International Health Services (www.IHSOFMN.org) who will also send translators.

For much of the radio gear we need for the Feb. mission, we are set. Between our own stuff and what IHS now has, we are looking OK in the way of controllers plus coax and power supplies.

What we need most right now for gear is to scrounge up a couple laptops. Nothing fancy, just reliable to do our Winlink radio e-mail stuff. The battery condition of the laptop is not critical since we will have a reliable generator or commercial power where ever we use them.
There will be a nice tax deduction letter for those items or anything else that gets donated.

I am also wondering if we can get some sort of collapsable poles. Perhaps 3 or 4 of them for use on the remote teams plus maybe for the mountain team if we find enough of them. They can be relatively light weight since they will hold a small 2 meter whip type antenna. It would be nice to get up 25 to 30 feet but we will see what is out there. My thought is something like the old tent poles where the ends fit together. I saw one once where it had about 1.5 or 2 inch aluminum poles and were about 4 foot lengths.. they were carried in a small canvas bag. Let me know if anything comes to mind that we can use... even something you may have seen in PLP or LaCeiba.

We also have permission to mount a colinear vertical antenna (6 ft tall, 2 meter & 440) on to a commercial FM tower in Puerto Lempira, Hn. The tower is similar to a 3 sided Rohn. Does anyone know where I can get a mounting to put up our antenna on the side of the tower? I do have some safety belts, etc. to do the climbing.

If you run across anything else that may be useful, let me know what you found.

C150, C158, C228, C528, C558, and C628, and Midland 73-005, that use the same battery pack.. I know that the RELM (Regency) WHS-150/450 ht uses the same pack. If anybody has one, can we deal?

For sale:

Kenwood TW-4000 dual band mobile FM transceiver

It covers 2 m and 440 MHz FM.
It has about 25 Watts output, or 5 W in low power.
Of course it has memories, scan, etc.
It has a GASFET front end, giving it a really great receiver. This would make a great packet rig, which is what it has been used for. All solid state switching makes silent packet operation. Since it has been used on packet, it does not have a mic with it, although it takes a standard 8 pin round mic connector, like most Kenwood rigs. Mobile bracket is included. It needs 13 V DC at 7 or 8 amps to operate. It works fine. Manual is included for $110 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Coaxial antenna switches For Sale:

Dow Key type antenna relay
This is similar to the antenna relay like we used in the 1960's to switch between transmit and receive.
It has a 120 V coil, but no auxiliary contacts. It is not DowKey, but functions the same. It seems slightly heavier than a Dow Key. $35

2 position coax switch
These are a bit odd. They look close to what a Dow Key antenna relay looks like, but no relay coil to switch. It is a manual switch instead. There is a SO-239 connector at the top coming out of each side, with the common at the bottom.
In the middle is a bar that slides back and forth to select the antenna. It is in a very rugged sealed metal box. Three switches available for $25 each.

Workman CX-3, 3 position Coax Switch
This is in a small rectangular box, with the 3 switched SO-239 connectors coming out the rear, and the common coming out the front. Unused positions are NOT grounded. Rated at 1000 watts. It is in very nice condition for $ 14.

Goldline 2 position Coax Switch Small rectangular box, with SO-239 connectors on the end and the back. Rated at 1000 watts. $10

MFJ 422 B electronic keyer complete with Bencher Paddle

This is the keyer that uses the Curtis chip as the keyer, but includes sidetone, and has adjustments for volume, tone frequency, and weighting, as well as speed. It can be used in fully automatic mode, or semi-automatic like a bug. It will key either positive or negative voltages, and is powered by an internal 9 V battery, or external 5 to 9 volt supply.

Included with it is a Bencher paddle. This is a true Bencher, and is not the MFJ clone.

The keyer is mounted on the back of the Bencher paddle, so it makes one nice single compact unit.

This particular unit works 100% and looks great as well.

For Sale:
Motorola Micom X HF radio with matching Auto Tuner Unit.

RADIO INFO:
Motorola MICOM X HF SSB radio, model D80MLA1X41AK
120 Channels, 10-ch Scan, VFO mode,
Covers 2-30MHz USB/LSB/AM/CW
Output is 125Watts on all modes except AM is 50w.
Microphone is included but not original, it is a rewired Maxar80 mic.
BASIC user manual, Service manual, and tuner manuals are included. Good quality photocopies.

Radio is in average condition and working. TX/RX tested. Sounds great and on freq. with WWV and others. Tested and working in all modes, showing full output on radio LCD and wattmeter.

It's a marine/commercial radio so it comes complete with scratches and old tape marks from storage. Some case screws missing. Some corrosion noted on front connectors, but not bad.
Black ink or something in corner of display, but NOT broken display.

TUNER:
Also a matching Motorola/Triton automatic antenna tuner, model T1961A/T1959A based on the part number of the internal board. There are no markings or labels on the tuner. Tunes 2-18mhz long-wire or 12ft whip.
Used, and in fair condition. Outside case is weather-beaten and sun-faded, but inside is very clean and nice. Tested and working with the Micom above.

PHOTOS available on request.

Taking reasonable offers if anyone is interested, before I do the ebay thing.

Not splitting up, and really don't have time to copy the copied manuals, sorry!

I'll take them to the UPS store for shipping so that they are packed/insured properly, so figure in an extra $40 or so for that, plus freight. Will ship UPS or US postal service, but UPS will be cheaper since they will be packing it.

Thanks!

Wattmeters For Sale:

MFJ 815 B HF wattmeter
This wattmeter covers the entire HF bands, plus 6 meters with coverage from 1.8 to 60 MHz. This means it is great for some of the newer HF rigs where 6 meters is included. It has a large 3 inch cross needle meter that reads 200/2000 Watts forward and 50/500 Watts reverse. It will read either peak or average power.
This particular meter works fine, and looks great. The manual is included, if one can call a single sheet of paper a manual. $60

Daiwa CN-540
This cross needle meter is good for 50 to 150 MHz, so it covers the 6 and 2 meter bands. It is 200W or 20 W for forward power, and 40 W or 4 W on reflected. It is in very nice condition for $45.

ParaDynamics PDC-1
This HF wattmeter / SWR bridge will read forward and reflected power with either 100 W or 10 W full scale. It is relatively small, making it great for mobile operation. Of course with a 10 W scale, it would be useful for QRP operation as well. $18

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Heath items For Sale:

Heath HDP-21 desk microphone
This is the older style with more chrome and no brown on it, like was used with the earlier SB line (SB-100, 101, 400, 401). Of course it can be used any place a high impedance microphone is needed.
With paper work for $65.

EV Desk Microphone
Basically this is the same as the Heath brown desk microphone, but it does not have the Heath name on it. It says EV. Hi Z. One small paint spec off, about the size of a pin head. Works fine. $65

Heath IP-2728 bench power supply
This power supply is good for up to 15 V DC at up to 500 ma. The voltage is variable down to about half a volt. It has current limiting that is adjustable as well.
It is really a very versatile power supply. It is in the Heath blue color scheme. This one works fine, looks great, and includes paper work for $45.

ORIGINAL Heath manuals. These are the manuals only. They are all originals, and not copies, and all are in very, very nice condition.

Heath HW-2021 Assembly manual - 1975
For 2 meter hand held transceiver
No check marks in book. $10

Heath HN-31 A "Cantenna" Dummy Load
This is the "A" model dated 1982
No check marks in book. $10

GD-600 Photoelectric Light Switch
Very nice condition. Schematic is part of book. $6

These are original manuals only.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I was going to recommend my rig, the TenTec 526 "6n2" to you, but in checking their web page, at http://radio.tentec.com/WhatNew, I am saddened to see that TenTec discontinued this model back in July, none are in stock, and no replacement model was planned. (sigh)
It didn't go out of band at all on the 6m side, but it recieved well on the VHF side. It has 100 memories plus a couple of VFOs.
It even did an odd split on 6 to work the local 6m repeater. :-)

Or, consider getting a 2m all mode and a TenTec 1209
6m / 2m transverter... http://radio.tentec.com/kits/Transverter

I guess, check here and also the bay and see if one's there...

I may be interested in parting with my TenTec transverters, 1208 and 1210.

They are both factory assembled and include the manuals.
They are in excellent condition.

I also have a Radio Shack HTX-10, a Radio Shack DX-390, and some other items that may be of interest to someone getting a shack set up.

I need to acquire a reasonably priced reliable portable
HF rig good for SSB and digital modes, preferably 160-10M but at least 80-10M, prefer the ability to run 100W.
(Cosmetics are not as important as reliability.)

This is what I have for sale:

Receiver WJ-977-5 (30-300MHz) 21,4MHz IF
2 units: One unit is working well,- I am listening to it as we speak. and the other unit is not tested yet. The fuse caps are missing. It should be OK, as they all came from a working environment. The physical condition is good,- a little dust perhaps and the usual scratches on the top and bottom lid.

Receiver WJ-775-13 (235-1000MHz) 21,4 MHz IF
2 units: Both units are working. The physical condition is good,- a little dust perhaps and the usual scratches on the top and bottom lid.

Signal Monitor SM-9304-A1,- 2 units,- in good working and physical condition.

Frequency counter DRO-309-1. 2 units,- in good working and physical condition.

Demodulator/receiver DMS-105A (1-1600kHz), in good working and physical condition. A fine unit. IF 455 kHz,- works very well in conjunction with my WJ-8716 shortwave receiver. Filtering all sorts of background noise. Also the reception on Longwave is very good & sensitive,- better than I thought at first.

Demodulator/receiver DMS-107A (0,1-10MHz). This unit works now and then. Something is not right,- but I can not tell what. I never spend much time going after that.

WJ/Regco loudspeaker, 1/2 rack version, some scratches, works, contacts need cleaning.

WJ-Equipment frame for 2x 1/2 Rack units, in good physical condition.

Manuals for every receiver are available,- but must be copied against expenses. Cables (BNC and other) come with each unit.

Please contact me for further details under: michael@...
Prices can be given,- swapping is better.

3661. TenTec 1202 combo HF/VHF wattmeter and other wattmeters FS

For Sale:

TenTec 1202 combination HF and VHF wattmeter

This wattmeter will permit a ham to connect both an HF rig and a VHF rig to the wattmeter at the same time. A switch on the front of the meter selects whether HF or VHF is being measured. HF covers 1.8 to 54 MHz, so it includes 6 meters as well as HF. VHF is really 2 meters, covering 140 to 150 MHz. Full scale reading is 200 W or 20 W. It can be powered from an internal 9 V battery, or from external 9 to 14 volts DC.
Of course one can measure SWR as well as forward and reflected power.

This particular unit looks very close to new. I can not find a scratch on it. Of course it works fine also. Paper work is included for $60.

Other Wattmeters For Sale:

Daiwa CN-540
This cross needle meter is good for 50 to 150 MHz, so it covers 6 and 2 meters. It is 200/20 W for forward power, and 40/4 W on reflected.
Very nice condition for $45.

ParaDynamics PDC-1
This HF wattmeter / SWR bridge will read forward and reflected power with 100/10 W full scale. It is relatively small, making it great for mobile operation. Of course with a 10 W scale, it would be useful for QRP operation
as well. $18

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

It can be powered from an internal 9 V battery, or from external 9 to 14 volts DC. Of course one can measure SWR as well as forward and reflected power.
This particular unit looks very close to new. I can not find a scratch on it. Of course it works fine also. Paper work is included for $60.

Daiwa CN-540
This cross needle meter is good for 50 to 150 MHz, so it covers the 6 and 2 meter bands. It is 200W or 20 W for forward power, and 40 W or 4 W on reflected. It is in very nice condition for $45.

ParaDynamics PDC-1
This HF wattmeter / SWR bridge will read forward and reflected power with either 100 W or 10 W full scale. It is relatively small, making it great for mobile operation. Of course with a 10 W scale, it would be useful for QRP operation as well. $18

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3682. NEED: 512k x 8 RAM Memory for SCS PTC-II TNC PACTOR Modem

The SCS PTC-II uses 512k x 8 RAM for its 2mb upgrade

It uses HM628512, TC554002, KM684000 or any low power <70ns, 32pin DIP memory chips. They used to be garden variety RAM modules.

Does anyone have a handle on where I can get a few of these? I have three modems I'd like to upgrade.

Thanks, Michael K3MH

3689. Coax antenna switches FS

Coaxial antenna switches For Sale:

Waters 335 Coax switch
This is basically the same as the B & W Model 375 coax switch, except the unused antennas are NOT grounded. This will switch up to 6 antennas, with SO-239 connectors, with the coax going out the back.
This one is good condition, and works fine. $ 40

2 position coax switch
These are a bit odd. They look close to what a Dow Key antenna relay looks like, but no relay coil to switch. It is a manual switch instead. There is a SO-239 connector at the top coming out of each side, with the common at the bottom.
In the middle is a bar that slides back and forth to select the antenna. It is in a very rugged sealed metal box. Three switches available for $22 each.

Workman CX-3, 3 position Coax Switch
This is in a small rectangular box, with the 3 switched
SO-239 connectors coming out the rear, and the common coming out the front. Unused positions are NOT grounded. Rated at 1000 watts. It is in very nice condition for $ 14.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3713. TVI (Low pass and high pass) filters FS

TVI filters For Sale:

Low Pass filters for the transmitter:

Drake TV-1000-LP Low pass filter
This is the filter that is in the copper case, and may also be used on the low end of six meters, as well as HF. It is a 50 ohm filter and is good for 1000 W AM below 30 MHz (which would be over 3000 Watts PEP SSB), and about 200 W up to 52 MHz. With paper work for $ 30

B & W FL-10/1500 (Also know as model 425) low pass filter
B & W TVI filter, 50 ohm. It cuts off just above 10 meters, and will handle 1500 Watts. SO-239 connector on each
end. It is in very nice condition for $ 30.

Drake TV-5240-LP low pass filter
This number is correct; it is not a TV-5200. This filter is different than the typical low pass filter. It has an SO-239 connector on each end, but instead of being long and skinny, the enclosure is about 5 inches square. I think this is a fairly old filter. It has brownish/gray paint over the copper colored case. I have not been able to find any specs on this filter. It does say "For use in 52 ohm line of transmitters operating below 30 Mc." printed on it. $30

Drake TV-100-LP low pass filter
This is for lower power -- up to 100 watts AM.
It has the copper case. It is approaching antique status, as I would guess it must be 30 years old, but still works fine. Basically it is the same as the TV-1000-LP above, but with one tenth of the power ratings. $ 15

Alinco ELP-60 D LX low pass filter
For 50 ohm systems, with up to 500 watts of power.
This one has an SO-239 on one end, and about a 2 foot
Length of coax and PL-259 on the other end. $30

Ameco LN-2 low pass filter
This filter is rated at 100 Watts, with an SO-239
connector on each end. $12

For the TV receiver:

Drake TV-300-HP
High Pass filter for the TV for 300 ohm twin lead.
This filter is collectable, and is unused as best I can determine. It is still in its original box (not the newer blister pack), with an "RLD" logo on it, and says

"NEW TV-300 HP High Pass Filter, Attenuates
0-52 MHz". A grounding strap is also attached.
$ 15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

TenTec items For Sale:

TenTec 255 Deluxe Power Supply
Matches the early Omni series, and includes speaker, ammeter, and trim ring. Dual pass transistors similar to the heavy duty 280 power supply. It is good for 20 amps at 13 V DC, and includes over voltage protection. This one looks fine, and works the same.
With manual for $ 135.

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply. Has ammeter on front. Matches the Omni series, but of course can be used with any rig needing a 20 amp power supply, which includes most TenTec rigs. This unit has the optional over voltage protection unit mounted inside. It is in great condition, with manual for $ 110.

Power cable for Hercules 444 linear amplifier
This is the heavy cable that goes from the power supply to the amp. It has a heavy duty 9 pin molex type connector on both ends, and either #12 or #14 wire, and is about 6 feet long. It is in good shape. $18

NOTE PLEASE READ about this radio (#5)
This one has a weird problem all of a sudden from just sitting in the closet. Some of the buttons on the keypad do not connect all the time once pressed for some odd reason. Sometimes you have to press the button in hard to have it register. Seems button number three is the only one that is still not connecting after playing with it though now. This radio, as well as all the others have been sitting in a hall closet each in it's own plastic bag titely knotted. The only thing that he could guess is the rubber keypad has gone out since it's a few years old. So, we'll say this one needs a new keypad most likely, but most buttons do work fully like normal after having the radio out and pressing them. Other than that the radio works fine. New DC adapter and plug included.
Asking: $100

Hi,

Sorry, we thought putting the functions would be more helpful than just listing the model number, but obviously seeing the number of messages it stirred up proves that was a mistake. Here are the model numbers:

#1 is a PRO-2053 RadioShack, actually it's GRE.
#2 is a RadioShack PRO-2020
#3 is a Uniden Bearcat 895XLT
#4 is a Uniden Bearcat 9000xlt
#5 is a RadioShack (he doesn't remember the manufacturer off the top of his head, but thinks it's GRE) PRO-62
#6 is a RadioShack(unknown manufacturer) PRO-31
#7 is a RadioShack (Uniden Made) PRO-2066

Thanks,

DENTRON GLA1000 LINEAR AMPLIFIERS - Have Two For Sale.
1000 Watts p.e.p. desktop linear amplifier is self-contained,
and covers the ham bands from 80 through 10 meters. Great for SSB and CW.
Outer cosmetic condition is excellent. Both may need minor attention.
Both have good working power supplies, and good tested tubes. All of the RF components are there and look fine. No major damge to anything - should be easy to restore. I just don't have the time. One has an intermittent contact on the T-R relay during receive. Probably just needs a relay. Has a tiny switch added to front panel, easy to remove and fill. One looks better outside and its tubes look newer.
Other is a little dirty inside. Both are untested and sold as-is, but I have every reason to believe they can be easily made to work 100%. Four good tested finals in each amplifier. These are bringing $350.00 to $375.00 or more on eBay.
Each amplifier will be sent with the schematic and a copy of the manual.
QTY 2 Available for $175.00 and $150.00 each plus shipping.

Drake items For Sale:

Cover for Heath Wattmeter - Drake color
This is the inverted "U" cover that fits the Heath HM-102 and HM-2102 wattmeters, and maybe other units. It is in nice shape. It has been painted black to match
Drake gear. It is no longer Heath Green. $12

Drake hand microphone
This is like the hand mic that came with the Drake TR-72 and TR-22 C. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Drake/Kenwood, and is a 500 ohm mic. No model number on it, but it looks close to new, and works fine. $30

Drake 1525 EM Touchtone Microphone
This is the mic that was used to add a touchtone pad to a lot of rigs in the 70s and 80s. Normal hand mic from the front, but has a touchtone pad on the back. Four pin mic plug. This particular unit has been used, but is in good shape and includes paper work. $ 40

Drake TV-1000-LP Low pass filter
This is the filter that is in the copper case, and may also be used on the low end of six meters, as well as HF. It is a 50 ohm filter and is good for 1000 W AM below 30 MHz (which would be over 3000 Watts PEP SSB), and about 200 W up to 52 MHz. With paper work for $ 30

Drake TV-5240-LP low pass filter
This number is correct; it is not a TV-5200. This filter is different than the typical low pass filter. It has an SO-239 connector on each end, but instead of being long and skinny, the enclosure is about 5 inches square. I think this is a fairly old filter. It has brownish/gray paint over the copper colored case. I have not been able to find any specs on this filter. It does say "For use in 52 ohm line of transmitters operating below 30 Mc." printed on it. $30

Drake TV-100-LP low pass filter
This is for lower power -- up to 100 watts AM.
It has the copper case. It is approaching antique status, as I would guess it must be 30 years old, but still works fine. Basically it is the same as the TV-1000-LP above, but with one tenth of the power ratings. $ 15

Drake TV-300-HP
High Pass filter for the TV for 300 ohm twin lead.

This filter is collectable, and is unused as best I can determine. It is still in its original box (not the newer blister pack), with an "RLD" logo on it, and says
"NEW TV-300 HP High Pass Filter, Attenuates
0-52 MHz". A grounding strap is also attached. $ 15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

http://www.foxtango.org/NewsletterCD.htm

The International Fox Tango Club brings to you for the first time ever a complete library of twenty years of Fox Tango and IRCI newsletters. The newsletters were compiled from letters, suggestions, modifications and experiences of the users of Yaesu equipment. The entire set of both libraries is now combined on to one CD ROM so you can have your own complete set of Newsletters. There were ten Fox-Tango Newsletters produced every year for 14 years. Thousands of Fox Tango members worldwide participated in collective discussions and problem solving efforts to improve their equipment and to further the state of the art of Yaesu amateur equipment starting with the world renowned Yaesu FT-101. No other series of radios went under the "microscope" as did the FT-101 with such scrutiny, and success. This collection of Fox-Tango Newsletters captures the history of the FT-101 from conception to the end of the series for all time. The Fox Tango club, through the 1970s, also covered many other Yaesu transceivers 1980s and 1990s. Including the FT-757Gx, up to the FT-1000D and just about every other product produced during that time. Now you can own the entire newsletter set, each and every issue depicts an evolution in amateur radio from 1972 up to 1992.

Yaesu / Fox Tango Library (1972-1985)
Fourteen full years of the newsletters published by the original Fox Tango Corporation, 1972 through 1985. An amazing resource for fans of the older Yaesu radios.
Complete library (all 14 years)

Yaesu / IRCI Newsletters (1986-1992)
Published by IRCI from 1986 through 1992.
Complete Library (all 7 years)

For Sale:

Palomar R - X Noise Bridge

This unit is used to find the resistance and reactance of your antenna. It measures from 1 to 100 MHz, so it is good for HF and six meter measurements, but not 2 meters. The resistive component will measure between 0 and 250 ohms, and reactance from 0 to 70 ohms. It will also show if the reactance is inductive or capacitive.
You can also determine the length of feedline, and many other things. It is powered by a 9 volt battery.

This particular unit works fine and appears to never have been used. It is in its original box, and has the paper work with it.

$50 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3755. Kenwood SP-820 and other Kenwood items FS

Kenwood Items For Sale:

Kenwood SP-820 speaker with filters
This speaker will take an input from up to two rigs, and has a built in filter in it. It can be set for low, high, High 2, or combinations. If desired, the bandpass of the speaker can be narrowed to about 500 to 1000 hz, which means that it is in effect a CW filter. Of course it can be broader, if desired.
Although this speaker was designed to physically match the TS-820, it can be used any place an 8 ohm speaker is desired. Electrically, it is the same as the SP-230, SP-930, SP-950, and others with the filters built in.
This particular speaker is in excellent shape. It works fine, and I can not find a scratch on it. $ 75

Kenwood MC-47 Hand Microphone
This is the microphone that came with the TS-50, but can be used on other rigs.. It has a round 8 pin connector, has up and down buttons, plus 4 "extra" buttons on the front.
This one works fine, and is very nice shape for $45.

Kenwood MB-13 mobile bracket
This is the "quick disconnect" mobile bracket used for the TS-50 transceiver and also the AT-50 antenna tuner.
This one is in nice shape for $35.

Kenwood MC-30 S hand microphone
This hand microphone is used with most all of the older Kenwood rigs - TS-120, TS-180, TS-520, TS-820, etc. This is a noise canceling mic. It has a four pin plug on it to match these rigs. Good shape for $35

Small hand mic that came with the Drake TR-72 and TR-2200 A. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Drake/Kenwood, and is a 500 ohm mic. This one says
Drake on it, but it is the same as the Kenwood microphone.
No model number on it, but it looks close to new, and works fine. $30

Kenwood SMC-25 speaker mic
Fits TR-2500 series of HTs, and maybe others. $20

Kenwood DC-21
This unit is used on the TH-21 / 31 / 41 series of HTs. It has an adapter that slides on in place of the battery, plus a conversion unit that plugs into the cigarette lighter on one end and the battery adapter on the other. $25

W09-0334 Wall charger for TH-21 / 31 / 41 series HTs
Like about 95% of these chargers, this one has the "ear" on it broken, but can be used fine with a rubber band. $12

Wrist strap for TH-21 / 31 / 41 and likely other HTs $ 2

RA-8 Stubby Rubber duck antenna
This is for a TH-21 series 2 meter HT, with the threaded connector. Good condition for $10

Kenwood full size 2 meter rubber duck antenna
BNC connector $10

Antenna adapter to fit the BNC connector on the HT
and provide an SO-239 connector that will permit
a PL-259 to be attached. $5

Kenwood EP-1 ear phone Used on almost all Kenwood HTs. Like new. $4

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3757. WTB, crystals for a ST Communications UHF radio

From: Brian
Topic: 3757  Message: 3757

I am looking for crystals for a radio I've come across. It is a ST Communications model KF-430, UHF/FM. It is a 12chl crystal controlled radio and appears to put out 1 watt. The crystals in it are for 433.00mhz and 432.520mhz simplex. Markings on the crystals are: FRT-75A One set has "ST" stamped on the side and the other set has "HKS" stamped in an octagon on the side. On the top of the crystals are "T433.00, R43.00" and "T432.520, R432.520"

Any information about this radio or where I can get crystals would be great.

Low Pass filters for the transmitter for sale:

Drake TV-3300-LP Low Pass Filter
This is a modern low pass filter to go between your transmitter and antenna, and has been optimized to have more attenuation in the 40 MHz region, where many TVs have their IF. According to the manual it is good for 1000 Watts "average", which would be about 2000 watts PEP, and has over 80 db attenuation at 41 MHz. SO-239 connectors on each end. This one looks close to new, and also has the single page
"manual" with it. $ 30

Drake TV-1000-LP Low pass filter
This is the filter that is in the copper case, and may also be used on the low end of six meters, as well as HF. It is a 50 ohm filter and is good for 1000 W AM below 30 MHz (which would be over 3000 Watts PEP SSB), and about 200 W up to 52 MHz. With paper work for $ 30

Johnson Nye Viking 250-20 Low Pass Filter
This is a 52 ohm cylindrical low pass filter with a cut off frequency of 45 MHz and 75 db of attenuation.
It is rated to take 1000 Watts of AM, or 5000 Watts
PEP SSB. It has SO-239 connectors on each end.
$30.

Nye Viking Low Pass Filter Model 020-001
Eliminate the harmonics going out your feed line,
and reduce TVI. It is rated at 2000 watts, with over 65 db of attenuation above 57 MHz.
This one is in very nice shape for $30.

Drake TV-5240-LP low pass filter
This number is correct; it is not a TV-5200. This filter is different than the typical low pass filter. It has an SO-239 connector on each end, but instead of being long and skinny, the enclosure is about 5 inches square. I think this is a fairly old filter. It has brownish/gray paint over the copper colored case. I have not been able to find any specs on this filter. It does say "For use in 52 ohm line of transmitters operating below 30 Mc." printed on it. $25

Drake TV-100-LP low pass filter
This is for lower power -- up to 100 watts AM.
It has the copper case. It is approaching antique status, as I would guess it must be 30 years old, but still works fine. Basically it is the same as the TV-1000-LP above, but with one tenth of the power ratings. $ 15

Alinco ELP-60 D LX low pass filter
For 50 ohm systems, with up to 500 watts of power. This one has an SO-239 on one end, and about a 2 foot length of coax and PL-259 on the other end. $30

Ameco LN-2 low pass filter
This filter is rated at 100 Watts, with an SO-239 connector on each end. $12

For the TV receiver:

Drake TV-300-HP
High Pass filter for the TV for 300 ohm twin lead. This filter is collectable, and is unused as best I can determine. It is still in its original box (not the newer blister pack), with an "RLD" logo on it, and says "NEW TV-300 HP High Pass Filter, Attenuates 0-52 MHz". A grounding strap is also attached.
$ 12

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I was reviewing the missing pieces lists for a few radio projects here and it looks like I'm only short one or two parts to complete each. This happenstance must be a corollary of Murphy's law! :-)

If you happen to know Santa's email, please forward the following list:

Centralab 2500 series, type PISD (10 position progressive shorting) or UD (11 position) ceramic switch wafers. (1-5/8" x 1-7/8" diameter). Need 2 pieces.

Comet CV03C-1000 or CV03C-1400, 1000pF or 1400pF vacuum variable capacitors; Several shaft options (trailing letter) are acceptable. Comet recently changed the numbers on these but, I don't think that the new ones (with reallllly confusing designations!) would be present yet on the secondary market. Jennings CMV1-1000 with a 1/4" shaft also a possiblity. I can also make do with their old spline drive version if the pricing is commensurate. Need 2 (guaranteed) working (good vacuum & alignment) parts.

Comet CV01C-250G-10KV, 250pF 10KV vacuum variable capacitor. Need one (guaranteed) working (good vacuum & alignment) part Comet MC1C-250 or 300pF, 15KV fixed vacuum capacitors. Need two (guaranteed) working (good vacuum & alignment) parts.

Jennings Y1 (or CY-1), 1pF fixed, vacuum caps; prefer glass over ceramic, they're cuter! Seeking three parts.

A 1000pF or greater, physically small air variable -- 2.5" hi max. including plate travel. Prefer continuous rotation. A General Radio 1421-K would be fine! :-)

73 & Happy Holidays!

3776. Coaxial antenna switches FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2005-12-31 20:04:35 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3346  Message: 3776

Coaxial antenna switches for sale:

B & W Model CS-6 G (595) coax switch
This is the switch that is in a rectangular box about 9 inches long, with seven SO-239 connectors coming out of the back. It will switch 6 antennas, grounding the antennas that are not in use. It works fine and is in good shape. $ 40

B & W Model 550 G coax switch
This model will switch up to 5 antennas, and DOES ground unused antennas. It has SO-239 connectors on the sides, with the coax coming out like spokes of a wheel. It is in good condition and works fine. Mounting bracket is included for $ 30.

Waters (B&W) 335 coax switch
This is basically the same as the B & W Model 375 coax switch, except the unused antennas are NOT grounded. This will switch up to 6 antennas, has 7 SO-239 connectors, with the coax going out the back. This one is good condition, and works fine. $ 38

MFJ 1702, Two position Coax switch
Actually, the switch has 3 positions. One for each of the 2 antennas, and a third to ground both antennas. Constant impedance type design in heavy die cast enclosure for low loss, even into VHF and UHF frequencies. Like new. $20

2 position coax switch
These are a bit odd. They look close to what a Dow Key antenna relay looks like, but no relay coil to switch. It is a manual switch instead. There is a SO-239 connector at the top coming out of each side, with the common at the bottom. In the middle is a bar that slides back and forth to select the antenna. It is in a very rugged sealed metal box. Two switches available for $18 each.

B & W 551 A "Transfer" Coax Switch
This switch is designed to switch an auxiliary piece of equipment in and out (For example, bypass a linear amplifier, transverter, preamp, etc.). It has four SO-239 connectors. It is still in its original box, with the original paper work, and appears unused. $45

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

is in very nice shape, and works fine. $50

Icom HM-14
This mic has the 16 digit touchtone pad, but also has the up and down switches. It has the round 8 pin connector, and is in good shape, and works fine. $45

Data Signal "Data-Coder 5" touchtone mic
This mic has a 12 digit touchtone pad on it, plus a normal low impedance microphone. Like new. $40

Drake 1525 EM Touchtone Microphone
This is the mic that was used to add a touchtone pad to a lot of rigs in the 70s and 80s. Normal hand mic from the front, but has a touchtone pad on the back. Four pin mic plug.
This particular unit has been used, but is in good

HyGain Model 412 B, HF wattmeter
This meter will measure your HF power in three ranges -- 2000 Watts, 200 Watts, and 20 Watts. Of course it will measure forward and reflected power, and SWR. It is in nice shape, and works fine. $ 50

ParaDynamics PDC-1
This HF wattmeter / SWR bridge will read forward and reflected power with either 100 W or 10 W full scale. It is relatively small, making it great for mobile operation.
Of course with a 10 W scale, it would be useful for QRP operation as well. $18

SWR Bridges For Sale:

Dual meter SWR Bridge:
Swan SWR-1
This unit has two meters on it. The meter on the left reads forward power and the meter on the right reads reflected power. It is in a heavy metal enclosure with two SO-239 connectors. It works fine and looks great. $ 20

SWR Bridge
This is the standard HF SWR bridge in a gray crinkle box about 6 inches long and a couple inches square, with SO-239 connectors coming out of each end. It works fine. $12

FOR SALE:

Two rolls of 600 ohm ladder line. This is the real feedline that has coppper wire and plastic spacers, unlike the plastic twinlead stuff with windows that is 450 ohm and cracks etc. This feedline can take it.

Each roll is approximately 100 feet long. I am not going to unroll them and measure, but it is 60 turns coiled up and each is about 8" diameter average - so I figure there must be at least 100 feet here on each roll.

I will sell the two rolls for $40.00 plus $8.50 for shipping

Kenwood items for sale:

Kenwood MC-47 Hand Microphone
This is the microphone that came with the TS-50, but can be used on other rigs.. It has a round 8 pin connector, has up and down buttons, plus 4 "extra" buttons on the front.
This one works fine, and is very nice shape for $45.

Kenwood Extender feet
These are the extra feet that can be used on the front of most Kenwood rigs to tilt the unit so that it is raised in the front. They screw in to the standard feet. These are in very nice shape. $15

Small hand mic that came with the Kenwood TR-7200 and TR-2200 A. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Drake/Kenwood, and is a 500 ohm mic. This one says
Drake on it, but it is the same as the Kenwood microphone.
No model number on it, but it looks close to new, and works fine. $30

Kenwood DC-1
This is the unit that slides on to the HT in place of a battery.
It permits one to operate off of 12 Volt DC, such as from a car. It is used with the TH-75, TH-77, TH-25, TH-26 and maybe others. Still in its original box with paper work, NOS $20

Kenwood PG-2 V
This is a cable that is used with many Kenwood HTs to charge, operate off of 12 V DC, etc. Still sealed in its bag, NOS $ 12

Special Rubber Duck antennas for Kenwood TH-21 / 31 / 41 series HTs with the threaded connector
Aftermarket stubby, 3.3 inches long $10
Kenwood RA-8 Stubby, 4 inches long $10
Kenwood regular, 6.6 inches long $10

Kenwood full size 2 meter rubber duck antenna
BNC connector $10

Antenna adapter to fit the BNC connector on the HT
and provide an SO-239 connector that will permit
a PL-259 to be attached. $5

Antenna adapter to fit the connector on the TH -
21 / 31 / 41, and adapt it to standard PL-259
antenna connector. $ 3

Antenna adapter as above, but goes to
BNC connector. $ 3

Service manual for Kenwood TR-2600 HT - $10

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

REDUCED:

POWERCON Vibrator Power Supply - Converts 12V DC to 110V AC.

This is how we did it in the old days before transistors!
Could probably be easily set up with a bridge rectifier, fullwave, doubler or whatever to produce something useful like 400-700V DC for your boatanchor projects.

Comes in a heavy duty metal case with handle.
It has output voltage selector settings for LOW-MED-HIGH-MAX!
It is designed to produce 110V AC from 12V DC at 300 Watts continuous.

If anyone would enjoy experimenting with vibrator power supplies this is just what you would enjoy a lot. May be easily adapted to providing higher DC voltage for tube plate supply by using diode doubler circuit.

Available for $8.00 plus shipping

Drake items for sale:

Case for Drake TR-22 C
This is the black case that fits the Drake TR-22 C, and has a pocket for the microphone, plus cutouts in the back for antenna, power, etc. It is good shape, except that the Drake Logo is not near as brilliant as it once was. $12

Drake 1525 EM Touchtone Microphone
This is the mic that was used to add a touchtone pad to a lot of rigs in the 70s and 80s. Normal hand mic from the front, but had a touchtone pad on the back.
Four pin mic plug. This particular unit has been used, but is in good shape and includes paper work. $ 40

Drake hand microphone
This is like the hand mic that came with the Drake TR-72 and TR-22 C. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Drake/Kenwood, and is a 500 ohm mic. No model number on it, but it looks close to new, and works fine. $30

Cover for Heath Wattmeter - Drake color
This is the inverted "U" cover that fits the Heath HM-102 and HM-2102 wattmeters, and maybe other units. It is in nice shape. It has been painted black to match
Drake gear. It is no longer Heath Green. $12

I have a NOS 6JB6 available. I only have one, but that may be enough to help someone. $20

Drake TV-5240-LP low pass filter
This number is correct; it is not a TV-5200. This filter is different than the typical low pass filter. It has an SO-239 connector on each end, but instead of being long and skinny, the enclosure is about 5 inches square. I think this is a fairly old filter. It has brownish/gray paint over the copper colored case. I have not been able to find any specs on this filter. It does say "For use in 52 ohm line of transmitters operating below 30 Mc." printed on it. If anyone has any additional information on it, I would appreciate hearing. $30

Drake TV-300-HP high pass filter
High Pass filter for the TV for 300 ohm twin lead.
This filter is collectable, and is unused as best I can determine. It is still in its original box (not the newer blister pack), with an "RLD" logo on it, and says

"NEW TV-300 HP High Pass Filter, Attenuates
0-52 MHz". A grounding strap is also attached. $ 15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I'm looking for a mic for an Azden PCS 3000, 2 meter mobile. I'm starting to think that this mythical creature doesn't exist! If anyone has a working mic or knows where to get one, please let me know.

Thanks!

They are long since out of that business.

I did once find a former employee who had a stash of the mic connector kits but that was years ago and took hours of online searching and several E-mails as I recall.

PCS-3000's rarely come with the mic so one is left to homebrew the connector.

Is is easier to homebrew a connector if only mic and ptt connections are used, though I suppose one could find a similar mic and try to wire the UP/DOWN and other features ... given the time.

I am thinking of finding a similar type connector shell and using a slice of rubber cork or something to hold some slip-on pin connectors in place.

PLease share the news if you discover a better solution.
I am guessing, from what I've seen from a quick Google search, that there are many dozens of these rigs collecting dust due to the lack of mic connectors.

Wattmeters and SWR Bridge For Sale:

Heath HM-102 wattmeter Covers 1.8 to 30 MHz, with 200 W and 2000 W full scale. It can also be used to check SWR, and has a remote sensor that can either be left inside the meter, or separated from the actual meter by about 3 feet.
SO-239 connectors in and out. This particular meter is in nice shape, with no scratches. Paper work included for $40.

HyGain Model 412 B, HF wattmeter
This meter will measure your HF power in three ranges -- 2000 Watts, 200 Watts, and 20 Watts. Of course it will measure forward and reflected power, and SWR. It is in nice shape, and works fine. $ 50

ParaDynamics PDC-1
This HF wattmeter / SWR bridge will read forward and reflected power with either 100 W or 10 W full scale. It is relatively small, making it great for mobile operation.
Of course with a 10 W scale, it would be useful for QRP operation as well. $18

SWR Bridge
This is the standard HF SWR bridge in a gray crinkle box about 6 inches long and a couple inches square, with SO-239
connectors coming out of each end. It works fine. $12

Hand Microphones For Sale:

Drake hand microphone
This is like the hand mic that came with the Drake TR-72 and TR-22 C. It has the standard 4 pin plug wired for Drake/Kenwood, and is a 500 ohm mic. $30

Heath hand microphone
This mic says "Heath" on the front of it. The most important part is that it is high impedance, and that it has the 2 pin Amphenol connector on it, as used by the HW and SB lines, and most other Heath rigs.
To put it another way, it is ready to use by plugging it in to your HW-100, SB-100, or whatever. It works fine, although its original white color is somewhat faded in some places. $ 30

ElectroVoice 210 E
Hi Z mic for the older rigs. It is in nice shape. $30

Kenwood MC-53
This mic has the touchtone pad, but also has an additional four buttons for tasks such as VFO or memory selection, memory recall, calling a priority frequency, and a programmable button, along with up and down buttons. It has the modular connector. This one is in very nice shape, and works fine. $50

Data Signal "Data-Coder 5" touchtone mic
This mic has a 12 digit touchtone pad on it, plus a normal
low impedance microphone. Like new. $40

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

TenTec items for sale:

TenTec Triton IV (Model 540) HF transceiver
Covers 80 thru 10 meters, but not the WARC bands.
Fully solid state, with approximately 100 Watts output power.
Of course it has the great QSK on CW that TenTec is famous for, along with really great audio. This one is in good shape.
It works 100%. Cosmetically, it is very, very good. No scratches that I can find. All original knobs, as well as the tilt up front feet. With paper work for $ 190.

TenTec 228 antenna tuner, switch and SWR Bridge
This tuner is a 200 watt tuner that includes an antenna switch, and SWR bridge. The tuner itself is the "T" type tuner with two capacitors, and a 47 turn inductor, with taps at each turn. This gives about the same flexibility as a roller inductor, without the associated problems. The antenna switch will switch between "Dummy Load", Antenna 1, 2, and 3. In other words it could switch up to four antennas. A balun is also included. The meter can be switched between forward and reflected power.
This unit works fine, and looks very nice. Paper work is included for $100.

Power cable for Hercules 444 linear amplifier
This is the heavy cable that goes from the power supply to the amp. It has a heavy duty 9 pin molex type connector on both ends, and either #12 or #14 wire, and is about 6 feet long. It is in good shape. $18

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Hi all, I have for sale a rig blaster nomic, let me know what cable you want, I have a couple, I want to get the plus version so won't need this one. I was going to use this on echolink for a link but only had it up for a few hours, unit works, has been in the box since. $45 and a little help on shipping
Item 2 is a Kenwood PC-1A phone patch, worked good when was last used, there might be a bad connection in the mic plug, I bumped it once and the PTT on the mic wouldn't work for a minute or 2 after that but couldn't make it do that again so I don't know what the story is, asking $35 and a little shipping on that. Email n1umj@... if interested.

Coaxial antenna switches for sale:

Waters (B & W) 336 "transfer" coax switch
This switch is designed to switch an auxiliary piece of equipment in and out (For example, bypass a linear amplifier, transverter, preamp, etc.). It has four SO-239 connectors. It is in nice shape. $40

Heath HD-1234 Coax Switch
Four position, with coax coming out like spokes of a wheel. It does ground unused antennas, and also has a switch position to ground all antennas. $ 25

Diawa CS-201 Coax Switch
Switches 2 antennas. Unused position IS grounded.
This coaxial antenna switch is in a heavy diecast housing that utilizes "stripline" construction to keep the impedance very close to 50 ohms. It also permits good operation at higher frequencies.
This one works 100% and looks great also. $ 22

2 position coax switch
These are a bit odd. They look close to what a Dow Key antenna relay looks like, but no relay coil to switch. It is a manual switch instead. There is a SO-239 connector at the top coming out of each side, with the common at the bottom.
In the middle is a bar that slides back and forth to select the antenna. It is in a very rugged sealed metal box. $20

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

TenTec items For Sale:

TenTec 546 Omni D, series C, HF CW / SSB xcvr.
All solid state, with up to 100 W output. The ALC can also be turned back with a front panel control for QRP operation. Covers 160 through 10 meters, including the 10 MHz WARC band. Full QSK on CW, and a fantastic receiver. Terrific audio quality on SSB also. Built in audio CW filter. Digital read out. This one is in good shape, but has some wear around the audio gain control. With manual for $275.

25 amp switching power supply
This is a 25 amp switching power supply in a case that matches the early Omni series case, with the metal bezel around it. It is in a case that is the same size as a 243 remote VFO. It has an ammeter on the front, along with switch, TenTec logo, and output bulb. The front panel basically looks like a 280 power supply with a metal bezel, but says "Switcher/25" on it. It is very quiet, and well shielded, and does not produce any electrical noise that I could find. I am not positive if TenTec made this, or if it is homebrew to look like TenTec. If it is homebrew, it certainly is very professionally done. $120

TenTec 299 Voice synthesized frequency counter
This unit is used with the TenTec Omni 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It will work with other rigs (such as the Triton), with minor mods to get the right connections.
The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. There is also a volume control on the front panel.
Of course it can also be used to give a "voice digital readout"
to a rig with an analog dial.
This particular unit is in great shape electrically. Cosmetically it has some slight wear, especially close to the button that is Pushed to activate it. $ 190

WARC band crystal for 24.5 MHz for Omni C $20

TenTec 289 noise blanker for the Delta 580 transceiver
This very effective noise blanker can be added the 580 Delta to help get rid of ignition noise, and is especially effective for mobile use. It is a rare item! $100

TenTec 225 power supply
This supply is made to match the Argosy transceiver. It supplies 13.8 volts at up to 9 amps. This one is in very nice shape. I can not find a scratch on it. Paper work included for $95.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Low Pass TVI filters For Sale:

B & W 425 low pass filter
B & W TVI filter, 52 ohm. It cuts off just above 10 meters, and will handle 1500 Watts. SO-239 connector on each end. This is the older 425, which is much heavier, and has the copper case. This one has just enough of the paint coming off to show the copper case underneath.
With paper work for $ 30.

Drake TV-1000-LP Low pass filter
This is the filter that is in the copper case, and may also be used on the low end of six meters, as well as HF. It is a 50 ohm filter and is good for 1000 W AM below 30 MHz (which would be over 3000 Watts PEP SSB), and about 200 W up to 52 MHz. With paper work for $ 30

Drake TV-3300-LP Low Pass Filter
This is a modern low pass filter to go between your transmitter and antenna, and has been optimized to have more attenuation in the 40 MHz region, where many TVs have their IF. According to the manual it is good for 1000 Watts "average", which would be about 2000 watts PEP, and has over 80 db attenuation at 41 MHz. SO-239 connectors on each end. This one looks close to new, and also has the single page
"manual" with it. $ 30

Nye Viking Low Pass Filter Model 020-001
Eliminate the harmonics going out your feed line,
and reduce TVI. It is rated at 2000 watts, with over 65 db of attenuation above 57 MHz. $30.

Drake TV-5240-LP low pass filter
This number is correct; it is not a TV-5200. This filter is different than the typical low pass filter. It has an SO-239 connector on each end, but instead of being long and skinny, the enclosure is about 5 inches square. I think this is a fairly old filter. It has brownish/gray paint over the copper colored case. I have not been able to find any specs on this filter. It does say "For use in 52 ohm line of transmitters operating below 30 Mc." printed on it. $30

Alinco ELP-60 D LX low pass filter
For 50 ohm systems, with up to 500 watts of power.
This one has an SO-239 on one end, and about a 2 foot

length of coax and PL-259 on the other end. $30

Ameco LN-2 low pass filter
This filter is rated at 100 Watts, with an SO-239
connector on each end. $12

High Pass TVI filter for the TV set:
Drake TV-300-HP
High Pass filter for the TV for 300 ohm twin lead.
This filter is collectable, and is unused as best I can determine. It is still in its original box (not the newer blister pack), with an "RLD" logo on it, and says
"NEW TV-300 HP High Pass Filter, Attenuates
0-52 MHz". A grounding strap is also attached. $ 15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

This radio has not been used much at all...mostly to monitor...and that's why I'm selling it. It's condition is an 8 or 9 on a 10 scale. Radio has no mods and has been reset to factory default, so the memory is completely empty. Cables are for the free Commander software, all you need to do is download the program. This is a package deal with many extras...I don't know if there's too many other accessories that you can buy for this radio. It's about as complete of a package as you can get...about the only thing missing would a a case of some kind. That's up to you!!

The price is $210.00 and that covers shipping and insurance, via UPS, in the lower US 48 states. Outside of the US will probably increase shipping charges...we can handle that problem if/when it arises.

* Motorola Belt Clip (flimsy stock clip also included)
* Nifty! Quick-Reference Card (for a wallet or visor or ????)

This radio has not been used much at all...mostly to monitor...and that's why I'm selling it. It's condition is an 8 or 9 on a 10 scale. Radio has no mods and has been reset to factory default, so the memory is completely empty. Cables are for the free Commander software, all you need to do is download the program. This is a package deal with many extras...I don't know if there's too many other accessories that you can buy for this radio. It's about as complete of a package as you can get...about the only thing missing would a a case of some kind. That's up to you!!

The price is $210.00 and that covers shipping and insurance, via UPS, in the lower US 48 states. Outside of the US will probably increase shipping charges...we can handle that problem if/when it arises.

TEMPO ONE HF TRANSCEIVER. With Power Supply.

The Tempo is a 5 band 80m thru 10m HF transceiver rated 300 watts SSB and 240 watts CW input. Features VOX, AGC, built-in calibrator and RIT. LOOKS GREAT.
These were imported by HENRY RADIO in the late 1970s and feature tubes in the RF final amplifier.
Many advanced features. Highly stable VFO.
Comes with the matching power supply - speaker unit and all necessary cables.
Has had VERY little use, and the protective plastic was just recently removed off the face panel to reveal an immaculate black front panel! Works fine on all bands.
The only thing this rig needs is there uis a slight scratch sound in the function switch. Simply spray it and you have a showroom condition radio.
Looks almost like new. No scratches or dents etc.
All original with no modifications.
Comes with the power supply and a copy of the manual.

Includes Original Manual.

Asking $100. for all three (rx/ps/spkr) plus shipping

Will post some additional pictures as requested.

Also ... I have a Turner Desk Mic that matches the G-77. Grey base, chrome trim, burgundy nameplate.
I would like to swap it for a mic that will match my G-76 which has a black face, dark grey case, brushed-chrome knobs and blue and white lettering and dial markings.

Also ... I have a weighted chrome hand mic that matches the G-77. I do not know who made it as there is no nameplate but it is weighted similar to the oval Collins hand mics. I may be interested in selling it or to swap it for a mic to match my G-76.

Pictures of both mics may be found here: http://bibleseven.com/swapn.html

TenTec items For Sale:

TenTec 289 noise blanker for the Delta 580 transceiver
This very effective noise blanker can be added the 580 Delta to help get rid of ignition noise, and is especially effective for mobile use. This is a rare item! $100

TenTec 299 Voice synthesized frequency counter
This unit is used with the TenTec Omni 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It will work with other rigs (such as the Triton), with minor mods to get the right connections.
The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. There is also a volume control on the front panel.
Of course it can also be used to give a "voice digital readout"
to a rig with an analog dial.
This particular unit is in great shape electrically. Cosmetically
it has some slight wear, especially close to the button that is Pushed to activate it. $ 190

WARC band crystal for 24.5 MHz for Omni C $20

TenTec 225 power supply
This supply is made to match the Argosy transceiver. It supplies 13.8 volts at up to 9 amps. This one is in very nice shape. I can not find a scratch on it. Paper work included for $95.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

I have for sale, a Kenwood PC-1A phone patch, this is the 8 pin version, has the 8 pin mic connectors on it. Worked fine when was last used, I did have a PTT problem with the mic plugged in to it for a few minutes the last time I used it but that went away and never showed up again, I don't know if there's a bad wire in the phone patch, somewhere else or just a dirty switch somewhere but I thought I'd mention it. The Phone patch is in good shape. Asking $40 for it plus shipping. I don't have box or original manual but do have a PDF manual which is also available on Kenwood's web site. Email me if interested.

Hams,
I have a GAP Challenger DX-VIII Vertical Antenna that is excess to my present needs. This is a great antenna if you have a small lot and cannot get wires in the air. It will work on 130 KHz of the 80 meter band. You can change what part of the band by changing a capacitor; I have three that go with it for various parts of the band.
It also works on all of 40, 20, 15, 12, 10, 6 & 2 meter bands with less than 2:1 SWR. It requires only 3 - 25 foot radials that can be buried or on the surface of the ground. Some guys are recommended, but not required.

SPECIFICATIONS

Bands

AEA items For Sale:

AEA DL-1500 "dry" dummy load
This dummy load is rated to work from 1 to 650 MHz, and handle up to 1500 watts. It has a derating curve right on the load itself, so one can't loose it that way!
Since it will cover virtually all of the ham bands, it is very useful.
This one has never had over 100 watts to it (well, maybe 105 watts) as far as I can remember. It looks very good as well. These sold for about $90 new.
This one is only $60.

"Wall wort" 12 V DC power supply at 1 amp.
Can be used with PK-232. $ 18

AEA "Wall cube" as above, but only 1/2 amp rating,
which is enough for the PK-88. $10

Cable to connect AEA packet interface to computer
I think this cable was originally used with the AEA CP-1, to interface it to a Commodore computer. One end has the 5 pin plug on it that AEA uses. The other end has an edge connector with 12 position on each side, although only 6 of these are in use. It is in close to new condition. $10

AEA "HTM" microphone
This is an external microphone to use with the AEA series of HTs. It is in nice shape for $25

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Astron power supplies For Sale:

Astron RS-35 M
This supply produces 13.8 V DC at 25 amps continuous, and 35 amps intermittent. It has both an ammeter and a voltmeter, and is very heavy duty. This one works 100% and looks like it just came out of the box. $140

Astron VS-20 M
This supply is variable. One can adjust the voltage, and set the current limit with front panel controls. At 13.8 V DC it is rated at 16 amps continuous and 20 amps intermittent, however the current limit can be set, which is useful to protect the finals on many solid state rigs. It has both an ammeter and a voltmeter, although the ammeter has been replaced. Of course it works fine. $95

Astron RS-12 A
This supply is a 13.8 V DC supply, rated up to 12 amps intermittent duty. It works fine and looks fine also. $60

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3940. MFJ antenna tuner and other items FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3940 Message: 3940

For Sale:

MFJ 949 B antenna tuner

This antenna tuner is rated by MFJ to handle 300 Watts, although I really feel the standard 100 Watt rig is pretty much the limit. This unit has an SWR bridge built in, along with a wattmeter that reads 300 W and 30 W full scale. It also will handle two coax antennas, which can be used direct, or thru the tuner. It also includes a balun and separate antenna switch position for use with open wire line. It has an internal dummy load that MFJ rates at 300 Watts, but again, 100 W is the practical limit.

This particular unit works fine, and looks good, although it does have scratches around the ground post on the rear, plus a small barely visible scratch under the meter. $65

Tuning capacitors for MFJ tuners
These are exact replacement tuning capacitors as used in the 949 antenna tuner. I think most of the MFJ antenna tuners in the 300 watt class use the same capacitor. As far as I know, these are unused. Two are available for $15 each.

Other MFJ items:

MFJ 286 speaker microphone
This speaker mic can be used on most Kenwood
HTs. It is a standard size speaker mic -- not one of the sub-miniature types. It has not been used.
With paper work for $15.

MFJ 1305 "wall cube"
This produces 6 V DC at up to 200 ma, and is an actual MFJ. $10

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

Antenna Engineering 6 element 2 meter beam
This is a relatively small 2 meter antenna on an 8 foot boom. It is presently tuned for about 146.5 MHz. It is in good shape for $50.

Cushcraft AR-2 Ringo Vertical Omni Directional Antenna
For 2 meters, although it can be tuned to cover commercial frequencies either side of the amateur 2 meter band (about 130 to 170 MHz). It is rated to have 3.75 db gain.
This one is in very good shape. No weathering or corrosion that I can find. Of course the paper work is included. $40

Shakespeare Model 4616 omni directional antenna, suitable for use on a 2 meter repeater. This is equivalent to a super station master. It is large -- about 22 feet long, and very, very heavy duty. Gain is rated at 9 db, and it has an internal choke. It has an "N" connector, but I also have a 6 foot pigtail to go from the "N" connector to a SO-239.
This antenna is NEW. It has never been in the air, and has been stored inside. Because of its size, this must be pick up only in the Ocala, FL area, close to I-75. $ 250

Cushcraft 147-22 beam
This is a pair of 11 element 2 meter beams stacked to give a total of 22 elements.
Each 11 element beam is about 12 feet long, and the two are separated by a 5 foot boom. To put it another way, the antenna occupies a 12 by 5 foot rectangle.
Because of the size, this is pickup only in the Ocala, FL
area. For transportation, it can easily be disassembled into each beam by itself, and the boom, and then easily carried on top of a minivan, pickup truck, or whatever.
Paper work and all hardware, coax phasing lines, etc.
are included for $200.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3965. YAESU FC-20 AUTO ANTENNA TUNER

Date: 2006-04-22 07:46:38 UTC
From: David Chavez
Topic: 3965 Message: 3965

The FC-20 Auto Antenna tuner is designed specifically for the FT-100, FT-100D, and FT-847 transceivers. This auto tuner can accommodate two antenna inputs and it includes a cooling fan to ensure thermal stability of the critical matching elements within its compact case. The FC-20 is controlled from the tune button on the transceiver, providing microprocessor-based impedance matching on the 160 through 6 meter amateur bands. On HF, the impedance matching range is from 16.5 ohms to 150 ohms (up to 3:1 SWR), while on the 50 MHZ bands the impedance matching range is 25 ohms to 100 ohms (up to 2:1 SWR).
Maximum Power: 100 watts Matched SWR: 1.5:1 or less Tune-up Power: 50 watts
Tune-up Time: 30 seconds or less Impedance Matching Memories: 100 channels

The tuner is in excellent with few minor scratches on top. Used very little. The tuner comes with: radio to tuner interface control cable, manual, and original box. $225 shipped.

Hi all,

I've been sorting a box of left-overs [tech specials!] and have the following up for sale [as lots] with free CONUS shipping:

**

HT50 UHF 6ch radio and P100 UHF 2ch radio with antennas, batts, 2 chargers, 1 speaker/mic and a metal drop-in belt clip.
Excellent radios that talk to each other, only deficiency is the HT50 volume pot is scratchy. Both seem to work fine.
Nice big brick radios. P100 has DTMF front, HT does not. Great condition, look really nice, working. $55 all.

**

4 Vertex VX-10 radios. 'A' works great, just won't turn off, 'B' works great, cracked case [batt won't stay on], 'C' has cracked display and tx fine, rx requires slap/squeeze. 'D' has smashed display, tx but no rx, missing antenna.
radio/batt only. $46/all.

**

MISC Stuff w/free CONUS shipping :

1 Vertex speaker mic, MH-45, looks new, full-size sp/mic, has loud/soft button on top, tested/working. $26

1 MT1000/HT600 speaker mic, extremely good condition, tested/working. $22

2 ICOM speaker mics, HM138, look great, but NOT TESTED. I've no icoms to check them with so they're parts only. $20 both.

1 GP300 speaker mic clamping device. Screws into the antenna port and clamps the speaker mic plug in place.
[in other words, saves your main board!!] $15.

4 Vertex VX-10 or Yaesu FT-50 standard drop-in chargers, [CA-15 cups and NC-60B transformers included, work with VX and FT series radios, amateur/commercial] have number stickers on them, Excellent condition, tested and working, $25 each.

CONUS shipping is free, all items are 'as-is' with no return.

Paypal or Postal money order.

Thanks and email if interested.

3978. Several CW keys FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3978 Message: 3978

CW keys for sale:

Birnal Electric Manufacturing Co. solid brass key
This key has a rectangular base, similar to the Nye Viking Speed-X 320-001, but somewhat larger, thicker, and heavier duty. It is all brass, in every part, except for the nice Navy Knob. The contacts are about 3/16 inches in diameter, instead of just points as some keys have.
The action on this key is the finest I have ever used.
Really superb. Cosmetically, I have not cleaned it, as I do not want to destroy the "patina" of the brass. It is in nice, 100% working condition. $100

Speed-X chrome key with rectangular base
I can not find the Nye Viking model number for this one.
It looks like the Nye Viking 320-001, except it is chrome plated, instead of black crinkle. It might be the 320C-003 as shown at http://www.goofus.org/kk4dw3.html#MASTER except this one does not have a shorting switch. It is similar to the key at the extreme right shown at http://hedspeth.home.mindspring.com/cwkey.jpg except it is chrome on both the base and mechanism. It has a nice Navy knob, and very nice action. Being chrome plated, it looks very nice. $75

Military J-38 key
This is the "standard" straight key that has been used by the military for years and years. Shorting switch is included, along with many adjustments, so it can suit your fist. The black bakelite base is in good shape, as is the key itself.
Everything works fine for $38.

Speed-X Nye-Viking 310-003
The Speed-X 310-003 is the classic oval design (similar to a J-38), in black crinkle. It has a shorting switch. It looks really great, and of course works fine. $35

Generic straight key
This is a generic CW straight key with a plastic base. The key is nothing fancy, however, it is mounted on a very nice piece of Oak wood, that makes it look very nice. Cable included for $30.

Generic brass colored, oval base key
This is similar to a J-38 (without the bakelite base), but is a Japanese copy. It is brass colored, but is not real brass.

No shorting switch. It works fine and looks fine. $15

Other CW items:

Bencher BY-1 Paddle
Standard Bencher with black base and chrome parts.
In very, very nice condition for $ 65.

MFJ 422 B-X electronic keyer
This keyer includes sidetone, and has adjustments for volume, tone frequency, and weighting, as well as speed.
It will key either positive or negative voltages, and is powered by an internal 9 V battery, or external 5 to 9 volt supply.
It is made to go on the back of a Bencher Paddle.
It works 100%, and looks great also. With paper work for $45.

Cable for paddles
This cable is about 3 feet long, and has 1/4 inch stereo connector on the end, like used by most rigs. It looks great. $8

Cable for straight key Similar to cable for paddles, but has a mono 1/4 inch phone plug on it, as is used with a straight key. $5

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK

For Sale:

Johnson Viking Phone Patch - Model 250-46

This phone patch is made to be mounted vertically beside the rig. It is about 6 inches high, 2 inches wide and 3 inches deep. It is possible that the face plate can be removed, and it made to be mounted horizontally, but I have not done that. The reason I say this is that there are feet on the bottom, and on the left side. Maybe the feet on the left side are to protect the rig. In any case, it has 3 pots on the front for Null, Receive Volume, and transmit gain, along with a switch for phone patch or microphone. On the back is a terminal strip for speaker and phone line. The microphone input has the 2 pin Amphenol connector like used by Johnson and many others in that era.

Cosmetically, it is extremely good. Paint is nice and lettering close to perfect. There is a very minor scratch by the switch that switches between microphone and phone patch. $45

Johnson High Impedance hand microphone

This hand mic is dark gray in color, and has the Johnson Logo in the middle on the front, with Johnson written out toward the bottom of the front. It is a high Z crystal mic, like was used on most of the Johnson boat anchor rigs. Stripped leads on the end of the coiled cord. It has very good output, and looks nice as well. $30

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

3984. HT Battery Packs needed

Date: 2006-05-03 17:59:23 UTC
From: Pete Theer
Topic: 3984 Message: 3984

I am in need of some help. I have two Kenwood TR-2600A HT's with dead battery packs that won't take a charge. I recently bought three new NIMH Battery pack insert replacements from Battery Station. One of the packs I have is evidently defective and won't charge the new packs, while the other one is fine. (I can't find the third pack I had)

I have searched and searched but apparently no one sells the complete battery pack for this radio any longer (part number PB25 or PB26).

Does anyone have or know of a source for this battery pack, either complete, new, used or just the empty pack. Does anyone have an old "parts" TR-2500 or TR-2600 HT radio with good or bad pack laying around to dispose of cheap.

If you can help, please contact me OFF-LIST" at WB5RPU at ARRL.NET

Thanks,
Pete

3987. Wattmeter / SWR Bridges FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)

From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 3987 Message: 3987

Wattmeter / SWR Bridges For Sale:

Daiwa CN-520 "Cross needle" Wattmeter
This wattmeter does it all. It covers from 1.8 to 60 MHz, which means this one meter will measure power on all HF ham frequencies, plus six meters. It would be ideal for some of the new multiband rigs that have 1.8 to 55 MHz coming from one antenna connector, and 2 meters and 440 MHz from a separate connector. It has 2 power scales of 2000, and 200 watts on forward power, and 400 or 40 watts reflected, and uses a nice cross needle meter to read both forward and reflected power at the same time, with a cross scale for SWR. It works fine, and looks fine also. With paper work for $65.

Dual meter SWR Bridge:
Calrad 65-287 (same as Swan SWR-1 A)
This unit has two meters on it. The meter on the left reads forward power and the meter on the right reads reflected power. It is in a heavy metal enclosure with two SO-239 connectors coming out of the ends. It covers all HF frequencies, plus six meters, and also 2 meters with reduced accuracy and power. It works fine and looks like new. Not a scratch on it. It even still has the protective caps on the coax connectors. $ 25

ParaDynamics PDC-1
This HF wattmeter / SWR bridge will read forward and reflected power with either 100 W or 10 W full scale. It is relatively small, making it great for mobile operation. Of course with a 10 W scale, it would be useful for QRP operation as well. $18

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

TenTec Items For Sale:

TenTec Delta 580 HF transceiver
This transceiver will cover from 160 thru 10 meters with 100 Watts output. It has a nice red LED digital readout. Notch filter is built in. Of course it has the CW QSK that TenTec is famous for. It needs 13 V DC at about 20 amps to operate. This particular Delta works 100%, and looks very good also. The PTO has been rebuilt in the last couple years, so it works really great. Original manual is included for $300.

TenTec 299 Voice synthesized frequency read out
This unit is used with the TenTec Omni 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It will work with other rigs (such as the Triton), with minor mods to get the right connections.
The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. There is also a volume control on the front panel.
Of course it can also be used to give a "voice digital readout" to a rig with an analog dial.
This particular unit is in great shape electrically. Cosmetically it has some minor wear. $ 190

"Switcher / 25" 25 amp switching power supply
This is a 25 amp switching power supply in a case that matches the early Omni series case, with the metal bezel around it. It is in a case that is the same size as a 243 remote VFO. It has an ammeter on the front, along with Switch, TenTec logo, and output bulb. The front panel basically looks like a 280 power supply with a metal bezel, but says "Switcher/25" on it. It is very quiet, and well shielded, and does not produce any electrical noise that I could find. I am not positive if TenTec made this, or if it is homebrew to look like TenTec. If it is homebrew, it certainly is very professionally done. $150

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

FOR SALE:

REALISTIC DX150 and DX160 SHORTWAVE RECEIVERS.

This is a general coverage Shortwave and AM band receiver covering 535 kHz to 30 MHz in several bands, with bandspread tuning for the ham bands etc. Single conversion design produces extra clean signals.

The DX160 model includes the 150-400 kHz LF (longwave) band.
The DX150 does not. Made in Japan 1975-1980,
Voltages: 120 V AC OR 12 VDC.
Coverage: 150-30000 kHz Readout: Analog, Modes: AM, SSB & CW, Selectivity 4 kHz, Single Conversion Superhet.
Bands: 150 - 400 kHz, 535 - 1600 kHz, 1550 - 4500 kHz, 4.5 - 13 MHz, and 13 - 30 MHz.
Bandspread bands: 3.5-4, 7-7.3, 14-14.35, 21-21.4 and 28-29.7 MHz plus CB channels 1-23. Headphone jack, S-Meter, Mute Line
ANL, Dial Lamp, Standby, Bandspread, Antenna Trimmer, AVC.
New Price: $160 Used Price: $90 - 145
Dimensions: 14.5" wide X 6" high X 9" deep.

I have several of these receivers available for sale. Three are DX150 models.
The rest are all DX160 models. Some of them have all of the original knobs.
Some have one or two that are different. All of the receivers are being sold as-is. They are complete unless otherwise noted. At this point they are all untested and might work fine. Most of these need a new AC line cord.
The antenna connections have all been changed to BNC receptacles but that is no big deal and it's very easy to change one of these to an SO-239 if desired.
Some of these may have an extra sticker or two.

Most of these sets look a little used, and show some wear, but they would be great for a restoration project or to use as is if you are not looking for a collector's model, beauty queen receiver.

First come, first served means you will get the best choice up front if you buy now. I do not know if they work. I have not tested them,but since they were all removed from service from an active company when they were shut down, there is good reason to think that most of them work fine as-is. If you want them tested, then the price is going to go up a little, naturally.

These sets typical sell used in the range of $95.00 to $125.00.

I have ONE with no case for $25.00 plus shipping.
I have one with a slightly dented case for $30.00 plus shipping.
The others are all available for $45.00 each plus shipping.

Phone patches For Sale:

Johnson Viking Phone Patch - Model 250-46

This phone patch is made to be mounted vertically beside the rig. It is about 6 inches high, 2 inches wide and 3 inches deep. It is possible that the face plate can be removed, and it made to be mounted horizontally, but I have not done that. The reason I say this is that there are feet on the bottom, and on the left side. Maybe the feet on the left side are to protect the rig. In any case, it has 3 pots on the front for Null, Receive Volume, and transmit gain, along with a switch for phone patch or microphone. On the back is a terminal strip for speaker and phone line. The microphone input has the 2 pin Amphenol connector like used by Johnson and many others in that era.

Cosmetically, it is extremely good. Paint is nice and lettering close to perfect. The only scratch is a very, very minor scratch near the switch that switches between mic and phone patch. $45

FOR SALE: NINE ham band CR1A etc. crystals

Time to dust off those WW2 rigs and put them on the air.
Or homebrew something. I may even have a socket for these.

These are CR1A crystals with 1/2" [pin spacing, and pin diameter is slightly larger than an FT243. I may even have a socket or an adapter for these.

Frequencies:
7017.6, 7038.9, 7270.0, 7270.0, 7280.0, 10125.0 kHz 10141.7, 10208.3 kHz, 24.833 MHz

So, a kind of random mix of 40m and 30m and 12 meter rocks. Fun for homebrewing.

One has the pins slightly squeezed in but it still works fine...
All are CR1A rocks (8) except for the 7038.9 crystal which is in a DC35 holder from :Silver Cut Crystal Co." and has one slightly munged pin. Kind of a mongrel group, so the price is low, he he...

The first $18.00 plus $6.00 shipping takes them home.
E-mail me if you would like them. 73 - Brian, AF4K

VHF and UHF Mobile Antennas and Mounts For Sale:

VHF (2 meter) antennas:

Larsen NLA-150 coil only
For use with a 5/8 wave (approx 4 foot) antenna Fits the Larsen NLA mount and has about 3 db gain when used with a 5/8 wave whip. In very good shape. $11

Larsen NMO-150 coil only
Fits the NMO mount made by many different companies (including Larsen), and provides about 3 db gain, when used with a 5/8 wave (about 4 foot) whip. $18

The whips for these are hard to ship, and it is best to pick up a whip at your local Radio Shack, or similar store. I do have some whips. They are $6 each if you need them.

Larsen NLA-Q
Fits the Larsen NLA mount, but is a quarter wave antenna (about 19 inches on 2 meters, but can be cut for 220 or 440 MHz). Good condition for $7

Larsen Q
Fits a 5/16 inch stud, such as the Larsen LM mount, and others.
The whip can be cut for 2 meters, 220 MHz, or 450 MHz bands. $6

Antennas for 450 MHz:

Larsen NLA-450 coil and "stacked" whip
These fit the Larsen NLA mount, and have about 5 db gain on

Astron power supplies For Sale:

Astron VS-20 M
This supply is variable. One can adjust the voltage, and set the current limit with front panel controls. At 13.8 V DC it is rated at 16 amps continuous and 20 amps intermittent,
however the current limit can be set, which is useful to protect the finals on many solid state rigs. It has both an ammeter and a voltmeter, although the ammeter is not original. Of course it works fine. Cosmetically, I can not find any scratches. $90

Astron RS-12 A
This supply is a 13.8 V DC supply, rated up to 12 amps.
It works fine and looks fine also. $55

Hi,
I have a set of Hallicrafters Transmitter and Reciever for trade. They are the HT32A transmitter in nice shape and the SX111A reciever. I think the reciever may need some work, not sure. They are bothe in noce shape and the transmitter was working fine. They were my uncles radios and were given to me. I think I still have some manuals for them too. I am using more current radios and am not well healthwise so I can't use them like I had wanted to.
They are both very heavy and located in upstate NY.
I would like to trade for a nice base amplifier 80-10m and a nice desk microphone to use with a Kenwood TS430S
If you have anything and are interested, please let me know.
I am not interested in 11 meter amplifiers at all. Just leagle ham stuff. I may be interested in newer base hf radios too.
Thanks
Rich

some of the "crud" from images, strong broadcast stations, etc., as well as giving additional amplification for receivers that have marginal gain, especially on the higher HF bands, such as many of the older receivers. It is housed in a very nice

Does anyone have an older two meter ham rig and need crystals?

Maybe I can help. I have some of both transmit and receive 2 meter xtals. Most are in the 146 and 147 MHz band segments, with very, very few in the 145 MHz segment, and none in the 144 MHz segment. These are for ham rigs only, and not commercial rigs.

These are all the small HC-25 xtals, like were used in most of the solid state 2 meter mobiles and HTs. Please e-mail the operating frequency you need. I have them listed by operating frequency and rig, and not by actual xtal frequency.
Send the frequencies you need (transmit or receive), and the rig that you have, and I will see if I can help. I have cross references for the various rigs, so I will know what you need if you give the rig.

I also have 224.94 xmt for Midland 13-509 and most other xtal rigs

440 MHz for SBE-450, and maybe others:
444.20 receive
449.20 xmt

Crystals are $5 each, plus shipping from Florida.

I have special crystals that are used in the Kenwood TS-700 to give crystal control when needed (more stability than the VFO) 146.19
146.64
These are special cut crystals, so they are $10 each.

Thanks.

*THIS IS ONE OF THE LAST OF THE GREAT*******

looking for a perfect Yaesu FT-101F transceiver to complete your collection. I can report that this rig is 100% in perfect condition. Its has new tubes on it. very good in and out for its age. This rig puts out 130 full wattage, its has all 10-160 meter crystals, all cables and power cables , a original manual, Whisper fan, this is a one owner transceiver. I am letting this one go to make some room for my other rigs. This is the F model, is the last one made in this classic series. It still in great condition on the front, side, and top, and is not discolored, it has never been in a smoking environment and is perfect in every way and I do mean PERFECT. I have fully tested it and did perform a complete, alignment as well as neutralize the tubes in the PA and it certainly is a top performer, this was the last of the true 101's that had all of the mod's and upgrades performed over previous models and it certainly shows that in its performance. All controls are smooth as well as being dust free and the main VFO is silky smooth as expected with no slop or free play, the rig is very sensitive and a delight to use, this has to be the perfect FT-101F.

Please note:

That rig comes with several other accessories for this station including a Matching Phone Patch Speaker,FV-101B VFO, Yaesu YC-601B Digital Display and a Classic Turner+2 Mic, the complete line. How perfect can you get. I know collecting the right radio like this will take months of looking around. Believe me I look for radio so I know. If you have any questions feel free to e-mail me. VHF and UHF Mobile Antennas and Mounts For Sale:

VHF (2 meter) antennas:

Larsen NLA-150 coil only
For use with a 5/8 wave (approx 4 foot) antenna Fits the Larsen NLA mount and has about 3 db gain when used with a 5/8 wave whip. In very good shape. $11

Larsen NMO-150 coil only
Fits the NMO mount made by many different companies (including Larsen), and provides about 3 db gain, when used with a 5/8 wave (about 4 foot) whip. $18

The whips for these are hard to ship, and it is best to pick up a whip at your local Radio Shack, or similar store. I do have some whips. They are $6 each if you need them.

Larsen NLA-Q
Fits the Larsen NLA mount, but is a quarter wave (about 19 inch) antenna. Good condition for $7

Larsen Q
Fits a 5/16 inch stud, such as the Larsen LM mount, and others.
The whip can be cut for 2 meters, 220 MHz, or 450 MHz bands. $6

Antennas for 450 MHz:

Larsen NLA-450 coil and "stacked" whip
These fit the Larsen NLA mount, and have about 5 db gain on the 70 cm band. Stacked whip is included. In nice shape. $14

Larsen "OM" coil and mount
This is made to mount on a flat surface, and requires 3 mounting bolts, plus a hole in the center for the coax. It does not require a ground plane, so is useful on sailboats, and other places where a ground plane is not available.
OM-450 - For 70 cm band. Includes "stacked" whip for 5 db gain.
Good condition for $20.

Mobile antenna mounts for sale:

Larsen NMO-MM
Magnetic mount for use with NMO-Q, NMO-150, and NMO-450
antennas made by Larsen and others. Coax is included, with a PL-259 connector. Very nice condition for $25

Magnetic mount with coax
Standard 3/8 inch 24 thread, about 3 inches in diameter, and black in color. Suitable for 2 meter, 440 MHz, or 6 meter antenna.
Very good condition. $15

HyGain TLM Trunk Lip Mount
This trunk lip mount has a 5/16 inch stud on it.
Ideal for 1/4 wave antenna. With coax for $14

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

4076. TenTec 243 remote VFO and other items FS

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2006-07-22 14:59:23 UTC
From: Ken Simpson, W8EK
Topic: 4076 Message: 4076

TenTec items for sale:

TenTec 243 remote VFO for Omni 545 and 546
This remote VFO is designed to operate with the early Omni series to provide a second VFO for operating "split".
In addition to offering the normal split operations, it also permits one to receive on two frequencies simultaneously.
Its styling matches the Omni, including the extruded ring around the bezel.

This particular VFO looks like it just came out of the box from TenTec. There is not a scratch, dent, ding, or wear mark on it. It looks perfect. All bulbs work as well, and the PTO is nice and smooth. Of course it operates fine also.

Manual is included for $140.

Other TenTec items:

TenTec 217 narrow CW 500 hz Crystal Filter
It can be used in the Omni 546 (series B and C), Omni V, VI, Argosy, or as roofing filters in the Orion I. It is for the 9 MHz IF.
Like new with paper work for $75.

TenTec 218 narrow SSB / wide CW filter
1800 Hz, for the 9 MHz IF. Will work in the older Omni 546 (series B and C), the newer Omnis in the 9 MHz IF, and in the Argosy, and can also be used as a roofing filter in the Orion I. Like new, with the paper work for $75.

TenTec 252 MO power supply, 20 amp, 13 V DC supply.
Matches the Omni series of transceivers. It has an ammeter on front. It works 100% and looks very good.
No scratches or imperfections. With manual for $ 110

TenTec 299 Voice synthesized frequency read out
This unit is used with the TenTec Omni 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It will work with other rigs (such as the Triton), with minor mods to get the right connections.
The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. There is also a volume control on the front panel.

Of course it can also be used to give a "voice digital readout"
to a rig with an analog dial.
This particular unit is in great shape electrically. Cosmetically it has some very minor wear. $ 190 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

FOR SALE: RADIO SHACK DX150A and DX150B Receivers in fairly good condition
This is a general coverage Shortwave and AM band receiver covering 535 kHz to 30 MHz in several bands, with bandspread tuning for the ham bands etc.

Made in Japan, Voltages: 120 V AC OR 12 VDC.
Readout: Analog, Modes: AM, SSB & CW, Selectivity 4 kHz, Single Conversion Superhet Bands: 535 - 1600 kHz, 1550 - 4500 kHz, 4.5 - 13 MHz, and 13 - 30 MHz.
Bandspread bands: 3.5-4, 7-7.3, 14-14.35, 21-21.4 and 28-29.7
MHz plus CB channels 1-23
Headphones jack, S-Meter, Mute Line, ANL, Dial Lamp, Standby, Bandspread, Antenna Trimmer, AVC.
New Price: $160 Used Price: $75 - 95
Dimensions: 14.5" wide X 6" high X 9" deep.

I have three of these receivers available for sale.
There are 2 DX150A models, ONE DX150B (with mechanical filter.)
Some have one or two knobs that are different. A couple of these have the AF gain pot removed. All of the receivers are being sold as-is.
They are complete unless otherwise noted.
Each of these needs an AC line cord. The antenna connections have been changed to BNC receptacles but that is no big deal and it's very easy to change one of these to an SO-239 if desired. Some of these may have an extra sticker or two.

Most of these sets look a little used, and show some wear, but they would be great for a restoration project or to use as is if you are not looking for a collector's model, beauty queen receiver.

I do not know if they work. I have not tested them.
They will need an AC cord and some need a volume pot.

NOTES:
DX-150A manufactured 1969 - 1971 - has FET front-end.
DX-150B manufactured 1972 - 1974 - has Five FETs AND mechanical filter.

I will supply a copy of the operators manual AND the service manual with each of these radios. The manuals include the schematic diagrams etc.

The DX150B receiver is available for $45.00 plus shipping.
Two radios (DX150A) are available for $39.00 each plus shipping

~Yaesu FT-840 HF Radio~
Please review the entire listing to ensure we have a pleasant transaction.

Item Description

I purchased this radio a few weeks ago. Unfortunately, this radio doesn't transmit. Yaesu FT-840 general Band from 1.8-29.990 mhz in AM, LSB, USB, CW or FM (FM card is optional). The radio receives well on all bands. I pulled the case off and the AF board works fine. The rest of the boards look good. The VFO knob operates fine. I know that the Yaesu radio relays go out quite often, and perhaps that is what is wrong with this radios, but I don't have to desire to work on it or try and find someone else to work on it. Cosmetically, looks great. Personally, I would consider this radio a very nice radio. FT-840, would be an acceptable field or backup radio once the transmit is fixed. Transceiver comes with MH-1 Microphone and power cord. "clean rig"
For full specs go to www.yaesu.com and enter "FT-840" in the search field

Shipping
Pick-up is great or I will try to keep shipping costs low.

Payments
Payment is to be made via Pay pal or money order will be fine with me. Still have questions? Please email me ASAP.. I will respond as quickly as I can! Selling price is $200.00

Hey all, have for trade six Vertex VX10 radios w/accys.

I'm looking to trade them for something along these lines:

100w HF radio, commercial, ham, marine. [VFO or programmable from the front.]
iCOM R3 comm /video receiver

Otherwise, I'll work a different deal on items such as:
Icom V8000
a quality variable DC power supply.
VX-1 w/accys
High-end mobile/base scanners.

NOT interested in tube stuff, lights/sirens, or misc electronic parts.
May consider trades on other items such as paramedic gear or .military gear.

If you have something you'd like to trade just email.

I'll be happy to provide you with references and info.

Prefer trading ConUS only, but will trade internationally on a 'you first' basis.
Thanks!
Randy

4086. Watkins Johnson RS111-1B 39 for sale

From: frasercastle
Topic: 4086 Message: 4086

I have just discovered this group and thought it a sensible place to make this post.

I own a Watkins-Johnson/CEI RS111-1B 39 surveilance receiver. It covers 30MHZ to 1GHz and has a panoramic display built in. Apparently this type of receiver was used in the Watergate bugging incident !

It has sat in my loft for a few years. It seems a pity for it not to be used or displayed in a collection so I am now looking to rehome it. (I have too many radios and a wife who does not appreciate them !)

The receiver is in good used condition (not mint) and the front panel is in very good condition. I have yet to test it (but will do so) but I see no reason why it will not still be working OK. It is complete and has no missing parts or damage (except the usual wear and tear on the aluminium case covers).

Does anyone have any idea what one of these receivers is worth on the private market or does anyone want to make me a decent offer for it ?

I am located in central England UK and suspect that postage costs would be high as it is an awfully heavy receiver !

Cheers

Fraser

I have some lengths of coaxial cable available. Most have PL-259 connectors on each end. Most are either 50 or 100 feet long. The coax is mainly Belden 8214, which is RG-8

All will be checked for loss before shipping, and will be within 10% of published specs (that is as close as I can check).

100 feet, with PL-259 on each end - $44

50 feet with PL-259 on each end - $ 24

Other lengths may be available, and I have a few with a PL-259 on only one end. Most of the shorter lengths are now gone, but I do have a few left. Please let me know what you need, and I will see what I can do.

Coaxial cable jumpers with N connectors

These jumper cables are made with solid (not foam) dielectric RG-213 type cable, and were intended to be

Eight feet long, with Male N on one end, and an SO-239

4095. Ham Rotors and accessories FS

Ham Rotors and accessories For Sale:

Ham IV Rotor and Control Box
The Ham IV is rated for 15 square feet of antenna, up to a 40 foot boom, and has a newer, heavier duty brake. It has a turning power of 800 lbs and a brake power of 5000 pounds. There are 96 dual race ball bearings. It has the newer black control box. This one is in very nice shape, and includes all of the stainless steel hardware, along with the paper work. These go for about $550 new. Get this one for half price -- $275.

Ham III Rotor and Control Box
The Ham III is similar to the Ham IV, but an earlier version. It is for up to a 30 foot boom on the antenna. Other specs are similar to the Ham IV. The control box has a metal enclosure. This one is in good shape, with all of the stainless steel hardware, for $ 200.

Ham M Rotor and Control Box
The Ham M is a bit older than the Ham IV, but still a very healthy rotor. It is rated for up to a 24 foot boom antenna. This one is in good shape, but has had a couple modifications to the control box, to make it similar to the Ham II and Ham III control box. Two knobs have been added at the lower left and lower right, below the meter. One is an on-off switch, and the other is the calibration control, brought out to the front so one does not need to reach behind the control box, as was done originally. In addition, a zener diode has been added to stabilize the voltage for the position indicator. With paper work and stainless steel hardware for $185.

Ham M control box only
This is a series 4 control box only, and is in nice condition. Paper work is included for $70.

Lower mast support
Heavy duty type, made to go with the Ham IV. I do not think this one has been used, as it is still in the plastic. It includes all of The stainless steel hardware. New, these go for about $90. Get this one for $50.

Lower mast support
This is also the heavy duty type, as used on a Tail Twister rotor. It is heavier duty than the Ham IV lower mast bracket. This one has been used. It includes the clamps to clamp to the mast, and one stainless steel U bolt and hardware. One U bolt is missing, but can easily be obtained locally. $45

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

4107. RE: [ham4sale] Motorola Code Synthesizer (I) R1100A

Yahoo group: ham4sale (1998 — 2006)
Date: 2006-08-27 18:41:52 UTC
From: Butch Kanvick
Topic: 2380 Message: 4107

I have a "Like New" Motorola Code Synthesizer (I) R1100A for sale.

I put the I in the name as Motorola made two versions of these.
The first version is the one that I have for sale. The second version would allow the technician to do Digital paging codes. Version I does not have that feature.

Model Number R100A, Serial Number 261CFU0017

Can be powered via AC or DC but I do not have the DC cable.

This is produces the industry standard tones for paging systems, DPL (Digital Private Line) Tone Remote testing, and Telephone Dial (DTMF) testing.

Modes:
Paging tones A, B, or A & B, DPL, DPL Invert, Tone Remote, Telephone Dial (DTMF), Timing System controls the timing of the paging tones:

Tone Only, Tone-Voice, Tone-BS (Battery Saver) Group Call, Variable 1, Variable 2.

This code synthesizer has had little use and it almost looks new, plus I have the Operating Manual for it also.

I need $200.00 for this and that includes UPS Ground insured shipping.

I purchased this a few years ago and I paid $400.00 for it.
The service monitor that I now have has these features and I no longer need this code synthesizer.

I have pictures if you need them.

Thanks, Butch KE7FEL

Astron power supplies For Sale:

Astron VS-20 M
This supply is variable. One can adjust the voltage, and set the current limit with front panel controls. At 13.8 V DC it is rated at 16 amps continuous and 20 amps intermittent,
however the current limit can be set, which is useful to protect the finals on many solid state rigs. It has both an ammeter and a voltmeter. Of course it works fine. $90

Astron RS-12 A
This supply is a 13.8 V DC supply, rated up to 12 amps
intermittent duty. It works fine and looks fine also. $55

VHF and UHF Mobile Antennas and Mounts For Sale:

VHF (2 meter) antennas:

Larsen NLA-150 coil only
For use with a 5/8 wave (approx 4 foot) antenna Fits the Larsen NLA mount and has about 3 db gain when used with a 5/8 wave whip. In very good shape. $11

Larsen NMO-150 coil only
Fits the NMO mount made by many different companies (including Larsen), and provides about 3 db gain, when used with a 5/8 wave (about 4 foot) whip. $18

The whips for these are hard to ship, and it is best to pick up a whip at your local Radio Shack, or similar store. I do have some whips. They are $6 each if you need them.

Larsen NLA-Q
Fits the Larsen NLA mount, but is a quarter wave (about 19 inch) antenna. Good condition for $7

Larsen Q
Fits a 5/16 inch stud, such as the Larsen LM mount, and others.
The whip can be cut for 2 meters, 220 MHz, or 450 MHz bands. $6

Antennas for 450 MHz:

Larsen NLA-450 coil and "stacked" whip
These fit the Larsen NLA mount, and have about 5 db gain on the 70 cm band. Stacked whip is included. In nice shape. $14

Larsen "OM" coil and mount
This is made to mount on a flat surface, and requires 3 mounting bolts, plus a hole in the center for the coax. It does not require a ground plane, so is useful on sailboats, and other places where a ground plane is not available.
OM-450 - For 70 cm band. Includes "stacked" whip for 5 db gain.
Good condition for $20.

Mobile antenna mounts for sale:

Larsen NMO-MM
Magnetic mount for use with NMO-Q, NMO-150, and NMO-450
antennas made by Larsen and others. Coax is included, with a PL-259 connector. Very nice condition for $25

Magnetic mount with coax
Standard 3/8 inch 24 thread, about 3 inches in diameter, and black in color. Suitable for 2 meter, 440 MHz, or 6 meter antenna.
Very good condition. $15

HyGain TLM Trunk Lip Mount
This trunk lip mount has a 5/16 inch stud on it.
Ideal for 1/4 wave antenna. With coax for $14

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

TenTec items for sale:

TenTec 585 Paragon HF transceiver
This rig covers 160 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands. It has a general coverage receiver, and includes SSB, CW, and AM. An optional FM adapter is available for it. Of course it has digital readout, memories, scan, dual VFOs, PBT, notch filter, etc. Up to 100 Watts output, that can be adjusted down to mw. This particular unit works 100% and looks fine also. Big inch thick manual is included.
TenTec sells these used for $795. This one is $650.

TenTec 299 Voice synthesized frequency read out
This unit is used with the TenTec Omni 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It will work with other rigs (such as the Triton), with minor mods to get the right connections.
The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. There is also a volume control on the front panel.
Of course it can also be used to give a "voice digital readout"
to a rig with an analog dial.
This particular unit is in great shape electrically. Cosmetically
it has some very minor wear. $ 190

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

For Sale:

Kenwood TR-2400, 2 meter FM HT

The TR-2400 covers the 2 meter band with about 1.5 watts of power. It has memories, scan, etc. Compared to some of the newer HTs, this one is very easy to operate.

This particular TR-2400 works fine. It looks good, but not mint. The battery pack has been replaced with NiMH batteries, which seem to hold a charge fine, although one never knows when they may need to be replaced.
The LCD display is clear, with no defects.

The TR-2400 had a place to install an optional PL subaudible tone encoder. I have a new, still in the original package, encoder that I will include with the HT. I planned to install it,
but never did.

Charger, rubber duck antenna, and paper work are included
for $60 plus shipping from Florida.

For Sale:

Vectronics VC-300 DLP HF antenna tuner

This is NOT the Viewstar VS-300 antenna tuner, but is a much more sophisticated unit. The VC-300 DLP has a fairly large cross needle meter for reading both forward and reverse power simultaneously, and hence the SWR.
It will read either average or peak power, with scales of 30 Watts and 300 Watts. In addition, a dummy load is included inside, as is a 4 to 1 balun. The meter can be back lighted if you apply 12 V DC. The tuner also has an antenna switch built in, that will switch between "tuned" and "straight thru" operation, in addition to various antennas. It will tune 160 thru 10 meters.

These units sell for about $170 new. This one is in extremely nice condition, both electrically and cosmetically. The manual is included for $135, plus shipping from Florida.

Hi all, I have for sale a gateway solo 2500 laptop. it has a 400 MHz processor, 196 MB of RAM, a 6 GB HD, 56 I PCMCIA Xircom cradit card modem, 1 serial port, 1 parallel port, VGA port, 2 USB, RCA jack for hooking to TV for display, docking station hookup, infered port, CD ROM drive, floppy drive, touch pad mouse, PS2 port for adding a keyboard or mouse, sound card with the speakers in the front of the laptop and headphone and mic and line in ports, thumb wheel volume control. unit is in great shape and works great. I have a new laptop and this is my backup, unfortunately I need money right now more than the computer, it's in great shape other than 1 small crack on the back of the display by the hinge which was known to happen on all of these laptops due to the design of the hinge, does not take away from performance or anything. It comes with windows 98 installed, and the CD, the drivers CD's for everything that comes with it, charger and the battery. Battery doesn't last as long as it used to but there is a program on the gateway site that reconditions the battery and last time I lost some battery life it did restore it back to original life but being that it's older it probably is gone. The manual is also included. This would make a great computer for some one on a budget going to school or ham shack for packet or logging which I used it for a couple years, or anything that doesn't require the latest and greatest. It works great, I used it on vacation when my other laptop was not working for internet and everything and it runs very well. I'm asking $100 for it plus shipping, I'll consider reasonable offers. For an additional $15, I'll throw in a linksys WRC11 WIFI card. Not sure if I'll throw in the carrying case just yet or not but probably. Email n1umj@... if interested.

Code practice oscillators for sale:

Nye Viking code practice oscillator
This includes the Nye 310-001 oval key on a nice base, with a tone oscillator mounted on the same base. It is powered by a 9 volt battery. Suggestion: Get the entire code practice oscillator, then when you get your code speed up, and need a nice key, remove the key from the base (2 screws), and use it on the air.
This one works 100%, and looks really great. Not a scratch on it. Just the key normally sells for $40 used, but get the entire unit for only $50.

MFJ 557 code practice oscillator
This is a traditional code practice oscillator, with adjustable volume and tone. It includes a straight key on a nice base. Just like new. It operates from a 9 volt battery. With paper work for $ 25.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

corners. This one is in very nice shape, with no scratches, dents, or dings. $20

4167. MFJ switches and other misc items FS

MFJ items for sale:

MFJ 1272 switches to transfer between microphone and TNC

MFJ made these so it would be easy to use a TNC such as the AEA PK-232, or the Kantronics KAM, etc. The small box has a socket to plug your microphone into on the front, along with a switch to switch between mic or TNC. There are two cables coming out of the back, with one going to the mic jack on your rig, and other going to your TNC. There is also provisions for receive audio in, and an external speaker. No power is required.
Inside the box is a series of jumpers, so that it can be configured for any rig. Paper work is included that shows how to set the jumpers for most of the common rigs (Kenwood, Yaesu, Icom, Alinco, etc.).

I have three of these boxes available. All are in A-1 shape, and work 100%. They are $30 each.

MFJ 1272 MX - Designed for the newer 8 pin RJ-45 mic connectors (like on a computer network) and the AEA PK-232

MFJ 1272 BX - Designed for the round 8 pin microphone connector and the AEA PK-232

MFJ 1272 BYV - Designed for the round 8 pin microphone connector and the Kantronics TNCs (with DB-9 connector)

MFJ 557 code practice oscillator
This is a traditional code practice oscillator, with adjustable volume and tone. It includes a straight key on a nice base.
It operates from a 9 volt battery. Just like new, with paper work for $ 25.

MFJ 1305 "wall cube"
This produces 6 V DC at up to 200 ma, and is used to power such things as keyers, lights on tuners, and many other misc. applications. Of course it can power many things other than MFJ items, but this one is an actual MFJ. $10

MFJ 704 low pass filter
This filter is made to go on the output of your rig to help get rid of TVI and harmonic interference. It is rated at 1500 Watts, even with a 2:1 SWR, and is in a very study black metal case with SO-239 connectors on each end. Operating frequency is listed as 1.5 to 30 MHz. It is a 50 ohm filter.
This one works fine, includes paper work, and looks very close to new. These are $50 new, but you can have this one for $35.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

CW keys for sale:

Military J-37 "Mae West" key with cord
This J-37 key is mounted on an "I" shaped bakelite board, such that the approximate 8 foot long cord can be wrapped around the middle of the key. This particular key looks as perfect as can be. The only "defect" is the fact that some of the knurled nuts are not as shinny as they were 60 years ago. There is no paint missing. $50

Military J-37 "Leg Key"
This J-37 leg key has the hinge on it so that it can be used on a regular table, or on the leg. The actual key is a Winslow Tele-tronics, Inc., 64150. Although this seems hard to believe, it looks very close to new. There are no defects. All paint looks like new. $75

Bencher BY-1 Iambic Paddle.
True Bencher, and not the MFJ clone. This has the black base, with chrome parts. It looks like new (no scratches or blemishes of any sort), and works the same. $65

J-38 Japanese copy
This is not the real thing, but is a Japanese copy.
The metal is simply brass colored , but it does have a shorting switch and ball bearings. $20

[Moderator's note: I'm not sure if this radio is a CB or a ham radio. I remember the Uniden President line being CB. Before buying make sure the radio is what you think it is.]

Uniden President HR-2600 ten meter ham transceiver with Chipswitch modification. This radio has the high-output transistor, and last time I put a wattmeter on the output it was at 40 watts. There is a mini-cooling fan attached to the rear heat sink that runs when you transmit. This radio operates AM-FM-CW-LSB-USB, and uses the Chipswitch mod. Here are some of the features that the Chipswitch employs: 30 MEMORY CHANNELS WITH TEMPORARY CHANNEL LOCKOUT AND REPEATER OFFSETS, PROGRAMMABLE SCAN/SEEK FUNCTION, PROGRAMMABLE CHANNEL UP/DN BUTTONS, PROGRAMMABLE MICROPHONE CHANNEL UP/DN BUTTONS, SPLIT FREQUENCY OPERATION, PROGRAMMABLE TRANSMITTER TIMEOUT, This radio has been my personal mobile for a year, and I am parting with it only because I'm going to put another low-band rig in the car. The radio comes with microphone, +12VDC power cord, mic clip, instructions for both the radio and Chipswitch functions. Sorry, no mobile bracket. I will only ship to CONUS, no foreign countries, no Alaska nor Hawaii. $245 shipped, & insurance included. Prefer PayPal, but will accept certified check or money order.

Kenwood items For Sale:

Kenwood TH-225 HT for 2 meters
This HT includes DTMF touch tone pad, multiple memories, scan, and sub-audible (PL) tone encode. Power output is about 5 watts in high power, or .7 W in low. It will receive up in to the weather frequencies (162 MHz). It includes the Kenwood PB-12 high capacity 12 volt battery, which is in good condition.
This particular unit works 100% and looks extremely nice.
Paper work is included, along with charger and rubber duck antenna for $80

Kenwood TR-2400, 2 meter FM HT
The TR-2400 covers the 2 meter band with about 1.5
watts of power. It has memories, scan, DTMF Touch tone pad, etc. Compared to some of the newer HTs, this one is very easy to operate.
This particular TR-2400 works fine. It looks good, but not mint. The battery pack has been replaced with NiMH batteries, which seem to hold a charge fine.
The LCD display is clear, with no defects.
The TR-2400 had a place to install an optional PL subaudible tone encoder. I have a new, still in the original package, encoder that I will include with the HT. I planned to install it,
but never did.
Charger, rubber duck antenna, and paper work are included
for $60.

Small Kenwood hand microphone
This is like the small hand mic that came with the Kenwood TR-7400. It is a 500 ohm dynamic mic.
No model number on it, but it looks close to new,
and works fine. If you like a smaller mic, compared to the MC-35 or MC-30, this is it. $30

Kenwood MJ-68 microphone connector adapter Converts a round 6 pin Kenwood mic connector, so it can be plugged into a Kenwood rig with the round 8 pin connector. Like new. $20

Kenwood TU-4 C
Subaudible (PL) encoder for Kenwood TW-4000
This unit provides separate tones for the VHF (2 m) portion and the UHF (440 MHz) portion. It plugs in to the TW-4000 to provide the tones. No adjustments are normally needed.

This one is in its original box with paper work, hardware, etc.
$60

Kenwood SMC-25 speaker microphone Fits TR-2500 HT and others. This one looks fine and works fine. $20

Power cord for TR-9000, and other rigs that have the 2 pin connector that looks a bit like a TV set cheater cord. It is a rectangular connector about 1/2 inch long and 1/4 inch wide, with a notch on one side. $8

Power cord for many of the newer 2 meter and 440 MHz rigs that take the "T" 2 pin connector. This fits many rigs other than Kenwood rigs. $12

Kenwood PB-21 battery pack for TH-21 / 31 / 41 series HTs
This battery pack does not hold a charge well. Physically it is fine, but it needs a new "insert" in it. $15

Antenna adapter for Kenwood TH-21 / 31 / 41 HTs
This adapts the antenna connector found on these HTs to a standard BNC connector. $3

Special Rubber Duck antennas for Kenwood TH-21 series HTs with the threaded connector
Aftermarket stubby, 3.3 inches long $10
Kenwood RA-8 Stubby, 4 inches long $12
Kenwood regular, 6.6 inches long $10
Combo set of long 11.5 inch "gain" antenna and 4 inch stubby - $22

Antenna adapter to fit the BNC connector on the HT and provide an SO-239 connector that will permit a PL-259 to be attached. $5

Belt clip for TR-2400 HT, complete with hardware - $8

Wrist strap - I think it fits most Kenwood (and maybe other) HTs - $4

Battery charge cable for Kenwood TR-2400 HT
This is an adapter that permits one to charge the battery of the Kenwood TR-2400, 2 meter HT, outside of the HT itself. Usually, one must have the battery inside the HT, but this lets you charge a second battery outside of the HT. The original charger is used.
It is in good shape, and works fine. $3

Service manual for Kenwood TR-2600 HT - $10

Service manual for Kenwood TW-4000 dual band transceiver - $15

Operators manual for Kenwood TW-4000 - $15

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

This was intended as a crystal calibrator, but could readily be used as a small ham band xmtr.

Comes with the AC cable built in, and a 2000 kc. crystal at present.

Anyone interested in owning this oldie by goodie?

TenTec items for sale:

TenTec 585 Paragon HF transceiver
This rig covers 160 thru 10 meters, including the WARC bands. It has a general coverage receiver, that includes SSB, CW, and AM. An optional FM adapter is available for it. Of course it has digital readout, memories, scan, dual VFOs, PBT, notch filter, etc. Up to 100 Watts output, that can be adjusted down to mw. This particular unit works 100% and looks fine also. Big inch thick manual is included.
TenTec sells these used for $795. This one is $650.

TenTec 299 voice synthesized frequency read out/counter

This unit is used as a voice read out of operating frequency with the TenTec Omni 545 or 546 series A, B, C, some Argonauts, Corsair, and others. It will work with other rigs, with minor mods to get the right connections.

The 299 is used primarily for blind hams who can not read the frequency readout on the transceiver. By pushing a button, it will "speak" the frequency (to tenth of a KHz). A front panel switch permits selection of the entire frequency, or you can eliminate the MHz, and give only the KHz. Volume control on the front panel.

It can also be used as a frequency counter. Of course it can be used to give a "voice digital readout" to a rig with an analog dial.

This particular unit works 100%. Cosmetically it has slight minor wear. $190

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

Coaxial cable for sale:

I have some lengths of coaxial cable available. Most have PL-259 connectors on each end. The coax is mainly Belden 8214, which is RG-8 low loss foam, slightly under 1/2 inch in diameter. Some lengths may be other equivalent brands.

All lengths over 25 feet will be checked for loss before shipping, and will be within 10% of published specs (that is as close as I can check). Lengths shorter than 25 feet are almost impossible to measure loss accurately, but they will be checked with an ohmmeter.

Lengths vary from a couple feet to about 100 feet. Although most have a PL-259 on each end, I have a few with a PL-259 on only one end, and some with no connectors. Please let me know what you need, and I will see what I can do.

Belden 8214 is presently selling for about $1.35 a foot in 500 foot coils. My price is basically 40 cents a foot, plus $2 per installed PL-259 connector.

Coaxial cable jumpers with N connectors

These jumper cables are made with solid (not foam) dielectric RG-213 type cable.

Two feet long, Male N to Female N. Female end has a weatherproof rain boot. $8

Two feet long, with Male N connector on each end, with rain boot. $10

Four feet long, with Male N on one end, and nothing on the other end. $5

Hey boys and girls just in time for the Christmas,for that Siltronix nut on your list.I have a Siltronix FS-07 Combination SWR meter and antenna matcher for sale or trade.
It is in near mint condition I give it a 9.9 out of 10 for cosmetics a 10 for operation. It comes with the original box but one of the flaps is gone.I don't have the owners manual.
I'm asking $25,this includes the shipping to the lower 48 or I'll consider a trade.I'm looking for a working Turner RK-70 that is not beat up, a working Turner Super Sidekick desk mic or an Astatic 10 DA mic head.

Coaxial antenna switches for sale:

B & W 595 coax switch
This one switches 5 antennas, and is in a rectangular box with all 6 SO-239 connectors coming out the back of the box. Unused antennas ARE grounded.
It works fine. With paper work for $40

B & W ??? Coax switch
This coax switch will switch up to 5 antenna. It is round, and has six SO-239 connectors on the back, so the coax comes out the back in a large bundle. Unused connections are not grounded. Face plate is missing, and I do not remember the model number. It is in a round sealed can for excellent shielding, with a very large black knob. It is in great condition, for $35.

B & W Model 550 A coax switch
This model will switch up to 5 antennas, and does NOT ground unused antennas. It has SO-239 connectors, with the coax coming out like spokes of a wheel.
It is in good condition and works fine. $ 35

Heath HD-1234 coaxial switch
This coax switch has SO-239 connectors arranged so the coax comes out like the spokes of a wheel. It will switch up to 4 antennas, and also ground all of the antennas. It works fine and looks fine also. With mounting bracket for $ 25.

HD-1234 coax switch
As above, but has an "N" connector instead of an SO-239 for the common input connector. The remaining connectors are SO-239. $25

AmComm JV-104 coax switch Switches 3 antennas, with SO-239 connectors. It is in a nice black rectangular box about 4 x 3 x 3 inches in size. Very nice condition. $25

B & W 591 A Coax "Transfer" Switch
This switch is designed to switch an auxiliary piece of equipment in and out (For example, bypass a linear amplifier, transverter, preamp, etc.). It has four SO-239 connectors. It works fine and is in great shape for $ 35.

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

From: Bob Fish K6GGO
Topic: 4203 Message: 4203

Hi Guys,
I am looking for a dow key relay or some other type of coaxial relay to be used for T/R switching. If any of you have one laying around that you don't need I would be happy to buy it. Or, maybe some one has a clever homebrew way of t/r switching a boatanchor receiver and transmitter to the same antenna. I think I read somewhere about using open frame relays or something.

Thanks in advance,

Bob K6GGO

Heath items for sale:

Heath HM-2102 VHF wattmeter, covering 50 to 160 MHz.
Similar to the HM-102, but for VHF frequencies, with 250 and 25 watt scales. It can also be used to check SWR, and has a remote sensor that can either be left inside the meter, or separated from the actual meter.
SO-239 connectors in and out. This particular meter works great, looks great and includes paper work for $ 40.

Heath HM-2102 VHF Wattmeter
As above, but cover had been painted black, and is no longer Heath green on the top and sides. Front panel is original. $ 40

Heath Amateur Radio Novice License Training Course
This is really great for nostalgia. Course includes study material and code tapes to get up to 5 WPM. Actually, the code tapes would be useful today for Extra class!
All in a large 2 inch notebook. $15

Astatic 527 High Impedance hand microphone
This hand mic is Hi Z and has the 2 pin Amphenol connector on it, as used by the Heath SB and HW line, and others. $30

Heath Parts:

Power cord for Heath HP-23 power supply
This is the cord that goes between the HP-23 power supply, and the transceiver. It has an 11 pin connector on each end, with the protective shells. This one is heavy duty, using a size larger wire than most I have seen. It is in nice shape for $20.

Meter from SB-630
This is the same size meter that is used on almost all of the SB line, including the SB-100, 300, 400, etc. The scale on this meter reads "VU" and "SWR", but the scale could be changed with your present meter if you have one that is burned out. The meter works fine, and it fine cosmetically
as well. $10

I have other SB-630 parts as well. Most of the chassis parts are available, but no clock. Please let me know what you need.

Parts from SB-400 xmtr (likely will also work with SB-401) meter switch - $5
Mic/CW level control (dual pot) - $ 7
Pilot bulb mounting hardware, w/#47 bulb - $2

Parts from Heath HW-202, 2 meter crystal control transceiver
Note: Some of these parts may also work with an HW-2036 transceiver Front Panel - $5
Chrome bezel for front - $ 5
Rear panel w/ heat sink, and final PC Board assembly $10
S meter - $ 5

ORIGINAL Heath manuals. These are the manuals only. They are all originals, and not copies, and all are close to new condition.

Heath HW-2021 Assembly manual - 1975
For 2 meter hand held transceiver
No check marks in book. $10

Heath HN-31 A "Cantenna" Dummy Load
This is the "A" model dated 1982
No check marks in book. $10

GD-600 Photoelectric Light Switch
Very nice condition. Schematic is part of book. $6

Heath IM-5284 Multimeter
Large schematic only - $ 3

These are original manuals only.

For Sale:

Icom IC-04 AT, 2 meter HT
The IC-04 AT covers the 440 MHz band.
It includes a DTMF touch tone pad, and subaudible (PL) tones. Of course it has memories, scan, and all of the normal bells and whistles. It transmits with about 5 Watts in high power and about 1/2 watt in low power. It can be powered with 13 V DC for about 5 W power output, or used with various batteries for slightly lower power output.
This particular unit includes a good BP-8 battery, which is standard power, but high capacity. It includes rubber duck antenna, belt clip, and both operating and service manuals on CD. $70

BP-8 battery pack
These are used on the Icom IC-2AT, 3 AT, 4 AT, 02AT, 03AT, 04AT, 32, and many other of the earlier Icom HTs.
It is the larger, heavy duty NiCad pack, and can be charged with the BC-30 or BC-35 desk charger, a wall wart charger, or 13 V DC.
This one is in very good shape. It holds a charge well, seems to have full capacity, and looks great. $40

BP-7 Battery pack
This pack is used on the Icom IC-02AT, 03AT, 04AT, 32, and many other of the earlier Icom HTs. It is the larger size, heavy duty NiCad pack, that produces about 13 V DC, so can give the HTs the same power output as if they were plugged in to 13 V DC. It can be charged with the BC-30 or BC-35 desk charger, a wall wart charger, or 13 V DC.
This one is in very good shape. It holds a charge well, seems to have full capacity, and looks great. $40

"Dead" BP-7 battery
This battery is basically dead, although you might be able to get a bit more life from it. It is being sold so that you can put a new "insert" in to it, to give a fresh battery. $12

Icom HM-9 speaker microphone
This is the speaker mic that was used with all of the early Icom HT, including the IC-2 AT, IC-02-AT, IC-2G AT, and many others. It also works with many non Icom HTs.
It has a 2.5 mm and 3.5 mm plug. It works fine and looks good also. $18

Radio Shack 19-310 speaker microphone
Has 3.5 mm and 2.5 mm plug; it will work fine with the Icom IC-2AT, 02 AT, other Icom HTs, Radio Shack HTs, plus many other HTs. $18

Yaesu MH19A2B ear bud and mini-mic.
I know it says Yaesu, but it has 2.5 mm and 3.5 mm connections, which works fine with the Icom HTs above. $18

Prices do not include shipping from Florida.

Thanks.

VoComm 2C 100 - 25 amplifier for 2 meters for sale:

This is an amplifier made to give you additional power on 2 meter FM. It will take a rig with about 25 Watts, and produce an output of about 100 watts. Of course it is completely solid state, and has automatic RF switching built in. The frequency range is 140 to 150 MHz, with the center frequency tuned for 146 MHz. It runs off of 13.6 V DC, and needs about 10 to 12 amps of current.

This particular amp works fine, and looks fine as well.

Paper work is included for $75 plus shipping from Florida.

Thanks.
